"MAGGIE BROWN"—(Vol. xi., C. S. B.) foaled May 1st, 1887; dark brown, four white feet, stripe on forehead, bred by Jas. Brown, Newton Farm, Bishopton, Scotland.

"Glenorchy" goes to Carberry, N.W.T., and the two others are retained in the Peterborough district.

A high compliment has been paid the stock of Messrs. Dundas & Grandy's stud by Prof. Greenside, Professor of Veterinary Surgery at Guelph Agricultural College and one of the most competent judges of horseflesh in Ontario. After visiting the principal Clydesdale stock farms in Ontario, Prof. Greenside found what suited him best at "Lowlands" stock farm. And he purchased for the College the fine two year filly "Lady Renwick," (655). She was foaled 19th May, 1886, brown, three white legs, stripe on face, bred by Mr. Walter J. Harkness, Thornhill Dumfrieshire, Scotland. Prof. Renwick is also negotiating for the purchase of another two-year filly, "Jeannie Rae, (654), which won first at Kingston Provincial last fall. No higher testimony could be given the excellence of the imported stock of Messrs. Dundas & Grandy, than a selection of a sample filley from it for the Agricultural college—where only the best is wanted—in competition with the other imported stock of the provinces.

Foreign Mission Day.

Sunday was Foreign Mission Day in the Murray street Baptist Sunday school. The regular services were withdrawn and an interesting programme rendered instead. Mr. Edward Daff, Superintendent, presided. After singing by the school and prayer by Mr. B. R. Matthews, the school recited the missionary creed, containing 11 articles, each class reciting one article. The following programme was rendered :—

Reading—"Mother's Sacrifice" ..Nellie Minore
Dialogue—"What Saith the Scriptures" ..... E Hall, A Smith, R Anderson, H Kidd
Recitation and Singing—"What are the Heathen Gods Like ..... Infant Class
Reading, Bible Class—"Missionary Poem" Mrs. Minme
Recitation—"We're a band of Little Children" ... Infant Class
Address—"Our Mission Stations" ..Miss Macdonald
Hymn—"I'm Glad I'm not a Heathen" .....
Dialogue, girls..... Lily Jones, Ada Bradshaw, Clara Rossiter
Reading, Bible Class—"A Plea for Help" ..Mr. Hardwick
Hymn 32—"There is Life for a Look" ....School
Song—"Give, Give" ..... Infant Class

Miss Macdonald in her address gave an interesting account of "Isaac," the boy maintained in the Coconada College, among the Telugus, by the Murray street school. Prayer by Rev. P. Clifton Parker brought the proceedings to a close.

A Report Denied.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—There is a report current through the town that I did not want my bread weighed when the officers were round. I believe that report arose through a statement in your paper. You stated in your paper of the 1st that I "had no bread on hand, so the police could not investigate." Chief Reesel and P. C. Adams called at my bake shop where there were four four pound loaves, and the dough being prepared for another batch. The four loaves were weighed, and as a proof that they were full weight were left there, and the officers went away. On my way home to dinner Chief Reesel and P. C. Adams met me, stopped and took from my sleigh as much bread as they wished, weighed it, and the chief expressed his satisfaction at the weight of the bread. Please insert these facts and oblige

The Bishopric.

Dean O'Connor to be the New Bishop of Peterborough.

The Roman correspondent of the New York Freeman's Journal announces that the Holy Father has been pleased to approve the decree of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, nominating Very Rev. Dean O'Connor, of Barrie, Ontario, to the See of Peterborough, Canada; but it is wholly untrue that the Bishop of Harbor Grace has been appointed to the Archiepiscopal See of Toronto. Up to the present moment no appointment to that diocese has been made by the Sacred Congregation.

Bishop Dowling has not yet received any official confirmation of his reported translation to the See of Hamilton.

News Nuggets.

—The assessors of 1889 began their labors Saturday.

—A meeting of the School Board is called for to-morrow evening.

—Messrs. Stratton & Hall, barristers, now have a telephone in their office.

—An original young man in town has evolved a new definition for the term religion. He calls it a "fire escape."

—The second term of Mr. J. S. Parker's choral class opens to-night. Parties wishing to join can do so this evening.

—Saturday was Candlemas Day, and Bruin did not have to look twice to see his shadow. If the old tradition is true, we are in for six weeks of hard winter weather before balmy spring sets in.

—At Port Hope, on Wednesday, Jan. 30th, William A. Lavell, M.D., Smith's Falls, was united in marriage to Maggie, eldest daughter of Mr. William Shepherd, also of Smith's Falls.

—The Ashburnham council meets to-night. The chief subject of the programme will be the discussion of the annexation question. A deputation from town is expected over to express their views on the matter.

—To-day a farmer was driving a load of wood across Central Park when stopped by the town clerk and Chief. The man was informed that the pathway was no public thoroughfare.

—The photographer's war that has been raging in town for a couple of weeks past is about concluded, the photographers coming to the conclusion that it didn't pay to cut rates. After this week the usual prices will be charged for cabinets.

—A defeated aldermanic candidate in Kingston furnishes the following report of his canvass and vote :—Persons who promised to vote for me, good moral living men and women, 527; doubtful cases, not so good living, 116; refusals, 25; ballots marked for me, 165; relatives of Ananias, 394. The Kingston man's experience is, doubtlessly, that of some of the candidates in other places.

The Young Men's Work.

In its report of the annual convention of the Y.M.C.A., Ottawa, where Messrs. J. W. Bennett and J. Carlisle are representing the Peterborough branch, the Free Press says :—"Peterborough had a short report, which showed the association to be in good working position. A men's meeting started on Saturday night some time ago with 12 members had now 100 members. They found the gymnasium a great advantage." The latter sentence needs explanation. The Y.M.C.A. here has no gymnasium in connection.

Mr. G. M. Roger has been appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the Y.M.C.A. of Canada.

A Cute Auctioneer.

A George street auctioneer on Saturday struck a new scheme to evade the orders of the police prohibiting bell-ringing on the streets. He stationed a boy at an open window on the second story above the store where the sale was taking place, and from his place of safety the youngster kept up a constant din with the bell. There's more than one way of getting over a town by-law.

Douro.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The council elect for the current year met at the Town Hall at 11 o'clock a.m., on Jan. 21st. After having subscribed the necessary declarations of qualification and office, the several members took their seats, viz., John Moloney, Esq., Reeve; and Councillors Foley, Garbutt, Allen and Walsh. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. The following by-laws were passed :—Appointing Thos. Moloney and M. D. Sullivan auditors; appointing William Condon an assessor; appointing John Moloney (Reeve), William O'Brien (Clerk), P. M. Leahy, G. J. Galvin and David Forsyth members of the Board of Health for the year 1889.

The Reeve and Councillor Garbutt were appointed a committee with power to act in reference to an application of John Moore concerning the removal of trees in front of his lot. James McCliggott was authorized to stay proceedings as regards the removal of obstructions off line of road between concessions 6 and 7, in front of lots 7, as the owner of said lots agrees to keep said portion of road fit for public travel during the winter season. The Treasurer was instructed to furnish the Clerk with sufficient funds to defray postage expenses of council from time to time. The Reeve was instructed to have the insurance on town hall renewed at the expiration of the present policy. Widow (Thos.) Torpey was granted five cords of wood at $2.00 per cord, as charity. The council formed itself into a committee to examine the approach to the bridge known as Burns' Bridge, with power to act. The time for the final collection of taxes was extended to Feb. 1st. Patrick Hogan was authorized to have the road allowance between concessions 2 and 3, opposite lots 17, 18 and 19, centred, cost not to exceed $6 00. Michael Mahoney was appointed caretaker of town hall at a salary of $9.00. William Garbutt was elected Deputy-Reeve for the year 1889.

Council adjourned to the 4th day of March next, then to meet at 10 o'clock, a.m.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

YOU HAVE CATARRH

If you are suffering from any of the following symptoms:

Do you experience ringing or buzzing noises in your ears?
Is your breath frequently offensive from some unaccountable cause?
Have you a dull, oppressive headache, generally located over the eyes?
Do you have to hawk and cough frequently in the effort to clear your throat?
Are you losing your senses of smell and is your sense of taste becoming dull?
Does your nose always feel stopped up, forcing you to breathe through your mouth?
Do you feel as though you must suffocate when lying down?
Are you troubled with a hacking cough and general debility?
Does your voice have a husky, thick sound and nasal sort of twang?
Do you notice a wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing?
Are you generally short of breath, and do you breathe with labor and difficulty?
Do you frequently feel dizzy, particularly when stooping to pick anything off the floor?
Does every little draught of air and every slight change of temperature give you a cold?
Are you annoyed by a constant desire to hawk and spit out an endless quantity of phlegm?
Is there dull pain in your chest be hind the breast bone, or under your shoulder blade?
Are you always tried and indisposed to exertion, whether of business, work or amusement?
Is great effort required to keep your thoughts fixed upon matters that formerly were easily performed
Do you rise from bed as tired and weak as you were the night before and feel as though you wanted to lie there forever?
Do you find the attempt to dislodge the accumulation result in coughing, hawking and spitting, followed by nausea, and often vomiting, especially in the morning?
Are you troubled with a discharge from the head into the throat, sometimes watery and excessive, sometimes mucous, thick, sticking to whatever it touches, sometimes bloody, and nearly always putrid and offensive?

The above are some of the many symptoms by which Catarrh may be known.

Probably not one case in a hundred will have them all, but every case will show more or less of the symptoms. The more of them you have the more serious your trouble, and the more urgent the necessity for a speedy treatment with NASAL BALM and a constant use of it until a complete cure is effected.

CAUTION. The reputation achieved by NASAL BALM from its wonderful curative properties has induced certain unscrupulous parties to place imitations on sale closely resembling the style of our package, and with names similar in sound. Beware of all preparations styled NASAL CREAM, NASAL BALSAM, etc. Ask for NASAL BALM and see that you get it.

If you cannot obtain NASAL BALM from your dealer it will be sent post paid on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 by addressing.

Send for our pamphlet "GEMS OF WISDOM." 9d1w

NAUSEOUS DROPPINGS. Mr. James G. Tennent, Ottawa, says: I am pleased to state that the NASAL BALM has already relieved my catarrh to a very great extent. I have not used one bottle, but the nauseous droppings from the head into the throat has almost ceased. I breathe easy now; get better sleep; and altogether feel and appreciate the wonderful virtue of the Balm. Its merits cannot possibly be exaggerated for catarrhal troubles, and as a cure I believe it to be genuine.

A TEN YEAR CASE O. L. Potter, manufacturer of wooden ware, McIntosh's Mills, Ont., says:—NASAL BALM completely cured me of a case of catarrh from which I had suffered for over ten years. It cannot be too highly recommended, and should be used by everyone troubled with catarrh. It is one of the wonders of science.

UNPLEASANT ODORS E. A. Cardinal, of Montreal, says:—After ineffectually trying many of the so-called remedies for catarrh, I made a trial of NASAL BALM, which gave me instant relief, and since commencing its use I daily note the beneficial changes it is producing after a few applications. It changes the unpleasant odor of the virus in the throat and the poisonous secretions over which every breath must pass. To any thus troubled it is a priceless medicine.

SUFFERED SEVERELY. Mr. Thos. Roche, Rochester, Ontario, says:—I have suffered severely from catarrh, and never got any relief until I used NASAL BALM. I never thought I could find so sure a cure. It is a pity all afflicted with catarrh do not know of and use this wonderful medicine.

STOPPED MY COUGH. Mr. Hadley Dewa Bensall, Ont., says—Your NASAL BALM has done me more good than all other remedies I ever tried. My case is one of the worst kind but BALM has helped me from the start. It has stopped my cough and relieved me of all the unpleasant sensations accompanying the disease. I am confident of a thorough cure, and know a number of others in this section who have all been cured of catarrh by NASAL BALM.

CATARRHAL HEADACHE. WM. H. Sharp Trebess, Man., says:—I am delighted to be in a position to say that NASAL BALM is helping me wonderfully, although I have been using it but a very short time. It speedily cleared out the head and stopped the disagreeable droppings into the throat. For some time I have suffered severely from catarrhal headache, NASAL BALM has removed every trace of it. I have every confidence in its completely curing me. It is deserving of all you claim for it: "A Positive Cure for Catarrh. Easy and Pleasant to use." I hope it will soon be for sale in every town and village in Manitoba.

BREATHE EASIER, SLEEP BETTER.

Mary J. Little, of Muscotah, Kansas, says:—I am pleased to say yes, NASAL BALM has wonderfully helped me, although I have not yet used one bottle. The nauseous droppings from the head into the throat have ceased. I breathe easier, sleep better, and altogether feel a new person. I am glad to offer my testimony for the benefit of others afflicted with catarrh.

EFFECT ON BREATH WONDERFUL.

Miss Addie Howison, of Brockville, Ont., says:—I had catarrh for years, my head was stopped up, I could not breathe through my nostrils. My breath was very impure and continually so. Nothing I could get gave me any relief until I tried NASAL BALM. From the very first it gave me relief, and in a very short time had removed the accumulations so that I could breathe freely through the nostrils. Its effect on my breath was truly wonderful, purifying and removing every vestige of the unpleasant odor, which has never returned.

A CURE IN THE WORST CASE.

Alex. Burns, Sudbury, Ont., says:—I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for seven or eight years, and it was attended by consequent symptoms such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and sickening pains in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of NASAL BALM are: Sweet breath, cessation of the droppings into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing, and not once since I began to use have I had pain in the head. In fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the BALM will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

New Dressmaker AT TURNBULL'S
For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.
Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.
New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

SENATORS TAKE A HAND.

THE ADDRESS DEBATED IN THE RED CHAMBER.

The Fisheries, Relations with the United States and the Possibilities of the North-west Discussed.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—There was a 2½ hours' debate in the Senate yesterday afternoon and the inhabitants of the Red Chamber succeeded in that space of time in disposing of the address, which had been adjourned over from Friday last. There were six speeches made and a goodly portion of the debating talents of the Upper House was brought to the front. The voices of two of the new additions to the chamber were heard for the first time: Hon. G. A. Drummond, President of the Montreal Board of Trade, was the mover and Hon. W. D. Perley of the Territories, who was translated from the House of Commons to make room for the new Minister of the Interior in East Assiniboia, was the seconder.

Mr. Drummond will be remembered by those who attended the late banquet of the Toronto Board of Trade as one of the speakers on that memorable occasion. Mr. Drummond is of course well known to the business men of the Dominion and his speech was naturally on trade topics and the commercial interests of the country.

Mr. Perley, the seconder, who is an advanced farmer in the roaring west, spoke of the agricultural possibilities of the great section which he represents.

The other speakers besides the mover and seconder were Senator Scott of Ottawa, the leader of the Opposition; Senator Power of Halifax, Senator Kaulbach of Lunenburg, and Mr. Abbott, the leader of the Government in the Red Chamber, wound up the talk. All of the speakers referred briefly to the fisheries dispute and the supporters of the Government in the debate of course upheld the position taken by the rulers of the Dominion.

In his remarks Senator Scott said he hoped the Government of Canada were not serious in their announcement that they intended to go back to the convention of 1818 in case a new treaty were not forthcoming. That convention he declared to be barbarous, and certainly he did not think the Imperial Government would sustain the present Government or any other Government that fell back on its provisions.

Senator Power, although opposed to the Government, was glad that the fisheries treaty had been rejected by the United States Senate. "For," said he, "by that treaty Canada gave up a great deal more than she would ever get in return."

Senator Kaulbach and Senator Abbott made a general defence of the position of the Dominion. Mr. Abbott could see nothing for this country in either of the proposals of Commercial Union or Unrestricted Reciprocity. He said they both meant the same thing and neither of them could be realized without annexation. This Senator Scott denied by a series of interpolations and interruptions.

The address was passed at 5.50 and the House rose.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS.

The House Lays the Foundation for a Lot of Work in the Near Future.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The House sat for a little over half an hour yesterday and laid the foundation for considerable work in the near future. The vacant seats are rapidly filling up. Sir Richard Cartwright was in his place, so was Mr. Davies, Prince Edward Island's clever representative. Mr. Blake, who went to Toronto Friday night, had not returned up to the time the House adjourned. Dalton McCarthy was in his place for the first time. Mr. E. Crow Baker arrived yesterday from Victoria, B.C. On his arrival Mr. Baker learned of an explosion in his office at Victoria, by which one of his clerks was injured. He therefore left for home last night. Mr. Baker is in the telephone and electric light business at Victoria.

There were two introductions. Hon. A. A. C. Larivière, who succeeds Governor Royal from Provencher, Man., was introduced by Mr. Joncas and Mr. Macdowall.

Mr. John Waldie, the member for Halton, was introduced by Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Paterson of Brant.

In the absence of Mr. Kirkpatrick Mr. Taylor introduced the bill of the member for Frontenac to aid foreign vessels wrecked in Canadian waters. This is the same bill that Mr. Kirkpatrick introduced last session but the Government did not give it sanction at that time although it is expected that they will do so this session.

Mr. Brown re-introduced his bill to further amend the act for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Being pressed for an explanation he said the object was to prevent the slaughter of pigeons or small birds from traps, to do away with cocking mains and dog fighting. In seeking further protection for the dumb animals he declared that he had the support of every humane society in the Dominion and as well the good wishes of every man of feeling. It received a first reading.

Sir John Thompson introduced a bill to amend the Electoral Franchise Act, Chapter V of the Revised Statutes. He explained that it was in substance similar to the bill introduced last session at a late stage, the provisions of which have already been published. The bill was read a first time.

Sir John Thompson also introduced his bill relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes, which he proposes to have enforced on Sept. 1 next. He explained that the object aimed at was uniformity throughout the various provinces of the Dominion and the assimilation of the law with that of England, except in cases where bills mature on the Sabbath when they are payable the day following, instead of the day preceding as is the case in Great Britain. The alterations in the common law are simply in ratification of commercial usage. The bill was read a first time.

Mr. Boyle's bill to prevent tree pedlars' frauds, etc., got a first reading as did also Mr. Patterson's (Essex) to admit United States vessels to wrecking, towing and coasting privileges on Canadian waters, when the United States has passed a similar law affecting Canadian vessels in United States waters.

In answer to Mr. Perry, the Finance Minister said that $200,000 had been drawn by the Government of Prince Edward Island on Jan. 14 last for local improvements. He could not say what sum would be placed in the estimates towards the building of a subway across the Strait of Northumberland until the estimates were submitted to the House.

Mr. Brown moved for the appointment of a special committee to enquire into fraudulent practices prevailing in various parts of the Dominion by which farmers have been victimized.

Mr. Bain (Wentworth) objected to the expenditure.

Mr. McMullen supported the motion, which was carried.

Capital Notes.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—Mr. Mulock, M.P., arrived this evening.

Mr. Denison will again move for a select committee to enquire into the desirability of the Government acquiring all the electric telegraph lines in Canada. Mr. Denison moved for this committee last session but the Government said it was not prepared at that time to go into the question. He is therefore looking for better luck this time.

Charles Wallace gives notice of a bill for the prevention and suppression of combinations formed in restraint of trade. This is of course the sequel of Mr. Wallace's famous Combines Committee of last session.

Mr. Laurier moves for copies of all papers and correspondence relating to the dismissal of Col. Ross, Collector of Customs at Halifax.

The report of the Auditor-General was laid on the table of both Houses this afternoon. The pages of this bulky volume, which comprises an itemized account of the expenditures of the country for the year, are largely occupied by rows of figures, so that only those who can get hold of a copy. The expenditure of the Fisheries Commission and the Labor Commission came in for a good deal of attention.

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 5.—David Young, a painter by trade who worked here in Cassidy's agricultural works, was found near his home in Perth Sunday morning frozen to death. He left here on Saturday afternoon to visit his family. It is supposed that upon reaching Smith's Falls and finding no connection for Perth he started to walk the distance. He leaves a wife and four children.

PRISON GUARDS ON TRIAL FOR LARCENY AT THE CENTRAL.

Many Removals on "Settling Day"—A Contractor Who is Wanted—Upper Canada College's New Building.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—Edward R. Cates, the foreman of the Central Prison workshops, who is accused of having systematically robbed the prison within the past twelve months, was placed on trial at the Police Court yesterday. Mr. James Massie, Warden, first testified. He identified certain goods produced as the property of the Central Prison, which had been stolen. The articles, he believed, had been stolen by convicts and conveyed beyond the boundaries of the prison by foremen or guards. Prisoners are never allowed out of the prison. Convicts on the morning of release are always searched and could not carry anything out without discovery. Joseph Berry, the ex-convict who made the revelations that led to the arrest, was called and testified clearly against Cates and also against Guard J. H. Spence. The cases were enlarged for a week.

Stephen Nagel and Michael Conners, convicted of burglary, were yesterday sentenced to three years each in the penitentiary.

John E. Sullivan and Thomas O'Neal, the defaulting officials of Indianapolis, passed through Toronto on Saturday night, bound for the Montreal carnival.

Mayor Clarke was in his place at the City Hall yesterday for the first time after his recent severe illness.

The City Hall is haunted by crowds of unemployed able-bodied men. As there are no public works in progress there is no relief for them.

Lida Charlton, 7 years of age, was knocked down by a dog on John-street and had her collar bone broken.

Henry McCall, the well known contractor of Sandwich, has been awarded a contract to construct ten miles of the Canadian Pacific line between London and Windsor. The section is ten miles east of Chatham.

In view of the fact that the winter has been so mild as to leave goods on the shelves of the retailers, it was only to be expected that paper due yesterday would not be fully taken up and the expectation was quite realized. The retail men had not sold the goods and consequently they could not pay. The chief feature of "February settling day" was that the renewals of notes were many.

James Brown, the contractor who suddenly left town on Saturday without paying two weeks' wages to about 20 bricklayers and stonemasons whom he had employed on the erection of three houses in Langley-avenue over the Don, is very anxiously wanted by Mr. W. G. Bee of Chester village, for whom Brown was building the houses. On Saturday morning Mr. Bee paid Brown $500 on account with which to pay the men, but Brown left for Buffalo in the afternoon with the money. Besides losing this $500 Mr. Bee has had to pay $500 more to the workmen and he is thus out about $1000.

Final arrangements for the building of Upper Canada College were completed on Saturday by the letting of the contract to Mr. John Herbert of Toronto. The plans were prepared by Mr. Durand, an architect of London, and provide for a building well within the appropriation of $120,000. The college will stand directly opposite Avenue-road, facing southward on Clinton-avenue, which is to be 100 feet in width opposite the grounds. The building will be 260 feet long in front, with two wings extending northward. The materials used will be Credit Valley grey stone for the foundations and brick for the walls with terra cotta ornaments. It is arranged to accommodate 240 resident boys, with requisite class rooms, bath rooms, gymnasium, etc. The principal's residence, the dining room and the kitchen are situated in the eastern wing. Ample accommodation is also provided for resident masters and servants. The new college is expected to be completed this year.

The annual report of the Chief of Police for the year 1888 was submitted to Council last night. In the introduction the chief recommended an increase in the police force to three constables to every 2000 of the population. The chief also believes that patrol sergeants might be furnished with bicycles in making their rounds of the beats. There were 10,903 arrests during the past year, 9325 males and 1580 females. Of this number 4934 males and 740 females were discharged. The age of offenders ranged all the way from 10 years to 90 years. There were 13 males and 2 females of the latter age before the court. The number of persons sheltered in the various stations were 994. The entire strength of the force at the close of the year was 235.

The City Council last night passed the bonus of $1000 to Mayor Clarke.

George Armstrong, a tailor, aged about 50, who lives in Armstrong-avenue, went home to supper last night between 6 and 7 rather the worse for liquor. He took a cup of tea and put into it a lump of ferrocyanide of potassium, which he had had in the house for two years. He soon became unconscious, and a doctor who was called in could not bring him to his senses. The ambulance at Police Headquarters was sent for, and at 9.45 he was removed to the hospital still unconscious. At the hospital the doctors worked upon him for over an hour and succeeded in bringing him to consciousness, when he was able to explain that he just did it for fun. He will probably recover.

Belleville Briefs.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 5.—The customs collections at this port for January were $3862, an increase of $1578 over the same month last year.

A little boy named Ashbury died on Sunday from the effects of a fall received last week.

Missionary meetings were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday. About $600 were realized.

Mr. L. J. Landers, formerly a merchant here, died on Sunday at Anthody, Kan.

Sunday night was the coldest of the winter, 13 degrees below zero.

A Blaze at Brockville.

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 4.—About 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the premises occupied by G. E. Ashley, King-street, as a tailoring and gents' furnishing establishment. The building was completely gutted and the stock is almost a total loss. Insured in the Queen's for $7,350, building insured for $1500.

A Fatal Draught.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—A young boy named St. Hilliare, in his mother's absence from the house, secured a bottle containing a mixture which his mother used for his eyes but which was poisonous when used internally and drank. His death is momentarily expected.

The Visible Wheat Supply.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—It is stated that the total visible supply of wheat is now 6,212,000 bushels less than on the corresponding date last year.

For Breach of the Medical Act.

WINDSOR, Feb. 5.—J. M. Larter, a resident of Detroit, was summoned yesterday morning for practising medicine in Windsor without being registered as a physician. Chief Baines, agent of the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons, prosecuted. Larter had a doctor's sign on a house on Albert-street and has been practising for some time. Police Magistrate Bartlett imposed a fine of $25 and $4.75 cost, or 30 days. He paid.

"KING FROST" WAS KIND.

MONTREAL REJOICES IN CARNIVAL WEATHER.

The City Gay With Bunting and Thronged With Visitors—Inauguration of the Ice Palace.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—King Frost has been very kind to the carnival festivities and this morning citizens and visitors alike awoke to find the mercury 20 degrees below zero and the weather bright and cheerful. The city is gay with bunting and is becoming crowded with visitors.

Although not on the program the first event was the reception of St. George's Snowshoe Club of Winnipeg. At 8 o'clock a large delegation of the local St. George's Club went to the Canadian Pacific Railway depot only to find the train four hours late. Prominent among the Reception Committee were President Bob Ross, Tom Gilmour, Dank McIntyre and Ross Mackenzie. Sharp at noon the train steamed in and the visitors were warmly welcomed. It was found that only the Winnipeg and Port Arthur branches had arrived, the Brandon and Portage la Prairie boys missing the train, and hence they will not arrive until to-morrow morning. The Winnipegers were taken to the New York House, where they were comfortably quartered and spent the rest of the day seeing the sights.

The first official item on the program was the reception of the Governor-General and party. It was a brilliant and enthusiastic one. The party, which consisted of Lord and Lady Stanley, Miss Lister, Mrs. Colville, Mrs. Bagot, Captain C. Colville (military secretary), Capt. Bagot, A.D.C., Major Provost, A.D.C., and Captain McMahon, A.D.C., were received at the depot by Joseph Hickson, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, and a section of the committee, and escorted thence to the Windsor Hotel through the snowshoers' living arch. This arch, probably owing to the cold weather, was but poorly manned and this part of the reception was not a success, though the boys made up in hearty cheers what they lacked in numbers.

The afternoon was spent by the Vice-Regal party, like the rest of the visitors, in inspecting the ice palace and visiting the toboggan slide, though it was a little too cold to stay out doors very long.

This evening the ice palace was illuminated and despite the drawbacks it had to undergo in the process of building by the mild weather looked very well. It was formally inaugurated by the Vice-Regal party and then there was a fireworks display on a small scale, just enough to show off the beauties of its construction.

After this the toboggan slides, which were brilliantly illuminated, were patronized and then all went to bed ready for Tuesday's program.

Among the chief attractions outside the ice palace is the mammoth ice lion, an exact imitation of Landseer's beauties in Trafalgar-square, London, the work of W. Mathews, father of W. L. Mathews of the Canadian Pacific Railway Hotel at Banff.

To-morrow the chief attractions will be the trotting races on the river track, the Hunt Club hall at the Kennels and the entertainment of St. George's Snowshoe Club.

THE LOCAL HOUSE

Discusses the Question of Providing for the Indigent and Insane.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—The Local House reassembled yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock, and held another short session, dispatching a little routine business. These bills were introduced and read a first time:

By Mr. McMahon—To facilitate the purchase of toll roads by municipalities.

By Mr. Waters—To amend the act respecting mortgage and conveyance of personal property. Also to amend the Ditcher and Water Courses Act.

By Mr. Stewart—To amend the Municipal Act.

In reply to a question by Mr. Meek as to whether it was the intention of the Government to afford to the City of Ottawa and the County of Carleton the advantages of the Torrens Land Transfer Act on the same terms as was afforded to the City of Toronto and the County of York when first introduced, and if not, whether the Government would allow the outer counties to take advantage of the machinery now established at Toronto at the general expense until the business shall warrant the County Councils in assuming the burden imposed by the act of 1887 for the establishment of local registries, the Attorney-General replied that circumstances did not warrant the making of an exception in the case of Ottawa. In reference to the latter part of the question, it had been thought on the whole expedient to make such provision.

Mr. Clarke (Wellington) moved for an order of the House for a return showing the location of any Houses of Industry or similar institutions in the Province, together with statistics as to the number of inmates in each, supposed cause of pauperism, expenditure and other general information regarding such institutions. He trusted that the whole of the information asked for, when presented, would satisfy the House of the advisability of establishing such institutions on the municipal principle. Notwithstanding declarations to the contrary he would venture to assert that they had more indigent persons at the present time in Ontario than ever before. He thought the matter of providing for the deserving poor one worthy of their consideration.

Mr. W. R. Meredith said he would advise the Government to move carefully in the matter, as to make too liberal provision for the indigent might have a tendency to create a class of chronic paupers. He would suggest a general adoption of the manual labor test in the case of those admitted, as statistics proved that such a test had the effect of greatly reducing their numbers. He would, however, gladly indorse any project ameliorating the condition of the deserving poor.

Hon. Mr. Hardy followed at some length, stating that wherever poor-houses had been established the general consensus of public opinion conceded that they had served a good end. He complained of a growing disposition upon the part of municipalities to shirk responsibility by endeavoring to have their indigent supported at the expense of the province.

The motion carried.

On motion of Mr. Clarke (Wellington) an order of the House was issued for a return showing the amount paid out for municipal funds in the Province during 1887 or 1888 for relief of the indigent, etc.

The House adjourned at 4.10 p.m.

R. and O. Annual Meeting.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company was held at noon to-day. These gentlemen were elected directors for the ensuing year: Hon. Thos. McGreevy, D. Desjardins, W. Wainwright, Jacques Grenier, C. G. Davies, John Patterson, N. K. Connolly, W. G. Murray and R. H. McGreevy.

Parsonage at Pembroke Burns.

PEMBROKE, Feb. 4.—About 9.30 this morning a fire broke out in the Lutheran parsonage, which originated from the kitchen chimney. The house was totally destroyed, but almost all the furniture was saved. The loss is covered by insurance.

Lost His Finger Ends.

PICKERING, Feb. 5.—Frank Leavens, an employe in The Pickering News office, had the tips of two of his fingers taken off yesterday afternoon while running a small press.

The Green Hill Far Away.

Continuation of Mr. Parker's Series of Sermons on "Songs of Zion."

On Sunday evening there was a large attendance in the Baptist Church, when Rev. P. Clifton Parker gave another of his popular Sunday evening addresses. The subject was "The Green Hill Far Away." The hymn was composed by Mrs. Alexander, who wrote many hymns, and thus enriched the service of the Christian Church. Among them we have "Jesus calls me o'er the tumult of this life tempestuous sea," and "the Roseate hues of early dawn." She wrote the magnificent piece on the "Burial of Moses," a few verses of which Mr. Parker recited.

The hymn had been honored by being set to music by one of the greatest composers, Gounod. It was published in 1840 and was intended to represent the scene, subject and costume of the Crucifixion. The "green hill" represented Calvary. The writer had fallen into a common mistake in calling Calvary a hill. There was no ground for the almost universal idea of "Mt." Calvary. The Scriptures said a "place," and the most reliable travelers as well as Jews said there was no "hill." Calvary, the place of a "skull." The reason why it was called the place of a skull, St. Jerome said, because there was a tradition the skull of Adam was found there. It was more likely however, that it was because the executions took place there. There was no sanctity to be attached to these places, though it was common to call them "holy places." The name was never afterwards mentioned by any of the apostles, and it was not thought to be holy till the fourth century when Constantine, the Great pretended that he had received divine admonition to uncover the tomb of Christ. Then Catholicism began to transfer reverance from the truths of Christ to the places connected with his life. Mr. Parker disparaged the idea of any "sanctity" being attached to any of these places. He held that the Crusades were all a mistake; that Jerusalem was no more to be considered holy than our own towns, and Palestine than our own country. It was contrary to the spirit of Christianity to transfer sanctity from the Lord Jesus and His truth to the places where He lived and ministered; it simply tended to idolatry. At Calvary the Lord was crucified—crucified with the greatest cruelty, until nature seemed shocked at the evil deed, the sun refused to shed its light upon it, the earth trembled in agony, heathenism, represented by the centurion, was conscience stricken, and the gazing Jews filled with remorse. At Calvary our sins were borne away—"He died that we might be forgiven." Christ was the only one who could have accomplished this—"There was no other good enough to pay the price of sin." The motive that prompted Him was His abounding love—"Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved, and we must love Him too, and trust in His redeeming blood and try His works to do." The sermon was very impressive.

Douro.

Presentation to Rev. Father O'Connell—The Address and Reply.

Following is a copy of the address to Rev. Father O'Connell, of Douro, by his parishioners on Sunday, and the priest's reply. The address was accompanied by a purse of money.

To the Rev. R. O'Connell, P. P., South Douro:—

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHER:—It is with feelings of the deepest regret, that we bear loving children, surround you to-day to say farewell to you as our pastor, and counsellor and friend.

And this task becomes doubly hard, when we call to mind the many year's that you have spent in our midst, years that now reach back almost a quarter of a century, and during all that time you have entered into our joys, and our sorrows, and our hopes, and aspirations, becoming all things to all men that you might gain all to Christ.

You have baptised and instructed our children in the way they should go. You have been ready at all hours of the day and night, to visit our sick and to console them in their afflictions. You have prepared the aged for their eternal home and laid many of them away to rest. You have kept alive in us the true faith of St. Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland. You have, in a word, been a representative of our blessed Lord, going about doing good, rebuking, entreating and exhorting in all patience and doctrine.

And while building up the spiritual temple you have not forgotten the material ones. Like the Royal Prophet of old you have been preparing the material to build up a beautiful edifice wherein to worship God. You have been laboring for years to gather up the handsome sum which you now leave to your successor, and you have signified your intention of increasing that large sum by a most generous donation of your own.

Considering these and many other things, is it any wonder that we find it hard to say farewell, hard to sever these ties that bind us so closely together, ties that are more sacred than those of flesh and blood? But if there is any one thing more than another that you have taught us both by word and example, it is the value of obedience and we obey the voice of our beloved Bishop, knowing that the Holy Ghost places the Bishops to rule the church of God.

We ask you, dear father, in conclusion to accept this purse as an earnest of our gratitude and good wishes. We feel that you will continue to pray for us in the future as in the past, and we trust that you will be spared many years to give the consolation of our holy religion to your people, and finally we hope that you will be happy in your new home, and that we will all meet again in that heavenly home where parting is unknown to those who dwell there.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

JOHN MOLONEY, JOHN M. WALSH,
JOHN LEARY, WILFORD MCCUE,
WILLIAM MOHER, MICHAEL CLARK,

THE PRIEST'S REPLY.

Mr. Rogers, gentlemen and my dearly beloved people:—

I feel to-day like a father about to leave home and family with a prospect of never returning. I feel the trying moment of our separation as priest and people. I feel my authority over you now expires.

When I look back on my twenty-three years spent among you, and consider how comfortable, joyful and happy you made my life, not only by your many acts of generosity, but especially by the practical virtues of your lives, manifested by the glorious testimony and efficacy of your faith. It is no wonder then I should feel the anguish and sorrow of a father about to leave his good, faithful, loving and devoted children.

Before leaving you it seemed pleasing to you to present me with an address accompanied with a substantial purse of $200, as the last mark of your love, esteem and good will. To say that I sincerely and heartily thank you would be too cold a form to express the feelings that now animate me. To say that you surprise me would be to falsify the truth. Your address speaks, too of your own sorrow. I don't doubt it.

I can read the language of your hearts through your tearful eyes, and feel the impression more forcibly than any written address can inspire.

The long experience of your generosity, fidelity and love bound me so close to you that there is nothing in this word that could or would entice or oblige me to leave you but one thing, and that is the will of God made known to me by the voice of our good, kind, amiable, beloved and princely Bishop. Obedience to him is the first duty and obligation of a priest, and to this end all natural inclinations and interests must yield.

I am not too vain to claim all the merit which your affectionate address ascribes to me, neither am I too humble not to feel an honorable pride in your appreciation of my services.

In leaving you, I feel somewhat consoled that I am going to a people like yourselves, with whom I hope I shall be as happy as with you. I rejoice, too, that I have not left you in debt, and that, although I shall not have the honor and merit of building your contemplated church, I leave to my able and esteemed successor, the sum of $5,000 of your contributions for that holy object.

I also rejoice that, in parting from you, I bear with me your love, good will and esteem, which I prize more than all other considerations.

Be assured I shall never forget you in my future home, and whenever I shall bless my people I shall also include you in my benediction.

And now, all I ask you in return is to remember me in your devout and fervent prayers, at home in your family circles and especially when you come here to assist at the holy sacrifice of the Mass, to pray to your Heavenly Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, His holy Mother, and your patron saint, St. Joseph.

So now I bid you a parting and loving farewell, and beg your acceptance of your generous present, to be applied to your new church, and may the blessings of peace, joy, union and charity of the Holy Trinity remain with you and your families for ever.

(Signed)

is the season of the year when colder weather sharpens the appetite, and heartier and more invigorating food is necessary to warm the blood of the body and to repair the waste of the tissues, which goes on more rapidly during the cold weather and under increased activity. We use a few canned meats and fruits that refreshed us during the summer months and take in their place steaks and chops, smoking hot, and the steaming oatmeal and graham cakes and so on.

At this time of the year salmon, pork, lean mackerel and other salt fish, form desirable breakfast dishes; and porridge, omelettes, oatmeal, wheaten cakes and a variety of cereals help make the repast a most delicious one.

MUNCASTER'S

THE BROCKVILLE FORGERIES.

Victims Reticent as to Their Losses—Has the "Professor" a Rest Now?

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 4.—There is still great interest here in the Kaufman case and much speculation as to the amounts lost by the "Professor's" various victims. The sufferers themselves are as dumb as the proverbial oyster and their legal representatives are becoming adept in the giving of equivocal replies. Mr. Ed. Comstock said last night that they had not calculated their losses as yet. He did not wish to talk on the matter. A loss that is large enough to make the Comstocks so desirous of not having it made public is much too large to attempt to figure on.

F. B. Macnamara holds $1202 worth of paper. He has only one forgery, that of Mr. Percy Woodcock's name to a contract for $360. He was out at Smith's Falls last week and the paper he holds signed by people there is all genuine, and a small payment had been made to Kaufman on one of the notes.

Speaking with a gentleman who did business with Kaufman for some time, a reporter of The Brockville Times asked if he thought the Professor had any money put away. The reply was: "Yes, I think he has. He never paid out any cash. Shaven, interest, and principal on all notes were paid by new notes, and he generally got some cash for himself out of the transaction."

"You do not think then," continued the reporter, "that the increase was brought about in the natural course of cash proceedings, and that he is really no better off now than when he started."

"No, I am sure he has money somewhere."

There are many who agree with this view, there are others who hold that the heavy margins he allowed have, during the years in which he has been doing this sort of work, been piling up, until they represent the bulk of the indebtedness.

It is evident that if he gave $60 off a $600 contract and paid 20 per cent. interest on it he would at the end of the three years when he took it up have to execute a much larger forgery. Carrying on this sort of thing for fifteen years would naturally bring about an astounding increase in the face value of the paper he would have to keep afloat.

The Carmen's Strike.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Car No. 101 of the Belt Line left the depot at noon. The son of Supt. Harris drove, a new man from Rochester was the conductor and ten newspaper reporters were in the car. The car started amid the mingled jeers and cheers of the crowds that lined Tenth-avenue. Four other cars followed. After turning into Fifty-ninth-street it was found that the strikers had overturned a truck on the track at Ninth-avenue and all the way across town to First-avenue obstructions were encountered, but the obstructionists did not show fight. The cars went no further than First-avenue. The homeward trip was uneventful. The Belt Line will run no more cars until to-morrow.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 4.—After three months' idleness the coal miners along the Monongahela and Youghiogheny Rivers resumed operations to-day at the old rates.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—The St. Lawrence market was inactive yesterday. The supply and demand were almost nil, and prices were nominally unchanged.

Receipts of hay and straw were small, the demand poor, and prices steady. Hay sold at $13 to $20 and straw at $11.

Trade in the street grain market was quiet. Receipts were small and prices steady. The sales were 200 bushels of goose wheat at 64c; 2000 bushels of barley at 52 to 57½c, and 200 bushels of oats at 36c and 37c.

On call one car of No. 3 Manitoba hard wheat sold at $1.18. For No. 1 hard $1.20 was bid and for No. 2 red $1.06, with none offering.

At farmers' wagons butter sold at 20c for tubs and 22c for rolls, eggs 22c, turkeys, 11c per lb., ducks 70c per pair, chickens 75c per pair, potatoes 50c per bag, oats 37c, peas 63c.

BARLEY.

The bottom has fallen clean out of the barley market. American brewers have this year been using a great deal of the western barley which, although cheap, malts well. This has cut off the demand for the Canadian article, and the supply is greater than the demand. Farmers are unloading on the local market and prices have gone away down. Yesterday the price on the street went as low as 52 cents, the highest being 57½ cents.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports:—Floating cargoes—Wheat, firm, probably dearer; corn nil. Cargoes on passage—Wheat and corn firmer. Mark Lane—Wheat steadier; corn quiet; flour steady. French country markets rather worse. Weather in England, snowing. Liverpool—Spot wheat firmly held; corn quiet and steady. English farmers' deliveries of wheat during past week, 52,790 qrs.: average price, 29s 9d, was 30s 1d.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports:—Wheat, firm; demand improving; holders offer sparingly. Corn, steady; demand fair. Spring wheat, 7s 2d; red winter, 7s 7d. Corn, 4s 1½d. Peas, 5s 9½d. Pork, 70s. Lard, 36s 3d. Bacon, short cleared, 33s and 34s; long cleared, 32s and 34s. Tallow, 31s. Cheese, white and colored, 56s 0d.

A Single Trial

is all that is needed to prove that Polson's Nerviline is the most rapid and certain remedy in the world for pain. It only costs 10 cents for a trial bottle. A single trial bottle will prove Nerviline to be equally efficacious as an external or internal remedy, and for pain of every description it has no equal. Try 10 cent sample bottle. Sold by druggists. Large bottles 25 cents. Avoid substitutes. 6w6d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. A Professional Opinion.

"Rev. F. Gunser, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three busy B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

A Boon and a Blessing.

A boon and a blessing to mankind is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the great pain destroyer and healing remedy for external and internal use. Yellow oil cures all aches and pains, rheumatism, lame back, sore throat, croup, deafness, cramps, contracted cords and lameness. Procure it of your druggist. 2w6d

Look Out for It.

If you are troubled with a cold or cough, however light the attack, look out for it, do not allow it to settle on the lungs; break up the cough by loosening the tough phlegm with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, St. Marys, Ont. 2w6d

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1889.

They're not Annexationists.

The Council of Ashburnham Not in Favor of Becoming a Part of Peterborough—Their Views on the Subject.

Ashburnham is evidently not hankering for annexation. The village council met Monday night, and from the general consensus of opinion it would apvear that our neighbors across the river are quite content to paddle their own canoe for a few years longer. If the councillors voice the sentiments of the people, they apparently fail to see wherein the village would be greatly benefitted by becoming a ward of the young city it is proposed to make Peterborough. There was a large attendance of the villagers at the council meeting, the room being filled—an unprecedented thing in the history of Ashburnham. It showed that the people at least take a deep interest in the question of annexation, if they are as a whole opposed to it. The councillors present were Reeve Burnham and Messrs. Calcutt, Craig and Marshall.

The first business taken up was the hearing of a deputation of "annexationists" from the town council of Peterborough, in the persons of Mayor Stevenson and Mr. A. Rutherford. For some reason or other the remaining members of the committee appointed for the purpose were not on hand.

Mayor STEVENSON broached the subject, pointing out that from the close proximity of the two places and their identical interests they should unite. As a joint corporation with extended boundaries, the city, as it would become, would have increased credit and be better able to encourage industries to locate here and thereby become more prosperous still. Referring to the advantage of manufactories to a town, he instanced Port Hope, where already property had increased in value and rents had gone up in consequence of an industrial boom. Ashburnham and Peterborough would be by annexation. The town, he said, had no particular interests to serve except in the way of increasing its growth and prosperity. In school matters, for instance, the village would receive the same school privileges as the town, if united to Peterborough. He thought it better for both places if they were united, which could doubtless be done by arranging a fair basis of union. As regarded taxation he did not fear any great increase in the rate, as the town's rate was only 12½ mills and the village would not be expected to contribute to the town's indebtedness This matter could be left to a joint committee of the town and village councils.

Mr. MARSHALL asked what benefit the union would be to the working classes.

Mayor STEVENSON replied that the united corporations would be better able to induce factories to locate here, and these would give employment to the workingmen.

Mr. RUTHERFORD spoke next. He drew attention to the desirability of Ashburnham becoming a part of a thriving town like Peterborough, which was the best between Montreal and Toronto. Mr. Rutherford read figures from a financial statement of the town's affairs, showing the assets to be in a healthy and advancing state. He claimed annexation would benefit Ashburnham, and that it would increase the value of property, while it would not, he believed, add to the taxes. He hoped to see the year 1890 ushered in by the incorporation of Peterborough and Ashburnham as a city, with Reeve Burnham as Mayor.

Mr. CALCUTT, speaking of the population qualification, suggested that a census of the two places be taken.

MAYOR STEVENSON stated that the assessors' returns gave Peterborough a population of about 9,500.

Mr. WOOD, Clerk, said the population of the village was 1,450 by the last returns.

REEVE BURNHAM made a short address, first of all denying a newspaper report to the effect that he had expressed himself to Mr. Rutherford as in favor of annexation. That was not the case, because personally he was opposed to it. Still if it was in the

and a majority of the ratepayers wanted it, he would not say aught against it. Referring to the claims made by previous speakers that, as a city, Peterborough would make greater strides than ever, he instanced Belleville and St. Thomas as places that had become poor cities and would much rather afterwards that they had remained towns. Peterborough was well known already as the livest town in the province, and it would not add prestige to become a city. As to encouraging industries by bonus, Mr. Burnham expressed his entire disapproval of such a thing. The question was one that would have to be decided by the ratepayers, and, while he would remain perfectly neutral in the matter, he was fully prepared to acquiesce in the decision of the majority.

Mr. RUTHERFORD was sorry to hear the Reeve express himself against the proposal, because he had understood there was a general feeling among the villagers in favor of it. He himself was firmly convinced that it would be better for both places to be united, because, as a city, both parts would participate equally in a boom of prosperity.

Mr. CALCUTT said he had always entertained one view on the subject, and that was when the two places had sufficient population to become a full-fledged city, it was time enough to think about annexation. He believed that Ashburnham was of as much benefit to Peterborough as Peterborough was to Ashburnham. The village was as prosperous a one as there was in Canada. As regarded the school question, of course the village would reap benefit from the increased school privileges, but they would have to pay for it. He wanted to see the matter fully discussed, and for that purpose presented the following :—

Moved by H. Calcutt, seconded by J. T. Craig, that this council having heard the Mayor of Peterborough and Mr. Rutherford on the question of union with Peterborough, take this matter into consideration, and consult with the ratepayers and decide at a future meeting.

The motion was carried.

Nine Hours A Day.

Commencement of Carpenters on the Curtailment of Working Hours.

There was a fair attendance at the Knights of Labor Hall last night, principally of carpenters. Mr. McGregor, president of the carpenters union No. 375, occupied the chair. The chairman stated he regretted to announce that Mr. Lloyd of Toronto who was to have addressed the meeting, was unable to be present. He would call upon

Mr. JOHN O'BRIEN, secretary of the Knights of Labor, who urged the carpenters to persevere in their organization and efforts and in the end they would gain their point.

Mr. WM. WHITE a carpenter said he believed in the carpenters sticking to the agitation for nine hours. He believed in nine hours to begin with—they could then try for eight hours. The day ought to be divided into three equal portions of eight hours each.

Mr. P. MCNAMARA, bricklayer, said farmers were agitating for shorter hours, and if they were moving in that direction the mechanics should not be behind hand. There were plenty of master carpenters who were only waiting to be asked to give the nine hours.

Mr. Wm. BALL said nine hours was a necessity. He eulogized the composition of the local union of Knights of Labor. Even merchants had shorter hours than mechanics. Master mechanics would be asked in due time to concede the nine hours.

Mr. JOHN HICKEY had no pride in the carpenters of the town in advancing the nine hour movement. Many of them were willing to have a few work to that end and enjoy the benefit.

Mr. Thomas McNamara was in favor of the nine hour movement.

Mr. L. TYRRELL said mechanics had no reason to fear the master workmen. "Bosses" had no monopoly of contracts. If they discharged workmen there were good men among them, who were able to become contractors themselves.

Mr. CHAS. MURTY said carpenters had an advantage over other trades; they did not require capital to undertake considerable building contracts.

Mr. NICHOLL would be glad to see the hours shortened and the pay raised.

The CHAIRMAN read an extract from a speech of the late Ira Stewart, delivered in 1864, showing that reduction of hours would increase wages. In comment the chairman pointed out how the emancipation movement (from the long-hour thraldom) was progressing daily. He insisted on the importance of organization as a necessary factor in success. Most carpenters in town were in favor of nine hours but they seemed lukewarm. If the majority of the carpenters took hold of the movement they would be in a position to make a demand for shorter hours that would be respected.

Mr. HARRY MCGILL said the hod carriers of the town were going to form a union and secure their rights from the builders.

Mr. GEO. BALL emphasized the importance of the organization he had so often insisted on.

The CHAIRMAN said that when the majority of carpenters entered the union they could expect their demands to have greater weight. He thought the appointment of a committee to interview the master builders would, at present, be premature.

Mr. GEO. BALL said the Knights of Labor were in harmony with the nine-hour movement. That body had broad principles embraced in its constitution—it aimed at the general amelioration of the condition of the working classes. They were now moving for legislation in that direction. He referred to the question of exemption—the bill to exempt workingmen's homes up to $600. He condemned the action of the town council in moving to continue the present system of exemption, something that was in opposition to what the working classes were aiming at. He also condemned the exemption of new manufactures. He favored, rather, establishing a colonization company and placing the unemployed laborers of the town upon some of our unsettled lands, where they would become producers and consumers of the products of labor.

Mr. WM. HICKEY was opposed to bonuses, but he believed in limited exemption of manufactures that did not compete with existing ones. He believed the water-power Peterborough possessed, the best in Canada.

Mr. P. MCNAMARA favored all the manufacturers being brought to the town possible even if exemption had to be extended as an encouragement.

COUNCILLOR DAWSON who entered the room was called upon and said he was fully in favor of nine hours. He thought the carpenters should move for it. If they waited till all the carpenters were willing to move they would never get what they wanted. The bricklayers had inaugurated the nine hour movement without trouble, and he had found it worked well.

The meeting adjourned for two weeks.

VOX POPULI.

The EXAMINER, at the close of the meeting, asked a resident of Ashburnham what was the prevailing opinion among the villagers on the subject.

"They're two to one against it," was the reply; "it'll never carry unless it's well talked up."

Ashburnham Brevities.

Mr. D. W. Campbell is to give one of his very interesting lectures on London, in the Mark street Methodist church on the 15th inst.

His Nose Cut Off.

The other day Robert Henderson, while engaged in underbrushing on the farm of J. F. Purdy, Belmont, had his nose almost completely sliced off by a brush-hook which fell on him as he was stooping to pick up a whetstone. He walked to Mr. Purdy's house, a distance of nearly a mile, reaching it when quite faint from loss of blood. Mrs. Purdy was quite equal to the emergency. Placing the mutilated member in its proper place, she bound up the wound with strips of cotton spread with adhesive salve; and today the man's proboscis is quite straight and as "good as new."

"A Hard Case"

And the Trouble That Arose Over It—Taking Advantage of a Man's Intoxication.

An interesting "horse case" was disposed of at the police court this morning, which drew out a large attendance of horsemen and others interested in the trial. Adam Havery who keeps a store on the corner of Edinburgh and George streets, charged "Sandy" Watson and "Sam" Clancy with having fraudulently obtained possession of his little mare. From the plaintiff's statement it would appear that the "deal" occurred about as follows. Tuesday night last at the City hotel Havery, while very much under the influence of liquor, was approached by Clancy and Watson on the subject of horse trading or selling—Havery claims he was selling, the others that they meant trading. Finally the three visited Havery's stable and inspected his little mare. The animal suited Watson, who said he had a horse that was the exact mate for it (the one they had driven up to the stable with), and, after a trial spin of the mare, Havery claims Watson offered him $100 for her. At the same time Clancy said he would give $90 for the Watson horse. Havery's horse was not taken out of the buggy after the trial, but Clancy told him to put the Watson horse in his stable and keep it over night, as his (Clancy's) stables were too full to accommodate it, and to come down in the morning and he would get the $90 balance for the mare. Havery said he wanted $100 cash, but they told him he had $10 of the money already. He denied it, but they told him to search his pockets, and on doing so he found a couple of loose bills that he did not have before. How they came in his pocket he did not know. Havery says he ordered them the $10 and demanded the $100 cash, but they drove off telling him to come down with the other horse in the morning and they would settle it. That night, Havery went down town, but did not see the men he had been dealing with. In the morning he drove the Watson horse down and saw Clancy, but the latter repudiated all connection with the transaction, and told Havery if he wanted his mare he might go and look for her. Then Havery saw Watson, but the latter declared the "dicker" had been a fair trade, that he had got $10 boot for his mare, and that the mare had since been disposed to another party. Havery demanded the mare or the $100, saying that he had no use for the horse left with him. Watson would not give him the money and said the mare had been sold and taken out of town. Havery then had a warrant issued and both Clancy and Watson were arrested yesterday, but admitted to bail till this morning.

Havery's story was largely confirmed by Mr. E. O. Haight. Havery contended that the deal was an out and out sale and no trade. Mr. Moore, counsel for the defendants, said the charge should have been a civil action instead, and he asked for an adjournment, but this was not granted by the magistrate, who advised the defendants to return the horse to Havery and pay the costs of the case; upon agreeing to this the case was dismissed. County Attorney Wood appeared for the Crown and Mr. John Barnham watched the plaintiffs interests.

During the trial a bit of side-play cropped out in the evidence that, as the magistrate said, threw some light on the horse deal. Havery said, on the day the horse affair was talked of, while he was quite drunk, Clancy gave him his watch to trade with another man at Cavanagh's hotel, taking his own (Havery's) as security till he came back. Havery went to the hotel and about the first man he met was one who wanted to trade watches. According to instructions Havery at once made an "even dicker," but on returning to Clancy with the watch got in trade he claims Clancy would not have anything to do with him, saying that he (Havery) had made such a bad deal he would not accept it Havery of course had to keep the other watch, a far inferior one to his own that he had given to Clancy as security.

Not all Night.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

DEAR SIR,—Quite a lengthy letter appears in your issue of to-day in favor of more light and more ho e of it. For my part I cannot see the point. I think all lights should be out at 11, or 12 at latest. I travel a good deal at nights, but I think I could go home from the C. P. R. station on the darkest night without tumbling into snow drifts, keeping sober of course, but it may be possible that the gentleman writing thinks himself of much more importance, especially since he tells us he carries so much money with him. Did he ever think of carrying a lantern with him which would be more economical than keeping thirty or forty electric lights burning for him at the expense of all ratepayers? To be afraid of robbers is a point I could not argue, would suggest that the gentleman carry a revolver for his safety. I wish to say in conclusion that I am opposed to keeping the lights going all night on the ground of economy, as I find that my taxes are quite heavy enough at present, and I do not want them increased for such a purpose as named above.

Yours respectfully,
RATEPAYER.

February 1st, 1889.

Personal.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette says :—Rev. Father O'Brien, who has had charge of this parish for about a year, left on Friday for Victoria Road, where he is to succeed Rev. Father McClosky, who is to go to Brighton. Rev. Father O'Connor has been transferred from Brighton to Fenelon Falls, and will be here by Sunday.

A New Paper.

The initial number of the Orillia Daily Times has reached us. The new paper appeared on the first day of February, and it is alike a credit to the lively little town of Orillia and the pushing newspaper men at its helm. It is a four-page, seven column sheet, almost the size of the EXAMINER, filled with spicily written local news and a large quantity of telegraphic summary, as well as a goodly portion of advertising matter. Rising Orillia was in need of a daily paper, and it is to be hoped the citizens will support the Times.

Special attention paid to the ordering of books. Any American, British or continental book supplied in the very shortest time at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

SMOKE Gladstone, 5 for 25c. at Legros'. Cheap smokers should use Legros' Best, 2 for 5c.; very fine imported cigars, 3 and 4 for 25c. He is selling all best Havana cigarettes that cost 15c. per packet, at 10c. El Padre, 4 for 25c.; Creme de la Creme, 4 and 5 for 25c. One of the handsomest and best fitted shaving and hair-dressing parlours in town in connection. Hot and cold baths ready at all hours. Remember the place, 329 George street. d

Bargains in Blankets.

Blankets at J. J. Sheehy's are sold at such prices that customers may be seen coming out of the store every day with armsful of bargains in the above mentioned goods. See advertisement in this issue.

Skating and Curling.

The Charlotte street rink is now open and ready for use. Good ice for both skating and curling. Skating tickets may be procured from the caretaker at the rink. dw

Leave your order for Magazines, Periodicals, Daily Papers, &c., at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

Charity.

Donation of cast-off clothing will be thankfully received by the W.C.T.U. for the needy in town. Contributions may be left at Miss M. J. Sanderson's store on George street. Also, old linen and flannel for the Hospital.

YOU must have groceries; we must sell em. Let's make a trade. M. R. KIDD.

First of the Season.

Mr. A. Warren who has charge of the conservatory at Mr. A. L. Davis' residence, showed the EXAMINER samples of rhubarb, lettuce and onions ready for table use. With the thermometer down about zero, this may be called "rushing the season."

The Gymnasium.

The formal opening of Brookbank gymnasium under its new management took place last night. Mr. Lennox, late of Chicago, has taken charge of the gymnasium and will conduct it in future. There was quite an attendance of spectators. The programme consisted of a couple of boxing bouts between local experts and other exhibitions of athletic strength and skill.

A Rhetorical Treat.

Mr. John R. Clarke's lecture on "Gough in Humor and Eloquence," in the Charlotte street church last night was attended by a very large audience, who were delighted with the evening's entertainment. Rev. S. J. Shorey occupied the chair. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Clarke at the close of the lecture.

Broom Brushes.

Yesterday afternoon a couple of rinks skipped by Messrs. W. G. Ferguson and R. C. Strickland played for a barrel of flour to be presented to the Home. The Lakefield skip was mulcted.

To-day three rinks of Peterborough curlers went to Lakefield to play a friendly game. The skips were Messrs. Dunsford, Ferguson and Judge Weller.

Turner's Thrift.

Mr. J. J. Turner, of the Peterborough Tent, Awning and Sail Factory, has received the contract for supplying fourteen ordinary sized and five large awnings for the front of the new Snowden hotel building. These awnings will be of fancy striped material and will, of course, be put together in the best possible manner. Mr. Turner is also busy on over a score of orders from the town of Cobourg.

Mechanics Institute.

The quarterly meeting and annual sale of periodicals of the Mechanics Institute was held last night. There was a fair attendance of members, and Mr. Robt. Robertson, President, presided. Messrs. J. C. Brown and C. J. Leonard were appointed auditors, after which the sale of periodicals took place under the direction of Mr. Alexander McNeil. The total amount netted from the sales was $38.90.

Ice! Ice!

A report being in circulation that I will not be able to put in as large a quantity of ice this season as formerly, I wish to contradict the same. On the contrary I am laying in a larger stock than ever and will be able to supply more customers and in larger quantities than ever. Houses filled for private parties, or ice out and loaded on the lake, at lower prices than any one else.

A Pertinent Question.

What is the meaning of that streamer across George street? Evening with Rev. G. W. Dewey! The many friends who were looking forward to the pleasure of hearing Mr. Dewey in his song service and address will be glad to hear that he is better and will be in the opera house next Thursday evening, Feb. 7th. Admission, 10 cents; children, 5 cents. 8 o'clock.

Peterborough's Winter Carnival.

The great Montreal carnival is transpiring this week and it is attracting visitors from all over the world. It will, however, sink into the shade in comparison with the fancy dress carnival that is to take place at the Charlotte street rink Friday evening, Feb. 15th. It will be the only carnival of the season in Peterborough. Prepare for it and keep the date open. d

Second hand pianos and organs from $50. Sole agents for the Karn Organs, prices from $47.00 up. Tuning and repairing done. Jackson & Co., corner of Simcoe and Aylmer streets. dw

The Land League.

A meeting of the Peterborough branch of the Irish Land League was held at the Murray street school last night, Mr. T. Cahill, President, in the chair. As Mr. J. J. Curran, of Montreal, could not definitly engage himself for a lecture here on the evening of St. Patrick's day, it was decided in any event to hold an entertainment on that date, which will be arranged for later. The following gentlemen were appointed to solicit funds for the League :—Messrs. T. Cahill, J. Corkery, C. J. Leonard, J. P. Hurley, J. D. McIlmoyle and W. Rudkins. A committee was also appointed to collect unpaid subscriptions.

The Merchants' Midnight Guardian

A night watchman of the vigilance and activity of Mr. G. W. Gordon is certainly necessity for George street merchants—as a protection against themselves. Mr. Gordon entered upon his duties on the first of last October. He has kept a record of the events of that period, and this record shows that the night watchman is death to "burglary made easy." In four months Mr. Gordon has found 23 shops doors open, ready for the enterprising burglar; of those 12 were back doors, and on two occasions the front door of a non-subscriber was found open. One of the front doors found open was the door in a bank building. On eight occasions valuable articles, which had been out during the day were found outside after the shops were shut. But perhaps the most important of the delinquencies discovered by Mr. Gordon were 8 coal oil lamps left burning, some of them "in dangerous places." All this shows the necessity of a night watchman. Some business men are constitutionally careless and some are so fatigued at the end of a long day of business that they excusably forget to make everything secure before leaving thier shops. Mr. Gordon's remuneration may not be princely, but there is no doubt that he thoroughly earns it. An enterprising burglar, who would have gone the rounds that Mr. Gordon has done, would have found the conditions ready-made for his making a luxurious living from the spoils so temptingly placed within his easy reach.

MONEY Probably not one business man in a thousand who has made a close study of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial in business to have a large circle of acquaintances, in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are hundreds of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county readers and if they knew that they could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large circulation. To such THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER come as welcome and sure benefactors. They are the reliable papers of the Mid land District for merchants to advertise in, and penetrate into every corner of the town and county. Advertising rates are such as will ensure the continuance of business relations with any advertiser after once started. We shall be pleased to give figures for advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER, and send sample copy on application. All letters of inquiry promptly attended to. Address J. R. SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.
Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.
The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.60, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.60.
The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,000 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table :—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in accum. funds.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$189,492 00	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	33,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,398 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,976 84	363,264 31	2,062,924 93
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,607 24	4,088,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,064 48	$10,013,777 60

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

New Dressmaker AT TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

A ROUSER

This Month's Cheap Sale will be the means of saving our customers many hundreds of dollars. The Stock is much larger than usual and Better Value than ever.

This winter so far, notwithstanding the general complaint against mild weather, our business keeps up well. This is considered a proof that we not only give Good Value, but also that our Goods give general satisfaction.

A ROUSER.

The present ANNUAL JANUARY CHEAP SALE is intended to be a regular rouser. That is, we mean that the Goods will be reduced to such Low Prices as to rouse the whole town and district of Peterborough.

Never before have we made such reduction in prices of REMNANTS as are being made for the annual JANUARY CHEAP SALE OF 1889.

Business having been so good of late makes it almost a duty, and, certainly, a pleasant and grateful one to give our Customers a month's opportunity to purchase at specially Low Prices.

A BRIEF SESSION.

THE DOMINION HOUSE SITS ONLY TEN MINUTES.

A Bill to Abolish the Hostage Smasher—The Day of Deputations—Labor Festivities Pouring In.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The days of the deputations have arrived and the pilgrims with axes to grind are wending their way to the Capital. There was quite a batch of them to-day, principally from Western Ontario. The proceedings in the House this afternoon were so brief that the Speaker was not in the chair over ten minutes. The lobbies and the departmental offices were rather brisk during the day, for when there is a slow day in the House you may count on something going on elsewhere.

When the House met at 3.15 a large number of petitions were handed up. The petitions from labor organizations and Knights of Labor assemblies continues to pour in. Mr. Cockburn of Toronto presented about a dozen of them from the Queen City. These petitions are similar to the ones that have been presented to the Ontario Legislature, an important one of a national character being for the proclamation of an annual holiday all over the country to be known as "Labor Day."

Herman Cook signalized his first day in the House by introducing two bills, which however are not unknown in Parliament. He introduced them last session but they were kindly slaughtered for the time being. Mr. Cook's first bill provides for the examination and licensing of persons employed as stationary engineers and all persons having charge of steam boilers and other devices under pressure.

His other bill, if passed, would probably fill "a long felt want" and relieve a long suffering public. It provides simply that railways in this country shall not be permitted to dump passengers off passenger trains into snow banks and mud piles, but they shall deposit them on properly constructed platforms. Also that the baggage smasher shall be looked after with a sharp stick and that he shall not be permitted to wreck the traveling convenience of passengers at his own sweet will. Mr. Cook said these abuses were practised on every railroad in Canada.

The Postmaster-General laid upon the table the annual report of his department.

The Minister of Finance presented the report of Mr. Simeon Jones of New Brunswick, the commissioner who went to the Argentine Republic, Brazil and Uruguay to see if the trade relations between these great countries and Canada could not be extended. Mr. Jones is full of hope for the results if our Government can give and take concessions.

Just before adjournment Mr. Laurier said: "Mr. Speaker, I wish to call the attention of the leader of the Government pro tem. to the fact that I intended, had the First Minister been in his place, to call his attention to the various important changes that had been made in the Cabinet since the last session of Parliament and to ask him to give the House an explanation of the various shuffles. However, I will defer the question until to-morrow."

Sir Hector Langevin: "I will mention the question to the First Minister."

WAR, CHEESE AND STEAMSHIPS.

What Various Deputations Wanted of Ministers Yesterday.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Mr. Smith and Mr. Madill, two Conservative members from the County of Ontario, saw the Minister of Militia this afternoon with reference to a new drill shed at Whitby. Whitby is the headquarters of the 34th Battalion. Col. Otter D.A.G. has already reported in favor of removing the present drill shed to the fair ground, which it is claimed would suit the purposes of a parade ground, a brigade camp, and the building itself could be used for exhibition purposes. Whitby's present drill shed is said to be in the last stages of dilapidation. "I will do the very best I can for you," said Sir Adolphe Caron to his interviewers.

Henry Corby to-day introduced a deputation of Belleville cheese men to the Ministers of Finance and Customs. They want the Government to put a duty on liquid rennet, which is extensively used in the manufacture of cheese, for the benefit of persons in Canada who are desirous of entering into its manufacture. At present all the liquid is imported from the United States.

Mr. F. W. Polson of the Polson Iron Works, Toronto, had an important interview with Mr. Bowell and Mr. Foster to-day, and he will see the ministers again to-morrow. Mr. Polson wants to engage extensively in the building of steel steamships and he is now building a mammoth ship for the Canadian Pacific Railway's upper lake service at Owen Sound. This ship will replace the wrecked Algoma.

Mr. Polson wants to have admitted free of duty certain large steel plates and other castings which are used in the construction of steamships. He says they cannot be made in Canada owing to their size. Mr. Polson pointed out that a steel ship which was put together in Glasgow could be brought into Canada free of duty, but the various parts could not. He is promised plenty of work in his yards at Toronto and Owen Sound if the Government will re-model their tariff as applied to the building of iron and steel steamships. The American Government, he said, allowed the Cibola to be fitted with steel plates at Ogdensburg free of duty because of the labor it afforded mechanics at that point. He has promised to furnish the ministers with a list of what he wants free and what he is willing to pay duty on to-morrow.

John Small and John McDougall (Picton), M.P.'s, were present at the interview. Mr. McDougall spoke enthusiastically of the blast furnaces of his province, but regretted that they could not cast plates large enough for Mr. Polson's wants.

A Scramble for Plums.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The Government has already received several applications for the position held by the late Mr. Moodie, as general agent of the Intercolonial Railway at Toronto. Mr. Weatherston of Toronto arrived in the city this morning and is being backed by several of his friends here for the position. His stock is said to be well up. Several other applicants came from Toronto, among them being Mr. Sam. Beaty.

There is quite a scramble after the vacant postmastership at Goderich. Mr. Thomas Farron, ex-M.P., wants it, but Mr. Porter, the member for West Huron, in which riding Goderich is situated, has got another gentleman for the position. The betting is good that Mr. Porter's man will get there. There is a deputation here in connection with the matter.

The Labor Commission, who are now engaged in drafting a bill for presentation to Parliament at the present session, met in the City Hall this morning and discussed their business with closed doors. The commission will hold meetings for at least three days yet in order to include in their bill all questions pertaining to labor.

Mr. Edgar will move on Feb. 18 for copies of all documents, papers and correspondence relating to the seizure or release of the American ship Bridgewater at Sherburne, N.S., in the possession or control of the Canadian Government, including all correspondence which has taken place on the subject between Great Britain and the United States, also copies of all claims which have been made to recover damages from Canada for the seizure and detention of the vessel.

Desmond Downed by Davis.

NEWTOWN, L.I., Feb. 5.—Jim Davis and Jack Desmond of New York fought eight rounds here early this morning under Marquis of Queensberry rules. Davis forced the fighting and knocked Desmond down in the 1st, 2d and 8th rounds. Desmond refused to fight another round and was berated by his friends for lack of courage. The fight was awarded to Davis. Neither man was much the worse for the contest.

A Rumor That Greenway Is to be Supplanted by Martin.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 4.—The Free Press says editorially that an effort is on foot amongst the followers of the Local Government to force the retirement of Premier Greenway, who would be supplanted by Attorney-General Martin.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

THE IRISH PART OF THE TIMES CASE FINISHED.

Police Inspector Martin's Murder—Immense Conflagrations in Mandalay—The Stannard Dynasty.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—At to-day's session of the Parnell Commission Attorney-General Webster said he had finished with the Irish portion of The Times case and would now take up the American part.

A witness named Beach testified that he joined the Feminas in 1865 and was appointed military organizer. After the failure of the invasion of Canada by the Feminas he joined a society known as the "B. C.," the object of which was to provide money to carry on the Irish agitation and to ship arms to Ireland. Witness said he remembered the visit of Messrs. Dillon and Parnell to America in 1880. The meetings held during their stay in the United States were organized exclusively by the United Brotherhood or Clan-na-Gael. Witness attended several meetings at which Dillon and Parnell were present. Parnell attended the demonstration in Chicago at which bodies of the Clan-na-Gael and the Hibernian Rifle Guards were under arms. Beach produced a copy of the Constitution of the B.C. or Clan-na-Gael. It provided for concerted action with the Irish Brotherhood and kindred societies to bring a combination of the Irish revolutionary movements in all parts of the world to act decisively against England. Witness said in 1878 Devoy and Millen were sent as delegates to Ireland, receiving $10,000 from the Skirmishing Fund and a further sum which does not appear in the official lists.

Beach said Egan also told him many payments were made by the League which it was impossible to make public and he instanced the paying of Dutch officers out from Amsterdam to assist the Boers during the Transvaal war. The witness had two interviews with Parnell. The first was held in the house of A. M. Sullivan at Clapham and the next in the lobby of the House of Commons, where, after conversing with O'Kelly and Parnell together, he had a talk with Parnell alone. Parnell said it rested wholly with the leaders of the revolutionary party to bring both parties into line. He asked witness to get Devoy to meet him in Paris and offered to defray Devoy's expenses. He also desired to meet Alexander Sullivan, Hines and others.

"Doctor," he said to Beach, who is a physician, "I have long since ceased to believe that anything but force of arms can bring about the redemption of Ireland." Parnell also said he did not see why a successful insurrection should not happen in Ireland, adding: "I think we will have at the end of the year $100,000 in the League treasury. That's a pretty good nucleus. You people might do something more."

On seeing Parnell a third time witness conversed with him for a few seconds only and on bidding him good-bye he got his photograph, signed "Yours truly, C. S. Parnell," as a memento. He would produce the photograph.

Witness then went to Dublin leaving letters of introduction to Mr. Kenny, M.P., and others of the League. He discussed an open movement with Sexton and Kenny. He was driven by Kenny to Kilmainham Jail, where he saw Dillon, Sheridan and Boyton. He returned to New York in June, 1881, and tried to see Devoy and Carney with Parnell's message. He met Brealin, who with Hines and Devoy formed the revolutionary directory. Brealin expressed willingness to bring both parties into line, so also did Sullivan, Hines and Devoy, whom he met in Chicago. Dr. Carroll expressed himself as pleased to see that Parnell was returning to his senses on the revolution question, but he objected to any coalition between organizations.

Witness was introduced to Parnell and others of his party as Major Lecaron, under which name he had been known for the past 28 years. He attained the rank of major in the Federal army during the civil war. He was also a major in the Irish republican army. He was graduated M. D. after the failure of the raid on Canada. When he returned to America he got a circular from the "V. C.," meaning the Executive Council of the Clan-na-Gael, announcing that it had been decided to call up the 25 per cent. D fund or camp subscriptions to expedite military preparations.

Inspector Martin's Murder.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Details are at hand of the murder of Police Inspector Martin at Derrybeg, County Donegal, showing the fight to have been much more desperate and of larger proportions than at first reported. The police have taken possession of a number of palings, posts, etc., stained with blood in spots corresponding with the gashes upon Martin's head and body. Martin slashed his assailants with his sword and was himself cut with various weapons until he fell to the ground insensible. Father McFadden escaped through the line of police and took refuge in a house to which Martin was subsequently conveyed. His head and face were mangled beyond recognition and he died soon after reaching the house. Seven constables were severely cut in the melee, one of them having his lips split with a blow from a sharp instrument. Father McFadden surrendered to the police and was committed by the magistrate without bail.

O'Brien Clothed and in the Infirmary.

DUBLIN, Feb. 5.—The prison officials at Clonmel have returned to William O'Brien the civilian clothing that was forcibly removed from him and it was immediately donned by the prisoner. Mr. O'Brien has been removed to the infirmary.

Immense Conflagrations in Mandalay.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Advices from Burmah announce that Mandalay has been visited by two immense conflagrations. In the first the flames destroyed 532 houses, a bazaar and a Buddhist monastery. In the second 800 houses were burned. Both were accidental.

"The Bismarck Dynasty."

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Empress Frederick is much distressed by the publication of the Bismarck article in The Contemporary Review and is particularly indignant that the authorship or inspiration thereof should be ascribed to her. She denies all knowledge of the article prior to its publication and is reported to have said that had she been aware of the intention of its author to publish it, all the influence that she might have possessed would have been used in the direction of preventing its appearance.

Rudolph's Obsequies.

VIENNA, Feb. 5.—This city was to-day entirely given over to mourning. The Emperor and Empress and Crown Princess attended a requiem mass in the oratory of the palace at which the "Miserere" was sung by the court choir. The services ended at noon. The church bells then tolled. The funeral services held in the Capuchin Church were most impressive and the Emperor was deeply affected.

St. Paul Society Surprised.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 3.—All Anthony Park, an aristocratic suburb of St. Paul, is in a flutter over an elopement which has just occurred. The principals are Ozias Amen, a cousin of the Governor of Massachusetts, and Miss Emma Watson, the pretty assistant-postmistress at the park. Young Amen has recently attained his majority and is the proud possessor of some $600,000 in gold cash.

LORD STANLEY "BOUNCED"

VICE-REGAL DIGNITY BOWS TO THE FUN OF THE CARNIVAL.

The Second Day's Festivities at Montreal Carried on in a Furious Snowstorm—Hunt Club Ball.

MONTREAL, Feb. 5.—The second day of Montreal's winter carnival was ushered in by a snow storm, which raged with fury all day and effectually put a stop to all outdoor sport, except tobogganing, snowshoeing and sleighing. The trotting races fixed for this afternoon had to be postponed.

The Vice-Regal party spent the morning quietly in their rooms at the Windsor, receiving a few informal callers. In the afternoon Lord Stanley and staff braved the snow storm and drove out to the Tuque Bleue toboggan slide, where, after receiving a hearty bouncing at the hands of the big crowd present, he inaugurated the sliding by declaring the slide open and rushing down the icy incline himself several times.

Crowds of people have been pouring into the city all day, the railways are taxed to the utmost, and this evening, despite a slight blockade owing to the snow, all the hotels are crowded. The number of visitors is far in excess of any previous year.

Everybody is on the qui vive for the great event of to-morrow evening, the attack and defence of the ice castle, in which 2000 snowshoers, including the Winnipeg, Quebec and New York delegates, will participate. Another attraction of to-morrow is the snowshoe races in the afternoon.

This evening the weather cleared and all the resorts were crowded with visitors. The children's fancy dress carnival in Victoria rink was witnessed by thousands and pronounced the grandest affair of the kind ever seen on the continent.

Later on was the ball at the Kennels, given by the Hunt Club, which the Vice-Regal party and the elite of Canadian and American society attended. It was very exclusive and tickets couldn't be had for love or money. Every Canadian city from Vancouver and Winnipeg to Toronto and Halifax sent belles to grace the ballroom, which was a perfect bower of beauty.

One of the events of the day was the private luncheon given by Manager Woodruff of the Hotel Balmoral to the visiting journalists. About 30 sat down to an elegant repast.

Owing to the crush at the hotels it is impossible to obtain anything like a full list of the Ontarians here, but among many hundreds are: J. C. Hurst, H. O'Hara, F. Armstrong, T. Tomlinson, J. Rogers, W. Bell, Mrs. J. Burton, Mrs. J. Lee, M. Maloney, G. W. Reinhardt, Miss Tozner, Mrs. Christie, Mrs. and Miss Denison, Miss Rose of Toronto, Miss Ramsay, H. J. Wright of Hamilton, Miss McCabe of Port Hope.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

Nine Private and Three Public Bills Introduced—The Voters' Lists.

TORONTO, Feb. 6.—Our legislators put in what might be called, for them, a full half day's work, yesterday. They sat two hours. The volume of petitions is on the increase, and bills are piling up wonderfully. The Private Bills Committee in the afternoon organized with Mr. Gibson as chairman, and its first act was to extend the time of receiving bills another week.

Nine private and three public bills were introduced. The most important of these was a bill by Mr. Leys to confer certain powers on the Board of Trade. It is to compel the attendance of witnesses in arbitration cases, the taking of evidence under oath in such cases, and enforcing the awards of arbitrators.

The time of the House was chiefly occupied by the consideration of the bill respecting voters' lists. Hon. Mr. Fraser explained the charges made, which by the way are generally unimportant and were only found necessary in order to make the provisions of the bill conform with the Manhood Suffrage Act passed last session.

Dr. Gilmore (West York), is endeavoring to get a bill through the House to incorporate a Belt Line Railway Company round the city. He introduced it.

Mayor Clarke, John Leys and H. E. Clarke, M.P.'s, with Ald. McMillan, City Treasurer Coady and City Solicitor Biggar held a consultation with the Attorney-General last evening regarding the consolidation of the city debt. Ald. McMillan explained that the city wanted power to use permanent debentures, a power which is enjoyed by Montreal. Mr. Mowat promised to give the petition of the city now before the House his best attention.

Amongst the petitions presented in the Legislature yesterday was one from the city of Ottawa asking power to borrow $150,000 for the extension of the waterworks system.

Commissioner of Crown Lands Hardy dines the members of the House and prominent citizens at the Reform Club this evening.

Mr. Clancy asked what time the Factory Inspector's report would be submitted. Mr. Fraser replied it was in the hands of the printer.

A large delegation of druggists conferred with the doctors who have charge of the Druggists Bill in the library yesterday and set forth the grievances which the measure would remedy.

STORM IN ONTARIO.

Terrific Wind and Heavy Snow—Railway Blockade at Owen Sound.

OWEN SOUND, Feb. 5.—Last night and this morning's storm is the worst that has visited this place for years. The wind averaged fifty-eight miles per hour from the north and west. Roads are almost impassable. The morning train due to leave at 5.45 a. m. is still here. The thermometer went down to zero.

KINCARDINE, Feb. 5.—A very severe snow storm has been raging here since 9 o'clock last night. Country roads in every quarter are blockaded, and all trains are behind time to-day. The temperature stood 10 degrees below zero this morning.

BARRIE, Feb. 5.—Snow fell here last night to the depth of fully one foot, and considerable drifting following the roads are in a bad state, but not impassable. The trains are not much delayed so far. The snow plough is at work on the Muskoka branch.

Destructive Fire in Petrolia.

PETROLIA, Feb. 5.—About 12.30 to-day a fire was discovered in Van Tuyl & Fairbank's large store-room building in rear of their store. The building was completely gutted, in the building was a large assortment of stoves, rope and hardware.

An unusually large number of burglaries and petty larcenies have been committed in Toronto during the past few days. Two boys entered the store of E. Hardy, 448 Queen-street west, yesterday and ran off with two pairs of boots. A sneak thief entered the Toronto Club on Saturday night and made off with a South Sea seal skin cap belonging to James McDonald. The residence of W. T. Bull, 153 Queen west, was entered on Monday night and a dolman belonging to Mrs. Bull and a quantity of clothing stolen, all of which was recovered. The butcher shop of William Kerr, 24 Arthur-street, was broken into on Monday night and $3 taken from the till. The rear door of Deck & Son's shoe store, King-street, was entered yesterday morning and two pairs of boots stolen. One pair was found in a lane near the premises.

J. R. STRATTON.

The Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1889.

Vindicating Bridgenorth.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly allow me space in your columns to correct some of the statements made in Dr. Clark's report to the Reeve and Councillors of the township of Smith, respecting his investigation of the cause of so many cases off typhoid fever last summer and fall in Bridgenorth.

He heads off with domestic carelessness and want of cleanliness as a chief cause, polluted well water a prominent Factor, Fobert's well the purest in the village. Now Mr. Fobert's house was the first in which the fever broke out last year. If the water in his well was good, why did the fever start there? And with regard to the way Mr. Fobert's house is kept, I have never seen in my travels a better or quiter hotel. As to cleanliness it is the first insinuation of the kind I have ever heard. Next the fever broke out in my house, and I don't know any particular reason for it. At one time I thought that probably I got it removing my old shop, working at the rotten foundation and levelling up the grounds to build a more healthy and convenient place. But why did not other men who worked with me receive the same injury? There were four in my house who began to complain of feeling ill at or about the same time, two of whom, never worked at the building. With regard to the dead pig under the old building, we found a skeleton of two small animals, and probably a pig skeleton. On investigation I think it has been impossible for them to have gotten in there for the past twenty years, as the foundation was on the ground for a long time. It is only five years since I purchased the shops and never found any disagreeable stench about the buildings since. Had I, I would soon have ferretted out the cause. The building had been up for over 36 years and probably those bones were thrown under the shop out of the way. We do things differently in our age. But the doctor never saw the bones. With regard to the cow question, as some may think my cow is the one referred to, I may say my cow is a young five year old and never was sick to the best of my knowledge. I would be likely to know if she was. There was a cow sick in the village but her owners neither sold or used any of her milk, neither had they any fever last summer. I hope my cow was not mean enough to blame the unfortunate sick cow, and say she ought to be hanged because she had typhoid fever, as our unmerciful professor puts it. I would like to know what the doctor means or what he calls slops which he says some of the villagers have thrown on the streets. I do not believe that a few potato peelings or crumbs thrown out for pigeons or dogs, if not called for, for a few hours would cause typhoid fever. And the manure heap in question at one of our villagers stables is removed regularly twice a year. The professor had better go to the country and visit some of the old barn yards which have not been cleaned out for years and see if any one has died from the effects. He says it was reported that and immediately multitudes of dead animals lined our lake shore. I am glad he found none, and I have been a good deal about the lake shores during the past five years and like to spend mornings and evenings there; but never discovered anything of the kind there and don't know of anyone who has. As for the lake shore being marshy, well, for five miles along the shore each way from the village you can travel dry shod at almost any season of the year, and the shores are clean and beautiful. I must say he is also mistaken about the water being lower in the lake last year than other years; that is far from being a true statement.

I confess that there have been complaints about a pig pen on one of the side streets, but I think the people intend to remove it in future. I have no such nuisance on my premises. He also gives another exaggerated report. He reports twenty-seven cases of typhoid fever and bad cases at that. Now, that is also a mistake. Dr. Caldwell had ten patients in the village, Dr. Pigeon four, Dr. Boucher one. Our old school master once told us that 10, 4 and one made 15; and over half that number had the fever so light if it were not for the symptoms it would be questionable whether they ever had typhoid fever or not. Some of them were not one whole day in bed, some a week or two. There were a few bad cases, but all have been well now for months and look and feel better than before they had the fever. I know one thing if we take care not to violate the laws of nature, no professor in the world can change the Almighty's will if He see fit to allow us to be chastened. Typhoid fever has been a prevalent disease this year, not only over our fair province but in many other countries as well. Our village is far above the average for carefulness in the respect of cleanliness.

And now, Mr. Editor, I feel it my duty to defend our villagers and my own interests as well. There are other correct ones I might make, but I simply say we will not be imposed on by any professor who makes $54 as easily as Dr. Clark did that day. I have spent two thousand dollars ($2,000) in building a comfortable home and shops during the past three years. We considered everything with regard to cleanliness and health and think Dr. Clark's libel unfair. Of course he got a lot of his information from village gossip, as he went to a few of the old women and asked some of them just one or two questions. Remember, we have a large number of old people here who are not chocked with dirt yet, and our village is noted for healthfulness. People resort to it in crowds during the summer season, and about ten or twelve new summer homes have been erected during the past three years. Now what does that appear like? I understand our council fathers have said they will not employ a professor to investigate such matters on the same terms again. The doctor no doubt has been misinformed, and all we want is fair play. I wait a reply.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH SUGAR.

P.S.—Since I started to write I have also received the intelligence that the fever was brought to the hotel from Peterborough, by a young man who came there to board, said he felt ill some days before he came there. He went home to Peterborough a few days after with typhoid fever, and immediately after that came the outbreak of the disease.

The Wigmore Milk Case.

An Important Decision—Conviction Quashed.

The following report of the decision of the Court of Queen's Bench in the appeal in this case will be read with interest:—

REGINA v. WARDE.—Defendant was, in July, 1888, in the town of Peterborough, convicted before the County Police Magistrate for selling milk to the cheese factory at the village of Warsaw, from which the cream had been taken, contrary to the provisions of 51 Vic. (Ont.), cap. 32, sec. 1. The conviction was brought up on a certiorari, and the grounds of the motion were that the Act under which the conviction was had was ultra vires and other grounds.

Held, STREET, J., dissenting, that the statute is ultra vires as coming within the class of criminal law reserved exclusively to the Parliament of Canada by the B. N. A. Act s. 91, par. 27.

Per ARMOUR, J. C.—The primary object of this Act is to create new offences and to punish them by fine, and in default of payment by imprisonment, and this is its true nature and character.

The result sought to be obtained thereby is, no doubt, fair dealing; and this is the result sought to be obtained by making the obtaining chattels, money, or valuable securities by false pretences, with intent to defraud, an offence punishable by imprisonment.

It is sought by this Act to bring about the result that persons contracting to deliver milk to a cheese and butter manufactory will be deterred from dishonesty in carrying out such contracts, and in this way this legislation has relation to property and civil rights, contracts and the enforcement of them, coming clearly within that definition.

But its relation to "property and civil rights" is much more remote than its relation to "criminal law"; and it is under the latter class that it must be ranged.

And coming, as I must hold it to come, within "criminal law," it cannot come within matters of a purely local or private nature.

Per STREET, J.—The punishment imposed by the statute are directed to the enforcement of a law of the Provincial Legislature relating to property and civil rights in the Province; the offences created by it formed no part of the criminal law previously existing, and the apparent object is to protect private rights rather than to punish public wrongs.

Conviction quashed. No costs. Usual order for protection of magistrate.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year old, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

Severe Scaly Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

The Supreme Court Knock Down Off Laflamme's Judgment Against The Mail

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The Supreme Court gave judgment this morning in the now famous libel suit appeal of Laflamme v The Toronto Mail. Chief Justice Ritchie was not in his place, owing to illness, and Mr. Justice Strong voiced the judgment of the court. The judgment disallowed the appeal but reduced the amount of damages from $10,000 to $6000. Mr. Laflamme is given ten days to accept the verdict or in lieu thereof a new trial will be ordered on behalf of The Mail.

This suit has been before the courts for a period of three or four years and has been vigorously fought by The Mail people. It will be remembered that the plaintiff, who was originally charged by The Mail with inventing a patent ballot box stuffer, recovered $6000 on that score and $4000 was obtained on the plea of justification which Mr. McMaster, ex-M.P., filed. The justification traduced Mr. Laflamme's private character and he succeeded in raising the judgment from $6000 to $10,000.

It is understood that in case of Mr. Laflamme's non-acceptance of the $6000, which The Mail also offered before the case reached the Supreme Court, they will go on to the Imperial Privy Council with it.

The costs of the actions in the lower courts are awarded to Mr. Laflamme, these amounting it is said to something like $6000. No costs on appeal were awarded.

This sum is the highest that has ever been awarded as damages for any libel in Canada.

OVERPAID DUTIES.

Mr. Magann Wins His Suit — Shorthand Reporters on Strike.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—G. P. Magann of Toronto won an important suit against the Government in the Exchequer Court before Mr. Justice Burbidge to-day. The suit has created considerable interest among lumbermen and the plaintiff won his case hands down. It is said he will recover about $12,000 of overpaid, or rather wrongly imposed, customs duties. The money was paid on sawn white oak, cherry and other lumber which was imported from Michigan in 1887 and 1888, which the customs officers claimed were manufactured goods. Judge Burbidge awarded the return of these dues without hearing the address of counsel for Mr. Magann. Dalton McCarthy and Frank Mackelcan of Hamilton. Mr. Sedgewick, Deputy Minister of Justice, and Mr. D. Hogg of Ottawa appeared for the Government.

In connection with the present sitting of the Exchequer Court a funny contingency has arisen: There has been a strike among the shorthand reporters now in the city who are members of the Canadian Shorthand Association. The members of the Hansard staff belong to this Association. By a recent order-in-council the Government will not pay more than 15 cents per folio for court work and the reporters must furnish four copies of the evidence. The Hansard staff are supposed to be available for this work, but Parliament being in session they could not be obtained. Then the services of outside reporters were called in, but they would not work for less than tariff rates, 20 and 25 cents per folio.

THEY RODE IN THE SWILL SLEIGH.

Attempted Escape of Two Convicts from Kingston Penitentiary.

KINGSTON, Feb. 5.—This afternoon two convicts at the Kingston Penitentiary, F. M. Carroll and W. Black, made a daring but unsuccessful attempt to escape. They secreted themselves by means of a false bottom in the swill sleigh, hoping thereby to pass outside the walls. Their plot was discovered and frustrated by the guard at the north gate. Carroll was from Brampton and was admitted to the prison on June 16, 1886, to serve six years for housebreaking and larceny. Black was from Simcoe. He entered Nov. 5, 1884, to serve ten years for burglary. Jarvis, who drove the sleigh and was in the plot, came from Toronto on August 27, 1886, to serve three years for highway robbery.

A Collision in a Snowstorm.

SUNDRIDGE, Feb. 4.—As the mixed train from the south, due here at 6.10 p.m., was approaching the station she ran into a freight train which had just arrived from the north and was backing into the siding. The engine of the north-bound train was thrown off the rails and considerably smashed up. The driver and baggagemen received some injuries, but no one seriously hurt. The semaphore was up, but on account of a blinding snowstorm it could not be seen at a great enough distance to prevent the collision.

A Professional Opinion.

Rev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three boys B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

A Boon and a Blessing.

A boon and a blessing to mankind is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the great pain destroyer and healing remedy for external and internal use. Yellow oil cures all aches and pains, rheumatism, lame back, sore throat, croup, deafness, cramps, contracted cords and lameness. Procure it of your druggist. 2w6d

Look Out for It.

If you are troubled with a cold or cough, however light the attack, look out for it, do not allow it to settle on the lungs; break up the cough by loosening the tough phlegm with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, St. Marys, Ont. 2w6d

SHEPPARD'S OLD STAND, UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK,

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockolorums of the Clothing Trade.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1889.

The People Shall Decide.

Whether a New Collegiate Institute Shall be Built or Not—A Suitable Site Available—A By-Law will be Submitted for Popular Vote—The General Statement of the Year Presented—Other School School Matters of Importance.

The following members attended the final meeting of the Board of Education of 1888 Tuesday night. Mr. Jas. Stevenson, chairman, and Messrs. Dumble, Hill, Deane, A. Rutherford, T. Rutherford, Wrighton, Hughes, English, Burnham and O'Meara.

Applications for increase of salary from Mr. J. H. Long, Principal of the Collegiate Institute, (on the ground of the withdrawal of the $180 Meteorological grant in 1887,) Mr. John Stirling, head master of the South Ward school, Mr. W. H. Walkie, Miss Graham and Miss Nicholls, were referred to the Committee on Appointments.

The statement of fees received during the past month showed receipts at the Collegiate Institute to have been $153.50 and at the public school $7.00.

The following reports of school attendance were received :—

	No. on Roll.	Ave. Att.
Collegiate Institute	155	145
Central School	551	531
South Ward School	279	236
West Ward School	191	163

The following accounts were referred to the Finance Committee :—

W. H. Moore	$12 50
Pettitt & Mitchell	2 95
W. H. Robertson	10 40
Thos. Menzies' estate	15 20

THE COUNTY'S POSITION.

MAYOR STEVENSON, referring to the county school question, deplored the fact that the deputation had met with little success in their appeal to the county council for united school support. He feared that nothing could be gained from the council. As regarded Ashburnham, he did not know how things would turn out yet, but said the people across the river did not seem to favor the idea. They considered themselves aggrieved in that the town had charged their pupils as much as those from the country, whereas they claimed the village had always acted liberally with the town in school matters.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Dr. BURNHAM, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the detailed statement of receipts and expenditure of the board for the past year.

Owing to the purchase of the lot in the north ward and the erection of a gymnasium, there was a deficiency of eighteen hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-nine cents.

[Appended to the report was the general statement referred to, which will be published in another issue.]

The report was adopted

Mr. DUMBLE presented the report of the Committee on Appointments, stating that Miss McDonald had been appointed teacher for the new school in No. 1 Ward. The report was adopted.

Mr. WRIGHTON, of the Property Committee, reported having purchased thirty-four new desks, twenty of which have been placed in the mission school, four in the South Ward school and ten in the West Ward. The report also stated that the mission school had been fitted up and was now in use, and that some necessary repairs had been made to the South Ward school building. The report was adopted.

A NEW INSTITUTE BUILDING.

Mr. Rutherford moved, seconded by Mr. Deane, that the town council be requested to raise the sum of $10,000 by debentures for public school purposes, for building a four-room school building in the north ward and two rooms to the south ward school.

Mr. Dumble moved in amendment that the sum be made $25,000 and that the words be added "for the purpose of purchasing property and building a Collegiate Institute." Mr. Dumble pointed out that the Menzies homestead would soon be for sale. It was valued at about $10,000, and the premises were admirably adapted for a Collegiate Institute. The sum of $25,000 could be raised for 5 per cent. at the most, which would only be $1250 a year. Mr. Dumble said it was time the school board faced this question of a new Collegiate Institute, and here was a good opportunity to acquire property. The amendment not being in writing the original motion was adopted.

THE GYMNASIUM.

Dr. BURNHAM enquired if the Collegiate Institute pupils were using the gymnasium. If that were so he thought the Institute should be taxed, as the gymnasium was built out of public school funds.

Mr. WRIGHTON, in introducing the following motion, said the gymnasium was not being looked after as it should, and things were being broken to pieces. It would have to be looked after better in future :—

Moved by Mr. Wrighton, seconded by Mr. Deane, that should this Board continue to keep Major Randle in their employment, he shall be required to remain at the school on duty from a quarter to nine o'clock in the morning to half-past three in the afternoon, and more particularly he protect during the play hour; he shall see that no boys or girls are out of the Institute without leave, and if they are shall report them to the Principal; he shall allow a reasonable number of boys belonging to both schools to occupy the gymnasium during the noon hour under his care. The Committee on Supervision to add any further details that they may deem necessary, his duties to be further defined and carried out under the supervision of the chairman of the Supervision Committee.

THE INSTITUTE AGAIN.

Mr. DUMBLE then introduced an amendment to Mr. Rutherford's motion, in accordance with his previously expressed opinions regarding the raising of money for school purposes.

There was some discussion on this.

Mr. HUGHES said if Mr. Dumble's motion was passed, including both public school and Collegiate Institute improvement, and a by-law to that effect submitted to the people, it would be defeated, because public sentiment was against the Institute, and the public school improvements would be defeated with it.

Messrs. Wrighton and Deane also opposed the passing of the joint resolution.

Dr. BURNHAM pointed out that it made no difference, because separate by-laws would have to be presented to popular vote for the public and high school improvements, and if one was defeated the other might carry.

Mr. O'MEARA said he did not like to see this feeling shown by public school trustees to "bark" a motion for high school improvement. A certain feeling of antagonism appeared to prevail between the two sections of the joint board, and he would like to see the boards separated so they could act independently. He believed the Collegiate Institute would be recognized as as a necessity by the people, and he wanted to see the proposal go to the people and not voted down by the board before they had a chance to decide upon it.

Mr. Deane and the others declared they did not wish to oppose the motion, but only wanted to see the public and high school matters separated.

Mr. DUMBLE agreed to this, and moved, seconded by Mr. O'Meara, that the town be required to provide $20,000 for the purpose of purchasing the Menzies' homestead property (provided it can be obtained for $10,000) and erecting thereon an addition to suit the building for a Collegiate Institute.

The motion was carried.

OTHER MOTIONS.

Mr. DUMBLE moved that six months' salary of Mr. Tilley, town school inspector, be paid by the Secretary-Treasurer—Carried.

Mr. HILL moved, seconded by Dr Burnham, that $25 be divided among the town papers for publishing the financial statement—Carried.

Mr. DUMBLE moved, seconded by Mr. Deane, that the expediency of establishing a fifth form in the public schools be referred to the School Supervision Committee—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

Charlotte St. Sunday School Anniversary.

The Closing Event of the Series—A Crowded House and a Delightful Entertainment.

The weather did not prevent the Charlotte street Methodist church from being filled last night on the occasion of the closing one of the series of anniversary services. It was the children's night, and they "made a night of it" As will be seen by the following copy of the programme, singing, dialogues, recitations and instrumental music were given. In general the little folks acquitted themselves very creditably, reflecting credit not only on their own abilities but upon the careful training of their teachers. The choruses were particularly good, and great praise is due Mr. A. L. Davis, whose training was so efficient that with some half dozen practices the choruses were mastered with a precision, correctness and expression which would do no discredit to a good adult choir. The entertainment began with an anniversary hymn followed by prayers by Rev. S. J. Shorey, pastor. After this the following programme was presented :—

Recitation, "Our Anniversary"—Hattie Richardson
Song and chorus, "Have courage boys to say no"—Fred Beaton, (solo) and chorus.
Recitation, "A little child's part"—Mamie Sargent
Hymn, "Marching on to Canaan"—Duet by Misses Stephens, chorus by school
Recitation.....Flora Madden

Recitation, "Making a Speech"...Sidney Shorey
Dialogue, "Casting Bread Upon the Water"—Bella Fatton and May Wilson
Recitation, 'Canadian Boat Song".W Longford
Recitation, "Soot Black Boy"—Master Brundrette.

At the close of the programme Rev. Mr. Shorey congratulated the scholars and their teachers upon the success of the entertainment and the church generally upon the unusual and gratifying success of the whole anniversary services. The financial part of the services is not the least important, the sum of $125 net having been added to the funds of the school. Mr. O. C. Rowse, the efficient superintendent, is to be congratulated upon the success of his efforts to promote the interests of the school.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The Young Men's Guild of St. Luke's Church meets Thursday night.

It takes street Inspector Craig on the alert to keep the streets clear of snow blockades, but with his usual energy he manages to make walking as pleasant as it should be on a sharp frosty day.

Those opposed to annexation with Peterborough feel highly pleased over the result of Monday night's meeting, and those in favor of it feel just as much the other way. One thing seems certain that annexation will not be accomplished in 1889, nor likely for a few years to come.

The regular monthly meeting of St. Luke's C. E. T. S. was held Tuesday night. After routine business a paper on "Drink and Health," was read by Mr. E. B. Bert. The paper was well written and carefully prepared and showed that Mr. Bert had given the question a good deal of careful thought. The conclusions arrived at by Mr. Bert were that liquor of any kind given in ever such small quantities should not be allowed any person before maturity, and that in many instances he thought that a glass of liquor to a fully developed person would prove beneficial. However on the whole the person who did not touch it at all was safest. After this paper was read, a very interesting programme was presented, consisting of readings by Messrs. J. J. Rooney and Fred Saunders, songs by Miss Eva Tivey, whose singing is always appreciated, and instrumental duets by Mrs. E. A. Peck and Miss Nellie Peck. It is the intention of the management of the Band of Hope to give a concert on Monday, 25th inst.

JUST too sweet for anything; M. R. KIDD's sugar. Best value in town.

Misnomer that M. R. KIDD is doing some remarkable price cutting on groceries.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & Macdonald's or Mr. A. L. Davis' store. d

Do Not Forget

Evening with Mr. Dewey to-morrow (Thursday) the 7th. Chair to be taken at 8 o'clock by Rev. P. C. Parker. 1d

Ask Mr. Carter.

The EXAMINER has received an inquiry from a correspondent, respecting the date of the Vocal Society's concert. The inquirer is referred to Mr. Carter for information.

Skating and Curling.

The Charlotte street rink is now open and ready for use. Good ice for both skating and curling. Skating tickets may be procured from the caretaker at the rink. dw

Leave your order for Magazines, Periodicals, Daily Papers, &c., at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

YOU must have groceries; we must sell em. Let's make a trade. M. R. KIDD.

Bargains in Blankets.

Blankets at J. J. Sheehy's are sold at such prices that customers may be seen coming out of the store every day with armsful of bargains in the above mentioned goods. See advertisement in this issue.

A Horse Purchase.

Mr H. W. Kent has disposed of his horse to Mr. W. H. Clurton. Mr. Clurton may be proud of his purchase, as he is now the owner of one of the finest driving and saddle horses in the county.

Farmers in Council.

The Permanent Central Farmers' Institute of Ontario is in session at Toronto. The West Peterborough delegates are Messrs. Dawson Kennedy, J. Garbutt, and H. C. Garbutt; for East Peterborough, R. Burgess, and C. F. Birdsall.

No Name, No Notice.

The EXAMINER has received two or three news paragraphs from an unknown correspondent. The writer must know that newspapers insist on having possession of the real names of contributors before using their contributions.

Peterborough's Winter Carnival.

The great Montreal carnival is transpiring this week and it is attracting visitors from all over the world. It will, however, sink into the shade in comparison with the fancy dress carnival that is to take place at the Charlotte street rink Friday evening, Feb. 15th. It will be the only carnival of the season in Peterborough. Prepare for it and keep the date open. d

An Omemee Contract.

Mr. Bates, of Peterborough, has secured the contract for placing in Mr. Thos. Stevenson's flour mill, Omemee, the machinery of a full roller process of the most modern make, with the capacity of 50 bbls. a day, also for building a new flume. Mr. Bates is known to be a millwright of excellent ability and large experience, who does honest and conscientious work, and no doubt, as far as Mr. Bates' part of the work is concerned Mr. Stevenson will have a first-class job done.

The Feast of Knowledge Frozen.

Old Boreas has attended strictly to business last night and to-day. The probs. pointed to frosted proboscis and accordingly frozen nose tips were frequently seen on the streets this morning. Heating apparatus and furnaces had a little more than they could do, and in the Collegiate Institute in forms 1 and 3 the pupils had to be dismissed on account of the fount of knowledge being frozen, this morning. The thermometer feels very much down.

Curlians.

The Peterborough curlers gained a hollow victory over Lakefield yesterday, defeating them by 25 shots. They played three rinks a side. The visitors were well entertained by the Lakefield brethren of the stane an' besom.

Owing to the shortness of the curling season it has been decided to abolish the annual 13 point game, and instead point games will be played for the club medal and cup.

It is probable six rinks of the Peterborough club will go to Toronto one day next week.

Masonic Memo.

Last night R. W. Bro. B. Shortly, D.D.G. M., accompanied by a few Peterborough brethren, paid an official visit to Clementi Lodge No 213, G.R.C., Lakefield. He found the lodge in a very satisfactory condition. The visiting brethren were well entertained by the Lakefield Masons.

Dr. Wadsel Ward, the Jewish Mason who visited Peterborough some time ago, will return and give a lecture to the brethren of the square and compass at an early date.

Protestant Home.

The Committee of the Peterborough Protestant Home acknowledge with thanks the following donations for January :—Mr. C. W. Sawers, turkey and chickens; Miss Edwards, bag of apples; George Hamilton, two bags of apples; Mrs. J. H. Dixon, two bags of apples; Miss Ferrier, Warsaw, bed quilt; Mrs. C McGill, apples, preserves and knives and forks; ladies of St. Andrew's Church, cakes; Mr. Robert Harrison, bag of apples; ladies of St. Paul's Church, basket of cakes; Mrs. Roddy, turkey; Miss Thompson, parcel of reading matter; Mr. Pethic, bread; Mr. Schofield, combs; Peterborough Gun Club, barrel of flour; bread from police station.

County Orangeism.

The following newly elected officers of the County Orange Lodge were installed last night :—

Alex. Hamilton	County Master
F. J. Moore	D. Master
William Graham	Chaplain
W. A. Stratton	O Secretary
J. G. Weir	C. Treasurer
John McClelland	D. of Ceremonies
Robert Weir	Lecturer
Samuel Stenson	Deputy Lecturer
Duncan McIntyre	Lecturer
Thomas Brown	Tyler

The next semi-annual meeting will be held on the 3rd Tuesday in June, in the village of Lakefield.

Special attention paid to the ordering of books. Any American, British or continental book supplied in the very shortest time at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

"Maritana."

On Monday night at the Opera House the New American Opera Company will give Wallace's grand opera of "Maritana." The principals of the company are Louise Natali, Alice Varena, Cora Meacham, Fanny Gonzales, Clara Poole, Lizzie Macnichol, Chas. Bassett, Wm. Castle, Thomas Ebert, Alonzo Stoddard, Franz Vetta, E. N. Kight, T. S. Guise and Harry Warren. It will be seen that several of the principals were with the American and National Opera Companies during the last three or four seasons. There is an orchestra or twenty under Herr Heinrichs, formerly Theodore Thomas' assistant, and a chorus of 25. Advanced notices promise the best opera heard here this season. The company will come direct here from Toronto, and are on their way to Montreal. This organization, numbers 70 people and is considered the strongest and largest company travelling. The seats are now on sale at Doucet's. Prices 50c. to $150.

Breaking the Ice.

The New School Board Gets Together for the First Time—The Standing Committees Struck.

At the organization meeting of the Board of Education for 1889 at one o'clock to-day there were present Messrs. Stevenson, Burnham, English, Weir, Wrighton, McWilliams, Deane, Hill and O'Meara.

The members having taken the necessary declarations of qualification and oaths of office, the Secretary, Mr. Geo. Morrow, called the meeting to order. On motion of Dr. Burnham, seconded by Mr. McWilliams, Mr. Jas. Stevenson was again appointed chairman of the Board.

Mr. STEVENSON briefly expressed his thanks, and pointed out that the Board this year would have to deal with the Collegiate Institute question and the necessity of providing increased public school accommodation.

On motion, Messrs. Wrighton, Hill, Burnham, McWilliams, Weir and Deane were appointed a committee to strike the standing committees for the year. Upon their recommendation the following appointments were made :—

COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS—The whole Board.

FINANCE—Messrs. Burnham, Deane, Hill, Wrighton and O'Meara.

SCHOOL SUPERVISION—Messrs. McWilliams, Weir, Hamilton, Wrighton, and Dumble.

PROPERTY — Messrs. English, Stratton, Hughes, Rutherford, Kendry and Hill.

The first named on each committee to be chairman thereof.

The report was adopted and the Board adjourned.

Young's Point.

From Our Own Correspondent.

ACCIDENT.—While working in the woods a few days ago, Mr. James Reid had the misfortune to have his jaw fractured in two places by a blow of a pole.

AMUSEMENT.—A number of social gatherings have taken place in the village and vicinity lately.

THE CARNIVAL.—A few of our citizens intend dressing for the Lakefield carnival, which we are informed is to be held on the 15th.

CONFIRMATION — His Lordship, Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Dowling, accompanied by his Secretary, Rev. Father Rudkins, visited this place on Sunday last and administered the sacrament of confirmation to twenty one candidates. The interior of the church was nicely decorated, and the choir gave select music for the occasion. The children were examined by His Lordship, after which the sacrament was administered. Mr. C. Young was standing sponsor for the boys, and Mrs. J. E. Kearney for the girls. After mass he addressed the congregation who were delighted with his eloquence. His Lordship returned to Peterborough in the evening.

Benfort.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. A. E. Dawson, of Kincardine, has lectured here and at Centreville recently on temperance.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have secured the services of Father Chiniquy for a lecture next week. The distinguished gentleman will preach in Centreville church Sunday morning at 11 a.m., and lecture there also on the evening following. Admission fee to lecture 25c.

The Literary Society entertained a large house on Thursday evening very satisfactorily. Common usage has given the name "debate" to the meetings. This is quite appropriate when there is one, but when there isn't why not call it something else.

Extensive traffic has been opened between Peterborough and the south by the recent fall of snow. At best, since the winter business opened so late, the season will be short. Hence the necessity of quick action.

The bridge question has been up again. Prospects are encouraging, but there's not the least necessity for one just at present. It is expected, however, that before another ice one is formed such measures will have been taken as will, in the near future, lead to the placing of a more substantial and permanent one.

Personal.

Mayor Stevenson goes to Ottawa to-night to attend to his parliamentary duties.

Lansdowne Lodge No 25, S.O.E., has appointed Bro. Thos. Gunn delegate to the Grand Lodge meeting at Ottawa on Thursday, 14th inst. Only one delegate was appointed this year.

Mr. Robert Tait, late of Rowse's trade palace, has gone to Montreal, where he expects to soon enter upon a lucrative position. Mr. Tait will be greatly missed in Peterborough among the young people.

Peterborough Water Company.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Peterborough Water Company was held at the offices, Hunter street, yesterday afternoon. There were present Messrs. John Burnham, Dr. Boucher, R. A. Morrow, G. W. Hatton, C. Stapleton, A. Stevenson, Judge Weller, F. J. Lewis and John Belcher, C.E. The President presented the Directors' report, showing that the company was in a prosperous condition The Superintendent's report showed substantial progress during the year. Some 4,853 lineal feet of 8 and 5 inch pipe had been laid; the number of hydrants increased from 60 to 67; the stop valves increased by 8 and the number of household services by 92. Mr. W. H. Badden was re-appointed auditor. A vote of thanks was passed to the President and Directors for the highly satisfactory manner in which the company's business had been managed by them, to which Mr. John Burnham replied. The following directors were re-elected :—Jno. Burnham R. A. Morrow, Dr. Boucher, G. W. Hatton and Chas. Stapleton. The officers were elected by the directors as follows :—President, John Burnham; Vice-President, R. A. Morrow; Secretary-Treasurer, G. W. Hatton.

Legislature Notes.

The following is from the Globe's Legislature "Notes of the Day" :

"Mr. Stratton is feeling his way towards introducing a few important bills before the session is much older. The member for West Peterborough believes that it is not in the interest of the Corporations of towns that one man should occupy a dual position. Experience has taught that in many cases a member of the town council occupying a position on the Public or High School Board must sacrifice the interests of either, and therefore Mr. Stratton proposes to legislate away dual representation in municipalities. He will also introduce a bill giving Town Councils the power to pass a by-law doing away with wards and giving the whole electorate a voice in the selection of each member of the council."

On Tuesday Mr. Stratton presented a petition from the Village of Lakefield asking for the abolition of exemption from taxation.

A Pertinent Question.

What is the meaning of that streamer across George street? Evening with Rev. G. W. Dewey! The many friends who were looking forward to the pleasure of hearing Mr. Dewey in his song service and address will be glad to hear that he is better and will be in the opera house next Thursday evening, Feb. 7th. Admission, 10 cents; children, 5 cents. 8 o'clock.

News Nuggets.

—The thermometer last night registered 13 below zero.

—A Scott Act case was enlarged at the police court this morning.

—A meeting of horsemen is to be held at the Phelan House Friday evening to arrange for the annual winter races.

—The police picked up a bag of bran on the street last night, that had evidently fallen from a passing sleigh.

—The new C.P.R. depot at Montreal, the ironwork of which was built by Mr. W. H. Law, of the Central Iron Bridge Works, was formally opened to-day.

—The mare got from Havery by Watson in the "deal" that was ventilated in the police court yesterday, was to-day returned to Havery as ordered by the court.

—Monday night Mrs. McCracken, an American lady stopping with Miss Armstrong, George street, slipped and fell on Charlotte street and received some severe sprains and bruises.

—The Charity Committee of the town council meets to night to consider the dozen or more tenders that have been made for supplying 125 cords of wood for charity purposes.

Preserve the Parks

The two farmers who were driving their sleighs across Central Park the other day were before Police Magistrate Dumble Tuesday afternoon, and were dismissed with a warning to not repeat the offence. It must be clearly understood that the park pathways are for foot passengers only.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER
THE PUREST AND BEST
Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.
It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.
Sold only in cans, full weight.

We Like to Keep Old Friends,
But we don't like to keep Stock. We keep old friends by keeping a New Stock, and the Old Goods must go.
THE NEW YEAR MEANS NEW GOODS
and in order to properly take care of these, we must make room for them. We don't expect you to buy the Goods as a matter of accommodation to us—just to help us out. We know it is worth something to be accommodated and are willing to pay.
THIS MEANS BARGAINS
We are going to make it worth your while to Buy. The Goods we most want to get rid of are Goods that would have to be packed and stored for another season. These will be our main feature. But to make Variety we shall add from every Line we carry, whatever surplus there may be, and thus make a Complete Assortment for our Sale.

DINNER
is always a subject for sighs with a housekeeper and she often wishes that the law settled the question of "What shall we have for dinner," and prescribed certain dishes for certain days. Such a law would certainly save a great deal of worry and questioning to many tired women. SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.
Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.
The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.60, on 6741 lives. We have more-over $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,968 for $14,081,377.60.
The income for the year shows the very large increase of $182,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,000 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table :—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assur'nces.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 60	$1,149,743 60
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,868 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,978 84	363,984 31	2,982,994 60
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,807 24	4,039,373 66
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 60

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

New Dressmaker AT TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

A LIVELY TILT.

THE FIRST BATTLE OF THE PARLIAMENTARY SESSION.

A British Debate Over Mr. Dewdney's Appointment as Minister of the Interior—The Bill to Suppress Combines.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—There was a lively debate in the House of Commons yesterday which was listened to with rapt attention and in deep silence. Before the House rose on Tuesday Mr. Laurier intimated that he was going to make some enquiry about the recent changes in the Cabinet, but as the First Minister was not in his place he reserved the matter until the afternoon, when Sir John Macdonald gave the reply without being asked a second time. The Premier's answer was about as follows:

It was thought desirable that Sir Charles Tupper should resume his position as High Commissioner in London and Mr. Foster was made Minister of Finance. Then it was arranged that Mr. C. H. Tupper should become Minister of Marine in place of Mr. Foster. Mr. Melelan, the Postmaster-General, was appointed Governor of his native Nova Scotia, and Mr. Haggart was inducted into that portfolio. Lastly Hon. Edgar Dewdney was called to fill the place of the late lamented Mr. White, as Minister of the Interior. That was all there was about it.

Mr. Laurier passed in friendly terms upon all until he came to the name of Mr. Dewdney upon whose promotion to the Cabinet the Leader of the Opposition made a vigorous assault. Mr. Laurier said that he meant nothing personal in the attack, but he could look upon Mr. Dewdney's preferment with naught but the gravest concern. Mr. Dewdney, first as an officer of the Government in the Territories, and later on as the Governor of those Territories, was alone to blame for the events which led up to civil war and the sacrifice of many lives on the banks of the Saskatchewan. Mr. Laurier reviewed at length the position of the halfbreeds in that country, their claims for justice that had been repeatedly made, their meetings and their threats which finally wound up in the fire of the first gun of the rebellion at Duck Lake.

"Who are the men responsible," demanded Mr. Laurier, for those scenes of blood and strife in 1885? Was it the poor wretches who had pleaded for their rights and afterwards took up arms? No, not at all! But it was the man who now sits on the Treasury benches as the Minister of the Interior. That gentleman had a duty to perform which he grossly neglected. He knew perfectly well about the dissatisfaction that existed among the half-breeds and it was his place and his duty to call the attention of the Government to these grievances. The hon. Minister of the Interior knew all about these agitations but he never once informed the Government of the serious aspect that had involved the half-breeds in the Northwest."

Sir John Macdonald in reply said: "I cannot forget that the hon. gentleman sympathised with the battle on the Saskatchewan and his views thereon were more warmly than loyally expressed. The Minister of the Interior, I think, is in every way the equal of the hon. gentleman, and in many ways I would not compare th m. The gentleman who has been so unjustly attacked had just as much to do with the events that preceded the rebellion as the gentleman who attacked him. He (Mr. Dewdney) had nothing whatever to do with the halfbreeds or the granting of lands in the Northwest, and he could not influence the Government of that time to the extent of one-quarter of a section of land. He had nothing whatever to do with the halfbreed claims."

A voice: "Who had, then?"

Sir John Macdonald: "The Government of the day. We assume the whole responsibility. The Government of these days and the Government of to-day are alone responsible. The attack of the hon. gentleman is altogether unwarranted and uncalled for. The Government is quite willing to assume that responsibility. Parliament has passed upon those events and the people of the country have also passed upon them. In no way whatever can the Minister of the Interior be charged with complicity in the rebellion or with neglect or with acts of commission or omission in respect to these troubles."

Then Sir Richard Cartwright took a hand in the talk. He declared that the only thing in which he did not agree with Mr. Laurier's remarks was the statement that Mr. Dewdney was to blame for the rebellion. The First Minister, by his own admissions, was primarily to blame.

The other business of the House consisted of the introduction of a couple of bills, the answering of questions and the consideration of various notices of motion. Clarke Wallace introduced his bill for the prevention and suppression of combinations formed in restraint of trade. The bill, which is as follows, was read a first time:

1. Every person or incorporated company who combines, agrees or arranges with any other person or incorporated company, with any railway, steamship or steamboat or transportation company,

(a.) For granting to any person or any incorporated company who is a party to such combination, agreement or arrangement any facility for the purchase, sale, transportation or supply of any article or commodity which is an object of trade, which facility is by such combination, agreement or arrangement not to be granted to any person who is not a party thereto;

(b.) For denying to any person or incorporated company who is not a party to such combination, agreement or arrangement any facility for such purchase, sale, transportation or supply which by the provisions thereof is to be granted to any person who is a party thereto;

(c.) For unreasonably enhancing the market price of an article or commodity which is an object of trade;

(d.) For unduly restraining the traffic in any such article or commodity;

(e.) For limiting, lessening or preventing the production, manufacture, sale or transportation of any such article or commodity;

(f.) For preventing or restricting competition in the production, manufacture, sale or transportation of any such article or commodity.

2. Every person or incorporated company who enters into any such combination, agreement or arrangement as in the next preceding section mentioned, and has been convicted of a misdemeanor under the provisions thereof, shall thereby forfeit its corporate rights and franchises so far as the same have been conferred by or exist in virtue of any law in Canada.

3. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to modify or affect in any manner Chapter 131 of the Revised Statutes respecting Trades Unions.

Mr. Landry reintroduced his bill of last session respecting interest, and it was read a first time. Mr. Landry said the bill was intended to limit the rate of interest which could be charged in Canada. He had his own ideas what that rate should be, but he would prefer to obtain an expression of the House before he said what that limit should be.

Sir Ricoard Cartwright put this notice of motion on the paper for Tuesday next:

That it has become a matter of extreme importance to the wellbeing of the people of Canada that the Government and Parliament of Canada should acquire the power of negotiating commercial treaties with foreign states. That an humble address be presented to Her Majesty praying that she will empower the Governor-General of Canada, acting by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, to enter by an agent or representative of Canada into direct communication with any foreign state for the purpose of negotiating commercial arrangements tending to the advantage of Canada, subject to the prior consent or subsequent approval of the Parliament of Canada signified by act.

Died of Fright.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Eleven-year-old Fannie Moore, who was buried here to-day, died from the effects of fright. She was seized the other day on the street by an unknown man, who told her he was Jack the Ripper and who made other terrifying remarks. The fellow had previously annoyed several other school girls.

Sheehy's Evidence Before the Parnell Commission—Father Coveney's Prayer

LONDON, Feb. 6.—At the session of the Parnell Commission to-day Beach continued his evidence. He said that Breslin was paid for building a submarine torpedo boat which proved to be a failure. Another firm built a boat which lay on the New Jersey side of New York harbor four or five months, but was not used against British ships.

Attorney-General Webster quoted from The Irish Nation extracts from a speech made by Father Sheehy, who advocated abolition of landlordism and said he would give no quarter in Ireland until the country was nationally independent. The speech was delivered Jan. 3, 1882, and O'Connor and Healy were present.

Witness said he received from the directory a circular giving a report of the convention. The circular stated that the doctrine which the convention adopted was that the people living under an unnatural government and wishing to be under a natural one were entitled to overthrow the unnatural and establish a natural government.

At this point Mr. Parnell appeared in court. His entrance created a sensation. The witness looked steadily at Parnell for several moments.

Continuing, witness said he sent copies of all documents of the Brotherhood to the English Government at no time, since then they had not been in his possession. Sullivan, he said, went to England in 1882 and remained there two months.

The Attorney-General: "How'd d ye know?"

Witness: "By the underground telegraph."

The Attorney-General: "What is that?"

Witness: "Through associating with those in the confidence of the Brotherhood. Of my own knowledge I know that Sullivan went to England."

Witness said Sullivan upon returning from England made a statement to him. Sir Charles Russell objected to the reception of this statement and Justice Hannen said the question in its present form was inadmissible. The witness, on Sir Charles request, left the court room. Justice Hannen said if the question had been formed to elicit an answer to the effect that there was any arrangement come to regarding something to be done in the future then it was obvious that a statement of what had occurred might legitimately form a part of the answer to such question.

When the witness returned Attorney-General Webster asked: "Did you converse with Sullivan regarding plans for future warfare?"

Witness: "Yes."

The Attorney-General: "Did Sullivan refer to what passed with any of the leaders in the United Kingdom?"

Witness: "Yes, later in the day."

Father Coveney's Prayer.

DUBLIN, Feb. 6.—It is stated that constables have gone to Clonmel with a warrant to remove William O'Brien to Killarney. O'Brien has requested the Mayor of Clonmel not to give reports concerning his health until there is a material change in his treatment.

Father Coveney, referring in a speech at Shibbereen to the arrest of Father McFadden and the killing of Inspector Martin at Gweedore, said the people murdered by the police at Youghal, Middleton and Michelstown had now been avenged. "May Almighty God," exclaimed Father Coveney, "strengthen the hand that murdered Martin." Father Coveney's utterances were cheered.

The Government Leader.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Although the Rt. Hon. William Henry Smith will resume the Government leadership in the House of Commons upon the reassembling of Parliament, it is now certain that he will very shortly be elevated to the peerage. Before Mr. Smith's transfer to the House of Lords the firm of Smith & Son, news vendors, of which he is the head, will become a limited company under a new name.

Mr. Sartoris' Will.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—By the terms of the will of Mr. Edward Sartoris, father of Algernon Sartoris, the husband of Nellie Grant, his entire fortune, valued at £145,000, is bequeathed to his son during his life, and at his death to his wife, absolutely.

Milkman Barrett Re-arrested.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Barrett, the milkman, has been re-arrested at Bradford on the strength of the verdict of the coroner's jury, which charges him with the murder of the boy John Gill.

A Steamer Sunk With All on Board.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The British bark Largo Bay, bound for Auckland, was towed to Spithead to-day in a sinking condition. She reports that on Monday night last she was in collision with an unknown four-masted steamer off Beachy Head, that the steamer was sunk with all on board. The seamen of the Largo Bay say they are certain that the lost steamer carried passengers and they estimate that the crew and passengers, together numbered over 100 persons. The steamer sank 8 minutes after the collision occurred.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

Proposed Amendments to the Ontario Factory Act.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—The session of the Legislature yesterday was brief, and the business transacted was not of great importance. A lull in the flow of bills and petitions was apparent, and the time of the House was chiefly occupied by Hon. Mr. Fraser explaining the amendments to the Ontario Factory Act, which passed the second reading. The alterations are intended principally to prevent the occurrence of certain misconceptions as to the persons brought within the operations of the act to prevent girls under 14 years of age being employed, and stating more definitely the time employes shall be allowed for refreshment when engaged under certain conditions longer than ten hours per day. Also making it compulsory on the part of employers or others when arraigned for a breach of the act to give evidence on behalf of the prosecution, and permitting them in turn to give evidence in their own behalf.

Mr. Metcalf yesterday presented a petition asking an amendment to the game law allowing the shooting of migratory birds, particularly the various species of ducks, which breed in the United States and take their flight north in the spring. The petitioners complain that American sportsmen drive the Canadian game by various devices into American territory, and under their game laws they are allowed to kill them as migratory birds. The Canadian sportsmen therefore ask that they may be allowed to retaliate.

One Shot Has Mr. Windom's Name.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—There are rumors and rumors on the Cabinet situation, and they multiply faster than the seven-year locusts of Egypt. The best opinion here is that Blaine will be Secretary of State, William Windom of the Treasury, Rusk of War and Wanamaker of the Navy, with Evarts as Attorney-General. As has been said there is no doubt that Allison has positively declined to go into the Cabinet, and as General Harrison desired the Treasury Department to go to the west, it is reported on good authority that he has selected Mr. Windom for that place.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 6.—The strikers to-night practically accepted Duncan Richardson's terms and the strike is off.

IN A HOWLING HURRICANE

THE CARNIVAL CITY MAINTAINS ITS WEATHER REPUTATION.

All Yesterday's Events Postponed Except the Storming of the Ice Castle Which is Brilliantly Accomplished.

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—The City by Mount Royal is noted for its weather and always maintains its reputation during the carnival. This year is no exception to the rule. Monday was cold enough to freeze a marble statue to death, Tuesday it snowed all day and all night and to-day the wind has blown a perfect hurricane, reaching a velocity of 70 miles an hour, piling the snow in great drifts and rendering any outdoor exercises impossible. All the events on the program were postponed and there were even fears until a late hour this evening that the great centre of the week's festivities, the storming of the ice castle by the snow-shoers, would have to be postponed. It was decided, however, not to disappoint the visitors, and so, although it was blowing great guns and the mercury gone down away below zero, the program was carried out.

Dominion-square and its approaches were the centre to which all were attracted and by 8.30, the time fixed for the storming to begin, there could not have been less than 50,000 people around the ice palace. The mass of humanity stamped and kept itself warm the best way it could until 9 o'clock when the Field Battery guns gave the signal for the battle to begin and the line of torch-bearing snowshoers began wending their way down the mountain side.

When the snowshoers reached the square there were not less than 3000 in the ranks representing all the city clubs as well as the visiting delegates from Ottawa, Quebec, Winnipeg and New York. Then the attack began. Rockets flew into the air, and the besiegers advanced straight for the castle, only to dash against the walls and be repulsed by the garrison inside. For an hour or so the siege kept up, eliciting many expressions of admiration from the assembled crowds and at last the castle capitulated and all was over.

The snowshoers went to their headquarters except the Teque Bienes who held a grand concert in their club house, at which a large crowd was present including Erastus Wiman.

The Governor-General and party witnessed the attack and defence of the palace from the Windsor Hotel and expressed themselves as much delighted.

The carnival is proving a great success. One reason why the committee have been able to make it so great a success is that the railways are each giving one-fourth of their receipts for carnival excursion tickets toward the carnival fund. Heretofore they gave nothing. The railway tickets are a little higher this season on account of the arrangement but the public are quite satisfied.

Further Ontario arrivals include Mr. Alex. R. and Mrs. Allen of Brockville, Mrs. Wm. and Mr. A. Briggs of Toronto, Mrs. J. P. Egan, Miss Gillespie, Mrs. John Harvey of Hamilton, Mrs. R. THE ANTI-RITUALISTS.

First Annual Meeting of the C. of E. Defence Association at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Feb. 6.—At the first annual meeting yesterday of the recently organized "Church of England Defence Association of the Diocese of Niagara" the delegates appointed to confer with Bishop Hamilton with reference to ritualistic practices reported as follows:

The delegates regret they have to report that His Lordship studiously avoided the expression of any opinion except by a reference generally to the wide scope afforded by the church to all its members, from which and from his refusal to consider them they are driven to infer that he approves of the unlawful practices. The delegates are therefore obliged to come to the conclusion that as far as he is concerned no attempt whatever will be made to check or restrain, and they can hope for nothing but confusion, disorder and disobedience to lawful authority, as this practically leaves each clergyman to pursue his own course in respect of the matters referred to. The delegates regret to say that His Lordship, while declaring his course as bishop had been fair and liberal, stated in terms that he positively refused to recognize any statement from Wycliffe College, the delegates can hold out no hope that His Lordship will repress or even attempt to discourage the obscure practices and disobedience to the lawfully constituted authorities.

The purpose of the association is declared to be to "oppose and discountenance the elevation of the bread and wine in the celebration of the holy communion, the use of incense during divine service, the mixing of water with the sacramental wine, the use of bread in the holy communion other than bread such as is usual to be eaten, and the use of lights upon the Lord's table, and vestments except the surplice, stole or scarf and hood."

A long discussion followed the reading of the report, and it was decided to take active steps to have a canon passed that will floor the ritualists.

Crisp Capital Chat.

OTTAWA, Feb. 6.—The Senate had a short session to-day, talked over a few points of order, the slowness of the new printing bureau in doing its work, and adjourned till Feb. 20 because there is nothing for it to do.

Mr. McMullen will move for the details of D. O'Connor's (Ottawa) legal bill of $16,880, as shown in the Auditor-General's report, which that gentleman received last year.

Mr. Cleoqerie (Montmagny) is excited about the report that Rae Wiman or some of his friends intend to invite the Parliament of Canada to take a free trip and all that that implies through the United States. He will ask the Government on Monday if the invitation has been received and who are the invitees.

An Ex-Toronto Man Stagged in New York.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 6.—Archibald G. Thompson, who came to this city from Toronto about a year ago, and resided at 124½ William-street until last week, Thursday, when he sold his furniture and went to New York city, was assaulted and robbed in that city on Saturday night by a man who had offered to conduct him to a lodging house. It was terribly beaten and when he was brought before the Harlem court he was ordered to be sent to a hospital.

Special attention paid to the ordering of books. Any American, British or continental book supplied in the very shortest time at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

Presentation to a Departing Priest.

Remembering Rev. Father Kelly in his Translation from Eastmore to Douro.

In accordance with the episcopal management of pastorates in the diocese of Peterborough, Rev. Father Kielty, after serving the parish of St. Martin's church, Eastmore, for ten years, reached the end of his pastoral in that place last Sunday, having been appointed to St. Joseph's, Douro. His flock took advantage of the occasion after mass on Sunday to present him with the following address ; which was accompanied with a purse of $270 ;

ADDRESS.

To the Reverend W. J. Kelly, Parish Priest of Saint Martin's Church, Eastmore :—

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR,—We, your parishioners, of Saint Martin's church, Eastmore, approach you on the eve of your departure to assume the sacerdotal duties of the parish of Douro, with feelings of deep respect and admiration, coupled with regret, at your unexpected appointment to another and important parish in this diocese.

During the long period of ten years, in which you have so ably administered to our spiritual necessities, there have been naturally interwoven, as a sequence of our cordial relations, ties of friendship and profound regard that time alone can banish from our memories.

Your successful efforts in building a priest's residence—adding to and beautifying the church grounds, that were, on your arrival, almost in a natural state, the taste and zeal you displayed in the interior decorations of the church, by supplementing to its adornments a new altar, statues, organ and hall—your unselfish devotion and tender sympathy with the afflicted and dying, and your fruitful instruction of our children in Christian culture, deserve our highest gratitude, and our only regret now, is, that we were not always able to fully assist your laudable efforts in church improvement; but if at times we appeared remiss, it was the fault of circumstances, and not our hearts.

We cannot allow this opportune time to pass without recording our appreciation of the splendid and successful efforts you made in the cause of temperance— by banishing the sale of intoxicants from within the precincts of our township, and by prudential counsel awakened among the people a strong antipathy to man's greatest enemy.

We are proud that your great abilities have been so fully recognized by the chief pastor of the diocese, and that your removal is to give greater scope to your untiring energies in the vineyard of Christ.

With undisigned regret we offer you our final adieus, and blend our farewells with our prayers, that in your new home happiness and length of days await you.

Signed, on behalf of the congregation of Saint Martin's Church, Eastmore, this third day of February, 1889.

Rev. Father Kelly was deeply affected by the evidences he received of the affections of his flock and regret at the severance of such fond ties. His emotions prevented his ready fluency of expression in replying, the tears coursing down his cheeks, giving further evidences of the depth to which his emotions were stirred. He thanked the people for the kindness expressed so touchingly and so substantially in the present occasion, and also gave his appreciation to the deep regret he felt at the severance of so many strongly woven ties. The address referred to his work in the parish, but he bore testimony to the willing co-operation and assistance of his flock, without which his efforts would have been less successful. He had always found his people willing and ready when asked to contribute to the promotion of the interests in sympathy, in substance and co-operation. So far as his feelings and inclinations went he parted with them with regret, yet he was willing to yield a cheerful and willing obedience to the voice of the church as heard through their beloved bishops.

CHEESE FACTORY.

There was a fair attendance of patrons at the annual meeting, which was held in No. 3 schoolhouse on Saturday, the 26th January. The President, Mr. D. Truscott, occupied the chair.

The first business was the reading and adoption of the auditor's report, which contained the following information respecting the working of the factory during the year : "We find that there have been delivered at the factory 209,059 lbs. of milk, making 34,-128 lbs. of cheese, or an average of 10.66 lbs. of milk per lb. of cheese. There has also been received for said cheese the sum of $3,061.23, or an average of 8.95 cents per lb."

The election of officers was then proceeded with, which resulted as follows :

PRESIDENT AND TREASURER—David Truscott (re-elected).

SECRETARY—T. W. Truscott.

DIRECTORS—J. W. Hall, Robert Lang, Thos. Dodds, Wm. Waterman, Joseph Barnard, Alex. Anderson, Wm. Greer.

A question was raised by one of the patrons as to the correctness of an article in the EXAMINER of Dec. 3rd, regarding the agreement existing between them and the cheese makers; but nothing new was elicited, and the matter was allowed to drop, the Messrs. Pne undertaking to pay the expenses for the coming year to the same extent as for last year.

WINTER

Is the season of the year when colder weather sharpens the appetite, and heartier and more strengthening food is necessary to maintain the heat of the body and to resist the wear and tear of the system, which goes on more rapidly during the cold weather and under increased activity. We have a few choice cakes and foods that are handed up during the summer months and take in their place steaks and chops, smoking hot, and the delicious cereals and grains called for.

At this time of the year mackerel, pork, ham, mackerel and other salt fish, form desirable breakfast dishes ; and porridge, omelettes, oatmeal, wheaten cakes and a variety of cereals help make the repast a most delicious one.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CENTRAL FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

How John Green Drew Against a $6 Balance at the Bank of Hamilton—Proposed Bank Clearing House.

TORONTO, Feb. 7.—Yesterday's session of the Permanent Central Farmers' Institute was opened by the reading of an excellent paper on "Agricultural Education" by Mr. G. F. Copeland of Hespeler. The essayist claimed that the present system of the public schools is calculated to entice boys from the farm and that the study of agriculture is neglected. He urged better teachers for country schools and the adoption of a special course of study calculated to instruct the farmers' sons in the knowledge needed by them in the pursuit of their callings. Mr. Glassbrook closed a sensible speech with the rather startling statement that it was not necessary for most of the farmers' boys to know any more than their parents thought good for them. A motion was adopted asking the Minister of Education to place a text book on agriculture in the rural schools. Hon. Chas. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, addressed the meeting, which he called one of the most representative bodies in Canada.

He said that he would ask for the Institute an increased grant from the Government. It was decided to take action to curb illegal combines, organized to raise the price of agricultural implements and supplies.

"County Council Reform" was the subject of a paper read by Mr. James McEwing of Drayton. Mr. McEwing referred to the present unwieldy number of members in the County Council and suggested that the Council be entirely done away with. The plan he advocated was the election of a number of commissioners in each riding, these to be of office for two years, to be paid, and to transact all the business with the exception of such as might be relegated to the various municipalities and to the Legislature. On motion of Allan Pringle and J. B. Aylesworth this resolution was adopted: "That while it is right and proper to exclude partisan politics from the Institutes no economic or fiscal question vital to the interests of the farmer ought to be excluded; but, on the contrary ought to be and shall be eligible for discussion and investigation by any institute which may so decide by a majority of one."

When Harry Thorner, the dudish young man about town, charged with defrauding Alexander Gemmel of $15 by means of a worthless check, came up on remand, Mr. Gemmel stated that the prisoner had paid him the amount and asked His Worship to dismiss the charge. Col. Denison would not accede to the request and as the fraud was a barefaced one he sentenced young Thorner to 60 days' imprisonment.

A man named John Green was charged with perpetrating a fraud on Joseph P. Sullivan, to whom the latter sold a Gladstone cutter on Saturday last and was paid by a check on the Bank of Hamilton. He presented the check on Monday morning, when the teller reported no funds. Having heard something of Green's reputation in the meantime he swore out a warrant for his arrest. Mr. Buchan, Manager of the Toronto Branch of the Bank of Hamilton, swore that the prisoner had an account in the Bank of Hamilton. On Jan. 22 he opened his account, depositing $110. Next day his check for $35 was honored, and two days afterwards a check for $24 was passed into the bank, leaving a balance of $1 to his credit. A great many checks had been presented against that balance of $1. Green was committed for trial.

The Attorney-General has fixed to-morrow immediately on the rising of the House as the time when he will receive a deputation from the various railways interested in opening up the northern portion of Ontario. Mr. W. R. McMurrich has written to the Mayor asking on behalf of the Nipissing and James Bay Railway that a deputation of the City Council be on hand on the occasion, further stating that the City Council of Hamilton and the Toronto Board of Trade will be represented.

It is understood that the advisability of establishing a bank clearing house in Toronto similar to that recently established in Montreal, and to those already in operation in other large commercial centres on this continent will be discussed shortly by the bankers of this city.

The adjourned meeting of the Convocation took place yesterday for the purpose of considering the resolution for the formation of a new Law School in connection with the Law Society of Upper Canada. The matter was thoroughly discussed. It is understood that the course that will be pursued will be substantially as follows, according to the resolution submitted: That it is not expedient to establish a law school in connection with any University; but it is advisable that a law school be established to be presided over by a principal. That the delivery of lectures at places outside of Toronto be deferred until after it is seen how the present plan works. That the attendance at lectures be compulsory, and that the present Primary Examination be abolished. That the Principal of the proposed new Law School must be a member of the Bar of at least ten years' standing, and that his salary be not less than $3500. That two lecturers at at least $900 each and two examiners at at least $600 each be likewise engaged. That the fees paid by students be $20 each year.

The third annual meeting of the Dominion Ayrshire Breeders' Association was opened at the Albion Hotel yesterday afternoon with President Geo. McCormick in the chair. Secretary Henry Wade reported that although the standard of admission to the Herd Book had been raised the entries were freely increasing, and that there was every hope that their favorite breed would soon become the leading dairy cattle. The Herd Book now numbers 818 bulls and 1243 cows.

The Jeffery investigation drags its slow length along. The case for the prosecution is finished, and Mr. Jeffery was yesterday examined in his own defence. Among the numerous charges it has leaked out that one the prosecution rely most upon is the charge of drunkenness.

HAMILTON, Feb. 6.—At the last meeting of the Board of Education for 1888 held this afternoon, an address engrossed in an album, which also contained photographs of all the public schools, was presented to Mr. James Cummings on his retirement from the board, after 37 years' service. Mr. S. F. Lazier was unanimously chosen chairman of the board for 1889.

Herbert Galvin, Michael Burns and John Stoneman were arrested on a charge of housebreaking. Galvin is a rising young burglar and Burns is said to be an old offender.

Thomas Hooper, who was found in St. Mary's Cathedral Monday night by Vicar-General Heenan, pleaded guilty when he was arraigned before Police Magistrate Cahill this morning. The prisoner's past record went against him and he was sentenced to twelve months in the Central Prison.

Thomas Stephens, a machinist who lives at No. 105 Hunter-street west, was the defendant in a suit brought by Matilda Stephens, his wife, at the Police Court this morning, for neglecting to support her and her two children. The case was allowed to stand until Friday.

MANITOBA MEASURES.

The Proposed Registration and Manor License Acts.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 6.—The new Registration Act, which, if passed, comes into force Nov. 1 next, provides for the abolition of the present registry offices and the division of the province into land titles districts.

The new Liquor License Act provides for closing bars at 11 o'clock instead of 11.30.

The Winnipeg Irishmen meet Saturday to organize the new St. Patrick's Society.

BIG FIRE AT BRACEBRIDGE.

Several Buildings in Flames—A Midnight Blaze.

BRACEBRIDGE, Feb. 7.—A fire broke out in Colley's grocery shop at midnight and is still raging. The following buildings were in flames at 2 a.m.: Colley's grocery, Kinyon's barber shop, Brashen's billiard saloon.

A Single Trial

is all that is needed to prove that Polson's Nerviline is the most rapid and certain remedy in the world for pain. It only costs 10 cents for a trial bottle. A single trial bottle will prove Nerviline to be equally efficacious as an external or internal remedy, and for pain of every description it has no equal. Try 10 cent sample bottle. Sold by druggists. Large bottles 25 cents. Avoid substitutes. 6w6d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Professional Opinion.

Rev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three boys B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, Sr., Marys, Ont. 2w6d

A Boon and a Blessing.

A boon and a blessing to mankind is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the great pain destroyer and healing remedy for external and internal use. Yellow oil cures all aches and pains, rheumatism, lame back, sore throat, croup, deafness, cramps, contracted cords and lameness. Procure it of your druggist. 2w6d

Look Out for It.

If you are troubled with a cold or cough, however light the attack, look out for it, do not allow it to settle on the lungs; break up the cough by loosening the tough phlegm with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. 2w6d

SHEPPARD'S OLD STAND, UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK,

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockalorums of the Clothing Trade.

Letting Wood Contracts.

The Charity Committee last night let contracts for the supply of 125 cords of wood for charity purposes, as follows:—Dry wood, Mr. H. Stewart, of Otonabee, and Messrs. Geo. Young and Jos. Forster, of Monaghan; green wood, Mr. Wm. Fletcher, Otonabee. There were 17 tenders to consider.

Eastern Ontario Orangemen.

The annual meeting of the Orange Grand Lodge of Eastern Ontario will begin at Campbellford the first Tuesday in March. There will be a large delegation in attendance from Peterborough. The Provincial Black Chapter will meet the day previous.

Leave your order for Magazines, Periodicals, Daily Papers, &c., at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

A Farmers' Picnic.

The Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham Farmers' Institutes, five in all, have arranged for a grand farmers' picnic at Rice lake next June. The Minister of Agriculture, Professor Saunders and Professor Shaw have been interviewed by Messrs. Birdsall and Garbutt, of Peterborough, and Westington, of Northumberland, and have promised to be present.

Hymeneal.

Mr. Robt. F. Green, a former resident of Peterborough, who went from here to Erie, Penn., and afterwards to Illicellewait, N. W. T., was married the other day to a young lady of Erie. Mr. Green was in Peterborough only a couple of weeks ago on a visit. "Bob's" old friends will heartily congratulate him.

The W.C.T.U. wish to acknowledge the following donations for destitute families:—Mr. H. S. Griffin, blanket; Mr. O. C. Rowse, heavy coverlid; Messrs. Foot & McWhinnie, boots and rubbers; Mr. A. Clegg, mattress; Mrs. Meldrum, infant's flannels; Mrs. Stanger, children's garments and pair of rubbers; Mrs. Hunter, warm quilt; Mr. Stenson, boots and shoes.

The Military Camp.

There is a rumored probability of the annual camp of military districts Nos. 3 and 4 being held at Peterborough this year. It is said the military authorities have been making enquiries for a suitable ground. Col. J. Z. Rogers has written to headquarters about the matter, and will make an effort to have the camp held here this year. No better grounds could be wished for than those of the Agricultural Society, if they could be secured for the purpose.

Spinsters' Social.

The bachelors of the George street Methodist church, having made a gallant attempt at church entertainments, the spinsters of the congregation now propose to show them how such things should be done. Accordingly on Friday evening February 22nd., a Spinsters' Social will be held. "When she will she will you may depend on't," and the ladies are determined to show the gentlemen that their recent entertainment was in comparison mere "boys' play." In spite of the assertion of an envious bachelor that the chief feature of the material and intellectual bill of fare of the Spinsters' Social will be "strong tea and gossip," respectively, the ladies assure the public that a splendid and varied bill-of fare in both kinds will be presented on Friday evening Feb. 22nd.

The Hockey Match.

The following case was disposed of at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, yesterday, before Armour, C.J., and Street, J.:—

Hellyard v. Beck.—Watson, for the defendant, Steckert, appealed from the judgment of Boyd, C., for $426 in favor of the plaintiff at the trial of an action to recover the value of improvements made by the plaintiff upon rectory lands in the township of Smith. Said lands were devised to the plaintiff by the defendant, Beck, rector of Peterborough, and were subsequently sold by the defendant Beck and the Synod of Toronto to the appellant. The plaintiff's lease contained a covenant for renewal or payment for improvement. H. T. Beck for the defendant, Beck; D. W. Dumble (Peterborough) for the plaintiff. Judgment reserved.

Orange Officers.

The following are the officers of East Durham County Orange Lodge:—County Master, Jas. Thorndyke; Deputy Master, Thos. Leith; Chaplain, Rebt. Vance; Secretary, G. McCartney; Treasurer, W. G. Stevenson; Director of Ceremonies, G. Ward; Deputy Lecturer, J. J. Preston; Deputy Lecturer R. Shaw.

A largely attended meeting of Victoria County Orange Lodge was held in Lindsay on Tuesday last when the following officers were elected:—Master, C. Fairburn, re-elected; Deputy Master, McIntosh, Fenelon Falls; Chaplain, Rev. A. Watson, Bobcaygeon; Director of Ceremonies, S. Hughes; Recording Secretary, John Kelly; Financial Secretary, Thos. Martha; Treasurer, Jos. Brown. It was unanimously resolved to celebrate the coming twelfth in Lindsay.

"A Feather in his Cap."

Mr. Holden has opened a new hotel at the junction of the Central Ontario R. R. with the C.P.R., on the C.P.R., line east of Peterborough. When he spoke of procuring furniture he and his wife proposed going to Toronto, but the station agent at the junction told them that Bellegheem of Peterborough, the Furniture King, could supply them as satisfactorily. However, having business in Toronto, they went up and looked about, on their return they dropped off at Peterborough, and gave Bellegheem a visit. The result was that they purchased from him an entire outfit of furniture for the hotel, declaring that they had done better with Bellegheem than they could do in Toronto. Before coming to Peterborough, they had no idea that there was such an important town here, or that it contained a furniture establishment like Bellegheem's, that could successfully compete with Toronto, and furnish the public in this district with an easily accessible furniture establishment where every want in their line could be supplied. Not only did Bellegheem attract them to town, but through coming to him, Mr. Holden secured the entire outfit for his hotel in town, stoves, tinware, etc., at one place, carpets, curtains, etc., at another, and as others whatever was needed. This is a largish feather in Bellegheem's cap, and he has won it and wears it worthily. Bellegheem is the man to demonstrate that Peterborough business men can give the public as good goods and as good value for their money as they can get in the cities.

Railway Notes.

The fatal accident that occurred at Campbellford Friday last has stirred up the authorities to demand a better observance of the railway regulations at that point. The Herald claims that the law on some points is almost wholly disregarded.

The snowstorm has impeded railway traffic more or less. On the C.P.R., eastern division, the track is very heavy. The morning express from Montreal did not reach Peterborough till noon to-day, crossing the down 11.30 train here. On the Midland no serious stoppage has resulted. Some of the trains were a little behind, the noon express being forty minutes late.

Grand Trunk Railway engineers were in Campbellford some days ago, says the Herald, taking measurements of the height and length of the bridge, looking at the grades of the track, and studying the route through the village. It has been said that the Company will shortly erect a new bridge where the old one now stands, and raise the track probably ten or twelve feet higher, in which case the roadways in the village would be spanned by overhead bridges like the one on Ranney street. It is also stated that it is the intention of the Grand Trunk to build the road where the new route was surveyed last summer, crossing the river in the southern part of the village. This route will certainly prove a saving in the distance to be travelled, and be less dangerous to the public, do away with the heavy grades which now exist on the present line, and afford a better location for a more commodious station. It is the wish of the public of that locality that the Grand Trunk will adopt a new route through the village.

The Peterborough Rangers.

Extracts From the Annual Militia Report—The Local Battalion.

The annual report of the Department of Militia and Defence of the Dominion of Canada for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1888, has arrived at the Examiner office, and from it some interesting statistics are gleaned.

The total militia force of Canada is 37,474.

Lt. Col. Van Straubenzie, Deputy Adjutant-General, commanding military district Nos. 3 and 4, reports as follows of the 57th Battalion, Peterborough:—

This corps was inspected by me on the 15th November. The regiment paraded over strength and some of the companies remarkably clean and in good order. The drill was very fair. I found the rifles much out of repair and have ordered them to be sent to Kingston for repairs. This corps is also under great disadvantages in having very bad armories. A plan of a new armory has already been submitted and which I hope will meet with the approval and sanction of the Honorable the Minister. There is great esprit de corps in this regiment, and officers and men are deserving of encouragement in a substantial form.

In my opinion city corps cannot be efficiently maintained if not provided with good armories, drill shed and paid caretakers.

In the detailed inspection report the established strength is placed at 26 officers and 252 men; actually strength at inspection 21 officers and 256 men. The time required to concentrate the battalion is 6 hours. The general conduct of the troops is mentioned as "good;" general state of clothing, arms and accountrements good. The nature of movements at inspection and how performed was as follows:—Marching past very fair; battalion movements also fair; manual and firing exercise good; extended order not practiced. The target practice returns had not been rendered and were not included in the report.

The ammunition issued was as follows:—To Major Bell, 57th Batt., 1,000 rounds of Martini Henry and 1,000 rounds Snider rifles; cost $36.00. To J. B. Pentland, for Peterborough Rifle Association, 5,000 rounds, cost $60.

Personal.

Mr. John Bertram, of Toronto, is in town to-day.

Mr. John McKee is attending a meeting of the council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy this week.

Mr. J. T. Emerson left this morning for Port Arthur, Ont., where he will engage in the tin and general hardware business. Mrs. Emerson will follow in the spring.

The public will learn with great regret that Mrs. Peter Hamilton is prostrated with serious illness. Her condition is not without danger, but the numerous friends of the family, while sympathizing with them in their affliction, hope for a favorable termination of Mrs. Hamilton's illness.

A Call to Consistency.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:—

Sir,—The ratepayers of our city fathers about the manufacturers causes no little amount of merriment among those already here and it beats them to know whether our representatives are in earnest or not, and with a good deal of reason, especially after listening to the inducements held out to Ashburnham to join Peterborough. But if we are to judge of the past action of the two municipalities towards manufacturers already here, I think the annex should be the other way, as Ashburnham has always provided good roads for her manufacturers to enable them to move their goods for shipment, and to enable some of Peterborough's to move theirs. Compare the back streets of Ashburnham with Race street, Peterborough, where last fall and early winter the manufacturers along said street had to ask Mr. Hazlitt for sawdust to be dumped from his mills onto it, they (the manufacturers) agreeing to spread some to keep their own teams and those of their customers from miring. So bad was it, in fact, that for over two weeks, until the sawdust was put on it, the flour mills were unable to induce a farmer to bring a load of grain to their mill unless they would guarantee them against loss or damage to both waggon and horses, and one manufacturer, on this same street, who lives in Ashburnham, asked and received the use of the Dickson Company's private bridge at the end of the street sooner than risk his horses and waggons over this abominable piece of road. And what was the action of the corporation of Peterborough after having their attention drawn to the terrible state of this street, both by private parties and press notices? They sent a team for a day to draw earth from Waterford street and dumped it at the flume crossing. If they had put it in somebody's vegetable garden for which it was better suited, it would have done more good. It took seven years to get a sidewalk on this street, (although it is only two blocks in length) for the people employed in the factories—considerably over one hundred in number—to walk to and from their work, and, had it not been for the two councillors who retired this year we would not have had one yet. If this is to be the policy of the present council of Peterborough, Ashburnham had better go slow or take the Peterborough Council over there to school for a while, or at least that portion of it called the Street and Bridge Committee. And before they talk so loud about inducing manufactures to come here, let them wash this blot on the fair name of the town out by giving those already here a decent street in which to move their goods which is simply justice. Apologizing for the valuable space I have taken up in your paper.

I am, yours truly,
A Traveller on Race Street.

Miss Phelps' Lecture.

An Earnest Address on Temperance Topics—How to Get Rid of the Liquor Traffic.

Last night Miss Minnie Phelps lectured before an audience of about 150 in the school room of the George street Methodist church. Rev. M. L. Pearson occupied the chair, and after opening services introduced the lecturess of the evening. Miss Phelps is quite well known in Peterborough to be a good speaker on behalf of the temperance cause.

Beginning at the beginning, she traced the history of the liquor traffic from its inception to the present period of its enormous size. This part of the lecture was interesting indeed, and would require a two column report to do it justice. Miss Phelps pointed out that the liquor traffic became a licensed institution about three hundred years ago, in the reign of Edward VI., for the express purpose of preventing the wholesale of intemperance that was springing up in the land; but, she said, the license system had proved a total failure, for who would pretend to say that it has checked intemperance in the least. Had it not rather increased under the license system, and was it not increasing year by year? There was no doubt about the enormity of the curse; the only question was the best means to get rid of it. The temperance people wanted prohibition, or the Scotts Act for the present; the friends of the liquor traffic wanted a license system. The people of this county would be called on in the spring to vote upon this question, and Miss Phelps charged her hearers that a great responsibility rested upon them. Opponents of the Act were crying out that the people must be educated up to a high standard of morality before such a law could be enforced, but if the temperance party waited for that higher education to come the need for this law would be past. They wanted legislation to fit the need of the hour. This liquor traffic had been legislated into existence and it could be legislated out again. Their opponents also urged moral suasion, but it was observed that when only these forces or the license system were used to curtail the traffic, the liquor sellers never grumbled. They had things too much their own way. But when public opinion demanded a resort to civil law and the Scott Act came in force they could not make so much money and so they raise a big cry about depriving them of personal liberty and interfering with their citizen privileges. Miss Phelps claimed the people had a right to intertere in this question, for it was vested in the State, and every inhabitant of the country was entitled to a voice in such matters. Any institution that interferes with society, as the liquor traffic does, society has a right to interfere with. This was a square issue the people had to face; it was in their hands to either perpetuate or annihilate this great curse. Miss Phelps urged her hearers to remember their obligations, and said they had much encouragement in their good work.

At the conclusion of the lecture a vote of thanks was moved the speaker by Dr. Fife, which was seconded by Mr. F. Mason, and carried unanimously.

Rev. Mr. Pearson added a few remarks anent the coming struggle, and said if no one else would do so he knew one individual who was prepared to stand up in defence of the Scotts Act, which he denied had proved a failure. He would challenge anyone to prove to the contrary. It had not done as much as was expected of it, perhaps, but that was not the fault of the law.

The pronouncing of the benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Trouble in the Amen Corner.

Salvation Soldiers Rejected and Put Through a Two[Weeks' Knee Drill.

Since Capt. Ada Hines took charge of the Salvation Army here a process of culling has been going on for the purpose of re-organizing the corps on a strictly consecrated basis. Capt. Hines "sized up" the soldiers of the Peterborough corps and for various reasons came to the conclusion that all were not worthy of the name of God's people or fit to associate with such. Accordingly a number of the red-jackets were discarded and the remainder are being put through a severe discipline in order to test their qualification for the position of a recognized soldier of Christ. Since a week ago last Monday close meetings for soldiers only have been held at the barracks, no public parades have been held and the outside world might in consequence run away with the idea that the Army was dead. The term of probation will expire Saturday night, when it is expected the corps will again appear in increased strength and religious fervor. Only those soldiers who pass unscathed through the two weeks ordeal of drill will be permitted to join the ranks. Capt. Hines is determined to have only a band of thoroughly consecrated people about her, and in her efforts to set right the erring ones she is receiving the support of the soldiers.

The Late Canon Street.

Death of a Peterborough District Pioneer Missionary.

The death is recorded in Florida on Sunday last of Rev. Canon Street, who was at one time a missionary in this district. In a letter written last October Canon Street thus refers to his experience in this district:—

I first entered upon my ministerial life as a travelling missionary in the backwoods of Canada. I think it must have been in the latter part of the summer of 1840, when I was consequently nearly 27 years of age, that I entered upon my duties as incumbent of the township of Emily and surrounding country. I took with me my bride of a few weeks—who, by the mercy of God, is still spared to walk by my side along the downhill of life; and we took up our abode in a small cottage close to Cottingham's sawmill and facing an open space that lay between us and the main road that traversed the village. I well remember how, in the long winter nights, after we had retired to rest, we would hear the deep baying of the wolves, echoing drearily across the frozen and snow-covered surface. Previous, however, to my appointment to Emily, I had occasionally—perhaps frequently—visited it in the capacity of travelling missionary in the Newcastle District, and, to the best of my recollection, a mutual good understanding, amounting, I think, to attachment, grew up in this way between the people and myself.

My sphere of duty was a wide one, embracing in one direction Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Fenelon Falls, and in another Grafton, Colborne, Seymour, Asphodel, Dummer and other localities the names of which have long ago faded from my recollection. These journeys were made on horseback, the only possible mode of locomotion, aside from walking, that was available for me in the then existing condition of the bush woods roads, except of course in winter, when I used a cutter.

My "get up" on the occasion of my expeditions was as elaborate as circumstances would allow. On each side of the saddle hung a saddlebag, one of which was well filled with prayer-books, testaments and tracts; the other held the changes of raiment which exposure to heat and cold and storms rendered imperatively necessary. Behind my saddle was strapped, in a small round leather case, some clerical vestment or other, and thus equipped I sallied forth to deliver my message.

A COMMOTION IN GRIMSBY.

Lively Times Over the Arrest of an Alleged Scott Act Offender.

St. Catharines, Feb. 6.—Early on Monday morning, Constable Root of Beamsville arrived in Grimsby with a Scott Act warrant for the arrest of Mr. Adam Konkle, charged with a breach of that law for the third time. Konkle on receiving the information asked permission to go to his bedroom and dress for the journey to St. Catharines. In doing so he was followed by Root, who, as Mrs. Konkle states, stood in the door of the room where she was just getting out of bed and dressing. She asked Root to retire for a few moments but he declined, which conduct so exasperated her that she slammed the door in his face and locked him out. Root was in doubt as to whether he could break in the door to secure his prisoner, and after a long parley sent for Scott Act Magistrate Davis and some constables. On the news spreading through the village a large crowd gathered, and the constables, who were around the house, remained until after dinner, when the door of the room was smashed and the man secured. During the excitement, it is said, Konkle fired several shots, and his father broke one of the windows in handing him up a club with which to defend himself against the housebreakers. The prisoner was finally brought off to St. Catharines jail in a sleigh, and the affair is the subject of much comment as to whether the charge upon which he was arrested justifies the authorities in breaking into the man's house or otherwise.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Fletcher Released From Custody. The Central Farmers' Institute.

Toronto, Feb. 6. Mr. Justice MacMahon gave his decision yesterday in the capias proceedings of Rice v. Fletcher. This is the case in which the defendant has been languishing some days in jail on an action for $20,000 for alienating the affections of the plaintiff's wife. Mr. Fletcher of Kankakee, it is alleged, was in the habit of coming to Canada and inducing the plaintiff's wife to reside with him at the leading hotels during her husband's absence. In support of the motion for the defendant's release from custody a number of affidavits were read, among others that of Mrs. Rice, who admitted visiting the defendant but denied any wrongful act. His Lordship, in a somewhat lengthy judgment, came to the conclusion that the defendant was a foreigner and residing merely temporarily here, his home being in the United States, and consequently was not liable to arrest under the statute. The defendant was accordingly ordered to be released from custody, but the $20,000 action will, it is understood, be pushed merrily along.

The feature of yesterday's session of the Central Farmers' Institute was the annual address of President Fuller, who began by referring to the gratifying success of the Central Institute. A few years ago they organized with trepidation, but hard work had made the Institute a lasting success beyond peradventure. There are now in the province 71 institutes representing 5000 farmers, but there are 12 electoral districts in which there are no institutes, and the president strongly urged his hearers to endeavor to plant the banner in these places. The farmers' interests have been the most neglected of any class of the community and it was to aid them that the local farmers' institutes were established to spread agricultural education and it was for the same purpose that the great central body was formed. As tokens of the work done by the Central Institute he pointed out that the body's influence was the chief cause of a practical farmer being appointed Ontario Minister of Agriculture. These officers for 1889 were elected:

President—Nicholas Awrey, M.P.P., Binbrook.
Vice-President—T. Lord Jones, Borford.
Secy.-Treasurer—A. R. Pettit, Grimsby.
Executive Committee—Thos. Keila, Vandelear; Valancey E. Fuller, Hamilton; Prof. Thos. Shaw, Guelph; Colin Campbell, Nelson; M. Bogart, Napanee; James McEwing, Drayton; G. Copeland, Hespeler; David Muir, Renfrew; S. Kitchen, St. George; D. Derbyshire, Brockville.
Auditors—James Laidlaw, Guelph, and Thomas A. Good, Brantford.

Somethings Still Coming.

Mr. Peter Hamilton has had printed at the Examiner job printing rooms, a neat and tasty supplemental annual catalogue of the leading agricultural implements. It is intended for free distribution amongst the farmers, and contains, besides illustrations and descriptions of the best farming implements made, useful tables, memoranda, cash accounts, etc. It will be of the greatest use to the farmer, enabling him to keep an exact, complete and systematic record of all his farm and dairying operations. It adds another to the many obligations the farmers of the districts are under to Mr. Peter Hamilton.

New Dressmaker
AT
TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the principal Montreal and Toronto dry goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended to us we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and love for business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

THE DOMINION ALLIANCE.

The Advocates of Total Prohibition Heard at the Capital.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—The annual convention of the Dominion Alliance for the Total Suppression of the Liquor Traffic met this morning in the City Hall. There was a numerous gathering from all parts of the Dominion, [illegible] every province being represented. [illegible] Rev. Dr. Wild presided. [illegible] Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Ottawa, read the report of the executive committee, which was a very lengthy document. It commenced with a review of the history of the Alliance since its formation, and then dealt with the present position of the temperance question. The report congratulated the friends of temperance on the progress of the total prohibition movement and the increased effectiveness of our prohibitory legislation are strikingly evidenced by the fact of the remarkable [illegible] in the quantity of spirits [illegible] in our country. The report of the Minister of Inland Revenue for the year ending June 30, 1887, shows [illegible] Year. [illegible] spirits taken for consumption. Proof Gallons.

St. Andrew's Hall.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society was held last night and among other things discussed was the advisability of procuring a suitable hall for society purposes, to be called St. Andrew's Hall. The Secretary was instructed to call a special meeting of the Society on February 21st to decide the question. It is a matter of surprise that St. Andrew's Society has not long ago procured a hall for itself. This one of the oldest and strongest societies in town, but perhaps the only one without a definite place of meeting.

THE NEED OF THE HOUR!

Men of Character, Manliness and Principle.

Rev. Mr. Dewey's Lecture on the Above Subject—A Crowded House to Hear Him—A Rousing Temperance Address —Speaks for the Scott Act Campaign.

The Scott Act campaign has been opened by the temperance party in a pronounced manner. J. R. Clarke Sunday afternoon at [illegible] Monday night, Miss Phelps Wednesday night and Rev. Mr. Dewey Thursday night —four temperance lectures in a week is an evidence that the repeal of the Scott Act will not be effected without a struggle. The temperance people are enthusiastic over their work and appear quite confident of the result.

The opera house was nearly filled Thursday evening when Rev. Mr. Dewey lectured on "The need of the hour," under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Rev. P. C. Parker presided, and had associated with him on the platform Rev. Mr. Dewey, Rev. [illegible] Parsons.

After an opening hymn and prayer Mr. Parker made a few [illegible] pointing out the needs [illegible] was in the progress of the temperance movement in the last 25 years, and commending the W. C. T. U. for the grand work it was doing.

"I'm little temperance boys" then performed a pretty recitation [illegible] chorus.

Rev. Mr. Dewey [illegible] his address with a song. He first pointed out the motives that should guide men's lives—character, manhood and principle. But [illegible] degenerate age unfortunately cash [illegible] worshippers than character, [illegible] more thought of than manhood, [illegible] more to party than to principle, and [illegible] time more than eternity. The [illegible] of the hour" was to counteract these things and get men to look at matters from [illegible] and straighten to see the grandeur [illegible] in character and the meanness that [illegible] money some times; the glory of manhood and the idolatry of the worship of [illegible] to see the beauty there is in principle and the power there is in party to blast even the unscrupulous scheme [illegible] should [illegible] that time is given them here simply for the development of a being who will find its beauty in eternity. What was causing this state of affairs, that men should value money and influence over character and principle? It was the disease of avarice that was creeping into the home, the church, the parliament, and demoralizing the world. The appe[illegible] bribery money, our electoral system, which he said was being raised by the corrupt use of money in the hands of unprincipled politicians. These bran[illegible] votes should be branded as the meanest of men instead of being taken into the confidence of the government. Then men planned in conventions and council to secure votes unworthily, and at municipal elections the cry was that the liquor must be [illegible] and men were ready to vote for a liquor license by-law in order [illegible] they may obtain office. Principle and honor were sacrificed by these men for the sake of avarice. But the man who voted for the license law endorsed and justified the liquor law by his action. They excuse themselves by saying, "we will put these men under a strict license law"—but was there ever a liquor-[illegible] that was not [illegible] The need of the hour [illegible] the prohibition for liquor selling [illegible] for a crime. But so long as men valued cash more than character and [illegible] than principle this would be [illegible] The great argument of the Anti-[illegible] was that there was [illegible] business.

Passing on to notice the [illegible] sordid greed for money [illegible] the speaker pointed out the [illegible] was between the POOR AND [illegible]

The former, no matter [illegible] by he may be, is ostracized [illegible] ciety; while the [illegible] cigoled scoundrel, if he [illegible] is welcomed and no questions asked. [illegible] views of the rich young men are condemned but those of the poor young man are not tolerated. The remedy here was to encourage principles of honesty and manliness in our young men.

Next the church was taken up, and here too were pointed out the baneful effects of money in the hands of men of no character. Of course no one would insinuate that preachers sought after the best appointments or congregations that paid big salaries, but it very often happened that right there the very best talent was needed. The high-priced preacher sometimes dip their nets on the wrong side of the boat—they should drop it inside occasionally. It was unfortunately true in [illegible] that a man could be a preacher [illegible] but he would not be [illegible] paid or well. Rev. Mr. Dewey [illegible] in his own career. While [illegible] Brighton he frequently spoke on temperance questions, but he [illegible] that [illegible] that unless he gave it his full [illegible] and the hall paying [illegible] would leave the congregation. Rev. Mr. Dewey [illegible] and Kelly [illegible] to attend the church [illegible] was evidently not [illegible] during the Scott Act [illegible] Robinson's house with [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] Kelly was at the top head of [illegible] trial, a poor creature who was sent to the penitentiary for firing the barns [illegible] that Kelly hired him to do it. And after all this, only last year Kelly was elected a councillor for Brighton. That was the way money had a corrupting and debasing influence in the church. It was the best payers in the church that were raising the devil in the church to-day. [A voice—"hear, hear."] Mr. Dewey—"That suggests that the man I speak of is down there. I hope not." (Laughter.) Continuing, he said that until the church got above these things it would be constantly troubled.

Coming down to the home, the pernicious influences of avarice were apparent. In some homes nothing was talked of but money, and the boys were trained to be economical and grasping rather than to be manly and honest. But for all such there was

A TERRIBLE RECKONING.

Rev. Mr. Dewey related a couple [illegible] an his own [illegible] where [illegible] old [illegible] were [illegible] with [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] rupted [illegible] child [illegible] But, [illegible] there were a great many [illegible] country where love and character [illegible] virtues taught; there should be more of them.

This disposition to grasp money by any means was a prevailing one among the young men of the day; they were being educated to this by the ranges of society. The remedy for this was individual work. Let every person reach out and lend a helping hand to the young men and encourage him to principles of character, manhood and honesty; teach him that by these principles alone, and not by the base use of money, can he attain high positions and influence in life. The speaker urged this individual duty upon his hearers and for the encouragement of young men who had tried to do better and had failed, and were [illegible] discouraged, pointed out that [illegible] put their case in God's hands. And when men failed to God were pleased to pay money and unwisely and perhaps, the victory would be achieved.

[illegible] Rev. M. L. Rose in [illegible] thanks [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] The [illegible] question was to make a success [illegible] year [illegible] and whether the Board [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

AT TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

SHAVING PRICES
That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots, Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on none do we seek to secure more than we have paid.
The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.
This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

CALCULATING THE COST

THE DOMINION ESTIMATES FOR THE COMING FISCAL YEAR.

Comparative Statement — Amounts Set Down for Public Buildings and Rivers and Harbors in Ontario.

OTTAWA, Feb. 8.—Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, laid on the table of the House this afternoon the estimates for 1889-'90. Sir Richard Cartwright asked if it was the intention of the Government to follow the example this year, for the first time inaugurated by Sir Charles Tupper in 1883, of considering the estimates before the Budget speech was delivered. Mr. Foster said that was the intention of the Government and he proposed to proceed with the estimates on Tuesday next. "That rule," said Mr. Foster, "is commonly followed in the British House of Commons. I don't think there can be any objection to it here."

"I do not object," replied Sir Richard.

The amount asked towards ordinary expenditure is $35,410,280, as compared with $36,738,227 which was asked last year, a reduction of $1,325,977. The amounts asked for under the usual heads, with their increases and decreases as compared with last year, are as follows:

Appropriations for Capital Account.

The above figures cover the expected current expenditure. The appropriations for the coming year on capital account are not so favorable. They exceed last year's by $455,730, as follows:

Redemption of debt	$6,417,267 66	.....	$977,119 10
Railways and canals(capital)	3,391,940 00	1,121,690 00	.....
Public works (capital)	497,000 00	91,200 00	.....
Dom'n lands	100,000 00	.....	10,000 00
Total capital	$9,225,207 66	$455,730 90	$977,119 10
Grand total	$46,635,287 10		$977,249 08

Taking into account both the figures of ordinary expenditure and the appropriations on capital account the grand total estimates for next year are $977,249 less than for last year, when they reached $45,589,124.

These estimates never cause much speculation in the House and they are generally brought down early in the session. It is the supplementary estimates, generally laid on the table at the tail end of the session, that possess interest for the members and the country. The great items in the supplementary estimates this year will be the subsidies for the proposed fast Atlantic mail service and the proposed line of steamers from British Columbia to China and Japan. In connection with this line of steamers there is an effort on foot to have it extended to the Australian colonies. Mr. H. A. Massey of Toronto is one of the advocates of the Australian extension and he saw several members of the Government to-day with that in view. Mr. Massey sends many of his agricultural implements to that far-off colony and he wants the trade extended. At present they have to be sent to their destination via San Francisco. It is not likely, however, that the Government is prepared to extend its subsidies this year in favor of a direct Canadian-Australian line of steamships.

Some of the principal items in the estimates chargeable to capital are:

Sault Ste. Marie Canal	$1,391,600
Cornwall Canal	1,200,000
St. Lawrence River and Canals	600,000
Williamsburgh Canal	208,000
Towards completing the present Murray Canal	$27,000
Welland Canal, deepening to 14 feet throughout, etc.	$12,700

The sum of $58,200 is also asked for the Welland Canal, chargeable to income. For the Port Arthur harbor and Kaministiquia River, $123,000, chargeable to capital, is asked, and for the Kingston graving dock, $124,000.

The following amount is among others are set down for public buildings in Ontario, chargeable to income:

Brampton public building	$ 7000
Cayuga postoffice, to complete	4500
Cobourg postoffice, custom house, etc., to complete	6000
Gananoque postoffice, custom house, etc., to complete	2500
Goderich postoffice, custom house, etc.	7
Government printing bureau, to complete	33,0..
Lindsay postoffice, custom house, etc.	9000
London custom house (re-vote)	4000
Niagara postoffice, custom house, etc., to complete	11,000
Port Arthur postoffice, custom house, etc., on proper site being given	7000
Strathroy postoffice, custom house, etc.	7000
Toronto Dominion building, improvements, etc.	1500
Trenton public building	7000
Toronto drill hall, for the construction of, on condition that the City of Toronto provide a plot of land as agreed upon	20,000

For harbors and rivers in Ontario, chargeable to income, these amounts are set down among others:

Cobourg harbor	$ 6000
Kincardine, repairs	2000
Kingston harbor	6000
Owen Sound	15,000
Port Elgin	3000
Port Hope, repairs	2500
Meaford, the town having furnished $3000, to complete	3000
Belleville, to complete harbor works, the local authorities protecting the inland with cribwork to the extent of $8000	4000
Collingwood harbor works improvement	3000
Toronto harbor works at eastern entrance, the city of Toronto having to contribute $150,000	30,000
Penetanguishene harbor works, locality having furnished $10,000	3000
General repairs and improvements, harbors and rivers in Ontario	10,000

A HOST OF DELEGATIONS.

CALL ON THE PREMIER OF ONTARIO YESTERDAY.

Women Suffrage—Amendments to the Liquor Law and Aid for New Railways in the Province Advocated.

TORONTO, Feb. 9.—The House did not sit long yesterday; on its rising Mr. Mowat and his colleagues received a number of important deputations in the library, which was crowded on the occasion.

The Canadian Women's Enfranchisement Association had for spokeswomen Mrs. Brethour, Mrs. Dr. Emily Stowe, Mrs. Macdonnell and Mrs. Parker. Mrs. Dr. Stowe explained that the intention of their society was to extend to our women the right to vote in parliamentary as well as in municipal elections. Their privilege of municipal voting none would say had been abused. The exclusion of women from participation in government virtually classed them with infants, imbeciles and the insane. They asked for the ballot for all women on the same conditions as to men, but they would accept any portion of their request that honorable gentlemen would grant.

"Ladies," said the Premier, "I am delighted to have heard you. I am quite sure my colleagues share my delight. I have listened with the greatest possible interest to the addresses that have been made here. They have been eloquent and forcible and, ladies, if anybody can answer the reasons you have given I cannot. [Applause.] As a practical politician, I do not say you can attain your object this year or next year; but I hope I shall remain long enough in office to be the instrument of its attainment. [Laughter.] The movement you urge is making great progress at least, in all the English speaking portion of the world. What has been done in municipal elections in this country has added strength to your arguments."

Mr. F. S. Spence was the spokesman of a delegation from the Dominion Alliance asking for amendments to the Crooks Act. Mr. Spence said the Alliance was anxious to have the Crooks Act improved so that liquor could not be sold to be drunk in bar-rooms, but would have to be consumed in the rooms of guests or off the premises; that those who wished to sell liquor should be compelled to produce a petition signed by eighty out of the hundred ratepayers adjacent to the site of the proposed saloon, asking for the licensing of such house; that at municipal elections the ratepayers should be asked to mark a special ballot "license" or "no license" and as the majority voted so should the law be; that saloons should be closed Saturday night at 6 instead of 7; that as good had resulted from the closing of saloons on election days it would follow that great public benefit would accrue from their closing on the six public holidays of the year, avoiding the disgraceful scenes of last Christmas; that liquor should not be sold to anyone under 21 years of age; that the sale of liquor should be prohibited in the Parliament buildings; that clubs who sell liquor to their members should be more strictly regulated; that licenses should have each breach of the law of which they are guilty endorsed on their licenses, and that parties found in unlicensed dives should be taken to the police cells just as are the inmates of improper houses.

Mr. Mowat promised the consideration of his Cabinet of these suggested amendments.

Mr. James Conmee, M.P.P., was the first speaker on behalf of the railway deputations. They wished to induce the Government to adopt a policy to further the construction of railways.

Mayor Gorham of Port Arthur spoke of the now well known mineral resources of the Algoma region, the value of which our American cousins had appreciated by buying of it largely. Extending further to the north and west of these regions were enormous timber tracts. If these lands were so valuable as to be contested before the Privy Council surely the Government would support those who were trying to open up the country.

After addresses with reference to the Manitoulin Island railway and the Parry Sound Colonization Railway the big James Bay railway scheme came up.

Mr. Ince explained that the proposed railway would run from North Bay to Lake Temiscaming, thence to James Bay. "As a business matter," he urged, "it is worth while for the Government to assist this railway enterprise."

Mr. Mowat: "I recognise the importance of these objects and take much interest in the statements you have made in support of your various claims. The Government will carefully consider your proposals."

The bills to amend the Assessment Act this session are numerous. Yesterday Mr. Balfour, in moving a bill to amend it explained that where assessments were made in July, August or September in a separate town or municipality, and when an addition is made to the town of a place where assessments are made on the 1st of January there is no provision in the present law to collect the assessment. Mr. Balfour by his bill proposes to remedy this defect.

Mr. Balfour next pointed out a great abuse, which he said was often resorted to by deputy-returning officers, viz.: marking ballots in order that in case of scrutiny they would be thrown out by the judge. Mr Balfour's bill is to have the Election Act amended so as to have the ballots proved to be so marked counted in favor of the candidate for whom they are cast.

Amongst the petitions yesterday presented was one by Mr. Wood of Brant, asking an act permitting George W. Hill to practice medicine. Hill is a Six Nation Indian, who has worked many successful cures amongst his tribe by the use of medicines made from roots and herbs. He has acquired a great reputation amongst his people, and the petition asking for the act is signed by 28 chiefs of the Six Nation and the president of the Council. They say that Hill is their "Great Medicine Man" and is very skilled in the treatment of diseases.

Interest attaches to the notice of motion which Mr. Willoughby gave for Monday next: "That in the opinion of this House it is expedient that all magistrates should make the same returns of convictions and fines imposed by them in respect of infringements of the Canada Temperance Act as are made in other cases to the clerk of the peace, and that such returns, when made, should be published; and that all expenses in connection with the enforcement of said act should be submitted for audit to the county auditors."

SOME SECRET DOCUMENTS

HANDED TO THE PARNELL COMMISSION YESTERDAY.

An Intimation that the Production of Certain Letters Called to [Word illegible] Houston's Lives.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The cross-examination of Informer Lecaron was continued by Sir Charles Russell before the Parnell Commission to-day. The court room was crowded. Mr. Parnell was not present. Lecaron said that during the last fortnight he had got documents relating to the case from Mr. Anderson, an official of the Home Office, who at his private residence allowed witness to see the whole of the latter's past correspondence with the Home Office authorities. Witness then went to Cork-street with an unsigned letter of introduction which Anderson had given to Mr. Houston, the secretary of the Loyal Patriotic Union. In November, 1888, witness read the reports of the proceedings before the commission, and they gave him the impression that the British prosecution was lamely presented.

"That's very hard on the Attorney-General," said Sir Charles Russell, the remark causing much laughter.

Lecaron said that during the first three years of his service as a spy he received no payment from the Government and that at present he was receiving only part of his pay. "Anderson," continued Lecaron, "selected the documents he thought would be useful and I selected those that I thought would be useful to Houston, who in turn selected those to be read to the court. The work of selecting the papers occupied ten days. Anderson introduced me to Houston as a man who had been mutually selected to represent the prosecution in whom 'The Times and I can trust.' I made the first proposal to come here."

Lecaron said he had practised medicine and kept a drug store and had become rich. He had held a high military office in the brotherhood, but never an executive office. Bradley of Philadelphia was now at the head of the executive. The brotherhood in 1882 numbered 22,000. The membership is now higher and is increasing. The suppression of the League and the arrest of Irish members of Parliament gave an impetus to the organization. In 1881 both parties in the brotherhood were unanimous concerning outrages.

Witness said all the delegates to the convention had credentials from the League or from clubs affiliated with the League.

Sir Charles Russell asked that the covering letters to the Government be produced.

The witness asked: "Do you wish to risk men's lives?"

Sir Charles replied: "The judges will see the letters first and they will decide whether the names shall be published."

The court took a recess, and upon reassembling Sir Charles handed to the bench a paper which, he stated, contained such a grave statement that he wished to take the judges' opinion whether it should be noticed.

The cross-examination of Lecaron was continued. Witness said Parnell's only public visit to America took place in 1880, when he attended meetings in Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati. To witness' own knowledge, in the west the demonstrations were exclusively, and in the east mainly, in the hands of the revolutionary party. Members of Congress were connected with the revolutionary party. Witness admitted that respectable citizens and clergymen not connected with the U. B. attended and took prominent part in receptions to Parnell and in the meetings he attended.

"Would it be correct to say that Parnell's reception showed that he had the sympathy of Americans as well as of the Irish?" asked Sir Charles.

"It would," responded the witness.

Sir Charles quoted from the preamble of the condition of the American League showing that the organization's object was the establishment of peasant proprietorship and just laws in Ireland.

Witness said General Joss attended the Boston convention. Joss did not belong to the U.B., but was the originator of communications passing between the R.B. and the Russian Minister at Washington with a view to a possible war between England and Russia.

Sir Charles asked to be permitted to inspect the documents sent by witness under cover.

Sir Henry James and Mr. Reid, in the interests of third parties, opposed the application.

Sir Charles said he would like to inspect all the documents, but would be satisfied with permission to inspect the covering letters if he was assured that the other documents had no bearing on the case.

The court decided that Sir Charles, for the Parnellites, and Sir Henry James, for The Times, should consult together as to which documents might be inspected.

Morris' Denial.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Samuel Morris of this city, who was referred to in the testimony of Witness Beach in the Parnell inquiry at London yesterday, says: "I don't know this man Beach. I never was in Pittsburg in my life and I never attended a land league convention at Chicago. I have been President of the Robert Emmett Association and of course I am in sympathy with the land league. I don't know anything about Lomasney, whose family the witness said the Executive Committee of the convention of 1886 directed should be taken care of. I was at no such convention. I met Egan, Devoy and Judge Rooney of New York at the Republican National Convention last fall. I never met Lake, Dillon, or D. O'Mahon Connor. I don't see what the witness was driving at. He may have been at Chicago last fall when I was there, and perhaps he was around when some of us were talking in sympathy with Parnell.

Presbytery of Peterborough.

Official Report of the Proceedings at the Last Meeting of Presbytery.

The following is the official report of the proceeding of the latest session of the Presbytery of Peterborough, held in St. Andrew's church, Jan. 15th. Rev. Alex. Bell acted as Moderator, pro tempore:—

There were present, besides the Moderator, Messrs. Cleland, Ewing, Andrews, Bennett, Duncan, Sutherland, Cameron, Terrance, White, Carmichael, Craigie, Thompson, Mitchell, Hay, McEwen, Hyde, Gilchrist, Lord, ministers, and Messrs. W. E. Johnstone, R. Byers, John Clark, Robert Tulley, W. J. Miller, Robert Graham, Thomas Wilson, James Morrison, elders.

The minutes of the previous ordinary meeting, having been printed and copies in the hands of each member, were held as read, and were sustained.

The minutes of the special meeting for the induction of Mr. Lord, at Grafton, and of the pro re nata meeting at Cobourg to dispose of the call to Mr. McCrae, were also read, and, with the correction of slight inaccuracies, were sustained.

Commissions were received on behalf of John Clark, Campbellford; Robt. Boreland, Hastings; Rev. A. McNaughton, Mill street, Port Hope; Wm. Douglas, First Church, Port Hope; Robt. Tulley, St. Andrew's, Peterborough; Charles Horsburgh, Coldsprings; Robt. Graham, Lakefield; Thomas Wilson, Omemee; James Morrison, Bobcaygeon; Thomas McEwen, Lakeport; and W. J. Kidd, Warsaw, as representatives of their respective church sessions, and their names were ordered to be added to the roll.

The Clerk read a docket of the business to be transacted, to which it was agreed to adhere as the order of business for the present meeting.

Mr. Orr Bennett, a student of Queen's College, made application to be taken on trials for license.

The Committee on the Superintendence of Students were permitted to retire for the examination of the candidate for license.

Upon request made, leave was granted to the Havelock congregation to sell their church building, with the understanding that the proceeds shall be applied to the payment of the debt still against the property.

The Clerk reported that the Presbytery of Lindsay had declined the offer of the transfer of the mission fields of Minden and Haliburton to their charge.

Messrs. Hay and McEwen reported regarding the holding of several interesting missionary meetings since the time of the previous ordinary meeting of Presbytery.

Mr. Hay gave notice of motion for consideration at next sederunt regarding missionary services on the Sabbath.

Messrs. White and Clark were appointed to examine the session records of Baltimore; and Messrs. Craigie and Johnstone to examine those of Hastings.

Mr. McEwen reported regarding Sabbath School Institutes recently held, and regarding others yet in prospect. The report was received, and thanks tendered to Mr. McEwen for his diligence in the matter.

Upon the report of the Committee on the Superintendence of Students, the examination of Mr. Orr Bennett was sustained, and the Clerk was instructed to forward his name in the usual form to the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, with the request that leave be granted to take Mr. Bennett on public probationary trials.

Mr. McEwen presented the motion, of which he had given previous notice, regarding the establishment of a fund for the payment of expenses of members of Presbytery in their attendance upon the meetings of Presbytery. On the vote being taken, after considerable discussion, the motion was lost.

Mr. Cameron reported that he had not yet visited the Cartwright and Ballyduff congregations, but hoped to be able to do so during the winter.

Mr. Cleland reported that the arrears due the Presbytery fund had been reduced to $14.

The next ordinary meeting of Presbytery was appointed to be held in the hall of the First Church, Port Hope, on the 19th March at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Upon the reports of the committees appointed to examine them, the records of Hastings and Baltimore Kirk Sessions were ordered to be attested as on the whole correctly kept.

On motion of Mr. Bennett, Messrs. Mitchell, Carmichael and Cleland, ministers; and Mr. Johnstone, elder, were appointed a committee to devise ways and means, by which greater uniformity in practice may be obtained in the keeping of session records.

The elders who were present in the court were appointed a committee, with Mr. Robt. Tulley, convener, to consider and recommend some plan by which to secure the sum of $575 allocated to this Presbytery by the committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers Fund and to report at next sederunt.

There was read a letter from Mr. Macdonnell, intimating that the sum of $1,100 was expected from the congregations of the Peterborough Presbytery, on behalf of Augmentation for the current year.

Regret was expressed that the notice had been so long delayed, inasmuch as the funds for the schemes, collected by the several congregations had been already appropriated.

Messrs. Mitchell, McEwen, Gilchrist, ministers, and Mr. Johnstone, elder, were appointed a committee to allocate the amount specified in Mr. Macdonnel's letter, among the different congregations, on the basis which may appear to them most equitable, and to report at next sederunt.

It was reported that the Cobourg pulpit had been declared vacant according to instruction of Presbytery, and leave was granted to moderate in a call so soon as the people shall be prepared for the step.

Presbytery adjourned to meet again at 2.30 o'clock, and the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

Same day and place at 2.30 o'clock Presbytery met, and was duly constituted.

A letter was read from Mr. McKay, tendering the resignation of his pastoral charge.

There was also read a paper from the Cartwright branch of Mr. McKay's congregation, giving a narrative of their present position as a congregation, and asking counsel from the Presbytery in the circumstances.

Messrs. Carmichael, Duncan, Sutherland, ministers, and Mr. Robt. Graham, elder, were appointed a committee to consider the statements contained in the letter of Mr. McKay, as also those in the communication from the Cartwright congregation, and to bring in a report for the guidance of the Presbytery. The committee was permitted to retire for the work assigned them, and instructed to bring in a report at as early a stage as possible.

The committee appointed at the previous sederunt to allocate the claims on behalf of Augmentation among the different congregations, gave in their report. The sums allocated to the several congregations as shown by the table submitted, were approved of.

The recommendations of the committee were also adopted. These are the following:—

1st. "That the Clerk be instructed to write to the Assembly's Committee on Augmentation, stating the fact that we regard the sum of $1,100 laid on this Presbytery, more than its fair proportion of the whole amount required, when its pecuniary ability is taken into account.

2nd. "That the Clerk be instructed to communicate to each congregation the amount expected from it for Augmentation, as per appended list."

The committee appointed to consider and recommend some plan by which to secure the sum allocated to this Presbytery on behalf of the Aged and Infirm Minister's Fund, reported that they could not recommend any change, "in the manner of Assessment," but would recommend an apportionment as equitable as possible, and advise the necessity and expediency of ministers urging upon their several congregations the desirability of meeting the amount as near as possible.

The report was received but no action was taken thereon.

Messrs. Cleland, MacWilliams and Bell, ministers, and Mr. Clarke, (Port Hope,) elder, were appointed a committee, with presbyterial powers, to consider the remit on the Book of Forms, and to report directly to the Committee of Assembly.

The following delegates were appointed to visit the several augmented congregations before the next ordinary meeting of Presbytery, viz:

Hastings—Mr. Hay.
Springville and Bethany—Mr. Cameron.
Garden Hill and Knoxville—Mr. MacWilliams.
Warsaw and Dummer—Mr. Carmichael.

It was reported that Bobcaygeon and Dunsford, had been already visited since last meeting of Assembly.

Sundry claims for expenses in doing church work were presented and ordered to be paid out of the Presbytery Fund.

The following committees were appointed to report upon the remaining remits of Assembly, viz:

Marriage Question — McEwen, Torrance and Tulley, elder.

Vacancies and Settlements — Mitchell, Cleland, Jamieson and McNaughton, elder.

Fund for Expenses to Assembly — Bell, Bennett and Sheriff Hall, elder.

In reply to a communication from Mr. James Robb, it was agreed to leave the supply of Stony Lake in the hands of a committee composed of Messrs. Carmichael, Hyde and Medlill, with instruction to provide for preaching as frequently as possible.

The committee appointed on the Cartwright case gave in their report. The report showed that Mr. McKay's stipend from the Cartwright branch of the congregation had been paid in full up until the 15th January, of the present year.

The committee recommended that the usual steps be taken to bring to an issue the resignation of Mr. McKay of his pastoral charge. The report was received, and its recommendation adopted.

It was agreed to hold an adjourned meeting of Presbytery in St. Andrew's Church, Peterborough, on Tuesday, the 29th instant, at 2.30 o'clock, and the clerk was instructed to cite all the parties concerned to appear at said meeting, to show reason why the resignation of Mr. McKay, should, or should not, be accepted of.

Messrs. Lord and Hay were appointed to address the union meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Presbyterial Society and the Presbytery in the evening.

Mr. Wm. Moffatt, of Grafton, made application to be received as a Catechist of the Church. Mr. Moffatt stated he had the ministry in view in the future.

Messrs. Mitchell and McEwen were appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Moffatt as to his views and as to his qualification for the work in which he wishes to engage.

Mr. Hay presented the motion, of which he had given notice in the morning, anent stated missionary services from the pulpit on the Sabbath. The consideration of the question was deferred until next regular meeting.

Upon the report of the committee appointed to examine him, Mr. Wm. Moffatt was affectionately recommended to the Home Mission Committee for work in the mission field.

The Presbytery adjourned, to meet same place at 8 o'clock with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Presbyterial Society, and the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

Same day, and place, at 8 o'clock p. m., the Presbytery met with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Presbyterial Society and was duly constituted by Mr. Bell, Moderator pro tempore, Mr. Craigie leading in prayer.

Mr. Hay was appointed Clerk pro tempore.

The Clerk read an abstract of the report of the Woman's Society for the year.

On motion duly made and seconded, the report was received and adopted.

It was further moved by Mr. Lord, and seconded by Mr. Hay,—"That this Presbytery desire to express their high appreciation of, and cordial sympathy with, the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Peterborough, and with them render hearty thanks to God for the deep interest manifested in the work during the past year, as shown by the large increase to the membership and the growth in liberality; and the Presbytery would unite with them in the earnest prayer that the year upon which they have entered may be crowned with still larger blessing."

The mover and seconder supported the motion in stirring addresses on the subject of missions.

The Presbytery then adjourned to meet in the same place on the 29th January, at 2.30 o'clock, and the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

APPENDIX.

The following are Conveners of committees, to whom reports from congregations are to be addressed:—

Sabbath Schools—Mr. McEwen.
Sabbath Observance—Mr. MacWilliams.
State of Religion—Mr. Carmichael.
Temperance—Mr. Bell.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was could heal, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured, by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well,—sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant of this place.

JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

A Big Dog, Coon and Cat Fight—The Larcenists Will Have to Walk.

TORONTO, Feb. 9.—The Police Magistrate yesterday remanded Richard Cole, the alleged bigamist, for a week pending the arrival of witnesses from the United States. George Woodruff, who was released from the Central yesterday after serving a year, stole an overcoat and was sent back for three months. There were 91 cases of breach of the snow bylaw, the fines amounted to $360.

It is said that the police have particulars of a big coon fight in the west end Thursday night. In it a whole menagerie of animals, including dogs, coons, foxes and cats were engaged. About 20 local sports were present.

Peter Ryan has been elected chairman of the Board of License Commissioners.

Petitions for the release of William Kyle, at Kingston for forgery, are being circulated.

At the meeting of the Civic Markets and Health Committee yesterday Governor Green, in answer to Ald. Davies' question in Council as to whether it was true that while the unfortunate "drunks" were made to dig down the jail hill, those convicted of felonies were allowed to idle away time in the jail, stated that such was a fact. It unfortunately happened that the Government regulations forbade less than two guards to every six men convicted of felony, and this was too great an expense. It would suggest that these men be made to walk around the jail yard all day with the usual intervals of rest carrying weights. He could arrange this if two extra guards were appointed. One result of the work on the jail hill was that the more depraved "drunks" knowing that they could not be compelled to work if guilty of larceny, actually were beginning to steal in order to save their muscle. The committee determined to give the Governor the two extra guards, and endorse his intention of making the larcenists walk round.

The remains of the man killed on the C. P. R. between Lambton and Islington on Wednesday night have been identified as those of George Fleming, lately in the butcher trade at Islington. He was a married man, 31 years of age.

The semi-annual meeting of the council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy was concluded yesterday, the most important matters being in connection with the recent developments in which Mr. Pearen's name is mixed up. The Executive Committee reported, and recommended that the resignation of Mr. Pearen as a member of the council be accepted and that if possible his name be struck from the roll of membership, the committee being convinced that Mr. Pearen had done wrong in transferring his business to an undergraduate. The Council accepted the resignation but took no action as to the proposed striking off of Mr. Pearen's name, further action being deferred till the meeting next August.

At 11.30 last night a general alarm was sounded for an incipient blaze on the Esplanade at the foot of Jarvis-street. A lamp had exploded in the pottery factory, and at one time a serious conflagration was threatened, but the almost immediate arrival of the brigade averted the disaster. The damage is trivial.

Chief Rankin of Cobourg visited No. 2 Hagerman-street and recovered a considerable quantity of furs stolen in the recent burglary in that city.

THE CARNIVAL BALL.

A Brilliant Termination to the Week's Festivities at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 8.—Again the weather changed to-day and those visitors who remained to see the tail end of the carnival program were given a mild, bright day. The first event of importance was the fancy skating tournament for the championship of America which was won by Louis Rubenstein.

At noon the Governor-General and party went to McGill College, where an address was presented to which His Excellency made a felicitous reply.

In the afternoon the citizens' drive, participated in by the leading society people and their magnificent sleighs, took place and was witnessed by thousands.

Lord and Lady Stanley, Hon. E. Stanley and Lady Alice Stanley remain in the city until Monday. The remainder of the party leave for Ottawa to-morrow morning.

In the evening the society event of the week, the carnival ball, took place at the Windsor and was a grand success. The ballroom was magnificently decorated and those present included the prominent society people of Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia. The Governor-General and party opened the ball shortly after 9 o'clock and dancing continued until long after midnight.

THE GRAND TRUNK PETITION.

A Revival of the Hostility With the Canadian Pacific Railway.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The Grand Trunk petition to the Governor-General seems to be reviving all the hostility between the companies which it was hoped might now abate. The Canadian Pacific is sending broadcast Mr. Van Horne's letter defending the company. The prefaces remarks that but for its Ontario lines the Canadian Pacific would be entirely at the mercy of the Grand Trunk, and the object of Parliament in creating a Canadian transcontinental route would be hampered.

Meanwhile some Grand Trunk holders are resenting what they regard as the Trunk's persistence in an aggressive policy. The Trunk board yesterday issued correspondence between a holder named Gramshaw and Sir Henry Tyler. Gramshaw, speaking on behalf of himself and others, declares that Mr. Hickson's policy is an absolute failure, and says that many feel that the time has come for a change of managers in Canada. He suggests that Mr. Wainright succeed Mr. Hickson, and says there is no use talking about preventing the Canadian Pacific getting money in London. The Canadian Pacific is there, and the Trunk must make the best of it.

Sir Henry Tyler, in replying, refuses to take the criticisms seriously, and says Mr. Hickson's policy is the board's policy. He denies failure and predicts that if the rates are maintained and events prove favorable results will restore satisfaction.

A Single Trial

is all that is needed to prove that Polson's Nerviline is the most rapid and certain remedy in the world for pain. It only costs 10 cents for a trial bottle. A single trial bottle will prove Nerviline to be equally efficacious as an external or internal remedy, and for pain of every description it has no equal. Try 10 cent sample bottle. Sold by druggists. Large bottles 25 cents. Avoid substitutes. 6w6d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. A Professional Opinion.

Rev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three way B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, St. Marys, Ont. 2w6d

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognized as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockelorums of the Clothing Trade.

The Crow Indian Choir.

Chief Crow and daughters, with the famous Indian choir, of Alnwick, will give half an hour's concert in connection with the missionary meeting in the George street church, on Monday evening next. They will also sing during the missionary meeting. Admission free, seats free. Collection in aid of Methodist missions. 2d

Capital Punishment Justifiable.

At the debate of the Otonabee Canoe Club last night this question was discussed thoroughly and by judgment of the chairman the decision was that capital punishment was justifiable. The leaders for the affirmative were S. R. Armstrong and W. H. Hill; for the negative E. A. Pearson, B. A., and A. Clegg. Mr. A. E. Scott was chairman. The debate was an unusually interesting one.

A Journalistic War.

There is a "tootle complexantness" between the editors of the Lindsay Post and Warder. The Warder asserted that the Post had been bought by a Roman Catholic syndicate, and the Post branded the statement as a "make-in-the-gram lie, insinuating that the Warder man was a liar on other things as well. The Warder this week retaliates by calling the editor of the Post a "swivelling, cowardly rascal" and such choice epithets. It's a wonder the pressmen do not break down under such loads of slanderous writings

Licenses in Lindsay.

Very little predisposition towards imposing a "high license" upon Lindsay hotelkeepers in view of the repeal of the Scott act was manifested at the council meeting on Monday evening says the Post, although it was backed for in some quarters. The figure for tavern and shop licenses was fixed at $200 each exclusive of the $76 imposed by the provincial authorities. This is the highest sum possible without a vote of the people being taken. This was held to be sufficient for the present year, as in case the people desired it a vote could be taken at the next municipal elections without extra expense.

Racing on the Ice.

It is intended by the Peterborough horsemen this year to have a three days winter meet, and they intend to make it the principal trotting event of the Midland district. A large meeting of horsemen was held at the Phelan House last night. Mr. F. J. Daly was appointed secretary. Dr. Beatty presided in the absence of the president, Mr. Wm. Croft. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions from the merchants and report at an adjourned meeting at Cavanagh's hotel Monday evening.

At the Montreal carnival races yesterday Dwyer's "Coxetes" took first place in the three minute trot. The best time was 2.29.

A Coming Treat.

Last night at the residence of Mr. G. J. Early the Idlers and Strangers of the George street Methodist church met together and decided to hold a gigantic old-fashioned Methodist tea meeting and concert on Good Friday evening, April 19th. Dr. Goldsmith was elected chairman, G. J. Early secretary and F. H. Dobbin treasurer. A committee was appointed to draft sub-committees to carry out details. A general meeting of the central committee will be held Thursday evening next in the Y.M.C.A. rooms. The Idlers and Strangers include those who have never taken part in any concert or entertainment in connection with the church.

In Dancing Immoral.

Evangelists Hunter and Crossley, who are expected here not later than the first of March, at one of their Detroit meetings, the News says, fulminated the thunders of the church against "the parlor dance." Evangelist Hunter did the talking, exhorting and denouncing. Among other things he stated that although the Bible said there was a time for dancing, there was no case cited by scripture showing that the sexes danced together, and that catholic priests say that the secrets of the confessional show that 19 out of 20 women who depart from virtue's path do so through the allurements of the dance. And the evangelist said that he would rather have an Indian encircle the waist of his daughter than a dancing master, who were spider-legged, eyeglass wearing dudes.

Peterborough Building and Savings Society.

Some weeks since the EXAMINER devoted considerable space to an explanation of the constitutions and aims of this important organization. The society is now in full working order. The stock books have been opened and subscriptions are being made at a most encouraging rate. For persons of limited means who wish to make a paying investment of small sums this society offers unusual advantages. It has been pointed out in those columns that a workingman, by the payment of $617 in the course of 10½ years, secures a house and lot worth $1,250. In addition to this the increased value of the property in the interval—the "unearned increment"—is an element that will practically add largely to the profits of the investment noted. A meeting of the above society will be held in the office of the president, Mr. T. Cahill, old Post Office Block, on Monday evening.

The Otonabee Social.

The social at the residence of Miss Stewart, Otonabee, Friday evening under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church, was a complete success despite the short notice and the bad state of the roads. The house was crowded with people, the majority of whom drove down from Peterborough. There was no regular programme, but vocal solos were contributed by Miss Sophie Cameron and Mrs. Jones, piano music by Miss Maud Jones and violin selections by Mr. Stewart. The refreshments were substantial and plentiful, and various amusements were provided the guests for enjoying themselves. The affair was a decided success in every way, the ladies of the Society and Miss Stewart doing their best to provide for the entertainment of the people.

Evangelical Alliance.

A meeting was held last evening in the Y.M.C.A. Rooms, to consider the propriety of forming a Peterborough Branch of the Dominion Evangelical Alliance. After a full discussion of the subject it was resolved to form a branch and at once proceed to organize. The annual membership fee was fixed at fifty cents each. Nineteen at once enrolled their names, after which the work of organization was proceeded with. Mr. Carnegie was elected President and Rev. A. C. Wilson Secretary Treasurer. It was resolved that all the ministers of the town be Vice-Presidents, and that the management of the branch be vested in a committee of not less than 15 nor more than 25 persons—these to be selected from all the congregations in town and Ashburnham. A committee was then appointed to draft a constitution for the branch, after which the meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks, February 22nd.

Nine Hours.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—The wage earners of Peterborough have made a combined movement to establish nine hours as the length of a days work. When it is considered that four hours a day with the aid of machinery is amply sufficient to provide all that is required for a comfortable subsistence, it would seem that nine hours is more than enough. It is quite clear that the invention of machinery has enormously increased each labourer's powers of production. The weaver who a hundred years ago could weave a yard of broadcloth in a day, can now weave 200 but the invention of that machinery has been of no benefit to him, for he who works now just as long as he did then. This is not just, machinery should relieve the labourer's toil—all it does is to increase the capitalist's profit. By all means go in for nine hours work—or eight—if you go for six hours Advanced Thought is with you.

Words of Praise.

Friday evening of last week Mr. J. S. Parker, organist of St. Paul's church, gave an organ recital in St. John's church, Lakefield. Of the entertainment the Chronicle says:—We will not particularize any one of Mr. Parker's solos but will say that each was played with a brilliancy of execution and a finish which shows that Mr. Parker is a perfect master of the instrument and a thorough interpreter of organ music; his pedalling was perfect and was specially noticeable in Home, Sweet Home, with variations, also in the overture William Tell, by Rossini, and was a treat that will be long remembered by the music-loving people of Lakefield. Little Miss Lily Jackson sang her solos "Sabbath Bells," "Thy Kingdom Come" and "Jesu Lover of my Soul" in a very sweet manner, and with a style and expression that was positively phenomenal in one so young. We are not afraid to predict that this young lady will make a name for herself in the musical world before very long.

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure bilious and nervous ills

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Peter Hamilton.

The entire community will be shocked to learn that last evening Mrs Peter Hamilton's illness ended in her death. The deceased lady, Elizabeth Miles, was a native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, where she was born about 36 years ago. She came to Canada in 1875, going to reside with her brother Mr. Miles of Lindsay. Twelve years ago she was united in marriage to Mr Peter Hamilton. Her death leaves seven children orphaned, the eldest, eleven years of age, and the youngest aged about the same number of days. Mrs. Hamilton, was a lady possessing the highest grace of character in every relation of life—a faithful wife, and a loving and prudent mother. The chief beauty of her life was shown in her domestic relations—home was her kingdom where she ruled with loving and all chocate sway, yet her devotion to her home and family duties did not exhaust the kindly impulses of her large, warm heart—the motherless of her kindred found a second mother in her. In her social connections one was greatly beloved and highly respected. Her quiet unobtrusive manner covered a depth of unchanging and unvarying cordiality and kindness, whose memory will cause the keenest regret amongst her hundreds of personal friends, especially among the congregation of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. The afflicted husband and motherless children in the hour of their inexpressible bereavement, receive the deepest sympathy, not only of their immediate circle of friends, but also of the whole town, county and district, where Mr. Hamilton is so well known and held in such high regard. The EXAMINER in giving expression to its own sympathy feels that it but voices that of the whole community. The funeral takes place on Monday, at 2:30 p. m., from the family residence, 263 Water street.

Division Court Cases.

A Few of the Most Interesting Cases—The Court not Finished.

There was about thirty cases calendered for the Division Court yesterday, but a number of these were settled and a number of others adjourned till Monday at 11 o'clock. Of the cases some had a local interest.

FLANERTY VS. HURLEY was adjourned till Monday. It followed a case at a previous Division Court sitting, Learmonth vs. Hurley, in which the plantiff, Gabriel Learmonth, sought to hold J. P. Hurley, clerk in Mr. T. Menzies' store, responsible for the amount of a deposit slip endorsed by him, $250. The defence contended that when the money was deposited with Mr. Menzies the plaintiff well knew that Mr. Hurley had no interest in the banking business, and merely signed his name to the receipt as a matter of form. Judgment was given for the defendant. W. H. Moore, for defendant; Edmison & Dixon, for plaintiff. In the case of Flaherty vs. Hurley, the deposit slip was signed by Thos. Menzies, Banker, and J. P. Hurley, Accountant. The case was adjourned till Monday.

HURLEY VS. GRAHAM was a suit to recover commission on the sale of property. Mr. T. Hurley, real estate agent, was empowered by Mr. W. F. Graham, Otonabee, to sell the agricultural implement warerooms on Hunter street, east of Queen. Afterwards Graham sold the premises to E. E. Bowie for $1,444, without notifying Hurley of the transaction. On Nov. 3rd Mr. Hurley made a sale of the place to Harry Drake for $1,600, and on the same day Graham dropped Hurley a note to the effect that he had decided not to sell at present. Mr. Hurley brought suit to recover 2½ per cent. commission on the $1600 sale. Judgment in full for plaintiff. Hall & Hayes for plaintiff, E. B. Edwards for defendant.

KING VS. CLARK.—Dr. King of Peterborough sued Frank and Jennie Clark, of Warkworth, for a $34 doctor's bill incurred by Mrs. Clark before she was married. The defence was that the husband could in no way be held responsible for the bill. Judgment was given relieving Frank Clark from all responsibility, but judgment was reserved in the case against the other party, in order to consider the question of whether judgment can be given against a married woman who has no property separate from her husband. E. A. Peck for plaintiff; Irvine for defendants.

ROWE VS. SHELTON.—The Rowe Estate against John and J. W. Shelton. The defendants had made out a joint note, to the accomodation of John Shelton; but the latter claimed that in paying the interest on the note before due by another note in his own name, released J.W. Shelton from all liability. Judgment reserved. D. W. Dumble for plaintiffs; John Shelton for defendants.

Arthur Bennett, while yet a minor, hired with a Mr. White, of Verulam, and after working a while bought a horse from his employer. After about 5 months work they disputed, and the plaintiff refused to take the horse on the ground that he was a minor when the bargain was made. He brought suit to recover wages. Judgment was given against him, but the defendant, who still retained the horse, was ordered to deliver the animal to Bennett. Stratton & Hall, for plaintiff; Hatton & Wood, for defendant.

The other cases were of a less important nature.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Those in favor of the Scott Act are just preparing themselves to fight strenuously against its repeal.

Mr. J. Pollock made some repairs on the town hall this week.

Some are enquiring very anxiously when a meeting is to be held to obtain the voice of the ratepayers on annexation.

A sleigh load of young people from the town and village attended the social at Miss Stewart's, Otonabee, Friday night. Mr. F. Sanderson, of Smith, had charge of the load.

Some youth, driving an empty wood sleigh, and who seemed to have a very small modicum of wit, ran into a team standing opposite one of the groceries, and after extricating himself from this, had hardly gone a hundred yards when he almost ran over a small boy who was crossing the street. He was driving at such a rate that he did not seem able to control his team.

The principal entertainment at the Young Men's Guild on Thursday night was a paper on "Our Educational System" with discussion. Mr. J. J. Rooney prepared the paper and read it. He praised our present system as regards its advantages in giving a good literary training, but thought it was very defective in the way of giving a practical education. He thought that some system of technical education should be adopted. A lively discussion on the paper followed in which the Rev. Mr. Warren, and Messrs. Burt, Rooney, Saunders and Wallbrook took part. All the speakers believed that technical education was a necessity but every speaker had his own views as to the manner in which it should be carried out.

St. John's Church Bible Class.

Mr. Kenrick's Bible Class for young men and boys, had made a most satisfactory beginning, and will meet to-morrow in the church at 3 p.m. Several members have joined the class during the week, and a large membership is expected before very long. Mr. G. Boucher, was last Sunday elected secretary-treasurer. We are asked to state, in answer to many enquiries that the sentence sung in St. John's at the presentation of the offertory is "All Things Come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine Own Have we Given Thee;" 1 Chron. xxix 14. The words are set to very simple music that the whole congregation may have the opportunity of joining in them.

A Clever Fraud.

The Seed Oats Swindle Again Heard of—A Warning to the Farmers.

A correspondent of the Whig from Napanee says:—"Hull-less oats agents are laying out for a good season's work in this section. Already quite a number of orders have been taken, and there is a promise of many more bushels being placed. The head of the branch office for Ontario is at Belleville. As far as can be learned there are nine general agents in this district. These men serve local agents, through whose assistance the grain is sold. This is of course necessary, as the farmer is chary of anything "Yankee," and to get into his good graces it is but right that the farmer's neighbour be first secured as a party to the transaction. The plan of operations is to sell a farmer a bushel or more of hull-less oats, for which the purchaser pays $10 per bushel. Cash is not essential in the transaction. The agent takes a note payable to the company or bearer, and these notes are realized upon by being sold to private individuals at a sacrifice. Some have been offered for sale to parties in Napanee, who refused to accept them, upon what ground your correspondent does not know, but we presume the party was afraid of trouble arising through them, though the notes were by good men, and are quite collectable, being ordinary promissory notes. Upon the note being handed over, the agent gives the farmer a bond, which is interesting reading. The capital stock is said to be $100,000, and the firm is known as the "Crawford, Henry and Williams County Seed Company,' and is incorporated under the laws of Ohio for the production and sale of grain and seeds. The branch office is "Belleville, O." Some of these bonds have been redeemed, but I have not been able to trace such or gain authentic information. One man, Mr. Foster, living near Belleville, has sold his return from the oats, receiving therefor 3,000 odd dollars. As a consequence many of his neighbours are "going in" for oats. A lawyer in Belleville purchased twenty bushels in 1887, and has this year gone in for a similar quantity. A prominent farmer of Adolphustown has given his note for $500, another of Tyendinaga $300, and farmers of Ernestown for various amounts. The company have agents at Odessa, Violet and other places in this section, who are men of good standing. Before signing notes farmers would do well to read over the bond and by laws very carefully."

News Nuggets.

—Mr. Albert Jewett, a well known hotel man, has purchased Congress Hall, Lindsay, from Mr. W. E. Johnston.

—The spring chancery sittings of the High Court of Justice will be held in Peterborough on Friday, March 15th before Justice Robertson.

—The first appeal against the assessment of 1889 has been entered with the town clerk. The assessors have only only been out about a week, but this man is evidently determined to lose no time in making his objections known.

—The town clerk has received instructions to prosecute all parties who refuse to register birth and death notices, and the assessors have instructions to procure a list of all the births and deaths occurring at each house in town for the clerk's guidance.

—A young man from Smith wasted over four hours last night in trying to find the place where the St. Paul's social was being held. After making tracks all over Otonabee township, he succeeded in landing his party at Miss Stewart's house. They were all heartily tired after the journey, but enjoyed the joke on "Jim" just the same.

Personal.

Mr. Ed. Howatt, late of Port Arthur, a young man well known in Peterborough, is in town and will perhaps remain here. He is contemplating engaging in the jewelry business for himself. Before leaving Port Arthur, Mr. Howatt was tendered a complimentary farewell by the Oddfellows of that place.

A Little Girl Missing.

A week ago Friday evening a little girl named Maggie Ferguson left the home of Mr. Joseph Jippo, Nassau, and has not since been heard of. The girl was about 9 years old and came from Peterborough. She was taken into the family of Mr. Jippo as a pauper over a year ago, and no reason is assigned for her leaving. She left without saying a word to anyone on Friday evening, the first of February, with no extra clothing upon her than she wore about the house, and it has been ascertained called at the residence of Mr. Stewart Brown, east of Nassau, where she was kept over night and given some wraps. Since then though diligent enquiry has been made in all directions, she has not been heard of, and her guardians are fearful that she may have perished in the snow. It is said the little girl had relations in town.

Lost a Log.

A Michigan newspaper contains the report of an accident to Mr. Charles Vanneau, a brakeman on the C. & N.W.R.R., at Escanaba, Michigan. While on duty his head struck the spout of a water tank and falling between the cars he had one leg cut off below the knee. He was removed to the hospital and the leg amputated. His injuries are very severe but there is a possibility of his pulling through. Mr. Vanneau is a native of Peterborough and lived here till two years ago when he went to Michigan. He is a nephew of Mr. David Doig, town.

Maritana at the Grand.

The Empire thus refers to the performance of "Maritana" by the new American Opera Company, who will present the same opera at Bradburn's Opera House, Peterborough, Monday evening next.—The new American opera company repeated their success of Thursday night before another large audience at the Grand Opera House last night in Vincent Wallace's opera "Maritana." As will be seen by the above list, there was almost an entire change of cast. The parts, however, were all well filled. Miss Alida Varena, as Maritana, played her part in an admirable manner, Lizzie Macnichol, as Lazarillo, the apprentice boy who would drown himself, was very good in both dialogue and song. Her song, "Alas! Those Chimes, So Sweetly Stealing," as she watches by the side of Don Caesar in the prison cell, was enthusiastically received and she was forced to give two encores. Her duet with Maritana in the prayer to the Holy Mother in the last act, was sung very sweetly and with very good effect. Mr. Wm. Castle, as Don Caesar, sang and acted well, and had to respond to constant encores. His numerous by-plays were remarkably good. He was forced to twice repeat his solo, "Let me Like a Soldier Fall." Alonzo Stoddard made a good Don Jose and A.E. Knight a good Charles II, King of Spain. The choruses were well sustained.

New Dressmaker
TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

SHAVING PRICES

That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots, Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on some do we seek to secure more than we have paid.

The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realise that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.

This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

A MAN WHO WOULD SHOOT

HOW LEGARON APPEARS IN THE WITNESS-BOX.

The Informer's Evidence Summed Up—Reminds of Various Portions of His Testimony Coming to Hand.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Complaint of dulness of the Parnell Commission proceedings has suddenly ceased. Nobody disputes the interest and importance of Major Legaron's evidence, which has occupied the whole week. He is by his own admission a spy; in his own view a military spy. He has been in the secrets of the Fenians and other extreme Irish sections in America, a member of their societies, trusted by them, and all the while in the pay of the British Government. His evidence, taken as a whole, is intended to show that the Irish Parliamentary party, with Mr. Parnell at their head, were cognizant of the doings of the Invincibles and dynamiters, and connected with them. Mr. Davitt, of course, is included. So is Mr. O'Kelly, whose share was an active one. So is Mr. Egan, whose close connection with the Invincibles is again asserted. He represents Mr. Egan as saying that Mr. Parnell is a revolutionist to the backbone. Mr. Egan told him the League had sent officers and money to aid the Boers when fighting against England. Mr. Parnell told him in the lobby of the House of Commons he had long ceased to believe anything but arms would ever bring about the redemption of Ireland. Mr. Parnell, too, was for bringing into line the League and Clan-na-Geal organizations, and this, according to the witness, was done in 1881.

Major Legaron gave many details of conventions, secret committees and inner circles held by different Irish sections in America, showing apparently complete familiarity with the working of the Irish-American machine. Mr. Alexander Sullivan figures prominently in these scenes. So do Mr. Finnerty, Mr. John Boyle O'Reilly of Boston; Dr. Gallagher, the dynamiter, now serving out a life sentence in an English prison; Mr. Egan, over and over again; Mr. Sheridan and many others. Mr. Egan described to Major Legaron his escape from Ireland, an interesting narrative. Original documents issued by all these Irish-American societies were produced in large numbers, documents the genuineness of which seems not to be questioned. The defendants admit Major Legaron's story to be true in many points. He was the spy he describes himself, and did know what was going on.

Sir Charles Russell's cross-examination, which began on Thursday and lasted through Friday, will be resumed next Tuesday. There was a feeling in court that this eminent cross-examining counsel had at last met his match. No better witness, said another eminent counsel, ever has been seen in a witness-box. There has been a rush to see him, and a brilliant audience. He was perfectly cool, collected, deliberate and keen; never allowed himself to be hurried, never lost his temper when pressed; seldom made a mistake, and scored off his tormentor more than once. The critical part of the cross-examination is yet to come.

Major Legaron is guarded by five detectives. A bystander said to him yesterday: "You will take a good deal of guarding." Answered Major Legaron: "I have carried my life in my hands for twenty-five years. Do you suppose I am afraid of these fellows now?" He looks like a man who would shoot quick.

Legaron's Army Record.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10.—Inquiry here shows that the claim of Legaron to have been a major in the Union Army and to have served in Gen. Anderson's and Gen. Buell's body guards is false. He was chief bugler of a cavalry company which was intended as a body guard for Anderson and afterwards for Buell, but which never acted in that capacity. Legaron finally became a first Lieutenant in a colored regiment, but never held a higher office.

Senator Jones' Denial.

DETROIT, Feb. 10.—Ex-Senator Jones of Florida yesterday received the following cablegram:

LONDON, Feb. 8.—To Senator Jones, Detroit: Legaron swears you negotiated the Fenians' Russian alliance with Dr. Carroll.
MICHAEL DAVITT.

To this the ex-Senator immediately replied:

Legaron's testimony that I negotiated a Fenian-Russian alliance is absolutely false. I was never a member of the Fenian Brotherhood or any other Irish organization.
CHARLES W. JONES.

The Hyde Park Demonstration.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Notwithstanding a heavy snow storm, the demonstration in Hyde Park to-day, to denounce the Government's coercive measure in Ireland, and to express sympathy with William O'Brien, was successfully carried out. Thousands of citizens, chiefly from the workingmen's and Radical clubs, attended the meeting, marching to the park through the storm with bands and banners. Speeches were delivered from twelve platforms. The speakers denounced the Government generally and Mr. Balfour especially. A resolution put simultaneously at all of the platforms and carried amid great cheering declared that:

"The citizens of London condemn the brutal policy of coercion, protest against the Government's uncivilized treatment of political prisoners and demand the release of Irish patriots whose only crime is the exercise of the ordinary rights of free speech."

The Socialists occupied one platform, which was decorated with red flags and at which was displayed a banner with the inscription:

REMEMBER CHICAGO.

The speakers at this platform also denounced landowners and capitalists. Perfect order was maintained and the host of policemen present had nothing to do except to regulate traffic.

Molloy's Trial.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The case of Patrick Molloy, charged with having given false testimony before the Parnell Commission, was resumed in the Bow-street Police Court yesterday. Patrick Delaney testified that Patrick Egan, while treasurer of the League, was a Fenian and Invincible. He was the organiser of the League. The League originated the Invincibles. Byrne, the secretary of the League, was an Invincible, as was also Matt Harris, who was a leading member of the League. The Invincibles received funds from the League through Egan. "No. 1" used also to bring money. The League officers supplied the Invincibles with firearms, knives and daggers. Witness saw Molloy in the League offices.

On cross-examination Delaney said he joined the Fenians in 1868. Afterwards he was in prison for five years, having been convicted of highway robbery. Byrne attended the councils of the Invincibles and named the persons to be murdered. Witness had seen Byrne lay bank notes and gold on a table.

Death of Montreal's Deputy Chief.

MONTREAL, Feb. 7.—Deputy-Chief Nesspie died at 4.30 this morning. He has held the position of Deputy-Chief for a great number of years and was universally respected and esteemed.

What the Strikers Lost.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The loss in actual money to the striking street car men in their unsuccessful eight days' struggle amounts to a little over $100,000.

CAPITAL CHAT.

Mr. Pope's Condition Serious—Mr. Weatherbee Captures the I.C.R. Vacancy.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—The condition of Hon. J. H. Pope is very serious this evening. Grave doubts of his recovery are entertained.

Mr. N. Weatherbee left for Toronto last night with the appointment of the Intercolonial Railway agency in the Queen City in his pocket. Mr. Weatherbee had the support of all the Toronto members and of Senators Smith and Macdonald in his candidature. The office, which is quite a lucrative one, has dropped into popular hands. Owing to the illness of the Minister of Railways the Cabinet made the appointment on the recommendation of the Toronto members and Mr. Weatherbee's other friends.

It should be observed in connection with the estimates telegraphed last week that the increases and decreases mentioned compare with last year's total estimates, and the supplementary estimates to be brought down later will considerably reduce, and may completely wipe out, the decrease columns.

Mme. Laurier, the amiable wife of the Opposition leader, arrived in the Capital to-day from her Archambaultville home and joined her husband at the Russell. Mme. Laurier and Mrs. Mackenzie will, it is understood, revive their Saturday evening receptions at the Grand Union at the end of this week. The lady guests at the Russell gave Mme. Laurier an enthusiastic welcome when she appeared in the dining room this evening at dinner.

The annual meeting of the press gallery was held Saturday evening, when about 20 members were in attendance. James Johnston, the handsome blonde editor of The Ottawa Citizen, was elected president by acclamation. Mr. Johnston is one of the oldest members of the gallery, being probably only exceeded in years of service by Mr. Arthur Wallis of the Mail. H. M. Matthewson of The Mail, was chosen vice-president and Wm. Hawkin of The Winnipeg Call, secretary. Tuth is the Executive Committee: Oscar Macdonald, Le Canada, Ottawa; A. C. Campbell, Toronto Globe; J. A. Ewan, Toronto Mail; W. H. Turner, Montreal Herald; J. W. Dafoe, Winnipeg Free Press. The officers-elect entertained the gallery slaves after the installation.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Cardwell Election Case—A Residence Burglarized on Sunday.

TORONTO, Feb. 11.—It will be remembered that when the Cardwell election petition was called for trial at Orangeville the other day, Thomas Smith, the petitioner, withdrew and Samuel Stubbs, the brother of the defeated candidate, applied to be substituted as petitioner, alleging that a corrupt arrangement had been arrived at by the original petitioner and the respondent for the dismissal of the petition. The application was enlarged to be heard at Osgoode Hall before Judge Street. On Saturday Mr. Aylesworth asked that the name of Stubbs be substituted for that of Smith. Mr. Patterson appeared to oppose his client's (Smith) $1000 deposit being retained in court, which is a part of the application. Mr. D'Alton McCarthy argued to oppose the substitution of the new petitioner, Samuel Stubbs. The case was again adjourned until 10 o'clock two weeks from Thursday.

Mme. Albani arrived here on Saturday morning.

The residence of Mr. William Christie, 44 Mulock-street, was broken into yesterday afternoon in the absence of the family at church and a small quantity of jewelry, etc., carried off.

A thief sneaked into Mrs. Crosbie's house, 106 Markham-street, on Saturday at noon, and succeeded in getting away with $19.

A NIGHT OF SUFFERING.

An Old Resident of Eramosa Found on a Bed of Ice.

GUELPH, Jan. 10.—A horrible story of suffering was brought to the city yesterday by two residents of Eramosa. Robert Burton, who lives on the second line of that township in a house with one George Snelling, is the victim of the sad affair. The two men have the contract of cutting a quantity of wood on the farm of George Best. They ran out of provisions on Wednesday night and Burton started for Mitchell's store in Eramosa to secure a fresh supply. On the return journey the unfortunate man lost his way, and after wandering about for some time became exhausted and lay down on the ice near Alonzo Birge's mill. His limbs became helpless with the cold, and he could not raise himself again, and was compelled to remain where he had fallen till assistance came. In the morning Messrs. Birge and James McIntosh noticed the man and went to his assistance. He was found to be very weak, and his hands and feet were badly frozen.

Mr. James Alexander took Mr. Burton to his place, and everything possible was done to relieve his sufferings. He is now getting on as well as could be expected, but owing to his ripe old age, he being over 70, it is doubtful if he will ever recover.

Mr. Burton is a married man, and his wife and family live north of this city.

SERIOUS STABBING AFFRAY.

A Fight in Windsor Which May Have Fatal Results.

WINDSOR, Feb. 10.—What may result in a murder happened in front of the Detroit Exchange here last evening at 7.30 o'clock. Dan Scribner, who is badly wanted in the States; Harry Jackson, noted for his connection with the horse deal in which John A. Moore, the Indianapolis defaulter, was connected; Dan Hurt and Jackson's son had been in the bar drinking and indulging in some boisterous language and were asked to leave. Out on the sidewalk the quarrel was renewed and Hurt strove to pacify them, when Scribner drew a knife and plunged it into Jackson's abdomen. The latter raised his cane and struck Scribner over the nose and, with a yell, "I'm stabbed," fell to the ground. An examination disclosed an ugly wound about two inches in length at the left side of his abdomen, which may prove fatal. Scribner was arrested.

Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, Feb. 10.—Joseph Baker of Waterdown, who disappeared in June, 1887, and was supposed to have been murdered or to have committed suicide, turned up here last week. Baker took a sudden freak to go to Michigan, where he has been living for the past eighteen months.

Pawnbroker Appleton had two watches stolen from his store yesterday morning.

John McMenemy and George Brand were committed for trial yesterday on the charge of burglarizing G. T. Smith's grocery a week ago.

In the Hospital.

KINGSTON, Feb. 10.—Jarvis, the driver who assisted the two convicts in the recent attempt to escape, and Black, one of those who made the attempt, are now in the hospital. Black is a very delicate man, and the shock caused by his discovery in the sleigh has laid him up.

This Defaulter Takes $700,000.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 10.—It has been ascertained that the indebtedness of Dieckmann, the absconding member of the Merchants' Exchange, on the floor will be small. The total amount of his defalcation will approximate $200,000.

The Last of the Carnival.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—Yesterday was the last day of the great carnival and all the trains leaving the city were crowded with visitors en route to their homes. Six special trains left for New York and Boston.

A Fatal Explosion.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The bursting of a centrifugal machine in the works of the New York Tartar Company, Brooklyn, killed two men and wounded three others Saturday.

TROUBLES OF FLOQUET.

ANOTHER CRISIS IN FRANCE SAID TO BE IMMINENT.

What Parisian Socialists Demand of the Government—Another Attack Soon To Be Made on Scarlatina.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday Premier Floquet demanded priority for the scrutin d'arrondissement bill. After listening to Floquet's address in support of his position on the bill the chamber decided, 306 to 243, to discuss the measure Monday.

Dreyfus, Jouvenel, Maret Michelin, Pelletan and other Republicans voted with the Boulangists and Conservatives in the minority. Clemenceau and his friends did not vote.

To be Fought on Thursday.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—It is expected that the Chamber of Deputies will pass the scrutin d'arrondissement bill to-morrow after a short debate. The real issue between the Cabinet and the Opposition will be fought on the revision scheme Thursday. The fate of the Ministry is doubtful.

For the Sake of the Exhibition.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—The Chamber of Deputies yesterday decided by a vote of 304 to 9 to consider the bill for the revision of the constitution on Thursday. In his address to the Chamber M. Floquet informed the members that the Government would make both the scrutin d'arrondissement and the revision bills a question of confidence. The Cabinet, he said, thought the present Chamber should fulfil its mandate until the expiration of its legal term, thus assisting in the holding of the approaching exhibition in the meeting place of the nations.

Floquet's remarks were applauded.

Parisian Socialists' Demands.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—Delegates from the Socialist revolutionary societies met at the Labor Exchange to-day and then proceeded to the residences of Premier Floquet, M. Meline, President of the Chamber of Deputies, and M. Lereyer, President of the Senate, leaving at each house a copy of the resolution adopted by the workmen's conference at Bordeaux. The resolutions demand reductions of the daily working hours, the fixing of minimum rates of wages to correspond with the minimum expenses of workmen in each locality, prohibition of manual labor by piece work, etc.

Extensive police precautions had been taken in the neighborhood of the Elysee Palace and the Palais Du Bourbon for fear of an Anarchist riot. The services of the police were not required, however, as no disturbance of any kind occurred. The delegates declared their intention to wait upon M. Floquet and the Presidents of the parliamentary bodies on Feb. 24, to receive their replies. Similar deputations called upon the prefects of Lyons, Bordeaux and Marseilles and presented their demands. In reply the prefects said the Government was already considering many of these demands, while others had no substantial foundation. The workmen, they said, must not expect everything to be settled by Feb. 24th. Finally they begged the deputation to exercise their influence to avert disorder.

Killed by a Burglar.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Mr. Kent, landlord of the Gloucester Hotel at Swansea, was killed by a burglar this morning. He retired with his wife late last night, after locking all the doors including those of his bedroom. Early this morning the wife heard a match struck in the room and saw a negro lighting a candle. She awoke her husband and he grappled with the intruder while his wife took a pistol from underneath the pillow. As it was too dark to take aim she lighted a candle. She then fired and the negro fell wounded in the thigh. Cursing the woman he crept under the bed, but as she was unlocking the door he emerged and threw a mirror at her. It missed her, but extinguished the light and the negro escaped. When she re-lighted the candle she discovered that her husband's throat was cut with a razor. Kent lived long enough to describe the murderer. An alarm was raised and about noon the negro was discovered at a dry dock badly wounded and covered with blood. He is a seaman named Tom Allen. He said his motive was robbery. He concealed himself in the room before the house was closed on Saturday night.

The New Japanese Constitution.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Great preparations have been made at Tokio for the public promulgation by the Mikado to-morrow of the Japanese constitution.

The Roman Mob's Plunder.

ROME, Feb. 10.—The value of the plunder secured by the mob in the recent riot is estimated at $75,000. The Government possesses evidence that the Anarchist leaders fermented the agitation.

The Radicals of Milan attempted to-day to celebrate the revolt of 1853. They were forcibly dispersed by police.

Killed by a Train.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—Eight workmen were killed near Halle to-day by a passing train.

The U. S. Diplomatic Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The conferees on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill have reached an agreement and will report early next week. The House representatives accept the Senate amendment of $500,000 for the maintenance of American rights in Samoa, while the Senate conferees agree to allow the provision of $100,000 for the naval station at Pago Pago to go into the naval appropriation bill.

The Senators also agree to restore the states of the consular representative at Montreal, whom it was proposed to reduce in rank from consul-general to consul.

The British Ministry at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—No information has been received at the State Department in regard to the appointment of a British Minister to this country. The department has, however, been informed that Mr. Edwards, first secretary of legation at Washington, who has been in London for some time, has sailed for this country. On his arrival here he will assume charge of the affairs of the legation. His return at this particular time is understood by certain officials to mean that there is no immediate prospect of the appointment of a successor to Sackville.

Counterfeiters Captured.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—United States Detective Sweeney and Deputy Marshal Chambers arrived here yesterday with thirteen counterfeiters who were captured in Butler County during the past ten days. Several other members of the gang are yet to be apprehended. It took about twenty-five officers to make the arrests, as the men are desperate characters. The band was regarded as one of the most dangerous and successful in the country.

Special attention paid to the ordering of books. Any American, British or continental book supplied in the very shortest time at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

PROTECTING WORKINGMEN.

Hon. Mr. Fraser has charge of a bill to amend the act providing for compensation to workingmen for injuries. The bill received its second reading on Tuesday. The amendments are distinctly in the direction of greater protection to workingmen, it will be more searching in its operations, at the same time offering every reasonable facility to workingmen injured in the discharge of their duties to get compensation from the courts. In order to remove any doubt as to the liability of street railways for injuries sustained by employees, section 3 of the original Act is amended by omitting therefrom the words "signal points, locomotive, engine or train upon a railway," and inserting instead thereof the words "any points, signal, locomotive, engine, machine or train upon a railway, tramway or street railway." Hon. Mr. Fraser, explained that employers might take advantage of the old law by subletting their work by piecework, or some such device, although at the same time the owners of the plant and machinery. This is remedied by section 6 of the bill, which is as follows:—

"Where the execution of any work is being carried into effect under any contract, and

(a) The person for whom the work, or any part thereof, is done, owns or supplies any ways, works, machinery, plant, buildings or premises used for the purpose of executing the work; and

(b) By reason of any defect in the condition or arrangement of such ways, works, machinery, plant buildings or premises, personal injury is caused to any workman employed by the contractor or by any sub-contractor, and

(c) The defect or the failure to discover or remedy the defect arose from the negligence of the person for whom the work or any part thereof is done, or of some person being in his service and entrusted by him with the duty of seeing that such condition or arrangement is proper,

The person for whom the work, or that part of the work is done shall be liable to pay compensation for the injury as if the workman had been employed by him, and for that purpose shall be deemed to be the employer of the workman within the meaning of this Act and of the principal Act: Provided, always, that any such contractor or sub-contractor, shall be liable to pay compensation for the injury as if this section had not been enacted, so however that double compensation shall not be recoverable for the same injury." The other sections of the bill deal with more adequate compensation for injuries sustained, and give the court the discretion of saying what constitutes a proper and sufficient notice in the event of a trial.

It is highly important that such protection should be extended to workingmen. A contractor is not always the most careful of the safety of those under him. He cannot enter into the position of the workingman. If any portion of the contractor's machinery, apparatus or scaffolding gives way it is only a matter of a few cents or a few dollars for repairs, and so long as they serve the purposes of his contract he is not always too careful of their security; but if, in the giving away, suppose a workingman is disabled, he is ruined, his whole capital—his physical power—is gone, and it is only an act of justice that a contractor should be liable for damages if, through his carelessness, a workman is rendered incapable of earning a livelihood for himself or his family.

Ennismore.

WEATHER NOTES.—January came in pleasant and mild and up to the 14th, before our first cold snap; and then only 8° below zero. And again on the 19th at 6°, the 22nd at 5° and the 29th at 6° So that as yet the thermometer has not been low, and on no occasion has it come to zero at sundown—the like not occurring for a number of years—while on several days between 12 and 3 o'clock the mercury went over 40°, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 23° 22/31°. We had hail on the 1st and 2nd; first sleighing on the 7th and then only little. Snow fell on 12 days to the depth of 21½ inches, being a fair amount, but no severe storm. Rain fell on four days to the depth of 1 inch and 9/100 of an inch. Fog on the 23rd and any quantity of white frost. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, respectively, namely:—Southwest 7 days, south 3 days, east 4 days, northwest 8 days, southeast 5 days, west 2 days, and north 2 days.

COLD DIP.—On Tuesday evening at sundown the thermometer stood at 0 (zero); Wednesday morning at sunrise at 15° below zero, at noon at 10° below, at sundown 12° below, and on Thursday morning 8° below, when it again moderated.

The Hayfork Men.

The members of the hayfork gang are also once more abroad in the land. They have been heard of in Renfrew, and the following notice has been issued by Mr. Eady, justice of the peace for that district:—

FARMERS, BEWARE!
SEED WHEAT!

Certain parties are going around the country offering to sell on behalf of the "Toronto grain and Seed Company," wheat at $15 per bushel, taking notes in payment for the same, and also offering to take in exchange part of next year's crop, at a high figure. The address of the said company is 6 King street east, Toronto. In reply to a telegram from the Mercury office the chief of Police of Toronto telegraphs on January 29:—"No such man known at 4 King street east, and no such company in existence here. H. J. GRASETT."

Farmers, Beware! This is the Hayfork gang. Sign no documents for such parties.

GEORGE EADY, JR.,
Justice of the Peace.

Renfrew, January 29, 1889.

At the last session of the Campbellford division court there were several cases of farmers protesting against the payment of their notes given in return for seed wheat probably from this same company, and there are many similar cases pending.

John Oliver of Stanhope Robbed of $200 by Footpads.

BOWMANVILLE, Feb. 10.—John Oliver, collector for the township of Stanhope, distant five miles from Bright, was waylaid Friday night about 8 o'clock by two men driving in a cutter. Mr. Oliver, who was walking and within half a mile of his home, was ordered by one of the men who jumped out of the cutter and held a pistol at his head, to deliver up his money. Mr. Oliver, who was unarmed, had to hand over the $200 of taxes he had in his possession which he had just collected during the day. Mr. Oliver is advanced in years and not less than 200 pounds in weight, therefore could not make any effort to frustrate the designs of the robbers.

Ten Fine Farms Sold by the Sheriff—Farming no Longer Pays.

READING, Pa., Feb. 10.—The sheriff of Berk's County yesterday sold ten fine farms in this county aggregating nearly 1000 acres. During the present winter the sheriff has sold some 20 other large farms besides the stock of twenty farmers, all of which have failed. This indicates that farming no longer pays, as a similar state of affairs exists in other counties in this section of the state.

MUNCASTER'S

WARNED AGAINST FRANCE

BISMARCK SAYS AN ANGLO-FRENCH WAR IS NOT IMPROBABLE.

The Chancellor Desires to Conclude a Defensive Alliance With Britain—The Kaiser Again in Delicate Health.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—In the Lower House of the Prussian Diet to-day the Emperor's civil list bill passed the second reading after a debate in which the Progressists emphatically protested against the increasing of the imperial allowance by 2,500,000 marks. The minority had no difficulty in proving that the wealth of the imperial family is already enormous, the Emperor having at his disposal not only his revenue of 13,280,000 marks but also other resources from extensive family domains. The supporters of the bill could not show any necessity for the increase of the imperial income, but rested their demand upon the argument that as the Emperor's functions and work were increasing his revenue ought to be enlarged.

The state of the Emperor's health is again delicate. With the renewal of severe weather the ear trouble has been aggravated. Dr. Bergmann has been specially summoned three times this week. The constantly recurring earaches do not prevent the Emperor's incessant pursuit of work. He rises at 5 o'clock. If he is unable to sleep during the night he writes notes on his work. He always keeps pencil and paper within reach of the bed. He makes his children share his own severe regime. The Princes are aroused at 6 o'clock, when they take a cold bath. They often breakfast with their father at 6.30 and their lessons begin at 7 o'clock. The Crown Prince has just attained his first grade in the army, having been appointed a corporal. He has now his own suite of rooms and household. Twice daily he is instructed in military drill with his brothers. He is allowed 1½ hours daily for play. This scheme of lessons and life for each hour is rigidly executed.

Both the Emperor and Prince Bismarck have held long conferences with Lord Charles Beresford, and the Emperor has given him and the chiefs of the German navy a banquet. During the interviews the conversation turned upon England's state of preparation for a war against the combined naval forces of France and Russia. Prince Bismarck, it is reported, advised Lord Charles that an Anglo-French war was nearly as probable as one between France and Germany, and that if the Boulanger clique saw a possibility of beating England by a sudden attack they would prefer the risk to taking the chances of the terrible results of defeat by Germany. Prince Bismarck declared his readiness to conclude a defensive alliance with England. He told Beresford to strongly represent to his Government the urgent necessity that England should put her house in order.

Snow has been falling incessantly since Wednesday throughout Central Germany, railway traffic is interrupted and several trains are imbedded in the snow.

The Cologne Gazette contradicts the reports that the Czar is coming to Stettin. King Humbert is certain to visit Berlin in the spring. The death of Crown Prince Rudolph is not likely to alter the arrangements for the visit of Emperor Francis Joseph in the summer.

In discussing the Austrian succession, the newspapers express the opinion that Emperor Francis Joseph will recognize the validity of the Pragmatic sanction that only in case of the total extinction of the male line shall the succession devolve on a female.

Emperor Francis Joseph avoids facing the succession difficulty. Archduke Francis, the presumptive Crown Prince, who is highly esteemed by the Emperor, suffers severely from epilepsy. He himself desires to live in quietness and obscurity. The Emperor detests the next brother, Archduke Otto, the scamp who so brutally treated his wife, Princess Marie of Saxony, that she recently entreated her relatives to give her shelter and to procure for her a separation.

Prince Bismarck is indisposed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 10.—The trial of "Red-Nosed Mike" Rezello was continued yesterday and the murderer took the stand. His story was the narration of one of the most terrible crimes ever conceived in the brain of man and executed by human hands. His bearing on the stand at times was indicative of that bravado and confidence that must have belonged to his guilty heart from the start, but when he came to the shooting of the two innocent men in the mountain fastness he completely broke down. His swarthy complexion, burnt by an Italian sun, became pale as death and tears coursed in a steady stream down his cheeks. His voice was choked. He managed, however, to say that he took no part in the killing.

"I held back," he said, "when Beverino and Villella shot the paymaster and Flannigan. I was standing about 20 feet behind them. Beverino said: 'Mike' (letting out a terrible oath), 'if you do not hurry and help us we will kill you.' I then raised my gun and fired four or five shots in the air, this is all I did."

It was learned yesterday that the accomplices of "Red-Nosed Mike," Beverino and Villella, have been captured in Italy. They will be brought here as soon as possible.

GLADSTONE AND ROME.

Why the G. O. M. Resigns His Contemplated Visit to the Eternal City.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The Catholic News has the following from Rome: Your correspondent has been informed by an unimpeachable authority that Gladstone will not come to Rome and that he resigns his contemplated visit to the Eternal City at the express wish of the Italian Government and in accordance with earnest requests from persons high in the diplomatic service of England. Since the announcement made by the Grand Old Man some weeks ago that he would call on the Pope while in Rome, Signor Crispi has brought all the influence he could command to make Mr. Gladstone change his mind or return to England without visiting Rome.

One of the Pope's domestic prelates explains this move in a very plausible way: "This is only another proof," said he, "that the Italian Government fears the influence of Leo XIII. on the minds of men who come into personal contact with him. Everyone recalls how the Government succeeded in having the interview between Leo XIII. and Emperor William cut short. This time it was feared that Gladstone might sanction an appeal to the nations and give countenance to a scheme which it is known the Holy Father has in view."

FIRES OF A DAY.

Roe & Preston's General Store at Bethany Burnt to the Ground.

BETHANY, Feb. 10.—Last night a fire broke out in the premises occupied by Preston & Lee. It was a large building and contained a heavy stock of dry goods, boots and shoes and groceries. The store together with most of the contents was burnt to the ground, and though carrying some insurance the loss is very heavy. J. J. Preston of the firm of Trenchburn & Preston, having his office in the burnt building, is also a sufferer.

Incendiarism is suspected.

A Summer Hotel Burnt.

CRESCENT SPRINGS, Pa., Feb. 10.—The Hamburt House, a summer hotel, was burned yesterday. Loss $60,000.

A $700,000 Blaze in Wisconsin.

MONROE, Wis., Feb. 10.—The works of the Wisconsin Sulphite Fibre Company were burned yesterday morning. Loss $150,000.

A Business Block Burnt.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 10.—The Empire Block at Mount Morris was burned this morning. Loss about $25,000.

A $75,000 Loss.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Fire late to-night at the works of the Standard Oil Company at Constable Hook is reported to have done $75,000 damage.

Wyeth & Bro.'s Works Badly Scorched.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10.—The extensive establishment of James Wyeth & Bro., manufacturing chemists, was destroyed by fire to-day. The fire created great excitement. Several explosions occurred, causing the firemen to run for their lives. During the fire a portion of the building fell, burying several firemen. Geo. Showers was taken out dead and Abraham Savery and Wm. Bunard injured, the latter seriously. The losses will aggregate $275,000.

Attempted Arson Frustrated.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—An attempt to burn and blow up a five-story double tenement at 7 Hester-street was discovered early this morning. Bundles of rags saturated with kerosene had been used and several pounds of gunpowder. The latter had not been reached by the flames when discovered. Timely discovery undoubtedly saved many lives.

THE FREE PRESS HAS THE CALL.

A Newspaper Change in Winnipeg—Hostile Mail Farmers Flowing.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 10.—The Daily Call has been purchased by The Free Press for $32,400. The Local Government were endeavoring to secure the paper for their organ, but The Free Press got in ahead and cancelled the subscription list, plant and telegraph franchise, which gives it a monopoly of the morning field. The Local Government may start an evening paper; as both it and the Dominion Government are without a mouthpiece.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. A Professional Opinion.

Rev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three boys B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, St. Marys, Ont. 2w6d

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockolorums of the Clothing Trade.

A Fine Calendar.

The Toronto Globe has issued a splendid calendar for 1889. It is one of the most striking of the many handsome ones received at the EXAMINER office. The chief features are illustrations, in lithograph, of the Globe's lightning newspaper train, while the date sheets, of brilliant red, are conspicuous enough to be seen across the street. When anything in the shape of leading in enterprise is a-foot, the Globe's always 'round.

Large Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter Hamilton took place this afternoon to the Little Lake Cemetery. The large attendance showed the high esteem in which the deceased lady and Mr. Hamilton are held in the community. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in town. The funeral cortege was one of such length that not more than half of it could find entrance to the cemetery. Among the many handsome floral tributes was one from the employes, consisting of a beautiful mortuary pillow; and the latter, to the number of about one hundred, marched on foot in a body in the funeral procession.

Missionary Meeting.

The George street church missionary meeting on Monday evening next is expected to be a most enthusiastic one. Rev. A. B. Chambers, LL.B., and Rev. Jno. McLean, P.E.B., will deliver addresses. Mr. McLean will give an account of his life among the Blood and Blackfoot Indians. Chief Crow and daughters and the Indian choir from Alnwick will sing several times during the meeting. Missionary concert, under the direction of Prof. W. H. Dingle, assisted by the Indian choir, from 7.30 to 8 o'clock. Admission free, seats free; collection for Methodist missions.

The Population of Peterborough.

Peterborough's population is increasing every year, and with Ashburnham, makes nearly 12,000. The only way to find out the exact population, is to attend the first, last and only carnival of the season, Friday evening next. Every man, woman and child will be there. Tickets 25c., children 15c., at Salisbury's. d

Sporting Notes.

At the Montreal races Saturday, Dwyer's "Little Jim" won the 2.40 trot in three straight heats, against eight competitors. The time was 2.40½, 2.39, 2.40½.

W. Cluney's b. g. "Royal Jim," by Longhill, dam by Capt. Batchart, is entered in the 2.26 class, purse $300, at the Barrie races next August, 20 and 21.

An adjourned meeting of horsemen will be held at Cavanagh's Hotel to-night to arrange for winter races here.

Civic Trouble in Lindsay.

Mr. McSweyn, of Lindsay, the Mail says, counsel for the relator Thomas Fee, on Friday obtained a fiat for leave to call upon Mayor-elect Walters, of Lindsay, to show by what authority he occupies the civic chair, on the ground of insufficient property qualification and contracting with the corporation. Councillor Joseph Brown's right to deliberate upon the town's affairs is also attacked on the ground that at the time of his nomination he was a member of the fire company and in the pay of the corporation, although at the time of his election he was not, having resigned in the meantime.

TO-NIGHT

Broom Brushes.

A rink of Lakefield curlers is playing a Peterborough rink skipped by T. Ratherford this afternoon for a barrel of flour to be sent to the Protestant Home.

Four or five rinks of Winnipeg curlers are expected to drop off at Peterborough to-morrow and play the local club. The Winnipeg men are en route to Toronto.

The stones and brooms of the Bobcaygeon curlers arrived here to-day, and if the men that belong to them turn up in time a match may be arranged. Bobcaygeon goes to Toronto to represent group 4 in the Ontario Tankard competition Wednesday.

Does your boy or girl need a school slate. The cheapest place in town to get one is at the Peterborough Book Store.

Scott Act Organization.

The temperance people of Lennox and Addington organized a Society to fight the repeal of the Scott Act in that county at Napanee on Friday. At the meeting, Mr. Rose, Inspector, gave some interesting figures regarding the operations of the Act there. The balance to the credit of the license board in 1885, after paying expenses, was $1,656 20, and to the credit of the Scott Act in 1888, $1,482.50; so that the balance for the county in favor of license was only $173.70. Mr. Rose also gave the following convictions for the whole county:—1885, 200; 1888, 56; decrease, 144. For drunkenness in 1885, 66 were convicted, and in 1888, 9. Mr. Rose surprised the meeting by stating that of the convictions for drunkenness in 1888, five of the nine were the same man.

AMERICAN

A Question of Title.

In the High Court of Justice, Queen's Bench division, Toronto, on Saturday, the following decision was given by Justice Street in a case of local importance, as reported by the Mail:

Re Batten and Peterborough Real Estate Invt. Co.—This was an application on a case stated under the Vendors and Purchasers Act, the question being raised whether Richard Batten can make a good title to the lands in question. Richard Batten claims to be tenant in tail male of the property under the will of his father, William Batten, deceased, the material part of the will being as follows: "To my second son, Richard, I will devise and bequeath all my real estate, being the west half of lot No. 21, in the third concession of the Township of Dummer, and after his death to his issue, male, in succession, one after the other, beginning with the oldest son of my said son, Richard; and in case my said son Richard should have no issue, male, at the time of his decease then my will is that the aforesaid real estate so above devised shall revert and stand hereby devised to any issue of my said beloved son Richard who may be alive at the time of his death." Judgment. The difficulties in the way of treating the words "male issue," as being restricted to sons, are greater than those which arise when the words are given their prima facie meaning, as including the whole line of descendants to whom an estate in tail may go. The rule in Shelly's case applies, and the eldest son and his male descendants take the same estate in due course by descent from Richard Batten, and upon failure of estate in them the second and other sons and their male descendants take in the same way, unless the estate tail is barred either by Richard Batten or some of the persons who may become entitled. Richard Batten, therefore, is entitled to an estate in the lands in question as tenant in tail male. W. H. Moore, (Peterborough) for Batten. G. M. Roger, (Peterborough) for R. E. I. Co

OPERA

"A Horse of Another Colour."

Mr. Clexton has handed the EXAMINER the following letter. It is a confirmation of the argument in favor of more liberal trade relations, with the United States as inferred in Mr. Clexton's letter in Saturday's issue in reference to wood.

(To the Editor of the Globe.)

SIR,—A car load of horses was shipped from here on the 16th January to the Boston market—and among them was a fine team of Clydes that were sold at $400. Here then was $80 taken off the price of this one team to pay the United States' duty, which would have been paid to the farmer had the trade been free, and a like amount of twenty per cent. on all the lot as well and on everything sent there. But our Government says: No, you cannot have Free Trade. When will the scales fall from the eyes of our people? R

Port Hope, Feb. 4th.

Just a Shame.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—That bachelor's ball is a singular affair. The idea of a lot of wealthy and fashionable fellows getting together and parading the fact that they are too selfish to get married and settle down and be respectable! I think it's just a shame. If these chaps think that all the girls expect is to be taken to a ball once a year they are wofully mistaken. If these bachelors want to distinguish themselves in a worthy way let them club together and agree to get married and next year give a married man's ball, which will be much more creditable. What would people say if girls gave an old maid's ball? They would simply be laughed at. And yet it isn't their fault that they are old maids, though it is the men's fault if they are old bachelors. What is fair for one ought to be fair for the other.

METHODIST MISSION DAY.

Special Services in the Methodist Churches.

The Mission in the Northwest—A Great Country and its Religious Aspects—Mormon and Roman Catholic Operations—Rev. Messrs. McLean and Chambers' Addresses.

Sunday was mission day in the Methodist churches of Peterborough and Ashburnham. Rev. John McLean, B.A., North west Missionary and Rev. A. B. Chambers, LL.B., Napanee were the visiting clergymen who made special addresses. Rev. E. Roberts, of Manford, was unable to fulfil his engagement on account of illness.

The services drew out unusually large congregations. Special and appropriate music was rendered by all the choirs, and collections were taken up in aid of the mission fund. The services will be continued to-night in the George street church, when a public missionary meeting will be held.

Rev. Mr. McLEAN preached in the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, in the forenoon, and at the Charlotte street church at night. Mr. McLean speaks with a marked Scotch accent, and his addresses were decidedly interesting. He took no text, and gave a regular missionary address. It was nine years ago that he went out to the Northwest, settling among the Blood Indians. The reverend gentleman dwelt upon the vast extent of the country known as the north west and the splendid chances it offered to settlers. A great many people had an idea that it was very cold up there in winter, but where he lived Rev. Mr. McLean said, under the shadow of the rockies, 800 miles west of Winnipeg, he had slept out in the open air with nothing about him but a buffalo skin with the thermometer at

Thousands of horses and cattle there never saw stables, but roamed about on the prairies the year round, and became rolling fat on the grass that grew there, protected from the cold winds under the lee of the mountains. That was the country he said, where a young man with a capital of only $1000 grows rich in five years. There was very little snow there too, because of the warm Chinook winds which swept over the land six or seven times a year and in a couple of hours would lick up the snow and the animals would go forth to graze. The country up there was being rapidly settled, and it was the duty of the people here to send them them the gospel tidings, or on some day not very far distant there would be a Quebec in the west as well as the east.

Referring to the fuel prospects, he said there were hundreds of square miles of undeveloped coal beds that would furnish an almost inexhaustible supply of fuel. The country was making material advances. Three years ago there were only 20 schools in the northwest; now there were 150 schools, where only the English language was taught for it was intended to make the Northwest thoroughly Canadian and of one nationality. Towns and cities were springing up, as witness Calgary, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and other places which were growing rapidly.

There were in the great Northwest some 25,000 Indians—3,500 Bloods, 1,000 Piegans, 2,500 Blackfeet and other tribes. Rev. Mr. McLean gave some interesting accounts of the Indians' customs, their teepees, their medicine men, their sun-worship and sun-dance, and life at the Methodist mission station. He expected, when he went amongst them, said Mr. McLean, to find their language as savage in its character as the Indians themselves, but he found it euphonious and accurate, with a set of rules like any civilized tongue. What was more, the Northwest Indian could not speak ungrammatically, talk slang or swear in his own dialect. Rev. Mr. McLean attributed this to an innate sense of Deity among the aborigines, and God was found speaking in their tongue. It was another argument in support of the existence of an all supreme Being who guided the destinies of the world, because their pure and beautiful dialect could never have been composed by themselves; it was the gift of God. The Indians besides were extremely religious in their way, worshipping stone and trees where they supposed the flying spirits or gods stopped to rest.

Referring to the mission work, Rev. Mr. McLean said that up to four or five years ago the Methodists were leading in that line, but, coming to the conclusion that the teamsters and cow-boys up there were not an intelligent set of men, they sent up as missionaries men who had failed to pass even the preliminary ministerial examination. There were, however, among those bull-whackers, mule-skinners and broncho busters, as they are called, graduates of colleges and sons of ministers. The Presbyterian church sent up graduates of Queen's and Knox, and the result was they were ahead to-day. They had only two or three missionaries, but carried on the work mainly by putting Indian children into training schools. It was the duty of the Methodist church to make up this lost ground. Following up the enterprising settlers, the various denominations sent up missionaries. Rev. Jas. Evans worked out a set of syllabic ciphers for the Indians, consisting of 40 characters, by which an intelligent Indian would learn to read his Bible in a day. By this means the Indians themselves became missionaries and helped spread the Gospel among their fellow red men. Another missionary had worked out a similar cipher for the Esquimaux. The English church began in 1820, and now in the Arctic circle Archdeacons Macdonald and Vincent were doing a good work, going even into Alaska. All over that wonderful country the blessings of the gospel of Christ were being given to the Indians, especially by the Methodist, Roman Catholic and English churches. But there was a class of missionaries who were never heard of down here, and that was the self-sacrificing women who labored and died in the cause of their Master.

Rev. Mr. McLean said he wished to draw attention to a fact that none of the newspapers or church magazines had given publicity to. That was the existence of in the Northwest that threatened to become the nucleus of an alien nation. They professed to obey the laws, but their avowed hope was that in a few years by their numbers and influence they could get the laws changed. Their children are taught in separate schools, and down in Utah the children know nothing of the United States —everything to them is Utah, and Utah only. The Mormons let no one escape from their ranks, if they can help it. It is said some six hundred apostates have been murdered by them rather than that they should become Christians. This sort of thing was not wanted in Canada, but if the Mormon settlement in the Northwest was not looked after the consequences might, in time, become serious.

Then other questions were of importance to the Northwest. There was the temperance question, and the French tongue, and Roman Catholic Separate schools and convents. Rev. Mr. McLean said the Roman Catholics there understood the politics of the country and managed affairs in order to gain the country for themselves; and if the Protestants did not bestir themselves it would be lost to Protestantism and Canada. There was a big work there to be done among the Indians, and it should be an entirely undenominational one. The Methodists and Presbyterians were working harmoniously together; the missionaries had a hard life of it, but they were meeting with joyful success, as an evidence of which Rev. Mr. McLean pointed out that none of the Blood, Blackfeet or Piegan Indians took part in the late rebellion.

In conclusion he said the mission work there depended upon the assistance of the people of this part of the country, and they relied upon them for funds to carry on the work.

Rev. A. B. CHAMBERS, of Napanee, preached in the Charlotte street church in the morning and the George street church at night. Rev. Mr. Chambers possesses a rare earnestness of manner, that, combined with a flow of grand thoughts clothed in fine language, make him a successful preacher. His text in the morning was from the gospel of John, iii., 30:—

"He must increase, but I must decrease."

These were the words of John the Baptist to the disciples, and expressed the doctrine of John concerning Christ. This conviction of John's was not shared in by a great many people to-day, but there was no doubt that this was the design of God the Father, for He said in His book concerning Christ: "To the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end." Numbers of passages could be quoted showing and proclaiming the future universality of Christ's kingdom. And there could be no doubt that God would carry out His intentions of making Christ's kingdom of no end. His intentions and promises were always fulfilled—witness the making of the world, the deluge, the cross, the ascension, and the steady progress of the gospel in later days. Was there then any reason to suppose that he would fail in this? He has declared that the shall be the possession of His son; and it shall be so. This was the cause with which the Christian people were allied; they should glory in it and the certainty of their ultimate triumph. This result was assured because in the first place the forces employed were adequate—love, the Holy Ghost, and the holy Scriptures, the latter the mightiest visible force in the world to-day. The "increase of Christ" meant individual felicity, social elevation and national advancement. On these points the reverend gentleman enlarged, drawing attention to the elevated condition of women especially, in Christianized countries, and contrasting Russia, Turkey, Spain, France and even Ireland with England, Germany, Scotland, Holland, the United States and Canada as indicative of the enlightening influences of the gospel. This "increase of Christ" meant life, love and liberty to the world. It was to be brought about by individual effort and influence, backed up by organized advance on the strongholds of darkness, and in conclusion the reverend gentleman urged his hearers to make it the supreme ambition of their life to aid in every possible way in carrying the glad news to the uttermost parts of the world.

George Street Church.

The morning services were conducted by Rev. M. L. Pearson, who preached on the subject of Paul's endeavors to turn the Athenians from their idol worship to a worship of the true God. Paul's plan was not to condemn their worhip but to teach them that the unknown God they worshipped was the God of whom he preached, and to turn their worship in a right direction. This was the aim of the missionaries to-day, not so much to condemn heathen idolatry as to point out to them the true God to worship. There was a sense of deity in the breast of every man, and all that was required was to show the heathen that there was but one God, omnipotent and omniscient.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Chambers spoke from the text in Luke, 19, 10:—"The Son of Man came into the world to seek and to save that which was lost." The preacher described the lost condition of mankind at the time of Christ's coming, in which was some resemblance to the condition of the heathen to-day. As the Son of Man "came" to redeem sinners, so the missionaries "go" to the heathen to bring them the glad tidings of salvation.

Church Chimes.

Rev. Father Lynch held service at Keene Sunday.

Sunday was children's day at St. Andrew's Church. The Sunday school children in the morning occupied the centre seats and Rev. Mr. Bell preached an appropriate sermon directed to them.

Last evening in St. Paul's Church Miss Sophie Cameron sang "Abide with Me" to music of Mr. Parker's composition.

Special collections in aid of the colleges were taken up in St. Paul's Church Sunday.

An adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Peterborough will be held in St. Andrew's Church to-morrow at 2.30 o'clock.

There were good congregations at St. John's yesterday. Rev Mr. Kenrick preached in the morning on the subject of humility, and the sermon in the evening, by Rev. Mr. Davidson, dealt with the subject of God's forbearance towards sinful men. In the evening Miss Cottingham sang a solo in her usual acceptable manner.

News Nuggets.

—The Salvation Army was out again in full force Sunday.

—At a meeting of the Council of Norwood village on Monday last, the amount to be paid for shop and hotel licenses was fixed at $260.

—Some views of the Montreal carnival taken by Mr. R. M. Roy are shown at Manchester's jewelry store. On account of the stormy weather the views are not as good as they would otherwise have been —As a result of the services held in the village of Stirling last week by Messrs. Dunnett and Stafford, a Council of Royal Templars was instituted with a membership of 53.

—Bandmaster Miller is expecting two of Besson's finest clarionets from London, Eng. They will form valuable additions to the present number of reed instruments in the band.

—A "whiskey wave" appeared to pass over the town Saturday last. A citizen told the EXAMINER he never saw so many drunken men about town before. Were they celebrating in anticipation of the approaching repeal of the Scott Act?

Police Court.

MONDAY, Feb. 11.

As a result of an unusually large amount of Saturday night and Sunday drinking, seven "drunks" were fined at the police court this morning, among them a woman. The magistrate was doubly severe upon those who were arrested Sunday, and gave the Chief of Police instructions to arrest anyone found selling liquor on Sunday. Some $23 were collected from the inebriates in fines.

Mr. W. Thayer, Wright, P.Q., had dyspepsia for 20 years. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of, and immediately commenced taking, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health, in fact he is quite a new man. w7

A complete revolution in the state of a stomach harassed by dyspepsia is caused by using Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, or great blood purifier, a medicine specially adapted to renew healthful activity in that organ and in those which most closely co-operate with it, the bowels and the liver. Easy digestion, an increase of appetite and a free secretion of bile, mark the radical change which it produces. w7

AT TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

SHAVING PRICES

That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots, Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on none do we seek to secure more than we have paid.

The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.

This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

DEBATE ON THE DUTY ON ARTIFICIAL FERTILIZERS.

Postmaster-General Haggart Says It is Not the Government's Intention to Reduce the Letter Rate at Present.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—There was a rather extended debate in the House yesterday afternoon, which was not concluded when the Speaker left the chair at 6 o'clock. The subject under discussion was this motion by Mr. Mulock:

"That the House do resolve itself into committee of the whole to consider the following resolution: That it is expedient to remove the duty on artificial fertilizers and to place them on the free list."

Besides Mr. Mulock, the other members who appealed for the removal of these duties were Mr. Fisher of Brome, Mr. Bain of Wentworth, Mr. Armstrong of Middlesex, Mr. McMillan of Huron and Mr. Mills. The remarks of these gentlemen were not confined altogether to the showing why these fertilizers should come in without customs imposts but a general attack was made upon the customs policy of the Government.

Two members of the Government joined in the debate, Mr. Haggart and Mr. Foster. Mr. Haggart said that the National policy had come to stay and that Canada possessed the richest beds on earth of minerals from which these fertilizers were made—phosphates and sulphuric acid. They therefore intended to build up the trade of manufacturing the super-phosphates in our country.

The Minister of Finance gave the House to understand that the Government did not intend to recede from its present rate of duties on artificial fertilizers. Mr. Foster said that the question was not a very extensive one since the amount of revenue collected last year on fertilizers only amounted to $9131.

Mr. Hall of Sherbrooke, Dr. Ferguson and Dr. Sproule also took issue with the motion.

The debate will be resumed to-day, Mr. McDonald of Huron having the floor.

There were several important questions on the paper yesterday, the most important being those relating to the ruinous invitation of the Parliament of Canada to take a free trip through the United States with free lunch, free sleeping cars and free whisky thrown in, and that referring to a reduction of the postage to two cents.

Sir John Macdonald said in answer to Mr. Choquette's question: "The Government has not directly or indirectly received an invitation to be presented to the House from any person or persons to visit the principal cities of the United States. I might say," added the Premier, "that I received a private note from an American gentleman saying that it would be a very good thing if this arrangement could be made."

In answer to Mr. Therien the Postmaster-General said: "It is not the intention of the Government at present to reduce the rate of postage on letters to two cents."

Mr. Bowell told Mr. Choquette that before the Government had assumed the printing of the Dominion voters' lists $414,872 had been spent upon their preparation, printing, revising, etc., that to date $21,503 had been expended, in addition to $93,849 for plant.

The Minister of Militia informed Dr. Platt that the Government had purchased a house in Kingston for the use of the Commandant of the Royal Military College at a cost of $12,000, and that it was 2000 yards from the college building.

The Minister of the Interior told Mr. Davies that the Government would not this session amend the Dominion Lands Act.

The Minister of Justice introduced a bill providing for the extension of the Speedy Trials Act to Nova Scotia, which province alone in the sisterhood has up to date not had the benefit of this measure.

Mr. Ellis of New Brunswick introduced a bill providing for the assessment of the salaries and incomes of the civil servants and employes of the Government. Mr. Ellis said his bill was intended to make those gentlemen pay municipal taxes on their incomes like other people. [Applause.]

Mr. Shanly's bill to incorporate the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, and Mr. Mara's bill respecting the Kootenay and Athabasca Railway were read a second time and went to the Railway Committee.

Mr. Bain of Wentworth, made a 20-minute speech on a motion for a return of the correspondence, etc., respecting the sale and ownership of the Dundas and Waterloo turnpike. Since the return brought down in 1886, no one seems to know who really won the road, although it has caused the farmers of Wentworth and Waterloo who travel over it a great deal of annoyance. Dr. Walker of Dundas is the alleged owner. Mr. Bain charges that the road is badly kept and that the Government being its former or present owner should investigate. The Minister of Public Works in promising the return said he was also anxious to find out who really owned the road.

Another young man was introduced today and took his seat on the Government benches. This is Frank S. Barnard, the successor of Senator Reid for Caribou. He was sponsored by Hon. E. Dewdney and Major J. A. Mara of Kamloops.

Sir Hector Langevin laid on the table the annual report of the Secretary of State.

Dr. Platt on Thursday will offer a resolution that it is expedient to remove the duties on all grains and seeds which do not ripen in Canada, but which are now largely imported and sown for the production of food for cattle and the system of seeding called silo and ensilage, now largely adopted by the farmers of Canada.

Dr. Roome will ask on Wednesday if the Government proposes to divide the money which has accumulated from fines in the hands of the [illegible] in Scott Act cases among the municipalities.

Notice of the Government bills has been given for Wednesday; acts to amend the Militia Act, the Weights and Measures Act and the act respecting certificates to masters and mates.

The Governor-General and party arrived in Ottawa from Montreal at noon to-day accompanied by Hon. Edward Stanley and Lady Alice, his bride, who is the youngest daughter of the Duke of Manchester. Lieut.-Stanley, who is a member of the Grenadier Guards, will assume the duties of aide-de-camp to His Excellency.

A letter was received from Toronto this morning announcing the complete demolition of a gentleman who formerly played an important part in the politics of the country, who once owned a powerful Conservative paper, who sat in Parliament and who at one time was in very affluent circumstances. This gentleman in his old age and feebleness finds himself penniless, and some of his friends have written to the Capital to see if the Government can't do something for the old man.

Elected Director of the Bank of Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 11.—C. S. Watson, president of the Montreal Rolling Mills Company, has been elected a director of the Bank of Montreal to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alex. Murray.

Peddlers' Wages Reduced.

READING, Pa., Feb. 10.—The Brooke Iron Company of Birdsboro, have reduced the wages of their peddlers from $3.25 to $3 per ton. This is the lowest figure paid since the panic. Nearly 200 men are affected and they do not seem inclined to accept. The mills at Pottstown and other places recently made similar reductions.

JACK THE RIPPER AT LAST

THE WHITECHAPEL FIEND IN THE GRASP OF THE LAW.

A Woman's Murder at Dundee Leads to the Arrest of Her Husband Who is Probably the London Butcher.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A sensation has been caused at Dundee by the finding to-day by the police of the mutilated body of a woman. The abdomen was ripped up and the body squeezed into a wooden chest. It is thought by many to be the handiwork of "Jack the Ripper." The woman's husband has been arrested.

A despatch from Dundee says the murderer of the woman whose mutilated remains were found in a chest to-day is W. W. Bury, the victim's husband. Bury was a resident of Whitechapel, London, and his antecedents suggest that he is probably "Jack the Ripper," and that he is subject to fits of unconscious murder mania.

The post-mortem proved that the woman had first been strangled and then her body mutilated, the abdomen being ripped open and the legs and arms twisted and broken.

Bury says he left Whitechapel three weeks ago. He refuses to say why he left there. He says he and his wife drank heavily last night and he does not know how he got to bed. Upon awakening he found his wife upon the floor with a rope around her neck. Actuated by a sudden unaccountable mad impulse he seized a knife and slashed the body. Upon reason returning he became alarmed and hastily crushed the body into the chest, thinking to escape. He found he could not leave his wife's remains and finally resolved to inform the police.

The theory of the police is that Bury's wife knew of facts connecting him with the East End atrocities and that she took him to Dundee hoping to prevent a recurrence of the crimes.

A Big Job for the Printers.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The proceedings of the Parnell Commission are printed every night ready for the Judge's table the following morning. One hundred men are employed on the work. One thousand pounds weight of type has to be provided nightly in addition to special quantities of capitals to meet the requisition of repetitions of proper names. The Crown printers have never failed in this onerous task imposed on them.

Proposed Liberal Resolution.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—It is rumored the Liberals will introduce a resolution in Parliament deploring the treatment of William O'Brien at the hands of the Clonmel prison officials and expressing the regret of Parliament at the Irish policy of the Imperial Government.

The Samoan Conference.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The resumption here of the sittings of the conference concerning Samoa will probably be delayed for several weeks awaiting the arrival of a special commission from Washington.

France-U. S. Postal Convention.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The Chamber of Deputies has approved an additional convention relative to the exchange of postal orders between France and the United States.

Picquet's Bill Adopted.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day by a vote of 290 to 206 agreed to proceed with the discussion of the articles of the scrutin d'arrondissement bill which were afterwards adopted. The bill passed, 295 to 232.

Handoub Evacuated.

CAIRO, Feb. 11.—The Soudanese have evacuated Handoub. They destroyed the town by fire.

A New Panama Canal Co.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—It is reported that leading financial houses here are trying to form a new combination to complete the Panama Canal. M. De Lesseps, it is said, will be merely honorary president of the new company.

Nominated for the Cardinalate.

ROME, Feb. 11.—At the consistory to-day the Pope nominated for the cardinalate Monsignors Imacohi and Dannibale and the Archbishop of Catania.

BRITISH TRADE WITH CANADA.

An Improvement Reported for January—The Railway Discussion.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—British trade with Canada has improved during January. The Board of Trade returns show exports to Canada to the value of £423,561, a decrease of 7 per cent., as compared with January, 1888. The imports from Canada were £96,447, an increase of 40 per cent. In exports the decreases were chiefly in railroad and other classes of iron. In imports, flour increased £3504, cheese £3415, fish £10,042, lumber £15,627.

The Canadian railway discussion continues. A letter to The Times is attracting attention. It shows from official returns that the Canadian Pacific lines in Ontario—not an integral part of the main line—received three million dollars in subsidies. Grand Trunk similar lines received nine and a half million dollars. The letter asks: For which company has the fatted calf been killed.

To Protect U. S. Interests in Panama.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate in secret session has passed the following bill to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States in Panama:

Be it enacted, etc., That there be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $250,000 to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States and to provide for the security of the persons and property of citizens of the United States on the Isthmus of Panama in such manner as he may deem expedient.

The Injunction of Secrecy Removed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate in executive session to-day discussed a motion to remove the injunction of secrecy from the proceedings in connection with the British extradition treaty. There was considerable opposition, but the motion finally prevailed and to-morrow the record of the proceedings covering two or three years will be furnished the press.

Suppressing Opium Smuggling.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The United States consul at Victoria, B.C., reports that treasury agents at Port Townsend and Seattle have been very efficient in preventing smuggling of opium and their efforts bid fair to suppress the traffic.

The "Q. T." Express.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad reports its gross earnings for the year ending Dec. 31 last ($23,780,167), a decrease of $3,780,910, while the net earnings were $6,965,054, a decrease of $6,378,167 compared with 1887.

A Railway to Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 11.—Owing to the continued rush of creditors last night and this morning the Ohio and Western Railroad to-day assigned to Gen. James A. Hall.

Church Burglars at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, Feb. 7.—Last night burglars entered and ransacked St. John's Church.

Work for the Tramps.

BELVIDERE, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Nearly a hundred tramps confined in the Warren County jail were put to work to-day breaking stones in the public gravel pit. They will be chained together and made to work several hours each day.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

A CENTRAL PRISON GUARD CONVICTED OF THEFT.

A Methodist Evangelist Charged with Heterodoxy—Miss Campbell's Illness—The Detectives Make a Big Haul.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—The Methodist Ministerial association yesterday discussed with closed doors the heterodoxy of Evangelist Wells, whose proceedings of late here became notorious and whom it is proposed to discipline.

Jane Connolly was called into the witness box at the Police Court yesterday to give evidence against her husband, James Connolly, who, three weeks ago on Saturday night, assaulted her in a ferocious manner, inflicting injuries of such a serious nature that her life was despaired of. She only left the hospital for the first time since the assault yesterday morning. Mrs. Connolly, as in similar cases, pleaded for her husband, and accepted all blame in the matter and said she provoked him. He was given an extra five days.

John Spence, the Central Prison guard, who is accused of robbing the prison, was called before the magistrate yesterday, who found him guilty and sentenced him to 60 days in jail. Edward R. Cates, foreman of the Brandon works, received the same sentence.

John P. Hoskin, foreman in the machine shop at the Central, on a similar charge was remanded for a week, bail being refused.

Charles Kirk, a nasty-dressed young man, will be shipped to Hamilton, where he is wanted for overcoat stealing. Kirk and Chief McKinnon met rather unexpectedly at the Union Station yesterday, the consequence being that Mr. Kirk was arrested by Detective Burrows.

The lady students at University College have decided to organize a Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Harriet Campbell, daughter of the Lieut.-Governor, is reported to be dangerously ill again.

One warrants proceedings have been taken by Jacob Weaver against Ald. T. J. Robinson of St. Catharines, and by D. McLaren against Reeve Stalker of the County of Elgin. The usual charges of corruption are alleged.

Judgment was delivered yesterday by Mr. Justice Falconbridge in Hall v. Woodstock. This is the case in which the plaintiff applied for an injunction to restrain the defendant corporation and a Mr. Morrison from carrying out out a contract for the electric lighting of the town of Woodstock. The case was heard at the last Woodstock assizes. Judgment was given in the plaintiff's favor with costs against the defendant Morrison.

Albani was greeted with an immense and enthusiastic audience at her concert in the Pavilion last night.

The detective department has good reason to be proud of a big haul which two of their number made yesterday. About noon Detectives Davis and Slemin visited the house of Expressman John Martin, Munro's Lane, a small thoroughfare off Wellington, west of Bay. There they succeeded in making a seizure of fully $500 worth of stolen property, the outcome of many robberies, dating some of them one year back. The booty consisted in great part of robes, cutlery, jewelry, purses, boots, canvas bags, canvas, overcoats, pants and horse blankets. The police have identified among the spoil Fred Wert's $150 wolverine robe, stolen on Jan. 26, 1888; a canvas tarpaulin stolen from the Warren-Scharfe Co. on No. 1, 1886, a canvas hose belonging to the same firm and stolen about the same time.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Voters' Lists Act—Prisons and Public Charities Report.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—There was another brief session of the Legislature yesterday. The Provincial Inspector presented the 19th annual report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities on the Provincial Hospitals. The number of cases treated in all the hospitals during the past year was 3393, being an increase of 770 over the preceding year. Ten years ago the number of cases treated was 2112. The number of cases treated last year showed an increase over the preceding year in almost all the hospitals. There were but three exceptions, viz: The City Hospital, Hamilton, with a decrease of 10; the General Hospital, London, with a decrease of 70, and the St. Catharines Hospital with a decrease of 19.

The table showing the collective stay of patients in all the hospitals during the past year made a total of 283,216 days as against 263,410 in 1887, an increase not in proportion to the large number of patients, as the average stay per patient dropped from 82.25 days to 80.65. Other tables show the manner in which the Legislature will be asked to vote as grants to the hospitals are made up. Here is a summary:

General Hospital, Toronto	$60,833 44
City Hospital, Hamilton	4213 33
General Hospital, Hamilton	4213 33

The House went into committee of the whole to consider Mr. Fraser's bill to amend the Ontario Voters' Lists Act. There was a good deal of discussion on section 14, subsection 3, which reads: "If a person, whose right to be a voter is the subject of enquiry, does not attend in obedience to subpœna or order, the Judge, if he thinks fit, in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the ground for non-attendance, or as to the right of the person to be a voter, may on the ground of his non-attendance, strike his name off the list of voters, or refuse to place his name on the list of voters as the case may require, or impose a reasonable fine according to his discretion, or do both."

To this clause Mr. Meredith objected on the ground that it would be unjust to the voter. He desired to amend it so that the Judge should not exercise the power provided in the clause unless where there appeared reasonable ground for believing that the right of the voter to vote was fairly open to question, and that the Judge knew the person was entitled to vote he could not strike his name off the list for non-attendance. In committee the amendment was lost. The speaker took the chair and Mr. Fraser moved the third reading of the bill. Mr. Meredith moved for a division of the House. To this Mr. Fraser objected on the ground that there was not a full attendance of the members. He finally deferred the third reading until to-day.

The Premier, in reply to a question by Mr. French, stated that the Government were aware that the recent decision in the case of Anderson v Glass confirmed the power of practically evading the act respecting assignments, but he said that the Government had not determined on a remedy.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Fraser to amend the Ontario Shop Regulation Act, the object of the measure being to better facilitate the working of the act of 1886 and to apply it to unincorporated villages.

New Dressmaker
AT TURNBULL'S

For the last two months we have been looking for a First-Class Dress-Maker to take charge of our Dress-making Department and have been making enquiry from the Principal Wholesale Dress-goods houses who are familiar through their travellers with all the leading dress-makers in Canada. Out of those recommended we have chosen Miss Mugridge a well known Dress-maker of Bond Street, Toronto, who has now taken charge and from the high recommendations she brings with her from reliable sources we can confidently say that every garment she turns out will give perfect satisfaction both as to fit and style. As those who know Miss Mugridge say she has a natural taste for Dress-making and loves her business we expect to find her a great addition to our already extensive Dress department.

Dresses cut and fitted on short notice for those wishing to go home on early trains.

New goods arriving weekly all novelties that the seasons brings around will be found in our stock to select from. Your patronage solicited.

SHAVING
PRICES
That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots, Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on some do we seek to secure more than we have paid.
The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.
This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

DEBATE ON THE DUTY ON ARTIFICIAL FERTILIZERS.

Postmaster-General Haggart Says It Is Not the Government's Intention to Reduce the Letter Rate at Present.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—There was a rather extended debate in the House yesterday afternoon, which was not concluded when the Speaker left the chair at 6 o'clock. The subject under discussion was this motion by Mr. Mulock:

"That the House do resolve itself into committee of the whole to consider the following resolution: That it is expedient to remove the duty on artificial fertilizers and to place them on the free list."

Besides Mr. Mulock, the other members who appealed for the removal of the duties were Mr. Fisher of Brome, Mr. Bain of Wentworth, Mr. Armstrong of Middlesex, Mr. McMillan of Huron and Mr. Mills. The remarks of these gentlemen were not confined altogether to the showing why these fertilizers should come in without customs imposts but a general attack was made upon the customs policy of the Government.

Two members of the Government joined in the debate, Mr. Haggart and Mr. Foster. Mr. Haggart said that the National policy had come to stay and that Canada possessed the richest beds on earth of minerals from which these fertilizers were made—phosphates and sulphuric acid. They therefore intended to build up the trade of manufacturing the super-phosphates in our country. The Minister of Finance gave the House to understand that the Government did not intend to recede from its present rate of duties on artificial fertilizers. Mr. Foster said that the question was not a very extensive one since the amount of revenue collected last year on fertilizers only amounted to $9031.

Mr. Hall of Sherbrooke, Dr. Ferguson and Dr. Sproule also took issue with the motion.

The debate will be resumed to-day, Mr. Guillemard of Huron having the floor.

There were several important questions on the paper yesterday, the most important being those relating to the rumoured invitations of the Parliament of Canada to take a free trip through the United States with free lunch, free sleeping cars and free whisky thrown in, and that offering to a reduction of the postage to two cents.

Sir John Macdonald said in answer to Mr. Choquette's question: "The Government has not directly or indirectly received an invitation to be presented to the House from any person or persons to visit the principal cities of the United States. I might say," added the Premier, "that I received a private note from an American gentleman saying that it would be a very good thing if this arrangement could be made."

In answer to Mr. Therien the Postmaster-General said: "It is not the intention of the Government at present to reduce the rate of postage on letters to two cents."

Mr. Powell told Mr. Choquette that before the Government had assumed the printing of the Dominion voters' lists $414,672 had been spent upon their preparation, printing, revising, etc., that to date $21,802 had been expended, in addition to $63,849 for plant.

The Minister of Militia informed Dr. Platt that the Government had purchased a house in Kingston for the use of the Commandant of the Royal Military College at a cost of $12,[illegible] that it was 2000 yards from the college building.

The Minister of the Interior told Mr. Davies that the Government would not this session amend the Dominion Lands Act.

The Minister of Justice introduced a bill providing for the extension of the Speedy Trials Act to Nova Scotia, which province alone in the sisterhood has up to date not had the benefit of this measure.

Mr. Ellis of New Brunswick introduced a bill providing for the assessment of the salaries and incomes of the civil servants and employes of the Government. Mr. Ellis said his bill was intended to make these gentlemen pay municipal taxes on their incomes like other people. [Applause.]

Mr. Shanly's bill to incorporate the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, and Mr. Mara's bill respecting the Kootenay and Athabasca Railway were read a second time and went to the Railway Committee.

Mr. Bain of Wentworth, made a 20-minute speech on a motion for a return of the correspondence, etc., respecting the sale and ownership of the Dundas and Waterloo turnpike. Since the return brought down in 1885, no one seems to know who really won the road, although it has caused the farmers of Wentworth and Waterloo who travel over it a great deal of annoyance. Dr. Walker of Dundas is the alleged owner. Mr. Bain charges that the road is badly kept and that the Government being its former or present owner should investigate. The Minister of Public Works in promising the return said he was also anxious to find out who really owned the road.

Another young man was introduced to-day and took his seat on the Government benches. This is Frank S. Barnard, the successor of Senator Reid for Caribou. He was sponsored by Hon. E. Dewdney and Major J. A. Mara of Kamloops.

Sir Hector Langevin laid on the table the annual report of the Secretary of State.

Dr. Platt on Thursday will offer a resolution that it is expedient to remove the duties on all grains and seeds which do not ripen in Canada, but which are now largely imported and sown for the production of food for cattle and the system of seeding called silo and ensilage, now largely adopted by the farmers of Canada.

Dr. Roome will ask on Wednesday if the Government proposes to divide the money which has accumulated from fines in the hands of the treasurers in Scott Act cases among the municipalities.

Notice of three Government bills has been given for Wednesday: acts to amend the Militia Act, the Weights and Measures Act and the act respecting certificates to masters and mates.

The Governor-General and party arrived in Ottawa from Montreal at noon to-day accompanied by Hon. Edward Stanley and Lady Alice, his bride, who is the youngest daughter of the Duke of Manchester. Lieut.-Stanley, who is a member of the Grenadier Guards, will assume the duties of aide-de-camp to His Excellency.

A letter was received from Toronto this morning announcing the complete desertion of a gentleman who formerly played an important part in the politics of the country, who once owned a powerful Conservative paper, who sat in Parliament and who at one time was in very affluent circumstances. This gentleman in his old age and feebleness finds himself penniless, and some of his friends have written to the Capital to see if the Government can't do something for the old man.

JACK THE RIPPER AT LAST

THE WHITECHAPEL FIEND IN THE GRASP OF THE LAW.

A Woman's Murder at Dundee Leads to the Arrest of Her Husband Who is Probably the London Murderer.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A sensation has been caused at Dundee by the finding to-day by the police of the mutilated body of a woman. The abdomen was ripped up and the body squeezed into a wooden chest. It is thought by many to be the handiwork of "Jack the Ripper." The woman's husband has been arrested.

A despatch from Dundee says the murderer of the woman whose mutilated remains were found in a chest to-day in W. W. Berry, the victim's husband. Berry was a resident of Whitechapel, London, and his arrest on the suggest that he is probably "Jack the Ripper," and that he is subject to fits of unconscious murder mania.

The post-mortem proved that the woman had first been strangled and then her body mutilated, the abdomen being ripped open and the legs and arms twisted and broken.

Berry says he left Whitechapel three weeks ago. He refuses to say why he left there. He says he and his wife drank heavily last night and he does not know how he got to bed. Upon awakening he found his wife upon the floor with a rope around her neck. Actuated by a sudden unaccountable mad impulse he seized a knife and slashed the body. Upon reason returning he became alarmed and hastily crushed the body into the chest, thinking to escape. He found he could not leave his wife's remains and finally resolved to inform the police.

The theory of the police is that Berry's wife knew of facts connecting him with the East End atrocities and that she took him to Dundee hoping to prevent a recurrence of the crimes.

A Big Job for the Printers.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The proceedings of the Parnell Commission are printed every night ready for the Judge's table the following morning. One hundred men are employed on the work. One thousand pounds weight of type has to be provided nightly in addition to special quantities of capitals to meet the requisition of repetitions of proper names. The Crown printers have never failed in this onerous task imposed on them.

Proposed Liberal Resolution.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—It is rumored the Liberals will introduce a resolution in Parliament deploring the treatment of William O'Brien at the hands of the Clonmel prison officials and expressing the regret of Parliament at the Irish policy of the Imperial Government.

The Samoan Conference.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The resumption here of the sittings of the conference concerning Samoa will probably be delayed for several weeks awaiting the arrival of a special commission from Washington.

France-U. S. Postal Convention.

Picquet's Bill Adopted.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day by a vote of 290 to 266 agreed to proceed with the discussion of the articles of the scrutin d'arrondissement bill which were afterwards adopted. The bill passed, 295 to 232.

Handoub Evacuated.

CAIRO, Feb. 11.—The Soudanese have evacuated Handoub. They destroyed the town by fire.

A New Panama Canal Co.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—It is reported that leading financial houses here are trying to form a new combination to complete the Panama Canal. M. De Lesseps, it is said, will be merely honorary president of the new company.

Nominated for the Cardinalate.

ROME, Feb. 11.—At the consistory to-day the Pope nominated for the cardinalate Monsignore Imsochi and Dannibale and the Archbishop of Catania.

BRITISH TRADE WITH CANADA.

An Improvement Reported for January—The Railway Discussion.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—British trade with Canada has improved during January. The Board of Trade returns show exports to Canada to the value of £423,561, a decrease of 7 per cent., as compared with January, 1888. The imports from Canada were £96,447, an increase of 49 per cent. In exports the decreases were chiefly in railroad and other classes of iron. In imports, flour increased £2304, cheese £3415, fish £10,042, lumber £15,627.

The Canadian railway discussion continues. A letter to The Times is attracting attention. It shows from official returns that the Canadian Pacific lines in Ontario—not an integral part of the main line—received three million dollars in subsidies. Grand Trunk similar lines received nine and a half million dollars. The letter asks: For which company has the fatted calf been killed.

To Protect U. S. Interests in Panama.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate in secret session to-day passed the following bill to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States in Panama:

Be it enacted, etc., That there be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $250,000 to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States and to provide for the security of the persons and property of citizens of the United States at the Isthmus of Panama in such manner as he may deem expedient.

The Injunction of Secrecy Removed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate in executive session to-day discussed a motion to remove the injunction of secrecy from the proceedings in connection with the British extradition treaty. There was considerable opposition, but the motion finally prevailed and to-morrow the record of the proceedings covering two or three years will be furnished the press.

Suppressing Opium Smuggling.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The United States consul at Victoria, B.C., reports that treasury agents at Port Townsend and Seattle have been very efficient in preventing smuggling of opium and their efforts bid fair to suppress the traffic.

The "Soo" Earnings.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad reports its gross earnings for the year ending Dec. 31 last $23,780,167, a decrease of $3,788,910, while the net earnings were $6,965,054, a decrease of $6,978,167 compared with 1887.

A Railway in Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 11.—Owing to the continued rush of creditors last night and this morning the Ohio and Western Railroad to-day assigned to Gen. James A. Hall.

Church Burglars at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, Feb. 7.—Last night burglars entered and ransacked St. John's Church.

Work for the Tramps.

BELVIDERE, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Nearly a hundred tramps confined in the Warren County jail were put to work to-day breaking stones in the public gravel pit. They will be chained together and made to work several hours each day.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

A CENTRAL PRISON GUARD CONVICTED OF THEFT.

A Methodist Evangelist Charged With Intemperance—Miss Campbell's Illness—The Detectives Make a Big Haul.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—The Methodist Ministerial association yesterday discussed with closed doors the intemperance of Evangelist Wells, whose preachings of late have become notorious and whom it is proposed to discipline.

Jane Connolly was called into the witness box at the Police Court yesterday to give evidence against her husband, James Connolly, who, three weeks ago on Saturday night, assaulted her in a ferocious manner, inflicting injuries of such a serious nature that her life was despaired of. She only left the hospital for the first time since the assault yesterday morning. Mrs. Connolly, as in similar cases pleaded for her husband, and accepted all blame in the matter and said she provoked him. He was given an extra five days.

John Spence, the Central Prison guard, who is accused of robbing the prison, was called before the magistrate yesterday, who found him guilty and sentenced him to 60 days in jail. Edward R. Cates, foreman of the Brandon works, received the same sentence.

John P. Hoskin, foreman in the machine shop at the Central, on a similar charge was remanded for a week, bail being refused.

Charles Kirk, a natty-dressed young man, will be shipped to Hamilton, where he is wanted for overcoat stealing. Kirk and Chief McKinnon met rather unexpectedly at the Union Station yesterday, the consequence being that Mr. Kirk was arrested by Detective Barrows.

The lady students at University College have decided to organize a Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Marjorie Campbell, daughter of the Lieut.-Governor, is reported to be dangerously ill again.

One warrants proceedings have been taken by Jacob Weaver against Ald. T. J. Robinson of St. Catharines, and by D. McLaren against Reeve Stalker of the County of Elgin. The usual charges of corruption are alleged.

Judgment was delivered yesterday by Mr. Justice Falconbridge in Hall v. Woodstock. This is the case in which the plaintiff applied for an injunction to restrain the defendant corporation and a Mr. Morrison from carrying out out a contract for the electric lighting of the town of Woodstock. The case was heard at the last Woodstock assizes. Judgment was given in the plaintiff's favor with costs against the defendant Morrison.

Albani was greeted with an immense and enthusiastic audience at her concert in the Pavilion last night.

The detective department has good reason to be proud of a big haul which two of their officers made yesterday. About noon Detectives Davis and Slemin visited the house of Hermann John Martin, Mann's-lane, a small thoroughfare off Wellington, west of Bay. There they succeeded in making a seizure of fully $600 worth of stolen property, the outcome of many robberies, dating some of them one year back. The booty consisted in great part of robes, cutlery, jewelry, purses, boots, canvas bags, canvas, overcoats, pants and horse blankets. The police have identified among the spoil Fred Wert's $150 wolverine robe, stolen on Jan. 28, 1888; a canvas tarpaulin stolen from the Warren-Scharfe Co. on No. 1, 1888, a canvas hose belonging to the same firm and stolen about the same time.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Voters' Lists Act—Prisons and Public Charities Report.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—There was another brief session of the Legislature yesterday. The Provincial Inspector presented the 16th annual report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities on the Provincial Hospitals. The number of cases treated in all the hospitals during the past year was 8262, being an increase of 770 over the preceding year. Ten years ago the number of cases treated was 6112. The number of cases treated last year showed an increase over the preceding year in almost all the hospitals. There were but three exceptions, viz: The City Hospital, Hamilton, with a decrease of 10; the General Hospital, London, with a decrease of 70, and the St. Catharines Hospital with a decrease of 12.

The table showing the collective stay of patients in all the hospitals during the past year made a total of 282,216 days as against 242,410 in 1887, an increase not in proportion to the large number of patients, as the average stay per patient dropped from 32.26 days to 30.60. Other tables show the manner in which the Legislature will be asked to vote as grants to the hospitals are made up. Here is a summary:

General Hospital, Toronto	$20,833 44
City General Hospital, Hamilton	4000 00
General Hospital, Kingston	4000 00
General Protestant Hospital, Ottawa	4000 00
Hotel Dieu, Kingston	2551 22
Roman Catholic Hospital, Ottawa	2000 00
House of Mercy Lying-in-Hospital, Ottawa	1014 22

The House went into committee of the whole to consider Mr. Fraser's bill to amend the Ontario Voters' Lists Act. There was a good deal of discussion on section 14, subsection 3, which reads: "If a person, whose right to be a voter is the subject of enquiry, does not attend in obedience to subpœna or order, the Judge, if he thinks fit, in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the ground for non-attendance, or as to the right of the person to be a voter, may on the ground of his non-attendance, strike his name off the list of voters, or refuse to place his name on the list of voters as the case may require, or impose a reasonable fine according to his discretion, or do both."

To this clause Mr. Meredith objected on the ground that it would be unjust to the voter. He desired to amend it so that the Judge should not exercise the power provided in the clause unless where there existed reasonable ground for believing that the right of the voter to vote was fairly open to question, and if the Judge knew the person was entitled to vote he could not strike his name off the list for non-attendance. In committee the amendment was lost. The speaker took the chair and Mr. Fraser moved the third reading of the bill. Mr. Meredith moved for a division of the House. To this Mr. Fraser objected on the ground that there was not a full attendance of the members. He finally deferred the third reading until to-day.

The Premier, in reply to a question by Mr. French, stated that the Government were aware that the recent decision in the case of Anderson v Glass confirmed the power of practically evading the act respecting assignments, but he said that the Government had not determined on a remedy.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Fraser to amend the Ontario Shop Regulation Act, the object of the measure being to better facilitate the working of the act of 1888 and to apply it to unincorporated villages.

Hamilton's Public School Burned.

HAMILTON, Feb. 11.—About 3 o'clock this morning the public school here was discovered to be on fire, but too late to save anything. The loss is about $9500, insured for $1200 in the Western.

Special attention paid to the ordering of books. Any American, British or continental book supplied in the very shortest time at the Peterborough Bookstore, late A. L. Davis & Co.

Methodist Missions.

Annual Missionary Meeting at the Methodist Church—An Immense Attendance—The Crow Indian Choir—Speeches by Rev. Messrs. Saunders and McLean—The Annual Report.

The immense seating space of the auditorium of the George street Methodist church, was on Monday night tested to its full capacity. Every seat on floor and in gallery was occupied. In the audience the juvenile element was largely represented and this element was more enthusiastic than circumstances in its applause. Before the regular meeting began the choir of the church rendered a few selections in excellent style. A chief feature of the evening's attraction was the presence of Chief (Prof.) Crow and family, civilized and Christianized Indians from the Alnwick Reserve. These consisted of Prof. Crow, one son and four daughters. Of the daughters the contralto acted as organist, and the soprano played the first violin, the brother, a stalwart brave, played second violin. During the evening they gave several anthems and glees in their own peculiar soft and sweet manner. Upon the pulpit platform were Mr. Geo. Hilliard, Ex-M.P., chairman, Rev. M. L. Pearson, president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, and pastor of the church, Rev. S. J. Shorey, pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, Rev. A. B. Chambers, L. L. B., Napanee, Rev. John McLean B.A., missionary to the Blood Indians N.W.T., Rev. John Lawrence, of the Alnwick mission, Mr. B. Shortly, sec.-treasurer of the local mission board and the Crow family.

Mr. Geo. HILLIARD, ex-M. P., occupied the chair and gave a short address, eulogizing the mission work, referring to its great progress, and the gratifying increase of contributions to the support of the mission cause. Then followed an anthem by the members of the Crow family, which was cordially applauded.

Mr. BURT. SHORTLY read the missionary report which stated that the first mission was begun in 1634, and on a very small scale with a very limited financial backing. It indicated the great strides made in the work. The field extended now over the whole Dominion, and extended even to Japan. The past year was encouraging. The total sum raised was $219,480. Of this sum $27,915 was contributed by the children. The Bay of Quinte Conference raised $19,267, the Peterborough District, $2,449,61, and Peterborough town, $679.04. The report pointed out that Miss Munro, a Sunday school teacher had gone to Japan, and many young men of the town were preparing for mission work.

The report was adopted on motion of Rev. Mr. Lawrence of the Alnwick Indian Mission.

Rev. A. B. CHAMBERS, LL.B., of Napanee, addressed the meeting, and expressed pleasure at being present to witness the visible effects of mission work in the persons of the Christian Indians of the Alnwick Reserves, and the presence of Rev. John McLean, a missionary of the Methodist church among the Blood Indians of the Northwest. This brought him to the statement that Rev. Mr. McLean, by his personal influence and that of his teaching, had restrained these Indians from taking up arms, in the outbreak of 1885. In fact, there was not a single Methodist, Presbyterian or Episcopalian Indian in that Rebellion (applause). Loyalty to Christ and constituted authority were represented, said the speaker, by Protestantism, and rebellion was represented by—another so-called Christian religion. The speaker went on to refer to the immensity of the mission work, the comparatively limited work accomplished, and the many discouragements which beset its onward progress. Setting against this the successes, he painted in eloquent terms a word-picture of the success of the mission work, framed in the statement that there were enough Christian missionaries in the field to place two on every mile of the earth's circumference. And the year 1888, was the crowning triumph of missions—if the same ratio of progress were maintained for eighty years, millennial conditions would have been accomplished. Reference was made to the cheering successes made in the various mission fields, particularly the French Canadians sections, and the speaker dwelt on the difficulties the work there presented on account of the hostility of the Roman Catholics, and was particularly warm in condemnation of the Jesuit Estates Bill, as the representative of a menace against the Protestantism of Canada. He declared if the public men of Parliament failed to protest they should be replaced by men of greater courage, no matter by what party name they might be called. (applause.) Rev. Mr. Chambers closed a stirring address amidst applause.

The chairman, Mr HILLIARD said he was glad to see that Rev. Mr. Chambers had the courage to speak as he had done in reference to the Quebec question. It was well that there were such men for he (Mr. Hilliard) had no confidence in either political party—they were both angling "for that vote."

The Crow family rendered a chorus with the orchestral accompaniment of organ and two violins.

Rev. JOHN MCLEAN, missionary to the Blood Indians, gave an intensely interesting address, covering much the same ground as that in the address of Sunday, reported in yesterday's EXAMINER. He pointed out that the native intellect of the Indians was far superior to the idea Canadian people had of it. The Indians were full of religious sentiment, perverted as it was. They were anxious for religious instruction, but the speaker was pained to say the nearer white settlements came to the reserves the worse for the Indians. After detailing the domestic and religious customs of the Indians he sang two hymns in the Blood Indian tongue.

The Indian choir gave another pleasing chorus, and Rev. Mr. McLean exhibited a large collection of Indian curiosities, articles of dress, toilet articles, weapons, household utensils, pipes, charms, etc., explaining their peculiarities.

A cordial vote of thanks was tendered the Indian singers for their presence, and Prof. Crow responded in a very happily worded speech given in good English. The Crow choir then sang an Indian hymn to the air of "Antioch," and after the doxology and benediction, pronounced by Rev Mr. Lawrence, the assemblage dispersed.

WINTER

is the season of the year when colder weather sharpens the appetite, and heartier and more invigorating food is necessary to maintain the heat of the body and to resist the wasting of the tissues, which goes on more rapidly during the cold weather and under increased activity. We leave the cooler salads and fruits that refreshed us during the summer months and take in their place steaks and chops, smoking hot, and the steaming oatmeal and graham cakes and coffee.

At this time of the year sausages, pork, ham, mackerel and other salt fish, form desirable breakfast dishes; and porridge, semolina, oatmeal, wheaten cakes and a variety of cereals help make the repast a most delicious one.

MURDER IN MEMPHIS.

A Priest Killed by a Man Whom He Had Befriended.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 11.—A terrible tragedy was enacted early this morning, which resulted in the killing of Father Ashfield, a Catholic priest connected with St. Peter's Cathedral. Several months ago A. Reeves, a young man well known about town, was confined in jail on account of mental troubles. Father Ashfield visited him in jail and was instrumental in having him released. Strong friendships grew up between them and Reeves was a frequent caller at the priest's house, which adjoins the Cathedral in Adams-street.

This morning at 6 o'clock Reeves rang the bell of the house and when the door was opened he passed the porter aside and went direct to Father Ashfield's room. The porter thought him drunk and ran to the station house, which is only a square distant, for a policeman. When the two returned they found Reeves sitting on the floor astride the head of the priest, who was dead.

It was evident that Reeves had stabbed him while asleep, as the bed was covered with blood. Several wounds just over the heart were found; any one of which would have been fatal. The weapon used was an ordinary pocket knife. When asked why he had committed the deed Reeves replied: "God told me to do it." At the station he said: "He was my best friend and as I was going away I wanted him to join me."

The priest was 50 years old and came to Memphis two years ago.

WELLAND INCIDENTS.

The Terrible Results of a Madman — A Shot-gun Accident.

WELLAND, Feb. 12.—Richard Benedict, 20 years of age, living with his mother in Cridland township, about two miles from Welland, lost his reason, and about 3 o'clock yesterday morning got out of his bed, stripped himself naked and entered his mother's bedroom, hammered and choked her nearly to death. He then left the house and ran three-quarters of a mile without a stitch of clothing to a neighbor's named Henry Buchner, a blacksmith, woke him out of his sleep and made a deadly attack on him, using him up so badly that he is now confined to his bed and may not recover. Neighbors were immediately notified by Mr. Buchner's family and promptly came to the rescue. After a hard struggle with the madman they succeeded in fastening him down with ropes. It was a fortunate thing for those he came in contact with that he had no weapon in his possession or these would have been no telling the horrible result. The unfortunate young man was living on the farm with his mother, his father, George Benedict, having died some time ago. Dr. Schooley of Welland, who was called to attend the case pronounced him incurable.

David McCaschie, a lad about 16 years old met with a painful accident yesterday. A shotgun exploded in his hands, cutting his face horribly and closing one of his eyes. Dr. Smith, of Welland, who dressed the wounds, has hopes of saving his eye.

INGERSOLL ITEMS.

Raids on Hotels—Liquor Cases—A Room to Butcher.

INGERSOLL, Feb. 12.—Last Saturday Constable Capron, accompanied by Inspector Cook, made a raid on Wm. Oliver's hotel and secured a small quantity of something such as is sold for liquor in Scott Act towns. The same parties took a trip to Mount High and went through what is known as the Gould House, occupied by P. Seakrider. They were successful in capturing quite a quantity of beer and whisky. Seakrider's case comes up before the county police magistrate on Thursday.

Wm. McClure was up yesterday for selling liquor. Henderson and Balmer, the witnesses, swore they got no liquor, Balmer saying he had put in the pig some time ago The case was dismissed. Wm. Oliver was up also for selling liquor, and the case was dismissed for want of evidence.

Fifteen butchers were on Saturday engaged in cutting up meat, instead of three, as formerly, when a license was exacted.

Ambitious City Rates.

HAMILTON, Feb. 11.—Nineteen saloon and hotelkeepers and two grocers were in the Police Court this morning charged with violating the liquor law. All pleaded guilty; the grocers were fined $20 each and the others $10 each.

Mr. H. C. Shepard, formerly treasurer of the Grand Opera House of this city, and who has recently been general agent for A. & S. Northeimer of Toronto, died yesterday afternoon of pneumonia. Mr. Shepard was a member of Hesper Council Royal Arcanum of Toronto, having only been initiated some six weeks ago. His beneficiaries will receive $2000.

Lewis Stack, the brakeman who was injured at the Barton-street overhead bridge last week, proposes to sue the Grand Trunk for damages. The bridge is two feet lower than the law allows. If the bridge was raised that much it would make Barton-street impassable.

Dr. Ryall, medical health officer, Dr. Pitcairn, chairman of the board of health, Ald. Wm. Diren and Inspector Peacock visited seven of the cow byres in the city to-day and found most of them in such a filthy condition that the proprietors will not be licensed to sell milk from them.

Ayrworthy's Purchase at the Soo.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Feb. 12.—Thos. Ayrworthy, the defaulting treasurer of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, who recently skipped to Canada with $600,000, has just completed the purchase of a large block of real estate here. He comes up here this week to have a look at the town prior to commencing in the real estate business.

A Dalhousie Fund City Matters.

MONTREAL, Feb. 11.—The members at the Balmoral Hotel have decided to contribute $5 each weekly to provide funds to defend [illegible], whose conviction of wilful murder was returned by the coroner's jury touching McGrath had been a visitor at the [illegible] hotel.

A Gentile Victory.

OGDEN, Utah, Feb. 11.—The Gentiles were successful in the municipal elections here to-day. It is the first victory over the Mormons in the history of this city and in the territory. There is great rejoicing and the city is wild with excitement to-night.

A Collision Under Water.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Feb. 11.—A large motor fell on a barge in the town of Highlands on Feb. 7. It was very brilliant in color, being yellow tinged with green. It broke into a thousand small pieces. The snow covering about us here was perforated as with gravel.

WINNIPEG NOTES.

A Divorce Case—The Call Plant Advertised Here for Sale—Other Items.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 12.—George B. Gordon, formerly a lawyer of Winnipeg, is now in Chicago trying to show that his wife obtained a divorce through fraud. She is living in Toronto.

No answer has yet been made to the bill filed in Chancery by the C.P.R. against the N. P. & M.

The Call plant is advertised for sale by The Free Press.

Squaws, charged with rape at Springfield, has been sent for trial.

Ogilvie's mill has started running again.

Three hundred and ninety-five thousand railway ties will be taken out on the C.P.R. between Winnipeg and Port Arthur this winter.

Mike McDonald, who speculated and lost $60,000 belonging to ex-ff of the city treasuries in Wisconsin, is in Selkirk working for a fish firm. His friends are making to effect a compromise by paying half the loss.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets for Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—On St. Lawrence Market yesterday 200 bushels of wheat sold at at $1.06 to $1.07 for spring and 86c. for goose. Two thousand bushels of barley sold at 50c. to 56c. per bushel; 100 bushels of oats brought 36c. to 37c. per bushel; peas are 56c. to 63c. nominally.

Receipts of hay and straw were small with little demand. Hay sold at $18, and straw at $10 and $11.

On call yesterday at the Board of Trade buyers bid $1.06 for No. 2 fall wheat, sellers offered it at $1.06 outside. No. 2 spring was wanted at $1.07, and No. 2 red sold at $1.07; the latter was offered by sellers at $1.06 outside. For No. 1 Manitoba hard wheat $1.23 on the track was bid; none offered.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Bradstreet's reports—Floating cargoes—Wheat improving; corn steady. Cargoes on passage—Wheat moves an upward tendency; corn steadily held. Mark Lane—Wheat firmer. Corn strong; flour firm. Good cargoes—No. 1 Cal. wheat off coast, 36s 3d to 36s 6d, was 37s 9d, do. Chilian wheat off coast, 37s 3d was 37s present and following ... 37s was 37s 3d; do Walla Walla wheat ... coast 37s 9d was 37s, present and following month 37s 3d, was 37s 3d. Ill Temper is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn, and the impulse to strike is strengthened. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. "Putnam's," sure, safe, painless. 6w7d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Professional Opinion.

aRev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B. B. B. "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three busy B's never sting, weaken or worry." 2w6d

Miraculous.

"MY MIRACULOUS CURE was that I suffered from kidney disease for about two years, was off work all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B., I tried it, and am happy to say that I was cured by two bottles." Wm. Tier, St. Marys, Ont. 2w6d

WYATT & TURNER

SHEPPARD'S OLD STAND, UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK,

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockolorums of the Clothing Trade.

SHAVED TO THE BONE! A mere skeleton left of profit on teas at M. R. Kidd's.

What it Reminded Him of.

The orchestra of the New American Opera Company last night neglected (probably intentionally) to play the National Anthem at the close of the performance. The omission was noticeable to such a degree that a young man was heard to remark: "It's like coming out of church not to hear God Save the Queen."

Importing Brick.

It is evident that building operations are not dead though it is mid-winter. Mr. Adam Dawson, the local supply not being equal to the local demand, is bringing large quantities of brick up from Millbrook and preparing for the next season's active building boom, which assuredly strikes Peterborough. Other contractors are also bestirring themselves and getting together material for the coming summer's operations.

A Meeting to Discuss Things.

Mr. W. Fair, who is a representative man of the horse raising interests of the county, proposes a meeting of all stallion men of the district, to be held at Cavanagh's Hotel (Belmoral) on Saturday afternoon, March 2, at 2 o'clock. The meeting will consider the advisability of forming an association which shall determine some changes in the routine of traveling stallions and regulating charges for service. All horsemen interested are invited to attend.

An Attractive Box.

In the Division Court clerk's office is a tin box filled with judgment summons—and thereby hangs a tale. The story is that a former Division Court clerk was greatly annoyed by the meddlesome habits of visitors to his office, who each and every one felt it his bounden duty to examine the papers and scatter them about in complete disorder. The clerk, after much patient long-suffering, hit upon an idea that remedied the nuisance. He had painted on the box: "Y.M.C.A. Trusts. Please take one." That settled it; the box had no further attractions. No one touched the papers ever afterwards. What a sad commentary upon human nature!

Peterborough Winter Carnival.

Prepare for the only carnival of the season, Friday Feb. 15th. Several hundred tickets sold at Lakefield, Campbellford, Keene, Norwood and Hastings, and other places. Buy your tickets at Sidlebury's and save the rush at the door. Admission 25c, Children 15c.

Arrested for Fraud.

This afternoon Robert Scriber, who lives in the north end of the town, was arrested on a charge of having obtained money and a quantity of flour from John Britton under false pretences. The case will be tried at the police court to-morrow.

Methodist Missions.

The recent series of Methodist mission services was a very gratifying success. The total of collections and subscriptions amounts to $425, and when the collectors shall have completed their work it is expected the total contributions of Peterborough to the mission fund will exceed $600 as against $537 contributed last year.

At the Opera House.

The New American Opera Company presented "Maritana" at the opera house last night to a much smaller audience than the class of the entertainment merited. The performance needs little criticism; it was fully up to all expectations. There are some good singers in the troupe, and the orchestra was a good musical organization. Mr. Bradburn is to be commended for the high class of companies he is bringing to Peterborough this winter. His enterprise will be appreciated by the theatre-going public. The New American Opera Company p esent "The Bohemian Girl" at Belleville to-night.

A Pressing Person.

Ministers are but mortal, and cannot, say more than a layman, resist the temptation of making a pun. At the missionary meeting last night Rev. Mr. Chambers, of Napanee, perpetrated an atrocious pun. In the course of his address he made a jocular allusion to the innate depravity of the human heart, stating that human nature was full of "emendness"—"or," he added "to express it 'Moore' elegantly"—and he quoted Tom Moore's familiar line—"The trail of the serpent is over it all." The fact that Rev. Mr. Chambers was making an eloquent and vigorous speech doubtless explains the chairman's forbearance in not visiting with summary punishment the speaker's lapse into literary immorality.

Winter Races.

The horsemen of Peterborough met last night and decided to hold a three days' winter meet on the Little Lake track Feb. 20, 21 and 22. To-day committees are canvassing for subscriptions and are meeting with success. They hope to make these races the principal sporting event of the Midland district this winter.

At the Montreal races Monday Elliott's "Lady B," took sixth place in the five mile dash. Dwyer's "Little Jim" was entered in the free-for-all trotting race, but the Mail says a Mr. Morris at once entered a protest, which he will substantiate under oath, against Little Jim being given a place in the 2.40 race on the grounds that the horse was not eligible for this class.

At Hymen's Altar.

At St. Peter's Cathedral this morning at nine o'clock a wedding took place in the presence of a large gathering composed of guests and friends of the parties concerned, and people drawn there out of curiosity. The bride was Miss Katie Grant, adopted daughter of Mr. Chas. Grant, a young lady who has for some time held a position in Mr. T. Kelly's store. She was married to Mr. M. J. O'Leary, traveller for a wholesale hardware firm of Toronto, a young man quite well known in Peterborough. Rev. Father McEvay performing the ceremony and celebrating the marriage mass. The bride was assisted by Miss Katie Hurley and the groom by his brother. After the ceremony the party repaired to the residence of the bride's father, when a dejeuner was partaken of and the young people showered with congratulations and good wishes before leaving on a brief honeymoon trip to Boston and other points of interest in the east. The bride received an unusually large and elegant list of presents.

Building and Saving Society.

A meeting of this organization was held at Mr. T. Cahill's office last night, and from the unexpectedly large attendance it is evident that a deep interest is being taken in it by a great many citizens. Mr. T. Cahill, President, addressed the meeting, explaining the objects and operations of the Society as already fully outlined in the EXAMINER. A statement of the financial standing of the Society was read, showing cash on hand a mounting to about $330. The next regular meeting will be held the second Monday in March. The membership is large and increasing, and the Society is evidently destined to become an important institution. Each member on joining is furnished with a copy of the constitution and by-laws, which fully explain the workings of the organization. The officers of the Society wish to remove the erroneous impression existing among some persons that this is a Roman Catholic institution. It is nothing of the kind, and though the Society was organized and is at present managed largely by Roman Catholics, the Society is purely non-sectarian. It is an entirely business affair in which men of all classes are equally interested, and it has among its members already a number of Protestants.

Silver Wedding.

The following from the Chicago British American refers to Mr. and Mrs Wm. McCullagh, well known formerly in Peterborough:—"The silver wedding celebration of our friends, Mr. and Mrs. McCullagh, took place at their home, 479 West Randolph St., on Monday evening last, with a large assemblage of friends, who tendered many elegant and costly momentoes of their esteem, especially a piece beautifully engraved "1864 1889" and presented by the young men of the house. Among their Canadian friends present were:—Messrs. and Mesdames W. Robinson, E. Green and W. Spence, Mr. and Miss M. Sanderson, from Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Small, Miss Deacon and J. B. Hunter, from London; Mrs. Penny and daughters, from Kingston; Mrs. Baldwin, from Toronto; T. and H. Galliford and H. Cragg, from Ingersoll, and other friends from Chicago, Joliet and Lagrange, Ill. With songs, recitations, dancing and social converse, a memorable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. McCullagh are among the warmest friends of the British American in Chicago and the reception tendered them on Monday evening is further evidence of the high regard and esteem in which they are held by their Canadian friends in this city. May they continue to enjoy the felicity and prosperity which has been theirs during twenty-five years is the sincere wish of all who have the pleasure of their acquaintance."

Personal.

Mayor Walters, of Lindsay, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Allen Charteris left on Monday for Aurora, where he enters the Ontario Bank service.

Mr. James Morris, formerly teller in the Ontario Bank here, is in town on a short visit.

An Episcopal Question Settled.

Bishop Dowling's Translation to the See of Hamilton Confirmed—Dean O'Connor of Barrie, Bishop of Peterborough.

To-day His Lordship Bishop Dowling received the Papal bull appointing him Bishop of Hamilton, and also the official papers appointing Dean O'Connor, of Barrie, Bishop of Peterborough. Cardinal Simeoni, Prefect of the Propaganda, congratulates the new prelates on their respective appointments. The people of Peterborough and of the diocese generally, while congratulating Bishop Dowling upon the qualifications which win him the confidence of the Papal authorities, cannot but regard with regret his removal from Peterborough. On the 3rd of May, 1887, he was installed into the and during the brief interval that has elapsed he has won his way to the hearts of the people, and gained the respect and good-will of those professedly different faiths. In a world of change, however, such things as his translation are to be expected and respect for constituted authority makes yielding to its mandates less difficult and dulls the edge of comparatively selfish regret. While his people part with Bishop Dowling with sincere and poignant regret they are ready to loyally "speed the parting and welcome the coming" Bishop. It will detract, in no wise, from their love and respect for Bishop Dowling, if they recognize Rev. Dean O'Connor of Barrie,

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

Richard Alphonsus O'Connor was born in Listowel, Kerry, Ireland, on the 16th of April, 1836. Coming out to this country, he attended St. Michael's College from 1852 to 1856, receiving there his classical and part of his theological education. His theological studies were completed at the Grand Seminary, Montreal. The various minor orders were conferred upon him by Bishop Bourget, and the sub deaconship, deaconship and priesthood by Archbishop Lynch. After his ordination as a priest in 1861 he did duty in the Gore of Toronto as curate to Rev. Father Mulligan, whom he succeeded in 1862. He afterwards was parish priest of Niagara Falls and of Adjala, and on October 20, 1870, he was appointed to succeed Father Northgraves in Barrie. He has been working till the present, time, and has built there a fine church and convent. He is regarded as fully worthy of his new honor, especially because of his capacity for administration. In a comparatively new diocese, like Peterborough, a prelate of the new Bishop's special qualifications will find ample room for his administrative talents and in this respect he will find the office of following in the footsteps of his immediate predecessor no mere sinecure.

VILE VINEGAR.

Extensive Frauds Discovered in Some of the Bonded Manufactories.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—It has leaked out that the Government has discovered some extensive frauds in connection with bonded vinegar manufactories, which may wind up by the withdrawal of the privilege to manufacture vinegar in bond. "Such a course," say several of the big manufacturers of Toronto and the west, "would prove ruinous to us," and they are petitioning the Government against any such course. The matter which has given the Inland Revenue Department claim, is the charge that instead of vinegar being made from methylated spirits as is generally supposed, a high strength acetic acid imported from Germany and France is used, on which a specific duty of 25 cents per gallon and 25 per cent. ad valorem is imposed. It is said this acetic vinegar is very injurious in its domestic application.

The officers of the Department of Inland Revenue evidently have detected gross irregularities in some of the vinegar factories. In one large one, at least, in Quebec, methylated spirits unbonded for the purpose of making vinegar have been used for potable purposes and sale, and in their place acetic acid of great strength and low duty has been surreptitiously introduced without the knowledge of the excise officers. If this is permitted to go on the Government will lose largely of these duties on spirits.

Up to just recently acetic acid of greater strength than 40 per cent. was unknown in the laboratory in scientific institutions, or for mechanical purposes. Now it is said some of the imported stuff has a strength almost double that, and it goes into the country on the present duties which include all grades of strength of acetic acid.

Should the Government prohibit the manufacture of vinegar in bond it would mean ruin to many of those engaged in the business. All of the Toronto members had an interview with the Commissioner of Inland Revenue to-day on the subject and important developments are looked for.

In connection with the uses of acetic acid another important discovery has been made. It is openly charged by certain physicians who are members of Parliament that in many of the tinctures and lotions that are now sold in drug stores instead of alcohol or methylated spirits acetic acid is used. It is also said that the acid in these tinctures was innocently prescribed by physicians thinking that alcohol was the lotion, but their patients suffered intensely and grew worse from the effects of the acid whose presence was only discovered after an analysis of the lotion.

Runaway at Parkhill.

PARKHILL, Feb. 12.—A serious and perhaps fatal runaway accident occurred here yesterday forenoon. A farmer named F. Bartlett, from near Arkona, was driving along King-street, when his team were frightened by a train and speedily became unmanageable and ran away. At the Royal hotel they took to the sidewalk and ran over Mr. Geo. Phippen, who was unable to get out of the way, injuring him so severly that he may die. The team rushed up the sidewalk, many pedestrians narrowly escaping, till they reached South Main-street, where they became released from the sleigh and turned south again, taking to the sidewalk. Here they crashed through the large glass front of The Gazette office, completely demolishing it. Watson's tailor shop windows were also badly broken. The team was stopped at the Tudor house and found to be not much injured, beyond one of the horses being somewhat cut by glass in his plunge into The Gazette office. The sleigh was completely demolished. At last reports Mr. Phippen was slightly improved, but is still very low.

Swallowed a Live Fish.

While a dance was at its zenith of pleasure at the residence of Mr. Clawson, a bucket of water was drawn from the well and brought in which contained a sucker fish about five inches long. The fish had been placed in the well by the children. The appearance of the sucker in the drinking water caused comment by the company, during which one of the young yeomanry "dared he could swaller the reptile for fun or money." This observation occasioned no little bantering and bullyragging, until finally he was told that he would be given $1 if he would throw it under his collar.

The boaster said he would go him; and, taking the fish by the tail, he laid back his head, spread his potato trap from pole to pole, and let her go, Gallagher. The finny explorer shot down the yawning gullet like a well greased toboggan, its extended fins raking the sides with a sort of ripping sound as of laceration, and sickening to hear. The feat accomplished, the swallower unbuttoned his shirt collar, gave himself a flirt and shake, and proclaimed in a loud voice that he could "swaller a live dog with his tail curled over his back, catch as catch can, and no limit to size, for $5." But he got well away with his bluff (if bluff it was), for no one doubted his ability to do so; and this, coupled with the fear that the passage of a dog might imperil his diaphragm, brought the side show diversion to a close, and the dance went on with renewed joy until the break of day.—Idaho Democrat.

The Sons of England.

Present their Past Worthy President with a Jewel and Address—Grand Lodge Delegates.

Last night Mr. Wm. Brandrette, Past Worthy President of Peterborough Lodge, Sons of England, was presented by the members of the Lodge with a highly complimentary address and a handsome P.W.P's Jewel. Mr Brandrette was last year Worthy President of Peterborough Lodge, and, on the occasion of his retirement by succession, was tendered this mark of esteem by his fellows. Mr. Brandrette is one of the oldest members of the Order in Peterborough, and has perhaps done more for the Society than any other man. He has been indefatigable in his efforts to bring Englishmen together and increase the flame of patriotism ever burning in the breasts of old countrymen of Peterborough. All these sentiments and more was given expression to in the address, which referred particularly to his interest in the new lodge that he had been mainly instrumental in organizing. The presentation was made at the regular meeting of Peterborough lodge last night, Worthy President F. W. Brewerscombe reading the address and Treasurer F. Somerville handing over the jewel. The address was elaborately engrossed by Bro. C. Wallace Forbes, a member of the lodge, and will when framed be a handsome reminder to Mr. Brandrette of his appreciative brethren.

Mr. Brandrette was taken completely by surprise, but managed to express his thanks in a happy way.

NOTES.

Bro. Matthews, of Orillia, delegate to the Grand Lodge, stopped off at Peterborough and attended the meeting of Peterborough lodge last night on his way to Ottawa.

The Grand Lodge of the Sons of England begins its annual session at Ottawa to-day. Bro. Gans represents Lansdowne Lodge, Peterborough Lodge, having had nothing in the sensional papers, does not send a delegate this year.

She was a Married Man,

A Strange Transformation of Sex—Once a Wife but now a Husband.

Just before the civil war there located in the town of Broadhead, Wis., a Dr. Barnham, who went there from St. Lawrence county, near the Thousand Islands. Mr. Barnham was at this time the happy father of two children, a son and a daughter, and it is with one of these children, the daughter, Ellen, that this story has to do. Mr. Barnham was a well-to-do man, being a druggist as well as a practising physician, and the fact of his being a physician may lead some to place the blame of the unfortunate circumstances which followed the life of his daughter upon him. Ellen was a remarkable child, a dark little brunettish sort of tomboy creature, extraordinarily bright, and possessing peculiar charms for her companions. At an early age she developed special adaptabilities for music and became a leader among her women friends.

While the beautiful Ellen was at her social zenith, she married. An elaborate wedding was given, the young wife being the star of the occasion—the husband the fortunate possessor of a coveted bride. But an awful skeleton was to make its abode in the closet of their life.

After two years of apparently happy wedded life, Mrs. Powell, for that was her name, took a trip to Washington, and in her absence her husband disappeared and was lost trace of. While at the capital Mrs. Powell attracted much attention, both for her social gifts and a strange, undeterminable masculine impression she gave to those who met her. This seemed to be developing in her at that time. Her voice became more voluminous and a slight, downy mustache was perceptible on her upper lip.

The United States secret service finally "spotted" her as a supposed Confederate spy masquerading as a woman, and she was arrested at Chicago. Here her true sex was discovered; she was not a woman, but a man, and "Mrs. Powell," with a broken heart and crushed spirit, assumed male attire and returned home. "Mrs. Powell" now became M. C. Barnham, entered upon the duties of a man engaged in business, was successful, made a comfortable fortune, developed a moustache and later full beard, and again began to figure in society, this time, however, as a man.

Barnham began to give his attention to a Miss Gertrude Evarts, living at Broadhead, Wis., who was acquainted with the early history of the man, and who, in fact, had been in Barham's female life a girl friend and chum at the seminary. They were married, and since that time Barnham has become a prosperous and enterprising citizen in Waterloo, I.

It is said that the woman (or man) above referred to is a cousin of the well-known Silas Barnham, whose peculiarities of conduct, in Peterborough and elsewhere, have furnished him with considerable notoriety. Silas has been heard to tell a story similar to the above, in which his cousin was the main figure.

A Day for Curling.

Winnipeg, Lindsay' Port Hope, Bobcaygeon and Campbellford in Peterborough.

The Winnipeg curlers arrived in town this morning from Montreal and are having a rare day's sport. This forenoon they played a short match with a rink of Peterborough men, and this afternoon are engaged with a rink of the Lindsay club, which came down on the noon train. Port Hope curlers will arrive by the 5.15 train, and this evening will also try conclusions with the westerners. To-morrow Peterborough and Winnipeg will play a friendly game before the latter leave for the west.

A JUBILEE MATCH.

This forenoon Bobcaygeon and Campbellford played off for the Jubilee medal, resulting in a victory for Campbellford. The Bobcaygeonites leave this evening for Toronto to represent Group No. 6 in the Ontario Tankard match. Following is the score of this morning's game:—

News Nuggets.

—Cricketers are reminded of the annual meeting of the club this evening in the old post office block.

—Peter Minnis, an Italian, was "honorably discharged" at the police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness.

—Mr. Armstrong, grain buyer, is starting a flour and feed store in the vacant store next Mr. Jas. Stevenson's office, Water street.

—The Belleville police made a descent upon the city bakers yesterday and some dozen of them were found making light bread. They will appear in the police court.

—Division Court was resumed yesterday and completed to-day. There were some sixteen cases calendared, but some of them were adjourned and several persons were examined on after-judgment summons.

Springville.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING.—The Springville branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society held its annual meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 5th. After the usual opening services, which were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bennett, the minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The Secretary, Mr. A. Goodfellow, read the financial report of the society, which showed the handsome sum of twenty-one dollars having been collected during the past year, which sum was allocated totally to the Upper Canada Bible Society. After a few complimentary remarks by the retiring President, the election of officers for the coming year was proceeded with. The following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT.—Rev. D. McCamus.
SECRETARY.—Albert Goodfellow.
TREASURER.—Thos. Smyth.
COMMITTEE.—Rev. W. Bennett, J. Smyth, S. Payne, J. Harrison, A. Goodfellow, W. Coulter.

The same collectors as last year were re-appointed except that Miss Laing took the place of Miss Goodfellow.

After the business of the meeting was concluded, Rev. Mr. Manly, permanent agent of the Society, delivered an address, subject, "Israel and Babylon," which was listened to with rapt attention by the audience. At the conclusion of the services there was a collection taken up on behalf of the society.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.—The Brown brothers, of North Monaghan, are preparing for the erection of a fine brick residence on the homestead.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Wm. Fowler, jr., of Pembina, Dakota, is visiting friends in this locality.

Prosperity appears to be the condition of every line of trade throughout the town. Mr. A. Goodfellow reports trade unusually good in his line of business; also Mr. J. Irwin reports himself as being busy all day and half the night during the late thaws and freezing.

The recent falls of snow have been of great benefit to farmers in the way of getting their teaming done and protecting the fall wheat, of which there was a large area sown last autumn.

The "Dominion Illustrated."

The current number of this artistic weekly is full of interest in every department. One of its most conspicuous features is the commendable insistence with which it seeks to create and develop a distinctly national Canadian sentiment, and its success in this respect makes it in every way worthy of the substantial appreciation of every loyal citizen. The Illustrated this week contains a full page picture of that wonderful Canadian singer, and charming little lady, Agnes Thomson. The likeness is a particularly good one, but conveys only a small knowledge of her actual appearance, as her sweet expression and bright and clear complexion constitute her principal claim to beauty. The Dominion Illustrated" is published weekly. To be had at the Peterborough Book store 10 cents per copy.

MONEY Probably not one business man in a thousand who has made a close study of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial in business to have a large circle of acquaintances, in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are hundreds of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county readers and if they knew that they could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large legitimate circulation. To such THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER comes as welcome FOR and sure benefactors, They are the reliable papers of the Midland District for vertising in and penetrate into every corner of the town and county. Advertising rates are such as will ensure the continuance of business relations with any advertiser after once started. We shall be pleased to give figures for advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER, and send sample copy on application. All letters of inquiry promptly attended to. Address J. R. OUR
SPRING GOODS
ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY.
We can now show you over 200 Patterns of New Prints, and to say the least about them they are Just Lovely! They consist of Chocolate Grounds, with Cardinal Cream, White and Navy Sprays, Spots and Stripes, Navy Check, and several lines of Small Patterns suitable for children. Also a range of Dutch Prints in Navy and White Navy and Orange and Navy and Green, every piece of which we guarantee to wash well.
We now show all the new Patterns in Cottonades, Tickings, Denims, and Shirtings. Owing to the recent brisk advance in the wholesale market in these goods, customers will do well to lay in a Stock at once before the advance is felt in the retail trade.
Last week we received a Large shipment of Corsets, and have now all the sizes in all the best makes manufactured in Canada. The Yatisi, Coraline and Agave are among most popular makes. We are now introducing a new French Corset, which is very popular. Ask to be shown them.
Several lines of new Lace Curtains arrived last week. It is almost too soon to begin to talk about them but we commence them this season at 50c. a pair.
Our Canadian Tweeds are arriving—several lines are considered special value, especially our 35c. Tweed for Boys, and our 50, 60, and 75c. for Men. Every suit our tailor makes we guarantee a perfect fit or no sale.
Our White and Grey Cottons, Grass Linens and Tablings, are always right. If you have not seen them, come and buy a trial parcel. We are satisfied you will call again.

SHAVING PRICES
That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots. Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on some do we seek to secure more than we have paid.
The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.
This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

The House Holds the First Evening Sitting of the Session—Continuing the Estimates.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—The House got down to a lamplight session last evening, and there is every indication that the Government and the Opposition really mean to expedite business and get through by Easter. There was an extended session in supply yesterday afternoon and last night, the items under discussion being of a dead class.

The faces of some the members were seen for the first time last evening. Col. Tisdale of Norfolk, Mr. Baird of Nova Scotia and Mr. Weldon of St. John, N.B., were in their places. Mr. Colter arrived yesterday morning from Cayuga and spent the day in showing himself around. He was an early visitor to "No. 6" and was given a hearty reception. Mr. Colter will not take his seat until Thursday, as his certificate of election will not reach the Speaker until that date.

Evening sessions may be looked for right away now and there is a general wish that Mr. Charlton's resolution to terminate the sittings at midnight will pass the House. The pins of sitting until 2 and 3 a.m. in a chamber the air of which is very much vitiated is not at all a desirable one.

Sir John Macdonald was not in his place last evening, the Premier complaining of not feeling well. The condition of Hon. A. R. Pope last night was about the same. He is unable to see visitors of any kind. The Premier, however, calls at the cottage almost every day to see the indisposed Minister.

The Opposition offered a free and at times lively criticism of the various items as they passed through the committee of the whole, and the ministers were quite busy answering questions. The chief cr'ticisers of the items as they dragged through were Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Laurier, Mr. Mills, Mr. McMullen, Mr. Paterson of Brant, and Peter Mitchell. Mr. Davin made some fun for the House during the debate.

One of the features of the evening session was an attack on the "vicious and iniquitous system," as the speakers called it, of allowing certain customs officials to participate in the salaries made by them. Mr. Charlton, Dr. Ferguson and Mr. Mitchell lamented the present system roundly. Dr. Ferguson, as representing the frontier county of Welland, spoke of various customs acts which had been perpetrated by customs officers in that district when searching for alleged incriminating documents in the possession of importers. The speakers remarked that it was high time that this system of blackmail should be done away with.

The Postmaster-General was pressed to give some further information about the rumored reduction of the postage on letters to 2 cents by Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Bain of Wentworth. The Minister repeated his statement of Monday that the reduction would not be made at present. Further he said that he would introduce a bill at the present session making several reforms in his department, among them being the increase of the weight of a letter from ½ to 1 ounce. Mr. Haggart told the House that several other desirable changes would be inaugurated.

GOSSIP FROM THE CAPITAL.

Hon. Edward and Lady Alice Stanley—A Bismarck Control Deputation.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—Hon. Edward and Lady Alice Stanley are now in the Capital for the first time. Mr. Stanley is the eldest son of His Excellency, 24 years of age. He was educated at Wellington College, which is a military institution, passed through the Sandhurst and entered the army three years ago. He is at present a lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards. Last year Mr. Stanley was camp adjutant at Wimbledon during the National Rifle Association Meeting. Mr. Stanley seems also to have inherited his father's intellectual powers. In height he is about 6 feet 11 inches, is good looking, well built with a light moustache and darkish hair. Mr. Stanley was married a short time ago to Lady Alice Montagu, third daughter of the Duke of Manchester, whose two sisters are the present Duchess of Hamilton and Lady Rosebery. The wedding was a brilliant affair and was held in the Guards' chapel in London.

Lady Alice Stanley is a tall, slim, graceful brunette and has a lovely figure. Her features, though regular, are not what some maybe consider strongly beautiful, but she is most sensible and charming. Her age is nearly 23. Lady Alice Stanley is a talented musician and an accomplished equestrienne.

His Excellency will probably hold a reception or ball soon, through which he will introduce his son and the latter's bride to the Canadian people. Lady Alice Stanley will remain in Canada until May, when they will return to England. It is very probable that next summer he may relieve Captain Bagot, A.D.C. to His Excellency, and take up his residence here for the next year or so. The report that he is already A.D.C. is premature.

The Minister of Justice told a deputation from the Canadian Shorthand Writers' Association, who had called upon him in regard to a recent order-in-Council respecting court reporting, that in future the Government would employ The Hansard reporters out of session and would drive down extra conveyances for such services, as they now receive $2000 per year each.

The Public Accounts Committee met to-day and re-elected Mr. Rykert chairman.

John Sinclair, Captain Murray and other gentlemen interested in the Niagara Central Railway are in the city and will make another strong endeavor to get a bonus of $3200 per mile from the Government for the road. One of the directors said this evening that the Niagara Central would be in Toronto in less than two years.

WAFTED FROM WINNIPEG.

The Real Property Act Passes Its Second Reading—Earthquake at Edmonton.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 12.—In the Local Legislature to-day the second reading of the Real Property Act carried, 29 to 5, on a strict party division.

A despatch from Edmonton says a slight shock of earthquake was felt there on Thursday.

An epidemic amongst the Indians at Cold Lake has carried off 26 Chippewayans.

Flour has been raised to 10 cents and a further advance is expected.

President Oakes of the Northern Pacific is here and had an interview with the Local Government to-day.

The Conservatives met this evening and decided to reorganize. A resolution was adopted binding the members to support the nominee of the party both in the Dominion and Local elections.

They Want Cheap Beer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The Newark saloon keepers, who are about to establish a co-operative brewery, will hold a meeting to-morrow and make final arrangements. The undertaking will probably be a success, and those who have subscribed to the project are enthusiastic over it. Brewers charge the saloon keepers $6 a barrel for beer, and those who are in the combination say they can save $2.50 per barrel by making it themselves.

Wedding Bells at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—The wedding of Miss Abbott, daughter of Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, and Rev. Mr. Phillips, rector of Hawkesbury, took place here to-day.

Montreal Woollen Mill Burned.

PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 12.—The Montreal Woollen Works at Highlands here were destroyed by fire. Loss $50,000, partially insured.

THE POLICY OF DYNAMITE.

DELIBERATELY SUPPORTED BY THE V. C. ORGANIZATION.

Leamon's Cross-Examination Concluded—The Kind of Thing Began in Buffalo—Those Mysterious Documents.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The cross-examination of Leamon was continued before the Parnell Commission to-day. He said neither O'Kelly nor Parnell had ever written to him. The Fenians expelled O'Kelly because he had joined with Parnell in the open movement. O'Leary denounced O'Kelly. Witness believed O'Leary was a violent opponent of the League. Witness said he delivered sealed packets from Dovey and O'Leary to Egan in Paris in 1883, and acknowledged that the security of the seals alone prevented him from opening the packets. He again saw Egan in America in 1883. Egan introduced him to Parnell in the lobby of the House of Commons. He conversed with Parnell and was complimented by him on his work. The Irish Republican Brotherhood was then opposing Parnell so far as the home organization was concerned. Parnell complained of this opposition and said the home and sister organization would have been crippled had they not obtained assistance from America. The most important part of Parnell's conversation concerned his views as a revolutionist. He declared that he did not see why an insurrection should be unsuccessful.

Sir Charles Russell, counsel for the Parnellites, and Sir Henry James, counsel for The Times, have announced that they had agreed not to produce the documents which were the subject of discussion last Friday.

Witness said the Government had paid him £2000 between February, 1888, and August, 1870. He spent every cent for public purposes. The V. C. organization, which numbered 20,000 members, deliberately and knowingly supported the dynamite policy. In the convention of 1881, 10 of the delegates favored the use of dynamite. The convention held in Madison-square Garden, New York, in 1884, advocated the dynamite policy.

Leamon said Senator Jones was considered a "corpse bag" senator. He had not heard of any crime being attributed to Jones. Leamon produced a photograph of Parnell. He said he had received two of these photographs. One was mailed to him in care of Brennan at the League headquarters, Dublin. The envelope was stamped with the House of Commons stamp. Parnell in witness' presence signed one photograph: "Yours very truly, C. S. Parnell." The other photograph was similarly signed. Leamon was unable to swear whether the photograph produced was Parnell's gift or the one mailed him. Egan gave him his photograph, which was signed "Best regards," in Paris in 1881. Egan also gave him a photograph of a leading member of the Leagues similarly signed. He saw Egan write the words mentioned on both photographs. Boynton sent Egan the two photographs with a note saying, "Please give these to our friend to take to America."

Leamon said the convention of 1881 in Chicago unanimously agreed to carry on a secret warfare. The V. C. comprised the Gaynor party apart from the O'Donovan Rossa party. The secret organization was first conceived in 1869. The V. C. dated from 1872.

Witness had just received from America one of John Devoy's original letters dated, "Office of James Reynolds, No. 41 Orange-street, New Haven, June 24, 1881." It reads:

DEAR FRIEND: I thank you for your information and for the interest you take in a matter affecting us all so closely. I have not yet heard from H— (meaning Hines). I received yesterday a short note from E— (meaning Egan) strongly urging me to come over but cannot understand why until I get your explanation. I should like to come if I could spare the time at this crisis, as I would produce and I feel satisfied that I may it would not. I could not speak for anybody. No man could speak for the V. C. without authority which it would take time to get. None of us can guarantee anything for those on the other side who are hostile but who I feel certain do not represent the opinion of the home organization. There can be no chance there until there is a change of persons, which is sure to come in time. All I could do would be to tell E— and P— (P— meaning Parnell)—on my own responsibility what will satisfy our friends and make proposals. I might feel morally certain that they would be approved, but I would on no account have them pay my expenses which would place me in a false position. I have asked our friends' advice here as to whether they think it the right thing to do. They will consider the matter, but I don't think now that I shall be so advised. They (Parnell and his friends) seem to misunderstand the dissatisfaction here. It is not caused by their action in Ireland but by the action they allow their friends to take here in their names. Opinions differ little on general points, but we do not approve of the kind of thing begun in Buffalo. I will write again.

Leamon said that "the kind of thing begun in Buffalo" related to the action of Parnell's friends in attempting at the open convention to depose, discommune and disarm the revolutionary organizations. No reference was intended to the protests made at Buffalo against violence and crime.

The witness identified the alleged speech by Parnell ordering to the letter's determination to "sever the last link binding Ireland to England." He also identified that on the occasion of Alexander Sullivan's trial for murder Sheriff Agnew, who was a member of the secret organization, "fixed" the jury.

This ended the examination of the witness.

Mr. O'Kelly Appealed.

DUBLIN, Feb. 12.—In Donegal to-day James O'Kelly, M.P. for North Roscommon, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for inciting tenants to adopt the plan of campaign. O'Kelly appealed.

The Bishop of Lincoln's Trial.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The trial of Right Rev. Edward King, Bishop of Lincoln and Provincial Vice Chancellor of the Province of Canterbury, for utra ritualistic practices, was begun before the ecclesiastical court of Bishops at Lambeth Palace to-day. Bishop King appeared before the court in full canonical robes. It is expected that the trial will be an exciting one, as the accused Bishop has prepared an elaborate defence and has the full support of the clergy and laity of his diocese, who have subscribed £17,000 towards the expenses of his case.

Outgoing Cruisers.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—In the Senate to-day Premier Tirard introduced the seventh d'arrondissement bill and asked urgency for the measure, which was granted. Notwithstanding the protests of the Right, it was decided that the bureau should meet immediately and appoint a committee on the bill.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—M. de Lesseps is ill. Old age has suddenly fallen upon him with the collapse of the Panama Canal scheme.

Bismarck on a Bad Way.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—Prince Bismarck's attack of neuralgia is complicated with rheumatism, renal disorder, want of appetite and insomnia. He continues to work against the advice of his doctors. His visits to the chancellorie are marked with frequent outbursts of passion and other evidences of extreme irritability.

Party intrigues examer to sap his influence with the Emperor worry the Chancellor more than ever. Count von Waldersee, whom the Ultra-Conservatives hope to see succeed Bismarck, got the Emperor to consent to the removal of the censor against The Kreus Zeitung. It is said that Bismarck went to the Sabiem to protest that the action must proceed, and was kept waiting a quarter of an hour in an ante-chamber. In a fit of violent rage he told Chamberlain Mirbach that the delay was an intentional insult arranged by the rebel against him.

Foundry at Smithville Burnt.

SMITHVILLE, Feb. 12.—Fire at 4 o'clock this morning destroyed J. S. Bates & Son's foundry and James Taster's blacksmith shop. Bates & Son's loss is about $4000 and Taster's $300. No insurance.

DOINGS IN THE DOMINION.

THE CANADA HOLINESS CONVENTION AT TORONTO.

A Queer Strike—Bishop Bowling of Peterboro Appointed to the Diocese of Hamilton—Ambitious City Note 4.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—The annual convention of the Canada Holiness Association is in session at Temperance Hall. There were about fifty delegates present at the morning meeting yesterday, which took the form of a love feast and experience meeting. Rev. W. Burns of Toronto presided. With him on the platform were Secretary Calling of Simcoe, and Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Sheffield. Pending the arrival of delegates from outside towns, the afternoon and evening meetings were of an informal nature.

Wilton, the fellow who was convicted of assaulting a little girl on the Kingston road and sentenced to two years' imprisonment and 20 lashes, will receive the first dose of the cat on Friday morning.

A ludicrous strike was reported yesterday morning. It was represented a little time ago that it was hardly fair to compel the drunks in the jail to work and permit the thieves to pass the time in idleness. The Governor held that he hadn't a large enough staff of assistants to deal with prisoners of that class in an emergency. He, however, accepted the suggestion, and yesterday morning tried an experiment. He turned out twenty-six prisoners into the jail yard, where he shovved them a like number of barrows, which he ordered them to fill with sand and wheel to a dump a short distance away. Five of them obeyed, but twenty-one refused point blank, one of them saying, "They would leave this jail first." They were ordered back to their cells, and the Governor is now trying to work a solution to the problem.

It is said that another lawyer is in difficulties. Misappropriation of trust funds. For two years the clients have been getting their interest all right—from the lawyer—but no principal can be found. In the meantime the friends of the lawyer are being asked to square it up.

OPIUM SMUGGLING.

Shipments of the Illicit Traffic From British Columbia to the States.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—The fact that the quantity of crude opium imported yearly into British Columbia from China has increased from 11,100 to 161,000 pounds, or 1350 per cent., since 1876, has attracted considerable attention here and with a view to ascertaining how the produce of this drug arrives in dispensed of a member of the House informed us to-night that he will bring the question up in Parliament this week. He said of course it is an open secret that nine-tenths of the prepared opium which is produced by the fifteen opium factories in Victoria, B.C., is destined for and smuggled into the United States. The object of bringing the question up is to ascertain what steps the Dominion Government, who are ourselves of the facts from information supplied by their own customs officers, intend taking to assist the United States authorities in preventing the wholesale system of defrauding the United States revenues, by imposing a high or prohibitory duty on the crude material.

One of the members from British Columbia who has just arrived stated to me to-night that the Chamberlain customs officials had already been instructed to co-operate with the American consul at Victoria in following up shipments from the factories to their destination and bringing the guilty parties to justice. He says that it is impossible to estimate the enormous profits of the frauds which are at present being perpetrated upon the United States Government through unstamped opium, which traffic is being carried on right under the eyes of the United States officials, who so far have been helpless to break up the gang.

The discussion which will follow the introduction of the subject in Parliament promises to bring out some interesting and startling facts in connection with the illicit traffic.

THEIR FAITH WAS STRONG.

And They Were Cured of Diseases That Baffled Medical Skill.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Feb. 12.—Considerable interest is being manifested throughout this neighborhood by the remarkable healing of different diseases by the much-talked-of faith cure. Situated in the Wesley Park property in the Young Ladies' Seminary, open during the summer season, which has for its principal Mrs. Rev. J. E. Irvine. Some time last fall Mr. Irvine, who had been pondering seriously over the faith cure question, became convinced that there was really something in it, and the result was the conversion of the seminary into a mission and divine healing establishment.

Three weeks ago Miss Amelia Ziegler of Buffalo came to the mission to be healed of a disease in her eyes of five years' standing, which caused her much pain and greatly impaired her sight. She had been treated for it by specialists and other doctors in vain, and given up as incurable. After remaining here and attending the meetings for two days, she was ready to believe in Christ for healing, and at one of the Sunday afternoon meetings was instantly healed through faith and the laying on of hands. A few days after she gave her testimony at a meeting in the house in the presence of Rev. John Mordy, Rev. Mr. Emery, Rev. Mr. Hobbs and a number of others. She also answered the many questions very satisfactorily, concerning her disease and the healing, which were put by the clergymen. Miss Ziegler has returned to her home in Buffalo, and writes that the cure has been permanent.

Another young lady, Miss Brennan, went to Hamilton intending to take treatment at the Hospital for severe diseases of long standing, and hearing of the wonderful work being done here, decided to come and try the faith cure remedy. She soon became deeply convinced of her need of salvation, and received Christ as a Saviour from her sins and then believed Him for physical healing. She is now rejoicing in Christ as the Saviour of both body and soul.

Mr. Hicks, well known in this town, testified last week at the union revival meetings in the Presbyterian Church that he had been healed at the mission, through prayer and the laying on of hands, of severe diseases, for which he had been doctoring and taking medicine for over twenty years.

TO INCLUDE CANADA.

An Amendment to the American Arbitration Convention Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Representative Townshend of Illinois to-day introduced a bill amending the act authorizing the President to arrange a conference between the United States and the republics of Mexico, Central and South America, Hayti, San Domingo and the Empire of Brazil, so as to include Canada in the conference.

The objects of the conference are the devising of some plan of arbitration for settling disputes that may arise and to consider the establishment of regular and frequent communication between the ports of the several countries. Mr. Townshend hopes that Canada's participation will settle the fishery and other questions that have vexed the United States and Canada.

Killed by Kentucky Whisky.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 12.—At Beaver Dam, Ky., Charles Bunch is dying from drinking bad whisky, and John Ferguson is dead. The county is under the local prohibition law. The two young men named and Thomas Crim bought a quart of whisky and drank it. Crimm was found insensible on the steps of his house, Bunch was discovered barely alive by the roadside, and Ferguson lay a short distance away lifeless. It is supposed that drugs were used in the whisky.

Civic Economy.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I was somewhat amused a day or two since on reading a letter in the EXAMINER written by a gentleman signing himself "Resident," in reply to when I had written with regard to the electric lights. Mr. Resident scores my idea of economy, and calls on that economy to a thing of the past. It was well enough two centuries ago, but to-day we are altogether above it. I wish to say that in my opinion, economy is as good to-day as it was in the seventeenth century, and the person who does not economize will most assuredly come to grief. He says we are going through the world for the last time, therefore we may live recklessly; or, as we sometimes say, "fast." If economy was [illegible] we should not have seen $7,000 of unpaid taxes here on the 6th day of December, and unless an improvement would be inaugurated in our country. If we have no economical rise to draw, why not place 100 more lights through the town and use them all night. I think we have no better means for extravagance in municipal matters than in our own private business. Does the gentleman ever go into the country? If so, how does he get along where there are no lights? If he is a poor traveller, as he says, he might walk, or if he is obliged through the country in the dark; but no one on earth can ever have to open his mouth with complaint for lights. The lights as they are at present will accommodate 10,000 persons up to 11 or 12 o'clock, but after that hour possibly not more than a dozen will derive any benefit from them. I presume it would cost as much to run them the last half of the night as the first. The poor traveller suggests that I call out and go across to Ashburnham. It cannot be that he has building lots for sale over there, as he is not a real estate magnate, and I venture to assert that if the lights were kept going all night his pocket would not be affected by it. I have lived long enough to see coal oil take the place of candles, therefore it is no longer economy to use them. I prefer coal oil and use as much as I require. If our councillors see fit to use the lights all night I will have to submit, of course, but while we have a free country and free speech it will be no crime to speak or write against it. In doing so, however, I do not wish to use offensive language to any who may not see as I do, but only to use sound logic in support of my theory. If any other than sound argument be used on the other side of the question, I shall decline to further correspond. I will not trespass further on your patience,—but thanking you for your kindness in publishing, I remain sir,

Yours respectfully,
RATEPAYER.

PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 11th, 1889.

Bridgenorth's Health.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—Mr. Joseph Secoss, of Bridgenorth, referring to my report of the typhoid epidemic in that village last fall, writes that I am altogether mistaken, that there is no harm in throwing out slops or kitchen refuse on the streets, or allowing manure heaps to accumulate all summer, and, moreover, that typhoid fever is not such a bad disease after all; that its victims in Bridgenorth feel much better after it, and so on. This is news with a vengeance. On this theory when a town becomes unhealthy the best thing to set people on their feet again is a good stiff epidemic of typhoid fever. Like cures like.

Now, I never mentioned Mr. Secoss's name. I said that most of the places in the village were well kept, but that in some there was much carelessness. Mr. Secoss picks up his cudgel and says, "you meant me." Well, I did not point my finger at him, but I pointed my finger. I made no charge against the village of Bridgenorth, indeed I think it is as well kept as most of the villages in the province, but in its peculiar situation, extra precautions are necessary.

Mr. Secoss says I received $54 for a day's work. This is not true. I spent a day there for which I received $10. Then I was paid $34 for analysis of water and other work extending over about a month, making $44 in all.

I may say here that the council simply did their duty in looking after the matter. Under the present Provincial Health Act, when disease, of epidemic intensity, occurs within a municipality, the municipality shall take action, and if it neglects to do so, the Provincial Board in Toronto shall send an official to investigate and put in force such sanitary measures as may be deemed necessary, the expenses of which are to be charged to the municipality. Several instances have occurred in which townships have been saddled with costs amounting to hundreds and even thousands of dollars.

It is not advisable to discuss these matters in the papers, and I have said all I intend to. I think Mr. Secoss, on reflection, must be sorry for stirring up the pool; it is easy to see that other influence has been at work in urging him to it.

I am, etc.,
J. CLARKE.

A Good Move.

The Dufferin Advertiser contains the following:—

"Mr. Stratton, M.P.P. for Peterborough, is a man after the Advertiser's own heart—fair and honest and sensible. He is about to introduce a bill giving town councils the power to pass a by-law doing away with wards and giving the whole electorate a voice in the election of each member of the council. But this is not the only good move Mr. Stratton intends making. He believes with the Advertiser that it is not in the interests of the corporations of towns that one man should occupy a dual position. Experience has taught him as it has taught us that in many cases a member of the town council occupying a position on the Public or High School Board must sacrifice the interests of either. Therefore Mr. Stratton intends introducing a bill legislating away dual representatives. The bill, if passed, will have a very beneficial effect in this town. Readers of the Advertiser will know how strenuously we have advocated such a measure for the past year or more, and we are gratified to know that our views are to receive legislative sanction.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The First Division of the Session—A Flood of New Bills.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—In the Legislature yesterday afternoon Mr. W. R. Meredith moved, on the third reading of the bill respecting voters' lists, introduced by Hon. Mr. Fraser, that clause 14 be so amended as to prevent the judge, unless positively certain, from striking the name of any voter off the list.

Hon. Mr. Fraser objected, and Mr. Meredith at once raised the cry of "Divide, divide."

This aroused the entire House from the comparative lethargy into which they have fallen during the present session, and the whips were at once dispatched to the Government side of the House to bring in straggling supporters, recognizing the disadvantage they were at by the numerous vacant benches on their side.

The amendment was rejected, 33 to 47.

There was a flood of new bills yesterday. Among the more important measures introduced were these:

To enable the City of Ottawa to issue debentures for the construction of waterworks and for other purposes—Mr. Bronson.

To amend the Election Act, and to amend the Act respecting ballots.

The Incorporate the Waterloo Junction Railway Company—Mr. Master.

To amend the Act respecting land security companies—Mr. Lount.

To simplify the sale of property held in trust by the Church of England of the Diocese of Toronto; and respecting the formation of new counties—Hon. Mr. Hardy.

To amend the Pharmacy Act—Hon. Mr. Ofiver.

To amend the Ontario Insurance Act, respecting commercial fire insurance; to authorize the Diocese of Huron to sell certain lands; to amend the Judicature Act; to amend the act respecting building societies and arbitration.—Mr. W. R. Meredith.

BRAZILIAN TROUBLES.

Fever and Drought—Unprecedently Large Immigration.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 12.—Yellow fever is making ravages, and so numerous are becoming the gastric and other fevers which have been the usual precursors of epidemics in other years that the sanitary authorities are looking forward to an epidemic this summer. The large arrivals of immigrants furnish the pestilence with material for slaughter. The River Plate papers are publishing sensational telegrams of thirty to forty cases a day in Rio, but these are exaggerations, and the mortality in Rio does not yet reach seven a day.

During the past year immigration returns show the unprecedented figure of 120,000, and with it the strength of the influx that the number will probably reach 200,000 in this year. Before the introduction of slavery 30,000 was the highest figure attained. Besides the Europeans, immigrants from drought ravaged Ceara are arriving at the rate of thousands every month, greatly to the joy of the coffee planters, who there see themselves relieved from dependence on the uncertain labor of the negroes.

The drought in Ceara is spreading to the other of the neighboring provinces. Already the inhabitants of Parahyba are flying by thousands, the year of Bahia is fast drying up, and all circumstances point to a drought like the fatal one of 1877-80. Warned, however, by that terrible experience, the Government is removing the refugees to the interior to other provinces with all possible speed, and the New York packet now due here has already been requisitioned to convey eight hundred to Rio.

The run on banks of issue, based upon the United States national bank system, has practically come to an end. The Visconti on Feb. 8 sold half-per-cent. bonds to the extent to 200,000,000 milreis, which is about $113,000,000.

A MAMMOTH ELEVATOR.

Able to Unload Sixteen Grain Cars in Twenty Minutes.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—A Winnipeg man who was in the city yesterday gave an interesting description of the Canadian Pacific's new grain elevator just completed at Fort William, on Lake Superior. Elevator B, as it is called, to distinguish it from the first elevator built there by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, has a capacity of 1,400,000 bushels. There are 14 elevating legs, each capable of elevating 7,000 bushels per hour. Each of these legs is furnished with a self-cleaning boot, the invention of W. J. Lee, the company's Superintendent of Buildings. Owing to a provision having to be made for the self-cleaning of the boot which carries the elevating buckets there has always been a certain amount of grain remaining in the boot which requires to be frequently cleaned out by hand, and to avoid the handling from one grain to another. This boot has an ingenious arrangement by which a shield is attached to the frame carrying the pulley. This shield is always just kept clear of the buckets as they travel past, and the pulley below it. It will be seen that by the use of this boot the grain must be thrown clean. Grain men will understand the advantages of always having a clean boot to start elevating with. The shields of these boots are driven by friction clutches attached to the shafting, two lines of which drive the entire length of the elevator. These two lines of shafting are driven by a single, massive seven-ply rubber belt 36 inches wide and over 1000 feet long. This method was first tried in Elevator B at Montreal, and found to work so satisfactorily that it was decided to accept the same arrangement at Fort William. This elevating machinery, with the steam shovels, will enable a train of 16 cars to be unloaded and stowed away in the bins in 20 minutes.

Effect of Religious Excitement.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 12.—Lillie Redner, who is about 14 years of age, and lives at Highland, 4 miles from here, was converted at a religious revival recently, and soon afterward became a member. In a short time she has been filled with the idea that she believes herself to be in heaven, and imagines that she is the special emissary of the Saviour. In the middle of a conversation on some religious topic she will stop speaking, her form becomes rigid, her eyeballs roll upward and remain fixed and her hands and arms continue firm and stiff in whatever position they happen to be when she sinks into the trance. When in that state the most varied expressions pass over her face. The trances last from five minutes to half an hour, and don't leave her in the least exhausted.

Said the Rev. Mr. Keefer, her pastor: "It is a wonderful case, but it is true mental aberration. I am not a fanatic, in any sense of the word, but I do believe that this girl has direct communication with the spirit world. She is with them, she speaks to them. She is a manifestation of the Divine power. I could give you columns of stories that she has told about people when she never knew before. She has departed Heaven and she does not believe she is on earth. It is a great mystery, indeed."

Accused of Theft by Her Father

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Minnie Gallon, a prepossessing girl, aged 18 years, stood at the bar in the Yorkville Court yesterday, charged with larceny by her father, Daniel Gallon, of No. 309 West Forty-ninth-street. The father said the girl was generally bad and that he wanted her sent away. He testified that she broke open a chest Friday night and stole considerable property therefrom. The girl hardly denied his story and said that he had driven her from home by his cruel treatment. She took nothing from the chest but her own clothing. Justice Harrison discharged the girl and lectured the father severly.

Burning to Not Necessarily.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—William Wright, [illegible] No. 445 West Thirty-first-street on the night of Feb. 8 was arrested on a charge of larceny committed and doublecross by [illegible] Gunderson of the West Forty-seventh-street station. The day following in the Yorkville Court the accused [illegible] denied the guilt and demanded an examination, which was granted. Yesterday he proved to Justice [illegible] satisfaction that his [illegible] had committed the crime in his stead, the policeman of the old debt and [illegible] to take the matter before the Grand Jury. Wright was promptly discharged.

A Sad Affliction.

Rev. Thos. Manning, formerly pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, now of Orillia, has been severely afflicted by the death of his wife, which sad event took place on Monday last. Mrs. Manning was a lady of quiet, unobtrusive bearing, but she possessed qualities of character which made her greatly beloved by all who knew her and left tender memories in hundreds of hearts in Peterborough. Rev. Mr. Manning's sterling and frank thoroughness of character made him hosts of firm friends in this town, who will in earnest sympathy remember him in their prayers on the occasion of a terrible bereavement which deprives him of a beloved helpmeet, and a family of children of tender years, of the care and love of an affectionate mother.

Correction and Reproof.

Mr. Richard Lennox called at the EXAMINER office to contradict some statements made in reference to a letter of Mrs. Richard Lennox asking police protection. He was very severe on the chief and feels indignant that a letter invoking the aid of the law should be peddled around to reporters instead of being kept confidential and secretes become a communication addressed to the chief in his official capacity. Mr. Lennox also denounces the comments made by a local journal on the said letter. A mistake was made in the age of the contracting parties. At the time of the marriage he says Mrs. Parkinson's age was "given in" as 20 and that of Mr. Lennox as 23. Besides, the fling against sailors is unjust. Mrs. Parkinson, says Mr. Lennox, was brought up in a sea port town, and thought so much of the class that she felt justified in selecting a sailor for a husband. Mr. Lennox thinks a sailor is as good any day as a policeman (who can't keep a secret) or as a newspaper reporter who can't tell the truth.

How Bishop Dowling is Received.

The Hamilton Times thus comments on the intelligence of the appointment of Bishop Dowling to the see of Hamilton:—This will be welcome intelligence to the thousands of members of the Roman Catholic church in the Diocese of Hamilton, to whom the name of Bishop Dowling is a household word. There never, it seems, has been any disposition upon the part of the authorities at Rome to oppose the desires in this matter of the clergy of the Hamilton diocese, who, it is well known, voiced the unanimous opinion of their people when they presented the name of the good Bishop of Peterborough to the Pope. And, though willing to render obedience to any Bishop whom the Holy Father might set over them, many would no doubt have been disappointed had the report of the project to send a distinguished prelate from the old country to the diocese been verified. Bishop Dowling will receive a right hearty welcome when he returns to the scene of his youthful struggles in this city, and to the diocese in which for years he labored so faithfully and with never-varying success for the welfare of the flocks placed under his care.

Peterborough Business College.

This important educational institution is flourishing. The attendance is double that of any other period, in fact, though the seating accommodation has been twice enlarged it is now so far below requirements that larger premises for the college will have to be secured. Flourishing as the school is under its present management, new blood is added in the person of Mr. J. J. Rooney, principal of the Ashburnham Public Schools, who represents a most important element of strength to the teaching department. Mr. Rooney has had extensive experience in teaching and had a particular training for commercial work, received at the Collingwood Collegiate Institute, taking a special business course under Mr. J. Tait, now a Professor in Ontario University. Mr. Rooney received a first-class certificate from that school in 1884, standing at the head of a large class. He taught eight years in the village of Dunsford, Victoria county, and when leaving he was presented with a splendid silver watch. He has been four years engaged as headmaster of the Ashburnham Public School, and has given such excellent satisfaction in every way, and shown himself so thorough a teacher that the Board parts with him with great regret. He has tendered his resignation, and as soon as his successor is installed, he will enter upon his Business College duties. Mr. Rooney and Mr Bean, both energetic young men with large teaching experience, will make a strong team, and no doubt under their joint management, the Peterborough Business College will be made even more worthy of the extensive patronage it now enjoys. Few, if any similar institutions have such scholarship and ability at its head as the Peterborough Business College.

Personal.

Mr. J. F. Pethard, formerly of this town, but returned, having been appointed agent for the Ontario Mutual for Peterborough and vicinity.

Mr. H. Swike, formerly a successful teacher in Cavan and Monaghan, has received the appointment of Headmaster of the Ashburnham public schools, in the stead of Mr. J. J. Rooney, resigned.

Mr. T. Arnold Haultain, formerly of Peterborough, has been unanimously appointed to the position of second assistant librarian and assistant secretary of the Toronto Public Library at a salary of $900 a year, his duties being principally in the afternoon and evening.

The Winnipeg Curlers.

Win From Port Hope and Lindsay, but Lose to Peterborough.

The Winnipegans had no difficulty in disposing of Lindsay yesterday. The famous Flavelle rink was completely snowed under by a majority of 13 points. With Port Hope the game was very close, the westerners winning by a single point. This morning a rink of the Peterborough club turned the tables and administered a perfect Waterloo to the visitors of yesterday.

The Winnipeg men are all good curlers and the matches were watched with great interest, the "tee" at all times being surrounded by an eager crowd ready to applaud brilliant play on either side. All the competitors were right on their mettle, and as a result some grand curling was done.

The visitors go west on this evening's train. Following are the results of their games here:—

Trespass and Fraud.

Two Convictions at the Police Court—Petty Trespass and Scouring Under False Pretences.

Two cases occupied the time of the police court this morning for two hours. The first was against Harry Wilcox, a young butcher employed at Mervin's, charged with trespass. As stated in the evidence, the offence was committed Sunday night at about half past eleven o'clock. May Panter, a seventeen-year-old girl, whose mother is dead and her father away from home, was going to bed at that hour at her home on Eaglidge street, when a snowball was thrown against her bedroom window. Her sub younger brothers slept in the same room, and one of them looking out of the window saw a couple of men in the yard below. The girl also looked out, and both recognized in one of the fellows Harry Wilcox. The latter then entered the back kitchen, but could not get into the kitchen proper as the door was locked. He shouted to the girl to open the door, but she told him to go away. He left the building and next climbed up to the roof of the kitchen, being assisted in this by his companion. He rapped at the window and tried to raise it, but the young people inside shouted to him to get away from there, the youngest lad diplomatically mentioning something about a revolver. This had the desired effect and the intruders decamped.

Wilcox denied this story in toto and said he was home and in bed by half past ten Sunday night. Alex. Wallace testified that he slept with the defendant that night, and stated positively that they were in bed at half past ten. Mr. John Mervin, with whom Wilcox lived, remembered his coming home at that hour but he saw no one with him. Wallace accounts for this by saying that he waited till Mervin was in bed and then got in the back way as he did not want the latter to know he was stopping there. Constable Stewart also saw the defendant on the street about ten o'clock Sunday night.

The magistrate said he believed the defendant guilty, and that after he and Wallace went to bed Sunday night they went out again and committed this offence. Mr. Mervin did not hear Wallace coming in and it was just as easy for them to slip out again without being heard. He fined the defendant $10, as much as the law allowed, and said he was sorry he could not make the penalty heavier as the offence was a serious one.

THREE MONTHS IN GAOL.

Robert Scriber, a resident of Smith street, was convicted of obtaining money and goods under false pretences from John Britton. The latter is a cooper by trade, and last fall contracted with Scriber for 100 cords of bolt staves at $2 50 per cord, which were to be got out at Dundale (as the plaintiff understood it, though the prisoner said Birdsall's) and shipped over the Grand Junction. Frequently during the months of December or January the prisoner got money and flour from Britton, alleging that his family were in destitute circumstances and on account of the lack of snow he was unable to ship any of the bolt staves, of which he was cutting about four cords a day, he stated. Believing him, the plaintiff furnished him with what he wanted, and in all was out $32 35 on account of it. Finally he refused to advance any more funds till he got some of the timber, and the prisoner having told him he had twenty cords cut and ready to ship at Norwood station, he went down to see about it when it was not shipped as promised. He found no timber at the station and only four cords of worthless stuff in a field about three miles away, as a result of the prisoner's two months of labor. At Norwood the prisoner admitted that all he had been telling him (Britton) about the timber was lies. Britton consented to give the man another chance, and bargained for Scriber to cut timber which he would find himself. The prisoner cut a couple of trees, about 3 cords in all and again failed to fulfil his contract, leaving the plaintiff unable to carry out his contracts for want of the timber that Scriber had been promising him all along, as well as minus the money he had given the prisoner's family. Yesterday Scriber was arrested. He stated in his defence that the plaintiff was too hard upon him and would not give him a chance. He was found guilty and sentenced to three months in gaol at hard labor.

Our Chance Contributor's Comments.

SALT AND SNOW.—In a local paper a writer advocates sprinkling the sidewalks with salt to prevent people from slipping. Now salt and snow make a freezing mixture, the solution penetrates the boots and induces cold feet. In some cities the sprinkling of salt is forbidden by by-law, and only an inconsiderate person would suggest such a thing. Sprinkle ashes or sawdust or clean the walk—but keep the salt for your porridge.

SNOW PLOUGHS.—The Toronto Globe is raising the Queen City for retaining the antediluvian practice of compelling property owners to clean the sidewalks. Let Toronto send down to Peterborough and get a model of our snow ploughs now in use for several years. The town horses are out while it is yet snowing, and with the ploughs clear the walks before the citizens are up. The other Sunday the snow was cleared off to let people go to the churches. Where is Toronto any way?

Keene.

Mrs. John Keefe, near the village, is dangerously ill with inflammation.

A grand social ball, in aid of the Roman Catholic church, will be held in the town hall, Keene, on Thursday evening, February 21st. A good time is anticipated, as the committee in charge are very energetic, as those who have attended picnic and balls on previous occasions can testify. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Cricket Club.

Annual Meeting—The Secretary's Report—Election of Officers and other Business.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Cricket Club in connection with the P. A. A. A. was held in the old post office block last night. There was a fair attendance of members. Dr. Burnham was voted the chair.

The following report of the season was read by the secretary, Mr. John Stirling:—

Cricket during the season of 1888 was in a most flourishing condition in Peterborough, and if the results in matches won does not show so well as in 1887, still the quality of the clubs played was higher. In all ten matches were played, of which six were won and four lost. Those won were with Ontario county (2), Belleville, Scarbright, East Toronto, Campbellford, while those lost were with Toronto (2), Hamilton and Rosedale. At the last named match, we were not able to get anything like our best elements, and so suffered defeat.

Bad fielding as usual caused a great proportion of the defeats. Members will not turn out to fielding practice and the consequence is that they cannot field in a match.

Metaphorically speaking the bat was carried off by W. A. Stratton with the splendid average of 32, Sam Ray being second with 22. Mr. Stratton scored steadily throughout the season, still against every kind of bowling. He scored doubles every time he went in except once, and then he got 9, still out. Mr. Ray was the only member of the club who scored the century, which he did in fine style against Belleville. None of the others except Harry Day showed up well in the averages. The professional headed the bowling averages with an average of 6 for 59 wickets, Logan getting 45 wickets at the expense of 7. Motherford, Stratton and Hamilton also did good work at times. If the fielding were only better, the club should stand very high with the batting and bowling talent in possession.

The club again joined the Ontario Association and again was disappointed of any Association matches. Next season we are to have a representative on the executive committee of the Association, and a district is sure to be formed.

As usual great difficulty was experienced in getting an eleven to go from home. Players are quite willing to play at home, but when going away is mentioned some of them pull a very long face, and generally plead previous engagements. We cannot expect clubs to come here unless we play returns; and it is to be hoped that our return match let will be cleared up early in the season.

The great cricketing event of the year was the match with the Scarbright's. Although they brought a very strong eleven, including the famous C. A. Absolam of Cambridge University and Kent; yet they were easily beaten. The match with Hamilton was also a new one, and it is to be hoped it will be kept a regular fixture.

Towards the end of the season great interest was taken in matches between the colts and veterans. No fewer than eight matches were played, each side winning four.

As you all know Harry Day acted as professional and gave good satisfaction. The money guaranteed was promptly paid, and after paying Day's expenses to matches there is a balance in hand of $7.

With regard to the coming season, nearly $100 is already guaranteed towards a professional. Should we re engage Day he will be on hand and purposes with a friend of his beginning the manufacture of cricket balls thus creating a new industry in the town.

Should the professional be engaged, it is proposed that he should bowl only to subscribers to the fund, which I think is only fair.

It is also proposed to have two elevens, so that our very best players may be available for such clubs as Toronto, Hamilton, etc. and the other eleven for local clubs.

The prospects for a prosperous season are good and I sincerely hope that success may attend our efforts at the noble game—the "gentlemen's" game.

BUSINESS MATTERS.

Several important matters were discussed, among them the engagement of a coach for the coming season. On motion it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the executive committee, to report at the next meeting.

The following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT—Hon. R. Hamilton.

VICE PRESIDENTS—Messrs. T. A. Hay and Dr. Burnham.

SECRETARY TREASURER—John Stirling.

COMMITTEE—Messrs. W. A. Stratton, P. J. C. Macdonell, W. J. Minore, W.D.Parker and J. H. Burnham.

DIRECTORS—Messrs. Stirling and Minore.

REPRESENTATIVE TO ONTARIO ASSOCIATION—Mr. W. D. Parker.

The committee appointed to consider the matter of purchasing the present cricket grounds at the expiry of the lease or securing new grounds, were re-appointed.

The meeting then adjourned.

He is Wanted in France.

MONTREAL, Feb. 13.—A young Frenchman named Emile Victor Michen, hailing from Valence, France, has been arrested on the charge of having forged in France a title deed on which he raised $600. He has been in Montreal since June last and has worked for Mr. Beullac, the art decorator on Notre Dame-street. His forgery was discovered by a letter sent from France to the Consul-General for that country at Quebec, Mr. Dubail, who instituted enquiries and located him at Beullac's. The Consul-General yesterday afternoon appeared before Judge Dugas in Chambers and applied for a letter of extradition. Evidence was tendered concerning the forgery, after which the application was adjourned. The young man on being arrested said that he had been working hard to repay the money, and expressed a doubt as to the legality of the proceedings.

HAMILTON, Feb. 13.—Charles Perkins, a strong and healthy young man, about 22 years old, was found dead in bed at his boarding-house, 165 King William-street, this morning. Perkins was a brother-in-law of C. W. Powell, dealer in window shades, 220 King-street east, and had worked with him for about six years. It is not known when was the cause of death, but Dr. Griffin, who examined the body, is of the opinion that the young man took a fit and was smothered.

They Called Spiritualism a Delusion.

ELMIRA, Feb. 13.—G. H. Brooks, a spiritualistic lecturer, last night went gunning for the clergymen of this city. The reverend gentlemen had hurt him in a tender spot when, at a private meeting a few days ago, they resolved that spiritualism was mainly a delusion, but there was something about it beyond human understanding relating to superhuman agencies. The superhuman element, it was agreed, did not coexist in visitations from the dead, but from the devil. The clergymen believed there were spirits, but they are evil spirits. These somewhat astonishing views aroused the lecturer. He said the ministers had become scared by the growth of Spiritualism, and were afraid of losing their salaries. Spiritualism, he said, was going to crush out religion, and Romanists and Protestants had become filled with fear.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

MONEY

Probably not one business man in a thousand who has made a close study of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial in business to have a large circle of acquaintances, in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are hundreds of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county readers and if they knew that they could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large legitimate circulation. To reach THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER cause no waste space to unwilling readers. There are over [illegible] of the daily and [illegible] of the weekly circulated in the town and county. Merchants and dealers who want to do [illegible] trade will find it to their interest to advertise in the columns of the EXAMINER. Every person of the town and county should read the EXAMINER, and every advertising space we have on sale should be occupied. We shall be pleased to give prices for advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER and our agents only to applicants. OUR
SPRING GOODS
ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY.
We can now show you over 200 Patterns of New Prints, and to say the least about them they are Just Lovely! They consist of Chocolate Grounds, with Cardinal Cream, White and Navy Sprays, Spots and Stripes, Navy Check, and several lines of Small Patterns suitable for children. Also a range of Dutch Prints in Navy and White Navy and Orange and Navy and Green, every piece of which we guarantee to wash well.
We now show all the new Patterns in Cottonades, Tickings, Denims, and Shirtings. Owing to the recent brisk advance in the wholesale market in these goods, customers will do well to lay in a Stock at once before the advance is felt in the retail trade.
Last week we received a Large shipment of Corsets, and have now all the sizes in all the best makes manufactured in Canada. The Yatisi, Coraline and Agave are among most popular makes. We are now introducing a new French Corset, which is very popular. Ask to be shown them.
Several lines of new Lace Curtains arrived last week. It is almost too soon to begin to talk about them but we commence them this season at 50c. a pair.
Our Canadian Tweeds are arriving—several lines are considered special value, especially our 35c. Tweed for Boys, and our 50, 60, and 75c. for Men. Every suit our tailor makes we guarantee a perfect fit or no sale.
Our White and Grey Cottons, Grass Linens and Tablings, are always right. If you have not seen them, come and buy a trial parcel. We are satisfied you will call again.

SHAVING PRICES
That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots, Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on none do we seek to secure more than we have paid.
The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.
This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

DEBATE ON MR. JAMIESON'S PROHIBITION RESOLUTION.

The Jesuits' Estates Act—Government Control of Telegraphs—The First Division of the Session.

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—This afternoon and to-night in the House of Commons was decidedly miscellaneous. In fact there was a little of everything in parliamentary routine and politics. The event of the day's sittings was expected to be the Jamieson prohibition resolution, the debate on which having proceeded to a certain stage was quite unexpectedly dropped out of sight and stands for further argument.

The prohibition members of both parties held a caucus meeting in the newer room with the opposition of coming to some understanding with reference to the motion that Mr. Jamieson had booked. About twenty members and senators were present, and Mr. Jamieson himself was in the chair. The meeting broke up without arriving at a harmonious conclusion.

Mr. Jamieson's (Con.) motion, which he offered this afternoon, reads:

That in the opinion of this House it is expedient to prohibit the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors except for sacramental, medicinal, scientific and mechanical purposes; that the enforcement of such prohibitions and such manufacture, importation and sale as may be allowed shall be by the Dominion Government, through specially appointed officers.

Mr. Fisher (Lib.) was the seconder. Then Mr. Wood (Con.) Brockville, and Mr. Hickey (Con.) followed up with this amendment:

That after the word "purposes" be inserted: when the public sentiment of the country is ripe for the repetition and enforcement of such a measure of prohibition."

Mr. Taylor (Con.) and Mr. Rosamond (Con.) at once sprung an amendment to the amendment, after the word "purposes":

If it be found, on a vote of the qualified electors of the Dominion having first been taken, that a majority is in favor of a prohibition law which shall also make full provision for compensation to those engaged in the manufacture of such liquor.

This is of course the old proposition of taking a plebiscite.

Mr. Jamieson addressed the House at length in support of the main motion. He said that prohibition was one of the greatest questions that this Parliament and future Parliaments would have to deal with. It was the greatest moral question of the present day. He would be quite prepared to contribute his share of compensating any men who were in the liquor business for their loss if they were able thereby to secure the blessings of prohibition. However, the proper time to consider the question was when a measure for the suppression of the liquor traffic was before the house.

Mr. Fisher, as seconder of the motion, said he was a thorough prohibitionist, but he divined in the conduct of Mr. Jamieson and Mr. Wood a desire to shirk the main question. Mr. Fisher also spoke of the way in which politics had always blocked the progress of the prohibition movement.

Mr. Taylor arose to reply, but he was declared to be out of order because he had already made a speech moving his amendment. To relieve him from this embarrassment Mr. Mitchell moved the adjournment of the debate, and Mr. Taylor proceeded to speak. He declared that the Dominion Alliance movement and this prohibition resolution introduced every year with the hope of injuring the Dominion Government. He also said that the reason the Scott Act was not a success in the counties where it had been passed was because the officials of the Ontario Government did not enforce it.

The House, while it paid very little attention to the debate, was getting ready to vote on the amendment, but the Speaker merely put the motion by Mr. Mitchell to adjourn the debate, which was declared carried. The prohibition motion therefore goes to the bottom of the paper and it may be several days before it is heard of again.

Considerable interest was centered in the questions which Mr. Barron had put on the paper on Feb. 5 with reference to the Jesuits Estates Act. The questions ran as follows:

1. Has the act yet been before the Government?
2. Have they reported thereon to the Governor-General?
3. If so, did they report in favor of allowing or disallowing the bill?
4. Has the Government communicated the purport of the report to the Government of Quebec? If so, when?
5. Was there time in ordinary course except up to which disallowance of the bill might take place?

The Minister of Justice made the following reply thereto:

The bill had been before the Government and it had been reported to the Governor-General on Jan. 16, last. The report was to the effect that this act, with [illegible] passed by the Legislature of Quebec, should be left to their operation. The report was approved Jan. 18, 1889, and the result was communicated to the Government of Quebec at once. The act was received by the Secretary of State from Quebec on Aug. 9 last.

The ordinary time that the Government has to disallow an act of a provincial legislature is one year, but the Minister of Justice did not make this part of his answer to Mr. Barron.

Sir John Thompson, in reply to Mr. Rosamond, said it was not the intention of the Government to legislate this session the distribution of the Scott Act fines, now accumulated in the hands of the different county treasurers, among the municipalities.

To Mr. Burdett the Minister of Public Works said he would have to wait until the supplementary estimates were brought down to find out if a sum would be voted to aid in the erection of a drill shed in Belleville.

Mr. Turcot was told by the Postmaster-General, as was the House last night, that the weight of 3-cent letters would be increased from 1 ounce to 1 ounce, but it was not intended to lessen the parcel postage.

Col. Denison of Toronto renewed his motion of last session for the appointment of a select committee to inquire into the desirability of the Government acquiring all the electric telegraph lines in Canada. Mr. Denison, on the occasion of his remarks last year, offered a good argument in favor of his motion. He said that the only countries in the world in which the Government did not own the telegraph wires were Canada and the United States.

The Minister of Public Works complimented Mr. Denison on the case he had made out, but he gave him no answer than he did before.

The time has not yet arrived when the Government was in a position to consider the question, which was one of gigantic proportions.

Col. Denison therefore withdrew his motion.

Mr. Mulock moved the adoption of the report of the committee on the Governor-General's warrants for the payment of certain militia claims. He said that the committee had struck out the item of $1,000 for the expenses of the Governor-General's visit to the Northwest, and had reduced the item for travelling expenses from $1,000 to $500. The committee had also struck out the item of $1,000 for the expenses of the Governor-General's visit to Manitoba, and had reduced the item for travelling expenses from $1,000 to $500.

Mr. Foster said that the Governor-General had not been consulted in the matter, and he thought that the committee had acted wisely in striking out the item.

Mr. Mulock

A THRIVING FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.

Elsewhere in this issue is found the report of the fifth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company, and it is certainly profitable and pleasant reading to those interested in this thriving and progressive financial institution, an honour to its originators and managers, and an honour to the town. The company has an authorized capital of two millions, a subscribed capital of one million, a paid up capital of $500,000, buttressed by uncalled capital and reserve fund, amounting to $580,000. The company has had most satisfactory success and gained the confidence of the public, as shown by the fact that at the close of its fifth year, its interest-bearing securities total the large sum of $1,223,423.59, of undoubted value. Thus with the addition of the uncalled capital, investors, depositors and debenture holders enjoy the comfort of a protection of nearly three quarters of a million, while the deposits and debentures at present amount to $873,770.37. The advantage of the public in thus having such an institution in their midst, is of the very first importance. Those desirous of saving small sums have thus an opportunity of doing so under conditions of the most undoubted security, and an interest increment higher than that given by banks on small sums—the average rate paid by the company being four and one-third per cent. Investors will not be slow to perceive the advantage they will have in dealing with the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company. The very essence of all financial transactions is a sense of security and this, this company affords. A study of the report shows that the security is absolutely unquestionable. An additional element of security is afforded by the fact that the directors are men of universally recognized financial ability, as attested by their success in business, which they have managed with such care and ability that their personal responsibility is largely in excess of any demand that might, by any possibility, be made in respect of the amount of deposit. The company's success calls for earnest congratulations and warrants the hope of the future prosperity, which this journal cordially wishes it.

A People's Railway.

The completion of the trunk lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in the Province of Ontario has been followed by something like a branch building boom, as, naturally enough, every local centre is desirous of obtaining a connection with the new system. One of these projected branches is intended to connect the old university town of Cobourg and the county of Northumberland with the Ontario and Quebec, and although the projected line is purely a local one, excepting in so far as it will give the Ontario and Quebec a connection with a lake port between Kingston and Toronto, the method by which it is proposed to organize the company which is to build and own the road is of more than local interest. The road will run for its whole length through a well settled and moderately prosperous farming country, which is without other railway facilities than that afforded by the two trunk lines. The Canadian Pacific Company some time since offered to operate and equip such a road as this proposed, and to hand over to the company building the line a large proportion of the gross receipts. Upon this offer being made public a provisional committee was appointed, composed of prominent business men of the localities affected, the matter was gone into as completely as possible, and a meeting composed of delegates from all the municipalities interested was called. This meeting decided that it was in the interest of the communities it represented that the branch should be built, and that it was also in the interest of those communities that they should own it after it was built. Instead of promising to subsidize a company to build and own the road, the municipalities propose to borrow the quarter of a million, which, with the Provincial and Federal subsidy, will build the road, upon their own debentures, and to purchase stock in the company which they will form to build it with this money. They even propose to do more than this, that is, to let the contracts for building the line to the residents of the section through which it passes, so that neither a railway company nor a construction company will make any money out of them or of their line. If this branch line can be built by the people of Northumberland by this scheme, it will be a practical solution of a part at least of that great problem, of how the railway is to be made the servant and not the master of the people. Although the people of Canada have practically paid most of the actual cost of all the railways in the country, yet, with the exception of the Intercolonial, they own not one mile of what they have paid for, and they have to pay in consequence, the highest freight rate the traffic will bear. If the people of Northumberland can build and own their own railway, why cannot the people of Canada do the same thing? If the people owned the roads they have paid for it would be easier than it is now to deal with the companies operating them, if it were found to be necessary to lease the right of operating as the Northumberlanders propose to do.—Montreal Witness.

The Winter Races.

Programme of the Three Days' Meet—The Best Races of the District.

The annual winter races of the Peterborough Trotting Association will take place on the fine mile track on Little Lake Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, February 20, 21 and 22.

Entries must be made with F. J. Daly, secretary treasurer, before nine o'clock on the night previous to each day's races. The three-minute and 2.50 races are open to Canadian bred horses only.

"Eureka" and "Golden Hair Wash."

These are two of A. Dorenwend's standard preparations. The "Golden Hair Wash" gives the hair that beautiful golden shade so universally admired; it does not injure the hair in the slightest degree. "Eureka" removes all superfluous hair from the face, arms or neck at one application. See that each bottle of either preparation bears on the label the signature of A. Dorenwend. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Had with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when only four years old, was in bed with eczema, which he had on all of the hair. His scalp was covered with scurf-like, which the doctors said was could never, not even his hair would grow. I despaired of a cure from physicians, I began the use of CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured, by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well.—Send us a dollar. He requests me to use his name. Which is H. H. CASON, merchant of this place.

JOHN V. MIMON, Druggist, Gainsboro, Tenn.

Severe Scaly Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

REV. J. PRESSLEY BARRETT, D. D., Raleigh, N.C.

From Pimples to Scrofula Cured.

CUTICURA, the great skin cure, and CUTICURA SOAP prepared from it, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, internally, are a positive cure for every form of skin and blood disease from pimples to scrofula. Sold everywhere. Price: CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35; RESOLVENT, $1.00. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

MUNCASTER'S

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Strike at the Jail Unanimously Ended—A Glad Day for Quirkers.

TORONTO, Feb. 13.—The strike at the jail came to an [illegible] ending yesterday morning, after having lasted over twenty-four hours. The twenty-one rebellious prisoners who on Thursday refused to wheel sand around the yard yielded to what would undoubtedly have been the inevitable outcome of the trouble, and, after spending the night on bare planks and being placed on a bread and water diet, they went to work without making any decided resistance.

Jas. H. Robinson was committed for trial yesterday on a charge of having wounded Albert Plews by hitting him over the head with an iron bar. The assault was committed on Jan. 29. Plews has been in the hospital since.

George Austin, on a charge of insanity, was remanded till Monday. He tried to commit suicide on the evening of Feb. 4 by placing poison in his tea.

The Architectural Guild of Toronto has passed a resolution expressing satisfaction that the Minister of Education has asked the Legislative Assembly of Ontario to establish a school of architecture.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, residing at 181 Oak-street, fell in front of her own residence and fractured her leg.

The question of establishing a Soldiers' Home was fully discussed at a meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans' Society and referred to a committee, which will take into consideration the advisability of appealing to the public.

The attendance at the meeting of the Canada Holiness Convention yesterday was much larger than that of Wednesday, and the stories of the wonderful workings of the Spirit in the hearts of the delegates was correspondingly more marvellous. The convention will be continued to-day without any special program other than the relation of experiences.

A committee of the Parkdale Council are investigating charges against Chief Quinn and Constable Wright of using intoxicants while on duty, and of frequenting gambling places.

Dr. Montague of Haldimand was in the city yesterday in connection with the protest in that county. The case will be entered at once.

It was gala day for curlers yesterday in Toronto, the occasion being the final competition for the Ontario Tankard. As early as 9 o'clock yesterday morning the stones were set in motion and the "rearing game" did not cease until after 6 o'clock. The matches were played in the Granite, Prospect Park and Mutual-street rinks, and resulted in the Granite, Hamilton Thistles, Galt and Bright being successful in the first and second draws, the third and final of which will be played to-day.

THE EXTRADITION TREATY.

How the United States Senate Voted on the Question of Ratification.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The proceedings in Executive session of the Senate upon consideration of the British Extradition Treaty were made public to-day. The vote upon ratification taken on Feb. 1 was as follows:

YEAS—Blackburn, Cockrell, Faulkner, Fryo, George, Hampton, Hawley, Hear, Jones, (Ark.), Pasco, Payne, Ransom, Sawyer, Sherman, Wadleigh—14.

NAYS—Allison, Bate, Blair, Bowen, Call, Cheney, Chandler, Coke, Cullom, Davis, Dawes, Edmunds, Evarts, Farwell, Garman, Hale, Hiscock, Ingalls, Jones (Nev.), Henderson, Mitchell, Morgan, Paddock, Platt, Plumb, Pugh, Reagan, Riddleberger, Saulsbury, Sherman, Stockbridge, Teller, Turpie, Vest, Voorhees, Wilson (Iowa), Wilson (Md.)—36.

The following were paired:

AYE—Gray, Morrill, Vance, Daniel, Butler, Cockrell.

NAYS—Spooner, Harris, Palmer, Quay, Cameron and Gibson.

PATENTED IN FRANCE.

The Device of Barbed Wire an Old One—The U. S. Patents Void.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13.—It has been discovered here that the control of the barbed wire patents is not vested in any American firm or corporation because the device of barbed wire was patented in France to Louis Janis April 19, 1865. The law of this country declared by the United States Supreme Court is that "a foreign patent for the same thing, or a description of the thing in a foreign publication, is as effectual to void a patent as if the patentee had seen the prior invention, notice to him not being important." The claims of certain persons for royalty under the Glidden and other barbed wire patents are therefore void, and all the money paid to them by barbed wire manufacturers is believed to be subject to recovery.

Ambitious City Nurse.

HAMILTON, Feb. 13.—Robert Wilson, a respectable-looking young man, was tried before Police Magistrate Cahill this morning on a charge of stealing several pairs of shoes from Robert Strong, his former employer. Wilson was acquitted.

A freight train ran off the track near Beeton this morning and detained the train from the north on the Northern and Northwestern division for two hours. No person was injured.

The funeral of the late Herbert G. Shepard, which took place to-day, was largely attended. The interment will be at Buffalo.

Winnipeg Wire Whispers.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 13.—It is now said that the Northern Pacific and Manitoba want to pay $720,000 in cash instead of 25-year bonds as agreed with the province in their deal. The company has purchased the Cauchon Block for its general offices.

Mr. Scarth, M. P., denies that he intends resigning his seat in the Commons to accept a Senatorship.

Efforts are being made to establish a daily edition of Sifting's.

Street cars are on runners to-day for the first time this winter.

A Receiver Appointed.

LONDON, O., Feb. 13.—The Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company filed a petition in court here to-day praying the foreclosure of the mortgage on the property of the Ohio and Western Coal and Iron Company given to secure bonds amounting to nearly $3,500,000, and praying the appointment of James A. Hall as receiver to take charge of the mortgaged property. Mr. Hall was appointed receiver.

Japan's New Constitution.

TOKIO, Feb. 13.—The new constitution establishes a House of Peers, partly hereditary, partly elective and partly nominated by the Mikado, and a House of Commons of 300 members. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Home of Rathbone.

The Annual convention of the Grand Lodge is being held at Ottawa. Bro. Gunn represents Lansdowne Lodge, Peterborough. At one of the sessions a statement was submitted showing that the membership on February 1 was 6,204, an increase of 1,670 during the year. The contributions during the year amounted to $23,446, of which $6,204 was paid to sick members, $6,481 in surgeons' fees, and the sum of $91,233 stands to the credit of the consolidation in the bank, and $3,974 in the hands of the treasurer. The amount paid in funeral benefits last year was $3,254. The session will probably last the week.

Warming the Capital.

The fame of the hotwater heating furnace and system of the Peterborough Stove and Furnace Company is gone abroad all over the land, especially where the thermometer contracts itself most, and they receive many orders from distant points. This week Messrs. Robert J. G. Sutherland and Wm. Noble, employees of the company are in Ottawa fitting up three handsome residences with the company's heating apparatus. As Ottawa gentlemen was in town and seeing how like a charm the system worked here, determined to have it applied to his own residence and others have followed his example.

Prof. Dorenwend's Wigs and Toupees for Gentlemen.

Gentlemen who have lost their hair are beginning to realize the great advantages derived from wearing artificial coverings. They supply protection to the scalp wherein nature has failed and also fill up the deficiency in appearance caused by baldness. Hundreds of gentlemen in all parts of America testify to the benefitting results of using Prof. Dorenwend's wigs and toupees. Each article is carefully made, is light and strong and when worn cannot be detected by the closest observer. Prof. Dorenwend will be at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, and will show a big stock of them. Go and see them whether you buy one or not; he makes no charges for trying them on. dw

A Halliburton Question.

The Attorney-General was the other day waited on by a deputation representing the municipality of Dysart in the district of Haliburton. They were Mr. A. Niven, Haliburton, and H. O'Leary, Lindsay. They appeared in opposition to the change about to be made in the personnel of the Canada Land & Emigration Company, which was chartered twenty five years ago. The company which is now in liquidation, were granted 336,000 acres of land in Haliburton on condition that they would bring out from the old country a certain number of settlers annually and other things in the interests of the district. Ten years ago, however, Dysart had 200 inhabitants, and to-day the population stands 230, showing, as the members of the deputation pointed out, that the company had not been very active colonizers. Mr. O'Leary further told the Attorney-General that the settlers on 27,000 acres pay $4 300 of the taxes, while the company pay $4,600 on the 336 000 acres which they own. The injustice of the situation was forcibly presented and the government were asked to buy out the rights of the old company and take steps to settle the lands or compel the new company to carry out the obligations attached to the original charter. In justice to the company, it is alleged that free grants interfered with their policy, and that consequently they were not able to carry out the conditions upon which they received their lands. The members of the proposed company are Mr. Lockhart Gordon, Toronto, and Mr. J. M. Irwin, Peterborough. Mr. Mowat said nothing as to the merits of the case, but promised to make an investigation into the whole affair.

A Rich Iron Mine.

Active Operations to be Commenced on the Lockyard Mine in Belmont.

We learn on good authority, says the Norwood Register, that there is every prospect of that valuable iron mine situated on lot 19 in the 1st concession of Belmont, near Mr. Porter Preston's farm, known as the "Ledyard Mine," being operated in the near future by a strong company from Cleveland, Ohio. This mine has long been known as one of the richest in the province, but owing to the restriction placed on foreign capital invested in this way nothing has been done beyond ascertaining its extent and value. No later than last fall, Mr. Ledyard was offered $10,000 for the property by Mr. Coe. The offer was refused, however, as Mr. Ledyard was fully aware of its great value and now it appears that his refusal is about to be justified. Last week Mr. J. F. Purdy, of Belmont, received a communication from Mr. Ledyard stating that Mr. W. J. Rattle, representing a strong company in Cleveland, Ohio, would visit the mine this week with a view to commencing active operations. The letter stated that if the weather was not too severe work would be commenced this winter. Both the Canadian Pacific and the Central Ontario Railway Companies have offered to build a line of railway connecting it with the main lines, a distance of some six or seven miles. The ore is exceedingly good; not too dense in texture, rich in metal, quite free from titanium, and practically free from phosphorus and sulphur. It is well adapted for final treatment by the Bessemer process and the intermixed rock-matter would be almost self fluxing. From a sample dried at 212 degrees with an average specific gravity of 4.01, the ore contained 64.26 per cent. of metallic iron. It will thus be seen that the ore is composed of over one-half of metallic iron, the remaining 35.74 per cent. being made up of ferrous oxide, ferric oxide, alumina, sulphur, pyroxenic rock-matter and a faint trace of phosphorus. If work is commenced on the mine, and we haven't the least doubt but that it will, it will create quite a "boom" in Belmont.

ANOTHER YEAR'S PROGRESS

Of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company.

Annual Meeting—Solid Financial Progress—Reports and Addresses—Election of Officers and other Business.

The fifth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company was held at the head office, 457 George street, Peterborough, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President, in the chair. After the usual routine of business had been disposed of the President read

THE FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Fifth annual report of the Directors of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company, of Ontario:—

The Directors, in submitting their fifth annual statement, with the balances about as at 31st, December, 1888, and auditors' certificate attached, have pleasure in reporting another year of steady progress, such as they trust will be satisfactory to the shareholders.

The interest earnings for the year amounted to $74,177.19. This enabled the directors, after providing for the interest on deposits and debentures, and the payment of all expenses of management, to declare two half-yearly dividends at the rate of six per cents. per annum amounting to $30,000.00, to transfer $10,000 00 to the reserve fund, which now amounts to $80,000.00, and carry forward to credit of profit and loss account $4,269 80.

The satisfactory nature of the securities held by the Company is indicated by the fact that, of the interest due and over-due at 31st December, less than $3,000.00 remains unpaid at this date.

The average rate of interest that could be obtained on first class loans during the year was somewhat lower than during 1887, but the Directors, fully realizing that security is the first consideration, have accepted such rates as would command unquestionable security. The earnings of the Company, however, have not been affected by this, because we have been able to obtain our money at a correspondingly reduced rate.

A committee of your Directors have made a careful examination of the securities, checked the same with the Mortgage Register, and report every thing satisfactory.

The report of the Auditors is appended to the Financial Statement annexed.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Directors,

GEO. A. COX,
President.

Auditors.

Peterborough, January 26th, 1889.

THE PRESIDENT in moving the adoption of the report said: The report and statement of accounts in the hands of the Shareholders so fully explain the position of the Company, it is unnecessary to say anything further as to that, but for the information of the depositors and debenture-holders, whose numbers are constantly increasing and who have accorded us such a large measure of their confidence and support thus early in the history of the Company, and for the information of those whom it is expected will do so, it may not be out of place to say that the Company was incorporated in 1884, under the Ontario Joint Stock Companies Act, and has an authorized capital of $2,000,000; a subscribed capital of $1,000,000, in ten thousand shares of $100 each, and in addition to the paid-up capital of half a million dollars, it has uncalled capital and reserve funds amounting to $580,000. The amount of deposits that may be received or debentures that may be issued, is based upon the amount of paid up capital and reserve fund, and regulated by the Act of Parliament, under which the Company is incorporated.

The confidence that has been accorded to, and the gratifying progress that has been made by the Company, is evidenced by the fact that, at the close of the fifth year, it has in interest-bearing securities, substantial assets of $1,232,423 50, making with the uncalled capital ($1,732,423), nearly one and three quarters of a million dollars for the protection of its deposits and debentures, which now amount to $573,770 37. The deposits and debentures as well as the paid up capital of the company, are largely represented by the savings of the prosperous and wealthy agricultural community, adjacent to the town of Peterborough, where the head office of the company is located. The loans of the company are also largely made in the same district. The progress that has been made during the year under review will, I apprehend, meet with the approval of every person interested in the welfare of the company, and I have much pleasure in moving the adoption of the report.

The Vice-President, Mr. RICHARD HALL said: The steady, solid growth of the Company from the date of its organization five years ago, down to the present time, must, I am sure, be highly satisfactory not only to the directors and shareholders, but also to the debenture holders and depositors, many of whom are residents of our own town and county. The Company has thus afforded an opportunity to those who have been able to accumulate any savings, no matter how small, (even though it be only five dollars) to place it at interest where it can be had at any time without notice, and at a rate somewhat higher than is paid by the banks for these smaller sums, the average rate paid by the Company being four, and one-third per cent. This, in turn, enables the Company to lend this same money at a rate somewhat lower than charged by other Companies, thus keeping our own money in use in our own district, and benefitting both the depositor and the borrower, by giving the depositor a higher and the borrower a lower rate than obtained elsewhere. Notwithstanding the small margin between the rate paid to depositors, and charged to borrowers, it is very satisfactory to know this by careful selection of loans, prompt collection of interest and great economy in management company has been able to pay six per cent to its shareholders from the date of its organization, and has already accumulated surplus earnings of $24,269 80. Then in addition to the subscribed capital of one million dollars, five hundred thousand dollars of which is paid up) would every dollar have to be lost before the depositors could lose anything. It is unnecessary to add that the security is simply unquestionable. I have pleasure in seconding the adoption of the report.

The report was adopted.

AUDITORS.

Messrs. Wm. Manson and E. B. Wood were re-appointed auditors.

Dr. Caldwell and Mr. F. E. Bell were appointed scrutineers and reported the following gentlemen elected as DIRECTORS.

Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, J. R. Dundas, Richard Hall, J. M. Ferrie, William Clurton, James Stevenson, D. W. Dumble, William Gooderham, Robert Jaffray, F. C. Taylor and E. S. Vindin.

OFFICERS.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT—Geo. A. Cox.
VICE-PRESIDENTS — J. R. Dundas and Richard Hall.
INVESTMENT COMMITTEE.—Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, Richard Hall, J. R. Dundas, Wm. Clurton and D. W. Dumble.

The usual votes of thanks were passed and the meeting adjourned.

THEY FEAR HE IS DROWNED

Mr. Thos. Coe Supposed to Have Committed Suicide.

His Tracks Found at the Water's Edge—A Rash Deed While Mentally Unsound—The Body not yet Recovered.

It is feared that Mr. Thos. Coe, of 27 Queen street, has committed suicide by drowning. Yesterday morning he was missed from the house, and though a search was kept up all day, it was not till midnight that any trace of him was found. Then what are believed to be his footsteps were discovered at the water's edge, just below Hunter street, and a number of men have been working all day trying to recover the body, as yet unsuccessfully. The river at the place where he is supposed to have entered is eight feet deep, but the water runs very rapidly and the current has probably carried the body away down stream. Mr. Coe is one of the oldest and best known residents of the town, and the new of his sad death, should it prove true, will be received with sorrow, while the afflicted family will have the utmost sympathy.

A reporter of the EXAMINER called upon Mrs. Coe this forenoon and learned the following particulars of the affair. Mr. Coe has not been of very sound mind recently. Twelve months ago he and suffered an injury to his spine that, as his physician feared, induced softening of the brain. Since the accident he has not been able to work, and of late his mind has been "wandering." He was, however, quite docile and quiet in his habits. The family did not keep too strict a watch upon his movements, but allowed him all reasonable freedom. Tuesday he appeared in better health than usual and was more rational in his talk. In fact one would never suspect that his mind was unbalanced from his conversation. He retired as usual at eleven o'clock Tuesday night, saying his prayers in an earnest and natural way. Mrs. Coe, who was constantly anxious about him, awakened frequently during the night and heard his soft and regular breathing. Towards morning she must have fallen into a sound sleep, for she heard no more till breakfast time. Then she missed her husband. His slippers and boots were down stairs where he left them the night before but he was not himself about the house. The neighborhood was thoroughly searched during the day, but no trace of the missing man could be found. Mrs. Coe telegraphed for her brother, and he arrived last night. At midnight, by the bright light of the moon, they found the tracks of a man near the water's edge directly back of the house, and as Mr. Coe must have gone out with only his stockings on, there is every reason to fear that in a moment of mental aberration the unfortunate man committed suicide.

IN HIS STOCKING FEET

He must have left the house very early in the morning, for the other members of the family rose and prepared breakfast for a number of boarders before seven o'clock. He could not have slipped out after that without someone noticing him.

Mrs. Coe and her two daughters are in great anxiety and fear. They never dreamt of the possibility of such a calamity. Street Inspector Pope has had a couple of men engaged all day in searching the river, but as yet no discovery has been made.

Mr. Coe was about sixty years old and a well known and respected citizen. Before the accident which caused his mental trouble he was a shrewd business man, and followed the trade of butcher. He carried a $1000 life insurance policy.

Literary Notes.

Two of the latest publications of Wm. Bryce, Toronto, have just been received. They are "A Transaction in Hearts," by Edgar Saltus, price 15c, and "The Queen's Token," by Mrs. Cashel Hoey, price 25c. These books are on sale at the Peterborough Bookstore.

We have received a copy of the carnival number of the Montreal Star. It is a superb number, a grand souvenir to send to distant friends and well worth preserving in private libraries as a memento of the most extraordinary winter in the history of Canada. We cannot describe the number as it is so elaborate. An order has been booked from London, England, for five thousand copies, while in Toronto and New York it has created a tremendous furore. The last edition is now being run off. The publishers send it to any address for the small sum of thirty-five cents.

Personal.

Miss Polly Elliott, of Woodbridge, is in town on a visit, the guest of Mr. E. C. Hill.

Miss M. J. Sanderson, of Peterborough, has been elected Grand Vice-Councillor of the Grand Council, Royal Templars, now in session at London.

The Bowmanville Statesman says:—Mr. Isaac Clarke gave us a call on Saturday. He thinks there is no place like Peterborough, where he now resides.

A Kingston correspondent of the Empire states with reference to this mine:—"W. J. Rattle and a Cleveland iron company will develop an iron mine in Belmont, Peterborough county."

Mrs. R. J Kidd, of Port Perry, late of Peterborough, is just recovering from a severe attack of diphtheria that threatened her life. Her many friends here will be pleased to learn of her convalescence.

Mr. W. Thayer, Wright, P.Q., had dyspepsia for 20 years. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of, and immediately commenced taking, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health, in fact he is quite a new man. w7

A BRISK DEBATE AT LAST

MR. MEREDITH JOINS ISSUE WITH THE PREMIER.

The Prosecution of the City of London for Contaminating the Thames Discussed in the Legislature.

TORONTO, Feb 14.—The session of yesterday was lively and interesting. Our local rulers have settled down to hard work. The first battle was well fought on an important notice of motion by the Leader of the Opposition, regarding the contamination of the waters of the River Thames and the prosecution of the city of London for the offence by the Attorney-General.

Mr. Meredith made a long speech. One of the principal grounds of his complaint was that by the Government's policy the city of London was debarred from appealing, if necessary, to the highest court of the realm, the Privy Council.

The case had been brought before the present Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench Division, whose views Mr. Meredith considered were rather extreme on the question of sanitary law. The case was presented in a two-fold aspect to the jury. First, it was stated that the defendants were guilty of a nuisance if the effect of their action was to render less fit for domestic uses the waters of the river, or that the carrying of the sewage into the river so polluted the stream as to render it dangerous for those living in the neighborhood. The jury found the defendants guilty, but upon being asked by the learned Chief Justice the particular ground of their decision their answer was that the action of defendants rendered the water more unfit for domestic purposes.

"It is," the Leader of the Opposition said, "an act of gross injustice on the part of the Attorney-General that he should have pressed this indictment against the city of London. I call upon the Attorney-General in these prosecutions to exercise the greatest care."

In refutation of the charges made by Mr. Meredith, the Attorney-General said there were many proceedings of a quasi-criminal character in which it was most necessary proceedings should be instituted in order to secure the remedy the law may provide. It was necessary to use the name of the Attorney-General or the Crown in order to get the consideration which the case deserved. All that the Attorney-General had to do was to enquire as carefully as possible whether the case was one which should be brought before the courts in the way considered best. Mr. Meredith had acknowledged that the sewage of London had been carried into the stream. That showed there should be some prompt remedy.

MONEY Probably not one business man in a thousand who has made a close study of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial in business to have a large circle of acquaintances, in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are hundreds of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county readers and if they knew that they could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large circulation among them. To such THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER comes as welcome visitors. Their business features, they care not for. Their business is to find their way into the homes of the many thousands of people who read the paper, and to penetrate to every corner of the town and county. Advertising rates are such as will assure the economical class of advertising with any advertiser whose views suit us. We shall be pleased to have figures for the advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER, and can assure every person interested in the matter that we will treat them fairly and honorably in all our dealings with them. OUR
ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY.
We can now show you over 200 Patterns of New Prints, and to say the least about them they are Just Lovely! They consist of Chocolate Grounds, with Cardinal Cream, White and Navy Sprays, Spots and Stripes, Navy Check, and several lines of Small Patterns suitable for children. Also a range of Dutch Prints in Navy and White Navy and Orange and Navy and Green, every piece of which we guarantee to wash well.
We now show all the new Patterns in Cottonades, Tickings, Denims, and Shirtings. Owing to the recent brisk advance in the wholesale market in these goods, customers will do well to lay in a Stock at once before the advance is felt in the retail trade.
Last week we received a Large shipment of Corsets, and have now all the sizes in all the best makes manufactured in Canada. The Yatisi, Coraline and Agave are among most popular makes. We are now introducing a new French Corset, which is very popular. Ask to be shown them.
Several lines of new Lace Curtains arrived last week. It is almost too soon to begin to talk about them but we commence them this season at 50c. a pair.
Our Canadian Tweeds are arriving —several lines are considered special value, especially our 35c. Tweed for Boys, and our 50, 60, and 75c. for Men. Every suit our tailor makes we guarantee a perfect fit or no sale.
Our White and Grey Cottons, Grass Linens and Tablings, are always right. If you have not seen them, come and buy a trial parcel. We are satisfied you will call again.

SHAVING PRICES
That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots. Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on some do we seek to secure more than we have paid.
The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.
This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

A DAY DEVOTED TO TRADE AND THE TARIFF.

Dr. Lauderkin's Motion for a Rebate of the Duty on Corn Fed to Cattle for Export Defeated.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—This was a day eminently devoted to trade and the tariff at the Capital. Trade and commerce and the tariff were the talk of the heated corridors, of the lobbies, of the departments, and it was rattled over the floors of the House far into the night.

There was only an residence or two to-day to relieve the monotony of the talk—these were the introduction of Mr. Charles Wesley Colter, the member-elect for Haldimand, and the distribution of very suggestive valentines to several members. Mr. Colter was brought into the chamber between Sir Richard and Mr. Charlton. It is a long time since such a din was heard on the Opposition benches as went up when Mr. Colter shook hands with the Speaker and stalked his seat. The demonstration lasted five minutes, and many complimentis were exchanged across the floor by the wags and party comedians.

Sir Donald A. Smith, M.P., took his seat for the first time this session this afternoon.

Sir Adolphe Caron introduced a bill amending the Militia Act. In lieu reference to the calling out of the militia force in aid of the civic power. Hereafter, when a requisition signed by three magistrates is made for the assistance of local corps, the municipality must deposit with the Lieutenant-Governor of the province such a sum as will likely pay the expenses of the militia, failing which and the corps actually going on service, the Government will be empowered to stop from a provincial subsidy the amount of their maintenance. It is also proposed to include in the bill a provision that permanent corps cannot be called out without the direct sanction of the Minister of Militia. The department sets up the claim "that it has suffered heavy losses by municipalities failing to pay the expenses of calling out the volunteers to aid the civic power."

The debate on Dr. Lauderkin's motion lasted seven hours, and was not finished until 12 o'clock. The motion is as follows:

That whereas distillers are allowed a rebate of duty upon corn imported for use in the manufacture of spirits for export, it is in the opinion of this House but just and right that farmers and stock raisers who import corn to feed cattle or other stock for export should also receive a similar rebate.

Mr. Fisher's amendment favored the admission of corn free of duty and Mr. Flynn offered a further amendment to include corn and cornmeal.

Nearly all the farmers in the House took a hand in the talk, but the issue turned almost to a unit on party lines.

The Minister of Customs joined in the debate and told the House that the motion covered a very flimsy issue and was merely an attack on the National Policy through the Customs Department. He said there never had been a petition sent to his department by the farmers to remove the duty, besides during the past year the total rebate paid distillers in Canada under this head was no more than $400.

To this Mr. Laurier, when it came his turn to speak, said it was not at all a matter of amount of rebate, but purely a matter of principle.

It was just midnight when the division was taken. While the whips were out "calling in the members" the House was entertained to songs by Mr. Jamieson, who gave the old favorite "Brigadier," and Col. Prior of British Columbia.

The amendment to the amendment was lost by a vote of 112 to 78. Mr. Colter was loudly applauded as he recorded his first vote with the Opposition, Mr. Brien (Lib., Essex), Mr. Campbell (Lib., Kent), and Mr. Amyot (Nat.), voted with the Government.

A vote was then taken on Mr. Fisher's amendment and it was lost—71 yeas, 111 nays.

Mr. Campbell voted yea this time and Gen. Laurie and Mr. Brien nay.

The House adjourned at 12.35.

A FLOOD OF DEPUTATIONS.

Strong Opposition to the Anti-Combines Bill—The Nurserymen's Grievance.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—Mr. Clarke Wallace's anti-Combines Bill is meeting with a strong opposition throughout the Dominion, and a portion of a big deputation is already here to use its influence with the Government against the bill. Telegrams are pouring in to members of the Government to call the member for West York and his bill down. Rumor was in circulation this evening that the Government had requested Mr. Wallace to make certain modifications in his bill, but the gentleman in question assures me that such is not the case.

About thirty prominent nurserymen and fruit growers of Toronto, Hamilton and the district extending to Niagara had a two hours' interview with the Minister of Finance and Customs this morning and asked that the duties on small fruits, flowers, plants and shrubs be reimposed. These articles, it will be remembered, are included in the statutory offer and when the United States removed its duties the Canadian Government followed suit. The arrangement, however, never gave any satisfaction to the Canadian fruit growers or nurserymen. The deputation said instead of fruits entering the United States being free they were subjected to many frontier annoyances and state taxes which acted more to their disadvantage than a duty. It is understood that the ministers took a favorable view of the case made out, but they asked time to consider the question. The deputation was accompanied by Adam Brown, M.P., Mr. J. W. Carpenter, M.P., and Mr. A. Boyle, M.P.

Several other deputations also saw the ministers. The felt and straw hat men want an increase of duty, manufacturers of tinware make a similar request. Whip manufacturers want a specific instead of an ad valorem duty. The makers of pocket books want their trimmings admitted free. A blacking firm in Hamilton wants the "black strap" used in blacking admitted free and to be allowed to manufacture in bond. The manufacturers of shoe linings say they are incorrectly classified by the customs officers. The shovel makers want the steel which they use admitted free.

The Kyle Petition.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—Mr. Small to-day presented a petition to the Minister of Justice praying for the pardon of Wm. Kyle, now serving five years' sentence in the Kingston Penitentiary. Kyle has been a convict for two years. The petition is 14 yards long, and on it appear the names of hundreds of prominent citizens of Toronto. Mayor Clarke's name appears at the top. Forty-two members of the Ontario Assembly signed it. Dr. McMichael, Q.C., counsel for Kyle at the time of his trial, says in a letter to the Minister,

"It was a case strongly suggestive of the dangers of convicting on the testimony of an accomplice. In this case the danger was aggravated by the fact that the principal felon, who admitted his guilt and that he forged the notes, was the only one who swore that Kyle had any knowledge of figures."

Kyle, it will be remembered, was convicted of forgery almost solely on the evidence of his partner in business and alleged partner in crime, Colin Munro. A true bill was returned against Munro at the last criminal assizes at Toronto, but in view of an "arrangement" with the Crown to give Kyle away the bill was ignored by the Crown officers and no prosecution was undertaken. Sir John Thompson will put the petition before the Cabinet on Saturday afternoon.

In the United States Senate yesterday the President's two messages relative to Samoa and the ship Bridgewater were presented and referred.

Mr. Kilbride, M.P. for South Kerry, was yesterday sentenced to three months imprisonment without hard labor for breach of the Crimes Act. He appealed and was bailed.

WHAT THE LETTERS COST.

THE TIMES' SOLICITOR BEFORE THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Over $50,000 Paid Through Him for the Documents—The Authors of the Articles on "Parnellism and Crime."

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Mr. Soames, solicitor for The Times, testified before the Parnell Commission to-day that he visited Dublin in May, 1888, in quest of evidence. At the office of Alexander Murphy, Crown Solicitor for Kerry, he had an interview with a person who was introduced to him as a former employe in the office of the League and who produced a slip bearing the signature of Miss Anna Parnell, specimens of Patrick Egan's handwriting and a bundle of documents, which the witness inspected at length. He copied some of these documents and made notes of others. Witness arranged that the documents should be brought to London, and they were brought here on Whitmonday, 1888, and embodied in an affidavit produced during the trial of the suit of O'Donnell against Walter for libel. Mr. Soames said he was first consulted regarding the alleged Parnell letters at the end of November or beginning of December, 1887. He produced five letters, including the letter a facsimile of which was printed in The Times.

Attorney-General Webster said the letters had been photographed. At Chief Justice Hannen's request he handed the photographs to the bench.

Mr. Soames said Mr. Macdonald, manager of The London Times, handed him the letters. The letters were submitted to an expert in April, 1887. Before that genuine specimens of Parnell's writing were collected and other specimens had since been collected.

At Attorney-General Webster's request witness submitted genuine specimens of Parnell's signature.

Soames said he had obtained specimens of the writing of Henry Campbell, Mr. Parnell's secretary. He had no means of judging who wrote the letter a facsimile of which was published in The Times. Mr. Ingle, the expert, asked him to get further specimens of Campbell's writing.

Witness here produced further specimens of Parnell's signature, which he had obtained since the facsimile was published, including letters and summonses which Parnell signed as magistrate, orders of admission to the House of Commons, a paragraph written for a newspaper and the Kilmainham jail book, which contained nine signatures.

Soames said he believed the body of the letters which appeared in The Times was in Campbell's writing, while the signature was Parnell's.

When he discovered the Parnell letters he also came across documents which he supposed to be Egan's. Three of Egan's letters were found in Carey's house, where two letters in Campbell's writing were also discovered. Witness produced these letters with other specimens of Egan's writing.

Sir Charles Russell said: "We are only able to give these documents a cursory glance. The court must not assume that all will be unquestioned."

The Attorney-General rejoined that he did not suppose Sir Charles would admit the genuineness of the letters.

Soames testified that Richard Pigott gave the Parnell letters to Houston, secretary of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union, who handed them to Macdonald. Soames produced a letter from Byrnes referring to a check for £100 which Parnell promised him when he suddenly went to France in September, 1887.

Witness said he employed Detective Moser to go to America to trace the source of certain documents known to be forgeries. He never used these documents in any way. They were not received through Pigott.

On cross-examination the witness said he was not consulted regarding the publication of the articles on "Parnellism and Crime," though he knew they were being prepared early in 1887. Flanagan, the son of an Irish judge, co-operated with a gentleman on The Times in preparing the articles. Up to January, 1888, twelve letters had been obtained from Pigott. Later more letters written by Egan, O'Kelly and Davitt were obtained, making a total of 17. He did not know precisely what was paid for the letters. Probably whatever was paid passed through him. The first payment of £1000 was made to Houston. It was partly for his expenses in going to America and partly for the payment of Dr. Maguire and other assistants. The successive subsequent payments to Houston were £200, £30, £40, £15, £180, £550, £942 and £100. Witness paid Moser about £2000, Kirby £250 and another agent named Thompson £300.

Touching Davitt's letter, the witness said he took pains to form a conclusive opinion. He decided that it was genuine.

Before the court adjourned Attorney-General Webster said Flanagan had written for The Times without the knowledge of his father.

Sir Charles Russell remarked that he quite believed that.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Beef and Hog and Dairy Exports—Nominations Sent to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The bureau of statistics reports the total value of exports of beef and hog products in January was $10,466,850, against $6,513,161 in January, 1888; during the three months ended Jan. 31, $28,964,066, against $20,614,367 during the three months ended Jan. 31, 1888. The value of exports of dairy products was: January, 1889, $657,407; January, 1888, $313,799; nine months ended Jan. 31, 1889, $6,500,635; nine months ended Jan. 31, 1888, $6,836,718.

The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate: Commodore George E. Belknap to be rear admiral, Captain John G. Walker to be commodore, Commander Silas Casey to be captain.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Carroll D. Wright to be Commissioner of Labor.

Another Tub for the U. S. Navy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The official trial of the gunboat Yankton, which took place yesterday, was successful. The vessel made sixteen knots an hour and met the requirement of 3000 horse power.

What Bayard Demands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The official correspondence regarding the American ship Bridgewater, seized by the Canadian authorities, shows that the vessel has been released and that Secretary Bayard has asked the British Government to see that her owner gets over $60,000 compensation.

Saturday Half-Holiday Bill Defeated.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—In the Senate to-day the Saturday half-holiday bill was defeated by a vote of 12 to 20.

AUCKLAND, N.Z., Feb. 14.—The latest advices from Samoa say there has been no change in the situation since the last report. There has been no fighting and Tamasese and Mataafa remain in their strongholds. The British Consul has warned British subjects not to supply natives with arms and to maintain strict neutrality. The British warship Calliope has replaced the warship Royalist. The German and American warships remain stationary. Herr Brandeis, the leading partisan of Tamasese, has been recalled to Berlin.

Against the Australian System.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 14.—The House to-day refused to pass the Australian ballot bill.

THE CHAMBER SURPRISED.

THEY HAD NO IDEA IT WAS A CABINET QUESTION.

A Motion to Adjourn Debate Carried Over Flequet's Objection and the Ministry at Once Resign.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—When the question of the revision of the constitution came up in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, Count de Douville-Maillefeu moved that the debate on the subject be adjourned. Notwithstanding the opposition of the Government the motion was adopted by a vote of 307 to 218. Premier Flequet thereupon announced that the ministry would immediately resign.

Immediately after Flequet's announcement in the Chamber all the members of the ministry sent their resignations to President Carnot.

The chamber was crowded. The Prince of Wales and Lord Lytton, the British ambassador occupied seats in the diplomatic gallery.

Baron Mackau, President of the Right, moved to adjourn the debate on the revision question for one week. He declared the Right desired complete revision as well as dissolution of the Chambers. A delay of one week would enable the Government to decide in regard to dissolution.

Premier Flequet refused to entertain the motion, stating that the Government could not consent to dissolve the Chamber.

Baron Mackau's motion was rejected, 378 to 173.

Count de Douville-Maillefeu, in moving the indefinite postponement of the revision debate, said: "The electoral period virtually begins to-day. Let us leave to the people the duty of vindicating what kind of revision they desire. Let us not lose time in discussing a question that is in no wise definite. Instead of pursuing a policy of egoism let us return to a policy of common sense."

Premier Flequet reminded the House that the Government was pledged to make the revision proposal the immediate order of the day after the senatus d'arrondissement bill.

At the conclusion of M. Flequet's remarks a division was taken with the result stated.

The resignation of the Ministry was a complete surprise to the Chamber. M. Flequet had said nothing implying an intention to make a motion to adjourn a Cabinet question. Both the Left and the Right were unaware how the Ministry would regard the vote. The majority included the members of the Right and a number of Opportunists.

After the adjournment the Radical Left and the Extreme Left held a meeting and sent delegates to M. Flequet to express regret at the fall of the Cabinet and congratulate the retiring premier upon the firmness of the position he had assumed.

Great Hotels a Conference.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—President Carnot, after the ministers had tendered their resignations, sent for M. Melene, the President of the Chamber of Deputies, and subsequently had a conference with M. Lavayer, President of the Senate. A rumor was current this afternoon that M. Melene had been asked to form a Cabinet, but to-night it is stated that President Carnot has as yet entrusted no one with the task.

Boulanger Claims the Credit.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—Boulanger was a passive spectator of the proceedings in the Chamber of Deputies. After adjournment he issued a manifesto to the electors of the Department of the Seine. In this he claims credit for his party for "the overthrow of a discredited Ministry that was attempting to enslave the country by the remedy of a proposal to revise the constitution, which, if passed by the Chamber, the Ministry well knew would be rejected by the Senate."

A SCORCHER AT BRANDON.

The Masonic Block Completely Destroyed—Losses and Insurances.

BRANDON, Feb. 14.—The fire which broke out in the press room of The Mail building last night, caused it is supposed by the falling of a stove, was one of the worst in the history of the city. From The Mail building the flames soon spread to the large Masonic block immediately adjoining—the finest structure in the city. The wind was blowing quite a gale. The Masonic block, which now lies a heap of smoking ashes, was occupied from top to bottom. On the first flat were the postoffice (contents entirely destroyed, except some little registered matter); A. C. Fraser, large stock dry goods and groceries; J. N. Kirchhoffer, loan office, entirely destroyed. Second flat—Clifford Sifton's law office; Library (books mostly saved); Dominion Lands office, papers almost wholly destroyed. On third flat were Masonic and Oddfellow's Lodges, everything in which was completely destroyed.

The losses and insurances are: Masonic block $20,000, insurance $9000, total loss; Mail building $2000, insurance $1000, total loss; Fraser's store $16,000, insurance $10,000, total loss; postoffice $1000, insurance none; Mail plant $4000, insurance $2000, total loss; Cliff's bookstore, stock $6000, insurance $2500; Canada Northwest Land Buildings, damaged to the extent of $200, fully insured; Queen's hotel, damaged $300, fully insured. Insurance on Masonic Block is divided up as follows: Commercial Union, $2500; Queen's, $2000; Phœnix, $2000; Western, $1500.

Campbellford's Loss.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 14. The public school building here was burned to-day, the fire being discovered during the noon recess. It is supposed to have caught from furnace pipes. Loss $8000, insured in the Royal for $5000.

A Piston Residence Burnt.

PICTON, Feb. 14.—The residence of Mr. John Hefferman was burned last night. It was insured for $1250, which will cover the loss.

Firebugs in Pennsylvania.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 14.—The barn of D. Henry Riemah, in Adams County, Penn., was burned by an incendiary early yesterday morning; loss, $7000; insured for $4800 in the Agricultural Insurance Co. of Watertown, N. Y. The property destroyed was in the line of the dozen or more barns mysteriously burned recently on the border of Frederick and Carroll Counties, Md., and the fire is believed to have been the work of the fiends who have become such a terror to the farming community of that section. Vigilance committees are powerless and large rewards offered by insurance companies are without avail.

A Raise for Missionary Bishops.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The Book Committee of the Methodist Church to-day increased the salary of bishops of foreign missions to $3000 per annum. They are also allowed $1000 for household expenses. This puts the bishops on the same footing as home bishops.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

A Meeting of Representatives of Various Organizations at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—A meeting of leaders of labor associations was held here to-day. Among those present were General Master Workman Powderly and the General Secretary of the Knights of Labor; Samuel Gompers, the President, and the General Secretary of the American Federation of Trades, and representatives from the National Organization of Firemen and Boilermen. The meeting elected G. S. Bailey of the printers chairman and [illegible] of the firemen secretary.

STEADILY GAINING.

The proceedings of the eleventh annual meeting of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company are certainly of an encouraging character. The financial statement shows a steady improvement in the affairs of the company, and also gives evidence of careful and prudent management. The progress of the past year has been particularly satisfactory. The earlier transactions of the company were based upon loans advanced on farming lands comparatively inflated in value. The efforts of the management have been specially directed to replacing these transactions, subject to the existing conditions of farm values, and in these effort they have met with the most gratifying success. The financial position of the company has been greatly strengthened, and never before in its history has it rested upon a more substantial and satisfactory basis. Another favourable feature is the reduced rate at which the debentures of the company have been floated in Scotland, whence their working capital is chiefly borrowed. This is an important feature which should not be overlooked. Altogether the Peterborough Investment Company shows itself to be in safe and progressively, favorable, financial, position, largely due to excellent management which latter fact, argues well for its future progress and prosperity. The re-election of the old board of directors and officials indicates that the shareholders have a due appreciation of the value of their services.

Smith Election Again.

To the Editor of the Weekly Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I notice in the last issue of the EXAMINER a letter over the signature of James Middleton in which he attacks me for being very personal in my answer to Ratepayer. Now sir, his attack on me is as personal as it is ungentlemanly. He says he would not have noticed my communication only out of respect to the neighbors and the electors of Smith. Now sir, if he had due respect for himself and his character he would not try to falsify plain statements in my last letter. He says Mr. Fitzgerald did not signify his intention to resign before March or April, while he does, or ought to know better. The conversation he speaks of took place between Mr. Fitzgerald and myself at Mrs. Segsworth's sale in Otonabee, between the 15th and 20th of September—which I can prove if necessary by three men who sat on the fence beside us. And he impeaches me with telling one of his voters that I did not know who was going to oppose me. This is also untrue, as I could not say it in truth, for Mr. Fitzgerald told me on the day in question in Otonabee that Mr. Middleton was coming out and that he was going to support him. And the requisition that Ratepayer and Mr. Middleton are so anxious to get knowledge about was published about the 27th of September. Enough of questions has been asked already, and I am not at present going to satisfy their curiosity; but I cannot help thinking in this case that the old proverb is true, "that one fool can ask more questions than ten wise men can answer. "Mr. Middleton wants to know what date I asked Mr. Dumble's vote. For his satisfaction I would say I do not know; perhaps Mr. Dumble could enlighten him on that point—I know he could on others. And in reference to cards that have troubled Mr. Middleton and his friends so much—if they cannot produce any of them, if they go to Mr. Stratton's books they will find they were printed on the 29th of October, not so early in the fall. Then Mr. Middleton accuses me of introducing politics, and says the electors know who introduced them. I say the same, but I am sorry he did not see it sooner, as I can give him personal proof if necessary; and I defy any one to say in truth I introduced them, nor did any one ask me but in the two cases I instanced in my last letter. Then Mr. Middleton holds me up to derision for attempting to persuade his voters to stay at home. This I deny also; but in the cases I spoke of in my last, also, if there is any truth in what he says, he must have met with one of the two gentlemen. He says I got a promise out of him by telling him I did not know who was going to oppose me—that's another one. When I first spoke to him I did not know who was coming out, and as soon as I knew Mr. Middleton was the person I asked, "how will you do now, as your neighbor is coming out?" He asked me who, and I told him Mr. Middleton. Then he thought a moment and said he had nothing against Mr. Middleton, but, "I promised to vote for you and I will do it." That was in the fall, and I never spoke to the man on the subject again until the Friday or Saturday before the election, when I met him again and asked him if he was going to give me a vote, when he told me he could not vote against Mr. Middleton, "you ought not then to vote against me," I replied. "Well" he said, "I don't know what to do;" "well" "I said, "rather than break your word you ought to stay at home." He is a man of truth, you can rely on his word; he will tell you these are his words. Mr. Middleton tells us that it was his first production. Well, it puts me in mind of the fable, where the mountain laboured and brought forth a mouse; and then, Mr. Editor, he threatens if he has to write again what he is going to do. He is going to waste paper and ink, for a good many that will read his production knew me before he was born, for I have lived 50 years among them; and let Mr. Middleton say, and think as he pleases, but I have not been an office-seeker and would not have allowed my self to be nominated only I believed a change was necessary; and was glad to see our Reeve, Mr. Sanderson, come before the Farmers' Institute and say he believed there should be a reform in the country council. I see by the report of the new council they have reformed a good many of them out of this year. There is room for improvement yet, for our taxes are getting outrageous In the last 35 years I have paid $2 700 taxes and worked about 400 days on the road, and ought to be pretty well posted in township matters. Now, Mr. Editor, I have to apologize for troubling you again, but I think I will not trouble you further on this matter, for I think it is time for Mr. Middleton to attend to his Deputy reeveship. I hope when we hear from him he will give his own views, and not another's.

Thanking you again kindly for the space in your valuable paper, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
THOS. E. BELL.

Smith, Feb. 12th, 1889.

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, Coming.

We take pleasure in announcing the visit of Prof. Dorenwend, of the Paris Hair Works, Toronto, with his magnificent assortment of styles in Ladies' Bangs, Frontpieces (plain and wavy), Switches, Half Wigs, Full Wigs, Gents' Wigs, Toupees, etc. The Prof. is noted as the manufacturer of the best and most natural looking hair goods in America. Wherever he has visited the press is unanimous in praising the Prof. as an artist and an energetic business man This together with the fact that he has the largest and most magnificent establishment of the kind on the continent, will recommend him and his goods to the public, and we have no hesitation in saying that our readers and their friends cannot do better than invest in some of the Professor's goods as satisfaction is sure. He will have his show rooms at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd. See his advertisement in another column. dw

PROVINCIAL FINANCES.

Treasurer Hess Submits His Annual Statement to the Legislature.

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—The financial speech was delivered yesterday and the galleries of the House were well filled to hear it.

Mr. Hess stated that the receipts of the province for the year just closed were $3,987,-231. There were made up of: Subsidy and specific grant, $1,186,972; interest on capital held and on investments, $301,642; Crown lands, $1,424,464; Algoma lands, ($3,000) law stamps, $31,044; licenses, $283,395; education department, $5,317,374; public institutions, $102,827; casual revenue, $94,714; other sources, $82,272; "other sources," including Asylum land sales and new Parliament building fund, $65,219.

From Ottawa funds this amount estimated was $1,300,000, and the receipts $1,426,454, an excess of $26,454, the largest since Confederation. In the item of law stamps the estimate, $65,000, was exceeded by $35,044, and for licenses the amount estimated was $285,000, and the amount received was $283,395, an increase of $83,395. These are the principal items in which increased were noted, but many of the treasurer's estimates fell short. The total ordinary receipts estimated were $3,402,220, and the amount received was $3,402,044, an excess of $85,211.

The expenditure submitted for the civil government last year was $262,745, and this was exceeded by $2000. The estimate for legislation, $128,600, was exceeded by $30000 owing chiefly to an increase in stationery, printing and binding. The administration of justice, which was estimated at $328,670, over-ran $7575. The vote account expended was owing to litigation with the Dominion Government on the Indian Title case. It cost the Government $112,694 to fight this case and he thought the Dominion Government should re-imburse the Government for this.

The total expenditure estimated was $3,185,-894, and the actual expenditure was $3,007,-087, thus the expenditure less than voted was $178,797.

The total ordinary receipts were $3,480,-944.51, and the expenditure was $3,007,087.08, showing an excess of $473,857.79.

Then there were certain statutory expenditures, such as drainage debentures, railway certificates and expenditure on Parliament buildings, which swelled the total to $3,886,-248, and the total receipts were $3,847,421, showing an excess of receipts of $61,172. The Government have therefore, out of the receipts of the year, provided liberal grants. They have expended on the public buildings and other buildings $423,497; paid off railway and annuity and certificates $300,182.

Regarding the last subject with which Mr. Ross dealt, he calculated that by the action of the Dominion Government the Province would sustain a loss of some $900,000. He said in this connection: I am sure I express the feeling of the people of Ontario when I say I would not accept our claim upon such conditions. Now, Mr. Speaker, my justification for reference to this question at such length is that it is a serious question for Ontario. It involves a difference of nearly a million dollars to the Province. The difference according to the new accounts submitted, as they make them up on their plan of 5 per cent., simple interest, shows a loss to the Province of $857,-000 as compared with the accounts as formerly. He had previously informed the House that the treasurers contended that the effects of the Acts of 1873 and 1884 was to cancel the surplus debt of $10,506,093 with which Ontario and Quebec had under the British North America Act entered the Dominion and upon which the Province had been charged interest; in other words they (the Province) contended that the Dominion by these acts assumed that surplus debt as at the date of Confederation. The Act of 1873 assumed the principal; the Act of 1884 gave us the interest.

Ontario and Quebec do not ask this as a grant or a favor. We claim it as a right due to us by the Dominion, including the other Provinces, for which they have received full value. They have had the use of our money for 20 years. All we claim is that for the use of that money interest at 5 per cent. shall be added yearly to the balance at our credit, bearing interest. The agreement of 1869, which gave to the Province that which they considered their right, should be adhered to, and said Mr. Ross Ontario will never consent to this injustice. She has right, justice and equity in demanding that the agreement of 1869 should be carried out in good faith, and I very much misjudge the people of Ontario if they do not unanimously, irrespective of party, insist on its fulfilment.

Mr. H. E. Clarke moved the adjournment of the debate, and was followed by A. M. Ross, Mr. Awrey and Mr. Craig. The latter gentleman sharply criticised the speech of the Treasurer.

MONEY Probably not one business man in a thousand who has made a close study of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial in business to have a large circulation in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are hundreds of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county readers and if they knew that they could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large circulation. To such THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER comes as welcome and sure benefactors. They are papers of the Midland District for merchants to advertise in and penetrate into every corner of the town and county. Advertising rates are such as will secure the continuance of business relations with any advertiser after once started. We shall be pleased to give figures for advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER, and send sample copy on application. All letters of inquiry promptly attended to. Address J. R. STRATTON, Publisher and Proprietor, No. 420 George street, Peterboro.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Buttressed by Gold—Alex Wright the Stand for the Crown To-day.

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—At a meeting of the Hardware and Steelmers' Association of Ontario held here yesterday a committee was appointed to request the Government to change the regulation which collects duty on reviews and magazines coming into the country which are admitted free when addressed to individual subscribers. The usual committee were also elected to protect against the publicity which has been introduced to the Government granting for the abolition of the duty on books for free public libraries.

The third round of matches for the Ontario Junkard was played yesterday evening, the Rosedale Cricketers beating Bright, 49 to 31, and Galt defeating the Hamilton Thistles, 46 to 3. The final was played on the Victorians and resulted in a victory for Galt by 29 shots.

There is war among the bakers over the price of bread. Two weeks ago a dealer in Queen west reduced the figure of the 4-lb. loaf to 13c. from 14c. This was followed by a wholesale reduction all over the city to 12c. for 4-lb. loaves. The result is that [illegible] and the price has been restored to 13c., but he said yesterday that he would sell at 12c. and make a profit, and if he was prosecuted beyond doubt some would get out an injunction against his prosecutors.

The marriage of Mr. George G. S. Announcement of the Terms of the Contract With Shaughnessy.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—There has been a complete modification of the agreement with the Northern Pacific and Manitoba road. All the contentions of the Opposition are admitted with the exception of making the road a free highway to all.

The company take over the whole system and receive cash bonuses instead of 25-year bonds.

The total liability of the province is $668,000 instead of $1,600,000 as under the original contracts.

The whole system is to be completed this year and the company pay $720,000 for the completed portion of the Red River Valley road [illegible].

A Mysterious City Injunction.

HAMILTON, Feb. 14.—Hamilton Powers, the Halifax sailor who was arrested in Toronto the other day for looking upon the spring when it was grassy, was taken to the asylum here to-day for a little misapprehension of his capacity. When searched by the constable, he was found on him, containing $23.40, nearly all in small silver. He remarked that he always carried his money in gold or silver because he might die in some out-of-the-way place, and in such a case his paper money would all rot and nobody would get the good of it.

Dio Hall, the well-known horseman, is not a vicious looking man, yet he was charged at the police court to-day with threatening George C. Thomson, a young lawyer. Thomson swore that Hall came into his office and demanded the boy of a house which he had been sold under a mortgage. The demand was not complied with, and the doctor said he would have the complainant and several other persons arrested for conspiracy, and threatened to shoot him. The magistrate bound Hall over to keep the peace in $100 and two sureties of $50 each.

Frank Alex, George Dennis and Matthew Ryan, the young men who were arrested several days ago on a charge of having stolen a carpenter's square belonging to John Cummings, were acquitted this morning.

Montreal Board of Trade Officers.

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the Montreal Board of Trade to-day the scrutineers reported the result of the election of officers as follows: President, Jos. P. Cleghorn; first vice-president, Ald. Grenier; second vice-president, Robert Archer; treasurer, Peter Lyall; Council—[illegible] Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, Q.C., Hon. Thos. Ryan, Hon. J. R. Thibaudeau, H. Montague, Allan Jonathan Hodgson, Hon. J. A. Ward, W. Weldenright and E. B. Greenshields.

The Composite Bar Patent Case.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Arguments were begun this morning in the United States Circuit Court on the suit brought by the Bullock Sales One Company, for a perpetual injunction restraining the Western Electric Company from infringing on the Pullman Company's patents in connection with the manufacture and operation of typewriters upon which Judge Gresham and Blodgett are hearing the case.

The Simmons Conference.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—It is said at the State Department that as there is not the slightest foundation for the report of the Republican Secretary Bayard is embarrassed by the [illegible] Simmons conference, disposed to let Samoan policy, it is not at all likely that the present Administration will struggle to [illegible] the selection of the American representative at the proposed conference at Berlin, or that it will take any action which might tend to compel the next Administration to [illegible]

Words Wedded to Song.

Mr. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan are understood to "get on" with one another very pleasantly, but, generally speaking, there is no more vehement animosity than is engendered between the man who writes the song and the man who sets it to music. Each of them calls it his song and ascribes its popularity solely to his part in its production. But it is certainly the fact that not even Lord Tennyson's verse is half so valuable in current coin as a ballad of the music hall that has caught the ear of the public. It is not until music is "wedded to immortal verse" that verse, in most cases, becomes immortal, or at least fetches any extraordinary price in the market. Only the other day the damages claimed for singing a ditty of which somebody held the copyright were no less than £700. What poet ever received the tenth of such a sum for the words themselves? What is very curious and shows how we stick to old saws, "thoroughly worn out, the souls of them fumed forth, the hearts of them torn out," is that we still use the term, "sold for a song," as an expression for cheapness.—London Independent.

Thought Her Papa Was Perfection.

The precocity and cute sayings of children are frequently a source of great amusement. When T. P. Shonts, the general manager of the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa railway, was at the Palmer house a day or two ago he received a letter from home, and a certain portion of it he read to Frank Brobst, the clerk of the hotel. This portion was about Mr. Shonts' little 3-year-old daughter Marguerite. The mother wrote that upon getting the child ready for bed the usual form of saying a prayer was undergone. Marguerite had got through all right with the "God bless Marguerite and make her a good girl; God bless mamma and make her good so she won't spank Marguerite; God bless papa and make"— When she had got thus far she stopped, hesitated a moment, then getting off her knees said very solemnly to her mother: "I des it ain't worth while astin Dod to make my papa a dood man; he's dest about as dood as he tan be now. Er ain't no use in boddering Dod, is er, mamma?"—Chicago Herald.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Addresses will be delivered by Inspector Tilley, Rev. J. McEwen and Mr. W. S. Ellis, M. A., on different educational subjects. Thursday evening Inspector Tilley will address a public meeting on the subject of "Success in Life," with special reference to young men.

A Coming Debate.

It is probable another debate between the Young Men's Christian Associations of Peterborough and Lindsay will be held Thursday evening next in the Charlotte street Methodist church. The Lindsay men preferred to come to Peterborough, and the above date has been named. If the Lindsay debaters' oratorical powers are equal to their squealing capacity, and are exercised as earnestly they will down our debaters without any trouble.

A rink of junior curlers went from Peterborough to Lindsay to-day.

Some time ago the cricketer's rink challenged any other rink of cricketers in the club to a match for a barrel of flour to be given the Home. They are anxious to hear from their opponents.

The River Spur.

The upper gap on the river spur has been completed, and to-day track is being laid on the last section of embankment which terminates at the foot of Mr. Dawson's lot on Hunter street. In order to save as much room as possible on the roadway to the river alongside the woollen mill, it is quite likely the remainder of the distance from the dump to Hunter street, or at least part of it, will be finished in trestle work. This will avoid all loss of space that would attend the spreading of an embankment.

Labor Notes.

The workingmen will hold another meeting Monday night to discuss the nine-hour system.

The Empire's Ottawa correspondent says:

—Mr. R. R. Elliott, chairman of the K. of L. Legislative Committee, has been working very energetically since the opening of the House in the interests of the working classes. He has interviewed the Ministers and a large number of the members and appears to be quite confident that legislation will be secured this session in at least some of the directions asked for.

The Firemen's Hop.

Over fifty couples attended the firemen's assembly in the parlor roller rink last night. The hall had been nicely decorated and everything passed off pleasantly. Doucet's orchestra supplied the music and Mr. Wm. Snowden as elegant oyster supper. Mr. Sid. Martin was floor director. The committee in charge of the affair were Chief Rutherford, Capt. Craig, Secretary J. Yelland, and Messrs. A. Metherall, W. Metherall, A. Moore and A. Jones. The ball was a decided success, and the firemen are to be congratulated.

Mr. Crossley's Hell.

The Detroit News Says:—Revivalist Crossley made to the sinners who crowded the Tabernacle M. E. church last night the pleasing announcement that there was no real lake of fire and brimstone in hell. The reverend gentleman did not back up this assertion with any conclusive evidence, however. He evolved it from his inner consciousness, feeling sure if God had provided a real burning lake for sinners, he would be worse than the devil. Mr. Crossley was positive, nevertheless, that while fire and brimstone was only figurative language, yet in reality hell was a place in which the wicked really suffered more torment than in a burning lake.

Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Grand Recorder Carder, of St. Thomas, has prepared his annual report to be presented at the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge in Toronto on the 20th inst. It shows that $222,757 were received during the year in beneficiaries, and $222,000 paid out for 111 deaths. The receipts from other sources were $19,127, and $6,800 was collected for Supreme Court on call No. 8, making the total receipts $249,000. The expenses besides the death benefits were $12,252, and the per capita tax to the Supreme Lodge, $1,400, leaving a balance in the general fund January 1st last of $12,827. The membership on Dec. 31st last was 16,093 in good standing, and 487 certificates suspended. The net increase is 2,067. There are 2,089 certificates in force, representing insurance on thirty-two millions. Two thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine new members were received during the year, and 21 lodges organized, three of which were in Quebec. Out of the 111 deaths, the average age of members was 43 years 5 months, and the average duration of membership 4 years and 11 months. Since Ontario was set apart under a separate jurisdiction, the average rate per year for $2,000 insurance was $13.77.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company.

[Highly Satisfactory Reports of the Years Business—Proceedings of the Annual Meeting—Election of Directors, Etc.]

The eleventh annual meeting of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company was held at the company's office, 427 George street, Peterborough, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 14th, at 3 p.m.

Mr. Richard Hall, President, occupied the chair.

After the usual routine business had been disposed of, the President read the Director's Report and Financial Statement as follows:—

ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT

Of the Directors of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, (Limited), for the year ending 31st December, 1888.

The Directors herewith submit to the Shareholders the eleventh annual report of the business of the company for the year ending 31st December, 1888, with the balance sheet as at that date, and Auditors' certificate appended.

The interest earnings for the year amounted to $63,707.33. This enabled the Directors, after providing for the interest on debentures, and the payment of all expenses of management, including the full commission and expense on the sale and renewal of debentures, to declare two half-yearly dividends, amounting to $17,373, to transfer $6,619.14 to contingent account, which now stands at $10,000, and to carry forward $1,989.40 to the credit of profit and loss account.

The total assets now amount to $1,278,490.69. The amount invested during the year was $206,135.00, and the amount repaid, including interest, was $200,664.41. This large repayment of loans indicates the success that has attended the efforts of the Directors to collect some of the older and less desirable mortgages, and replace them by new loans.

The sterling debentures of the company were sold, or renewed, during the year to the amount of $192,335.00, at a much lower rate of interest than they originally carried, and new debentures are now being issued at the reduced rate, which will materially improve the earnings of the company in future years.

Respectfully submitted.

RICHARD HALL, President.

We hereby certify that we have carefully audited the books and accounts of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, for the year ending 31st of December, 1888. The postings and balances of the Company's ledgers have been examined, and we find the whole correct, and in accordance with the above statements. We have also inspected the mortgages and other securities, and find the aggregate thereof agrees with the amount under the head of "Investments."

EDG. SAMEE, } Auditors.
JAS. A. HALL, }

Peterborough, 12th February, 1889.

The PRESIDENT in moving the adoption of the report said:—I have more than ordinary pleasure in moving the adoption of the report and statement of accounts now in the hands of the shareholders, because I believe that the financial position of the Company is upon a more solid and satisfactory basis to-day than it has been on any previous occasion in the history of the institution. It is not unknown to our shareholders that many of the loans in the early history of the Company were made when the value of farming lands as compared with the present values were largely inflated. It, has therefore, been the duty of the directors for the last two years to give a great deal of attention to the collection of the older and less desirable mortgages, and replacing the money in new loans based upon values less inflated. The success that has been accomplished in this direction as shown by the repayment of no less than $300,000 during the past year, clearly indicates the improved position of the Company, and the more encouraging outlook for the future. I beg to move the adoption of the report.

Mr. Cox, Vice-President, in seconding the motion, said:—I am glad to have an opportunity to second the motion for the adoption of the report. In addition to what has already been said by the President in moving its adoption, it will be observed by reference to the report, that in another important feature the position and earning power of the Company are very much improved by the reduced rate of interest at which the sterling debentures of the Company have been sold and renewed during the past year, the important bearing of this fact upon the net results of this business will be better understood when it is remembered that no deposits are received by this company, and that apart from the paid up Capital of the shareholders, all the money loaned is borrowed in Scotland upon the debentures of the company and now amounts to no less than $870,000 the more favourable terms upon which this is being obtained is cause for congratulation and places the shareholders under renewed obligation to Messrs. Finlayson and Auld, chief agents of the company in Great Britain.

The motion for the adoption of the report was unanimously carried.

Messrs. E. Pearce, County Treasurer, and Jas. A. Hall, Sheriff, were re-appointed Auditors for 1889.

Dr. Fife and Mr. W. H. Moore were appointed scrutineers of ballots, and reported the following gentlemen elected Directors for the current year:—Messrs. Richard Hall, John Barnham, ex-M.P., William Clurton, T. G. Hazlitt, William Walsh, Geo. A. Cox, Robert Jaffray, H. J. LeFevre, Chas McGill, J. R. Dundas, ex-M.P.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT.—Mr. Richard Hall.

VICE-PRESIDENT.—Mr. Geo. A. Cox.

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE.—Messrs. Clurton, Barnham, Walsh, McGill, the President and Vice-President.

—Non-resident pupils of the Norwood High School have to pay now a fee of $3.00 per term.

Charlotte Street Sunday School.

Annual Meeting—A Good Surplus on Hand—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Charlotte street Methodist Sunday school was held last night. There was a large attendance of the teachers and officers, over whom the pastor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, presided.

The first business was the presenting of a financial statement, showing the receipts and expenditures during 1888. The receipts were:—Cash on hand, Dec. 31st, 1887, $21.49; Sunday collections, $116.27; proceeds of anniversary, $80.52; proceeds of picnic, $37.25; total, $255.54. All of this amount but $42.05 which was the balance in hand 31st December, 1888, was expended on school supplies, etc. The amount at present in the treasury was $179.87, including the balance from last year of $42.05, collections in 1888 to date $11.62, and proceeds of the anniversary $126.20.

A verbal report of the library was presented, showing the number of books to be 505. The purchase of a new library was discussed, and a committee was appointed to procure about 500 new books in exchange for the old ones on the most suitable terms.

The officers were elected as follows:

SUPERINTENDENT.—O. C. Rowse.

ASST.-SUPT.—A. Tebb.

SEC.-TREAS.—W. G. Morrow.

LIBRARIANS.—W. Hamilton and R. Gillespie.

PIANIST.—Mrs. Davis.

Some twenty-six teachers were appointed, and Mr. A. Tebb was selected to assist Rev. S. J. Shorey in the leadership of the teachers' Bible class.

Personal.

Prof. Doucet is announced to appear at a concert in Norwood to-night, giving a classical violin solo.

Mr. W. E. Roxburgh has been appointed chairman, and Mr. W. H. Stephenson, secretary-treasurer, of the Norwood School Board for the current year.

Mr. Dexter Dawe, of the Review office, leaves with his family for New York city this evening. Mr. Dawe is an advanced printer and will no doubt make his mark among the fraternity in the modern Gotham. We wish him success.

Improving the Stock.

The horsemen of this country are evidently doing their best to improve the stock of this district. The "Lowlands" farm with its fine stud of Clydesdales meets the requirements of those practical of tendencies who fancy heavy draught horses, while the latest importation of Mr. Jos. Baptie, of Springville, a beautiful Hambletonian stallion with a record of 2.23¼, purchased in New York State, will add considerably to the speeding stock of this county. It takes all breeds of horseflesh to form a class of stock that will meet every demand.

A Cricketer Captured.

Mr. G. G. S. Lindsay, well known in town especially in cricketing circles, had his innings as a good jolly all-round member of the bachelors' "eleven" brought to a close yesterday. He was clean bowled by Hymen, with a swift "round arm," with a big break from the "off." He was united in marriage to Miss Cora Bethune, a daughter of the late James Bethune, Q.C., Toronto.

Christmas Trees in England.

It is stated that the prince consort first introduced Christmas trees into England, but this is quite a mistake, for they had been established for many years when the prince came to this country. They were originally brought into fashion by the Princess Lieven, through whom George IV was induced to have one every year at the pavilion. Mr. Charles Greville was pleasantly struck by the novelty when he was staying with Lord and Lady Cowper at Panshanger, at Christmas, 1839, and there also Mme. de Lieven got up and superintended the fete.—London Truth.

Barbarity and Common Sense.

The nations which still eat with the fingers defend the practice on the ground of cleanliness. A Malay gentleman regards the use of a fork much as we should think of the use of a borrowed toothpick. He is troubled by the reflection that it has been in other mouths and that some lazy servant may have neglected to wash it properly. The care of his fingers are in his own charge, and he knows that they are clean and that they have never been in any one's else mouth.—Popular Science Monthly.

A Queer Find.

A crew of men working on a road which is being built across the bar at Otter creek, Mount Desert Island, Me., discovered a hake in the sand, which had been washed ashore in a storm. One of the men, Peter Connell, picked up the fish and threw it against the wheel of a cart. Something being seen to fall from its mouth one of the men picked it up. It proved to be two dainty silver horseshoes pinned together, and a gold nail through the center. The finder has the curiosity in his possession.—Lewiston Journal.

Siamese Slave Hunting.

The Siam Mercantile Gazette says that in addition to the existence in that country of debt slavery, "slave hunting is in some provinces a part of Siamese national sport, differing only in degree from the 'black ivory' trade of the dark continent."

A cat crawled into the muzzle of a loaded cannon in the British barracks at Cape Colony a short time ago. When the evening salute was fired she was thrown a distance of 200 feet, but, strange to say, lived for two hours after her involuntary flight.

The simplest way to fumigate a room is to heat an iron shovel very hot and then pour vinegar upon it, drop by drop. The steam arising from this is a disinfectant. Doors or windows should be opened that it may escape.

A Norwich (Conn.) minister announced from the pulpit on a Sunday that he would give $1.50 if the young men in the gallery would take seats down stairs. They did so and the money was paid.

Hunting for His Wife.

Many of our people see a gray haired and bearded old gentleman walking around the streets with a sadness about his countenance which, though, can only be detected after close observation, for as soon as he sees you a smile lights up his countenance in token of recognition. He is a German and a musician, and is seen every night at the opera house when there is an entertainment there. His name is Professor Ressler. He came to this country some sixteen years ago from Germany to make his home here, leaving his wife behind until he could get settled, when he would send for her. Having secured the desired end, a letter was dispatched home telling his wife of his success and bidding her to come. It is said that she sailed from her native home with a glad heart, in anticipation of meeting with her husband after an absence of two years. Every vessel that came over was eagerly looked after, the newspapers were scanned for intelligence of her arrival, but nothing could be heard of her. The ship on which it is said she sailed arrived in Baltimore and the wife landed there. The professor with a joyous heart went there, but lo! no trace of her could be found, and the days, weeks and months until fourteen years have passed without his knowing of her whereabouts. From city to city has he gone in the search. His head was black then, now it is white, but there is a tenderness in his face mixed with sorrow, and a cankering in his heart, but he goes on and on, with the hope of finally meeting his long lost wife.—Athens (Ga.) Chronicle.

How Celluloid Is Manufactured.

While everybody has heard of, or seen, or used celluloid, only a few know what it is composed of or how it is made. The following is a description of the process carried out in a factory near Paris for the production of celluloid:

A roll of paper is slowly unwound, and at the same time saturated with a mixture of five parts of sulphuric acid and two parts of nitric acid, which falls upon the paper in fine spray. This changes the cellulose of the paper into prexylin gun cotton. The excess of the acid having been expelled by pressure, the paper is washed with plenty of water until all traces of acid have been removed. It is then reduced to a pulp, and passes on to the bleaching trough.

Most of the water having been got rid of by means of a strainer, the pulp is mixed with from 20 to 40 per cent. of its weight in camphor, and the mixture thoroughly triturated under millstones. The necessary coloring having been added in the form of powder, a second mixing and grinding follows.

The finely divided pulp is then spread out in thin layers on slabs, and from twenty to twenty-five of these layers are placed in a hydraulic press, separated from one another by some sheets of thick blotting paper, and are subjected to a pressure of 150 atmospheres, until all traces of moisture have been got rid of. The matter is then passed between rollers heated to between 140 and 150 degs. Fahrenheit, whence it issues in the form of elastic sheets.—The Inventor.

The "Sentence System."

Charles Dickens, while visiting the Massachusetts school ship, was called upon for a "speech." He responded by saying, "Boys, do all the good you can and make no fuss about it."

Mr. Dickens, as his novels attest, believed in the beneficial effect of a pithy saying and a striking proverb—pointed words which would fasten themselves in the memory. The conductors of the "Netherlands Mettray," one of the model reform schools of Holland, use this "sentence system" as a means of moral education. They hang on the walls such sentences as these:

"He who seeks himself will not find God;" "A poor man he who has nothing but money;" "He is a fool who lives poor to die rich;" "Labor has a golden bottom;" "Care for the moments, and these will care for the years."

Sometimes a boy is made to learn a sentence by heart. One boy was overheard using foul speech to a comrade. He was ordered to read to the boys every morning for eight days this sentence, "It is better to be dumb than to use the tongue for filthy talk." It made him clean in speech.—Youth's Companion.

WINTER

Is the season of the year when colder weather sharpens the appetite, and hearties and more invigorating food is necessary to maintain the heat of the body and to repair the waste of the tissues, which goes on more rapidly during the cold weather and under increased activity. We leave the cooler salads and fruits that refreshed us during the summer months and take in their place steaks and chops, smoking hot, and the steaming oatmeal and graham cakes and coffee.

At this time of the year sausages, pork, ham, mackerel and other salt fish, form desirable breakfast dishes; and porridge, omelettes, oatmeal, wheaten cakes and a variety of cereals help make the repast a most delicious one.

We can now show you over 200 Patterns of New Prints, and to say the least about them they are Just Lovely! They consist of Chocolate Grounds, with Cardinal Cream, White and Navy Sprays, Spots and Stripes, Navy Check, and several lines of Small Patterns suitable for children. Also a range of Dutch Prints in Navy and White Navy and Orange and Navy and Green, every piece of which we guarantee to wash well.

We now show all the new Patterns in Cottonades, Tickings, Denims, and Shirtings. Owing to the recent brisk advance in the wholesale market in these goods, customers will do well to lay in a Stock at once before the advance is felt in the retail trade.

Last week we received a Large shipment of Corsets, and have now all the sizes in all the best makes manufactured in Canada. The Yatisi, Coraline and Agave are among most popular makes. We are now introducing a new French Corset, which is very popular. Ask to be shown them.

Several lines of new Lace Curtains arrived last week. It is almost too soon to begin to talk about them but we commence them this season at 50c. a pair.

Our Canadian Tweeds are arriving—several lines are considered special value, especially our 35c. Tweed for Boys, and our 50, 60, and 75c. for Men. Every suit our tailor makes we guarantee a perfect fit or no sale.

Our White and Grey Cottons, Grass Linens and Tablings, are always right. If you have not seen them, come and buy a trial parcel. We are satisfied you will call again.

SHAVING
PRICES

That's what we are doing now. 'Tis a close shave too. In fact, it is a cut to the roots. Everything in the GOLDEN LION has been reduced. On a great many Lines cost has been sacrificed, and on some do we seek to secure more than we have paid.

The reason for this sacrifice of profits is plain. Owing to the weather Winter Goods have not sold to the extent contemplated. Hence, if we can transfer our Stocks into cash, and do it quickly, we will escape a big loss. To do it quickly, and thus make the expenses of sale light, we must make an extraordinary sacrifice in prices—offer our patrons and the public greater inducement for buying than they ever found before. This is plain. That we have done this we are positive. That the public realize that we have done this is evident by the business we have done during the past month. We expect each department to continue crowded and Bargains to be snapped up with an avidity pleasant to behold.

This is a good time to purchase Warm Underclothing, Blankets, Flannels, and other Woollen Goods.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE HOUSE HAS A LONG SESSION IN SUPPLY.

The Annual Report of the Department of Agriculture—Census of the Dominion Federationists—Gleaned from the Capital.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The House was in Committee of Supply for nearly seven hours yesterday and it was 11.30 before adjournment took place. Under the head of departmental contingencies the Opposition made a vigorous criticism of the various items. The House was comparatively empty at the evening session. Speaker Allen and the Minister of the Interior were giving dinner parties and consequently there were only a few to take part in the criticisms. The attack was led by Mr. Patterson of Brant, Mr. Somerville of Brant, Mr. Lister of Lambton, Mr. McMullen of Wellington, Mr. Davies of Prince Edward Island, Sir Richard Cartwright and Dr. Wilson of Elgin.

Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was kept busy at the afternoon session in proving that he ran his department as well and as cheaply as did Peter Mitchell when that gentleman was at the head of the navy and the fish ponds of the country. Mr. Mitchell would not have it that way, and he gave the young gentleman who now fills his shoes a great deal of cross-questioning.

Mr. Wallace of Halton took a hand in the talk and said that the fishery inspector along the water front of his county paid more attention to trying to defeat him (Mr. Wallace) than attending to his duties.

The skirmish in the evening was quite lively. The travelling expenses of ministers and Government officials together with sub fares at the Capital was discussed for nearly three hours. Mr. Lister and Mr. Casey said it was generally understood that every member of the Cabinet had passes on all the railroads in Canada, and there was an insinuation thrown out that some of the ministers traveled on passes and charged the amount of fares to their department expenses.

Sir John Macdonald was to this time, listening quietly to the criticisms that were hurled across the floor. But when this remark fell on his ear he said that the whole thing was false and unworthy of a member of Parliament.

Mr. Lister said a good deal about the free pass business and he added that there was much money that was charged to ministerial expenses that he really believed was expended in other ways.

Dr. Wilson wanted to know how the Minister of Militia disposed of the $1500 charged to that gentleman for personal expenses during the past year.

Sir Adolphe said it was every cent of it used for expenses in connection with his department. He refused further explanation but said the items had been furnished the Auditor-General.

The Minister of Customs was complimented as being the most economical member as to personal expenses of the Cabinet.

Speaking of sums paid for cab hire by the Premier, Sir John said he was too poor to own horses and a carriage, he was too old to walk to Earnscliffe, and as long as he was in the office he supposed the items would be charged. The Premier maintained that these contingencies were voted by Parliament, and his government were in the habit of expending them. He did not think they were improperly expended.

Notwithstanding the vigorous criticism offered by the Opposition the House is making good progress with the estimates and the various items for civil Government have all been passed.

The number of persons who went to Manitoba and the Northwest in 1888 was 40,927, and the total number of settlers was 32,604.

The chief feature in the immigration arrangements during the year 1883 was the discontinuance of the assisted passage system on April 30 last, the date of the termination of the agreements with the steamship companies by their terms. The agreements with the steamship companies for granting assisted passages commenced in 1872 and were continued with trifling interruption until April last. The discontinuance of the system was determined on after a careful consideration of the changed conditions of immigration, and particularly in respect to the competition to promote it as between the years 1872 and 1883.

The demand to obtain immigrants from the United Kingdom and from the German and Scandinavian people of Europe by the United States was very much more decided sixteen years ago than at present and it was then considered necessary, in view of the kind of representation made in relation to the advantages of the United States and Canada respectively as fields for immigration, and also on purposes ultimate and routes, to make a cheap differential rate in favor of the St. Lawrence and the ports of the Maritime Provinces. It is found that on consequence of changed conditions during the period mentioned nothing of this kind is now necessary.

The value of the personal effects of immigrants entered at the customs house as settlers'

FRAUDS ON FARMERS.

The Grapevine Schemes in the Niagara District—Witness Committees Committed.

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—Mr. Brown's frauds on farmers committee held its first session this morning in the room of the fisheries frauds on the grapevine frauds in the Niagara district. Four witnesses from the vicinity of Hamilton were examined. They were: G. W. Olive, Wm. Orr, C. J. Carpenter, T. H. B. Carpenter.

The evidence went to show that five years ago a new grape was introduced by the Niagara Company. The vines were sold at 75 cents apiece on planting, the purchaser to pay $5 more each when they began to bear. The purchasers were promised by the company that they would not sell any more of that brand till 1892. This promise was an alleged one only afterwards broken. The vines were also guaranteed to stand the winter. This they were stated not to have done satisfactorily. In certain cases crops were not obtained till last year. It was also shown that the agreements signed by the purchasers amounted in fact to mortgages on their farms. Subsequently the name of the firm was changed to the Niagara White Grape Company. When the purchasers complained of the agreement not being kept the company would not recognize the agreement. They are now suing the witnesses.

The House committees appointed this morning and selected chairmen as follows:

Banking and Commerce—Mr. Hall.
Agriculture and Colonization—Peter White.
Privileges and elections—Mr. Girouard.
Railways and Canals—Mr. Hector Langevin.
Private Bills—Mr. Irvine.
Standing laws—Mr. Masson.

AN OPENING FOR RAILWAY MEN.

Queensland Wants Two Commissioners—Notices From The Gazette.

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—A. R. Creelman of Toronto applies for the incorporation of the Scott Safety Car Company of Canada (Limited), with headquarters at Toronto. The capital stock is $200,000 in $100 shares. The applicants are Adolphe Mathieu, C. W. Mossinberg, S. M. Fisher, Ottawa; Richard B. Angus, Montreal; E. B. Osler, Toronto. The objects of the company are the manufacture, use, sale and leasing of improved stock cars and apparatus for feeding, watering and loading cattle on cars, etc. The Port Huron Bridge Company, $50,000 stock, applies for incorporation.

Here's a daisy "tit" for railway men to be advertised in The Canada Gazette to-morrow. The Government of Queensland want a chief commissioner absolute and a commissioner for the management of Government roads of the colony. Their duties will consist of the construction of authorized lines, maintenance, inspection, attention to repairs, etc. The ability required is of a very high order. The salary of the chief commissioner shall be £2000 and the other commissioner £1500. The Minister of Railways of Canada will receive applications up till March 8. These applications will be sent to the Agent-General of Queensland.

The Labrador Navigation Company, head quarters at Wallaceville, Que., ask for incorporation, capital stock $200,000.

The return of C. W. Colter, M.P. for Haldimand, will be gazetted to-morrow.

An order-in-Council has been passed providing that licenses to foreign applicants for salmon fishing in British Columbia shall continue to be issued to those approved of by the inspector and the department.

The Columbia River Lumber Company (limited), with a capital stock of $30,000 in $100 shares, applies for incorporation. The chief place of business is Toronto and the applicants are: J. Ross Robertson, Que.; Wm. McKenzie, Kirkfield; Donald Bowie, Beaver, B.C.; Neal Kingsmill, A. J. Anderson, Toronto.

Capital Chat.

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—The debate on Sir Richard Cartwright's treaty resolution will begin on Monday, and it is expected will last for several days.

It is believed in well-informed circles that the petition for the pardon of Wm. Myle will prove successful.

The condition of Hon. J. H. Pope still remains very critical, and his recovery is doubtful.

The Imperial Federationists in Parliament held a meeting to-day to consider the line of action to be pursued in the House this session. Sir Adams Archibald was in the chair. Those present were Messrs. McCarthy, Bryson, Denison, Chisholm, Carpenter, Hudspeth Laurier, McDougall, McKenzie, Masson, Mills of Nova Scotia, Brien, Shanly, Steven son, Tyrwhitt, Bechale, Ward, Wood of Westmoreland. There was considerable discussion, but no definite decision was arrived at. A committee was appointed to make reports.

Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, Feb. 15.—Word was received here this morning that William Dundas who formerly worked in M. Brennan & Son's planing mills, was instantly killed in a logging camp near Washburn, Wis., last week by a tree falling on him. Dundas' mother, Mrs. Fulton, lives in this city.

R. T. Wright, while coasting in Concession-street last night, was upset and struck by one of the runners of another bob which was following close behind. His face was cut from the temple to the chin. Thirty-two stitches were put into it.

P. H. Beatty was charged at the Police Court this morning with neglecting to support his wife and children. The wife told a sad story of neglect and the case was adjourned until Monday.

A ROMANTIC HISTORY.

How a Poor Girl, Who Was Deserted When a Child, Became Rich.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 15.—A poor family of this vicinity has just fallen heir to $40,000. The story reads like a romance. In 1870 a girl baby was left at the home of Peter Gahlde, a shoemaker, for adoption by a beautiful girl of sixteen and an old man. They refused to give any reasons for deserting the child, and have not been heard from since. The baby grew up here and worked in the city with several respectable families as nurse. In 1887 she married Fred Moore, a farm hand, and they now live in Texas township on $15 a month. On Wednesday a Pinkerton detective arrived in this city in search of the girl, and on Thursday found her. His story is that her erring father died recently in Kansas, leaving $40,000 to her, which she will soon receive. The will set forth the clews to be followed in finding the girl. Her mother is also still living and is reported to be worth $100,000.

Quebec R. R. Bonds Offered.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Railway Share Trust Agency Company invite subscriptions for $750,000 of 5 per cent. first mortgage bonds of the Quebec and Lake St. John railway. The issue price is 96, with interest guaranteed for ten years by the Province of Quebec, while the whole net earnings will be devoted to a fund to meet the interest for a further five years, said bonds which amount to £4100 per mile will be secured by first mortgage on the main line, 190 miles long, no further charge to be created except in subordination to the present issue.

PARIS, Feb. 15.—Three officials in the postoffice at Chartres were seriously injured by an explosion of dynamite in a letter box to-day.

Montreal's New Mayor.

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—The municipal nominations took place to-day. Ald. J. Grenier was returned by acclamation as mayor.

The Ladies on Wheels.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The score in the ladies' bicycle race at Madison Square Garden at 6 o'clock this evening was as follows: Stanley, 464 miles; Volk, 455; Simon, 433; Scanlon, 428; Odlum, 407; Lewis, 372; Baldwin, 366; Fox, 327; Wheeler, 322; Matthews, 273; Arcadia, 130; Hewitt, 128.

TUPPER ON ANNEXATION.

A SPEECH BY CANADA'S HIGH COMMISSIONER.

He Believes the Dominion Will Always Remain a British Colony—The Parnell Commission.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Sir Charles Tupper, at a banquet to-night, said that while desiring friendly communication with the United States he thought Canada would never seriously consider the question of annexation and that she would ever remain a British colony.

The Parnell Letters.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Mr. Parnell was present at to-day's session of the Parnell Commission. Mr. Soames offered in evidence a schedule of all the signatures of Mr. Parnell that he possessed. He said Parnell's writing varied considerably, and produced a letter in which Parnell's name was written in six ways. Justice Hannen ordered that the letter be photographed. Witness denied that he had heard that Pigott and the League clerk he interviewed in Ireland had a grievance against Parnell. Pigott, he said, had made a statutory declaration that Solicitor Lewis had offered him £1000 if he would swear that he had forged the letter said to have been written by Parnell. The Times paid Pigott £40 or £50. Witness had Pigott watched and traced him into the company of Mr. Labouchere. He paid Houston, secretary of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union, altogether £3000.

Soames said Pigott told of interviews he had with Solicitor Lewis and Labouchere. The latter sent Pigott several £10 notes. One of these was forwarded to Ireland and there re-directed to London. Witness produced a copy of the letter which accompanied it. It had never occurred to witness to ask Pigott how he acquired the letter, neither had he asked Houston.

Pigott showed witness a letter from Lewis accusing Pigott of having admitted he forged the letters and his reply, whereupon witness required that the statutory declaration be made in which Pigott detailed all the communications between himself and Lewis, including the offer of £1000 by Lewis on behalf of Labouchere if he would swear he forged the letters. This statement caused a sensation.

Soames said Pigott did not tell of the correspondence he had with Archbishop Walsh of Dublin regarding the letters. He never heard of the correspondence until he heard it mentioned in court last evening. Besides Inglis, Soames said The Times engaged Birch and Ellis as experts. He never promised Pigott sixpence but knew Pigott asked Houston for £5000 on the ground that it would be impossible for him to live in Dublin after giving evidence for The Times and that he wanted to make some provision for himself. Witness told him he could not listen to such a suggestion, but Pigott might rest satisfied that The Times would never see him ruined through his honestly testifying to all he knew.

Soames said a man calling himself Wilson wrote to him offering to give information. He recognized the writing as that of O'Brien, an emissary from Egan to Labouchere. The offer to furnish information was simply a "plant." He had O'Brien watched. At Labouchere's instance O'Brien was sent to Dublin to see Pigott. In Dublin O'Brien assumed the name of Sinclair. The man following O'Brien traced him to Labouchere's and Pigott's houses and then traced Pigott, Lewis and Parnell to Labouchere's residence. The witness knew O'Brien as a man known in America as Robertson. It was "Robertson" who deluded Detective Moser with letters which had since been admitted to be forgeries.

Kirby was paid £300 to go to America and procure from Sheridan the original Parnell letter a facsimile of which was published in The Times. Mr. Hurlburt saw this letter.

Soames was re-examined by Sir R. D. Webster. He said there was no bargain with The Times to purchase letters. If the Parnell letters were forgeries then the writing of the others signed with the names of Egan, Campbell, Davitt and O'Kelly of Tyrone must have been forged. The bodies of six disputed Parnell letters were in the writing of Campbell.

Willacott, an employe of The Central News, deposed that in an interview Irish Parnell on the appearance of the facsimile letter in 1887 Parnell called the letter an impudent forgery.

MacDonald, manager of The Times, deposed that in October, 1886, he got five Parnell and six Egan letters. He stipulated that their authenticity must be tested before payment of the price which Houston said he gave for them. When the other letters, those of O'Kelly and Davitt, were tested he paid Houston £1780, the sum represented as expended in gaining possession of the letters, Houston declining personal remuneration.

Upon cross-examination witness said he never asked how Houston got the letters. He had asked about the difference in the writing in the body of the letter and in the signature, and Houston said it was a practice of the leaders of the movement that one wrote the letter, another signed it and a third person addressed the envelope. Witness ascertained from other sources that this was an actual practice and that some letters were purposely left undated. Egan wrote whole letters himself. The bodies of the Parnell letters were all more or less written in a disguised hand except in one letter dated Kilmainham. The writing in the body of the facsimile letter is disguised but the signature of Parnell is not. Witness never heard that the letters were offered to other papers but had heard that the documents had been offered to Lord Hartington before they were offered to The Times. Houston produced no voucher for sums paid. Six months were occupied inquiring if the documents were bona fide. Witness was convinced that the letters were genuine and he thought that before the second reading of the Crimes Bill would be a fitting time to show the country the character of the men making themselves prominent in Irish affairs.

The commission here adjourned.

TREASURER SHEHYN MAKES HIS BUDGET SPEECH.

A Surplus of $373,000 in Receipts Over Expenditure Claimed—Next Year's Estimated Revenue and Expenditure at $4,200,000.

QUEBEC, Feb. 15.—In his Budget speech Treasurer Shehyn to-day claimed a surplus of $373,000 in receipts over expenditure. The floating debt consisted of $4,000,000 of undispated claims already due or maturing early. The Treasurer's statement showed nearly $750,000 realized over the estimates. After deducting the increase in interest the ordinary expenditure of the last fiscal year had remained about the same in all its items as in 1883, 1884 and 1887. For the intermediate years he claimed the then Government had cut down expenses in view of impending general elections. The excess of expenditure over receipts Dec. 31 was $1,893,000.

He estimated for next year's revenue $3,663,600, of which $66,000 was capital account and $3,400,000 ordinary revenue. He expected $1,250,000 from the Federal subsidy and interest on trust funds from the Federal Government.

Regarding the $80,000 from Ontario a interest on collections from the school fund he said, pursuant to the recent agreement, Ontario intended to pay into the hands of the Federal Government the capital of the amounts collected since Confederation

Unrestricted Reciprocity.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Will you give me space to refer to my letter in the EXAMINER the other day, which you were so good as to publish on Mr. Hallam's letter in yesterday's Globe, in connection with the wool trade. To quote from my letter:

I am not a "politician." My object in writing the letter was to lay the question before the farmers, for whose information it was written.

"It was announced in yesterday's EXAMINER that Mr. Stevenson, M.P., had shipped 50,000 pounds of wool to Boston, Massachusetts. Before this wool can pass the customs barrier or the imaginary line that separates the two countries, Mr. Stevenson must pay the American duty to the amount of $8,000.00, or ten cents per pound; or, I should have said, the farmers from whom Mr. Stevenson bought the wool, paid the duty when they received only 20 instead of 30 cents per pound. * * * * * * *

Mr. Hallam says.—"I beg to take exception to the statement in the paragraph that if Canada had Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States, our farmers would be getting 30c. instead of 20c. per lb. for their wool."

Let us see. Below I give an extract from a letter of one of the most respectable and extensive wool houses in the United States. Mr. Hallam is well acquainted with this firm and will not dispute what I say.

BOSTON, August 31st., 1887.

W. CLUXTON, Peterborough: With your request for a posting in regard to Canadian wool in mind, we now take pleasure in quoting 35½ cents as the price current here for Canada wools, duty paid, and would further say in this connection that these wools, when brought to our market, come into direct competition with Kentucky and Maine wools; and but for the heavy duty imposed upon your class of stock, we should be able to use a large quantity of it in this country to good advantage, inasmuch as the class of wool with, which it competes, is in somewhat limited supply in the States."

FENO BROS. & CHILDS.

When the above letter was written the price of wool in Canada was from 18c to 20c per lb.

(Telegrams dated 14th Feb, 1889.)

To FENO BROS. & CHILDS, Boston:—

Kindly telegraph price for Ontario washed fleece wool in Boston, duty paid.

W. CLUXTON.

To W. CLUXTON, Peterborough:—

Good bright combing wools worth to-day 33 to 35 cents.

FENO BROS. & CHILDS.

Mr. Hallam says:—"I admit if we had Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States, and had their tariff to submit to, that probably our wools would be a little higher now." I thank Mr. Hallam for this admission. If he had said 10 cents per pound more there would have been no necessity for troubling you with this letter. IF MR. STEVENSON COULD HAVE SENT HIS 50,000 POUNDS OF WOOL TO THE UNITED STATES FREE OF DUTY, HE WOULD HAVE MADE $5,000 MORE MONEY ON THE SHIPMENT.

Mr. Hallam says:—"Mr. Wood, of Salina, Mich., had sold his merino fleece unwashed, last year's clip, at 21 cents per pound. * * * Seeing that Mr. Wood's wool only realised 21 cents, what is Mr. CLUXTON'S statement in the Peterborough papers worth, that if we had Unrestricted Reciprocity our farmers would realise 30 cents for his wool instead of 20 cents?" Mr. Hallam knows that, in selling wools, buyers deduct one-third off the weight for unwashed wool, so that if Mr. Wood's had been washed the price would been 31 cents and not 21 cents per pound, as quoted.

The opponents of Unrestricted Reciprocity seem to desire to conceal the real facts from the public. If they treated facts fairly and told the whole truth instead of suppressing a part of it, they would find the subject a less attractive one for discussion, and would save the columns of the newspapers from being taken up with letters necessary to expose their partial presentation of their case.

Yours truly,
W. CLUXTON.

Peterborough, Feb. 15th., 1889.

P. S.—Since the above was written I have received the following letter:—

BOSTON, Feb. 14th.

To MR. CLUXTON, Esq., Peterborough, Ont:—

DEAR SIR,—Your telegram is at hand inquiring the value of Ontario washed fleeces, and we have replied as follows:—"Good bright combing wools worth to-day 33 to 35 cents," which we now confirm. This is a conservative value for the wools to-day, as the bright handsome long wools of good quality have sold as high as 37 to 38 cents recently. We think, however, these are extreme values given by parties who were very anxious for the wool. We think that average wools would bring easily 33 to 35 cents, and we should hope to get as high as 35 to 37 cents, if they are somewhat above the average.

FENO BROS. & CHILDS.

The Dominion Government Denounced.

The Legal Consequences of Smith Speak With no Uncertain Sound—The "Jesuits Estates Act" the Occasion.

A Smith correspondent writes to the EXAMINER as follows:—"At the last meeting of L. O. L. No. 178 the question of the grant of money to the Jesuits of Quebec was brought to the front, and after the act was ably and warmly denounced by a number of brethren as an outrage upon British soil and a direct menace to our constitution and blood bought liberties, it was moved and seconded.

That this L.O.L. utter its protest and declares its condemnation of the Dominion Government for not disallowing this cursed outrage, and that they are unworthy of the respect and support of any lover of civil and religious liberty and all true Britons.

The motion was carried unanimously with tremendous applause."

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, Coming.

We take pleasure in announcing the visit of Prof. Dorenwend, of the Paris Hair Works, Toronto, with his magnificent assortment of styles in Ladies' Bangs, Frontpieces (plain and wavy), Switches, Half Wigs, Full Wigs, Gents' Wigs, Toupees, etc. The Prof. is noted as the manufacturer of the best and most natural looking hair goods in America. Wherever he has visited the press is unanimous in praising the Prof. as an artist and an energetic business man. This together with the fact that he has the largest and most magnificent establishment of the kind on the continent, will recommend him and his goods to the public, and we have no hesitation in saying that our readers and their friends cannot do better than invest in some of the Professor's goods as satisfaction is sure. He will have his show rooms at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd. See his advertisement in another column. dw

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Bad Man Receives a Reception at the Central Prison.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—Henry Wilson received the last dose of his flogging at the Central Prison yesterday morning. Wilson was convicted on the last term of the Criminal Assizes Court of the crime of assault and attempted outrage upon Sylvia-old Rhoda Tidd, on the 30th day-road some three months ago. He was sentenced to receive two months' imprisonment, with the additional penalty of fifty lashes, twenty-five to be administered in the first month of his imprisonment and the other twenty-five on the release. He exhibited extreme nervousness when he was led up to the whipping rack and tied in the position for the punishment. He was in an almost fainting condition when his back was being bared by the prison officials and appeared scarcely able to stand alone. He is a small man, weighing about 125 pounds and stripped to the waist revealed a scrawny, bony back and shoulders that seemed but poorly calculated to stand the punishment. At the first lash he uttered one terrifying shriek, after which he bore his punishment in dogged silence. The prisoner is an American, 27 years of age, and is home from the effects of a big debauch. He asserts that this is the first time he has ever been in prison.

John Martin, the compositor in whose possession the detectives recovered a big bank haul of plunder on Monday last, was arraigned on three charges of larceny and committed for trial yesterday.

So far as ice for drinking purposes is concerned there is still grave danger of a famine in Toronto. The log was clear three days ago, but in frozen over spots to such an extent that less heating is at its best, but dealers say they must go to Lake Simcoe for next year's supply.

Mr. Justice Falconbridge gave his decision yesterday in the road Wheat swindle case, Dingle v. Gamble, tried before him at Woodstock, and previously reported. The gist of the judgment was that the plaintiff was a bona fide holder of the note obtained by the Ontario Grain and Seed Co., and had no notice of the fraudulent manner by which it was obtained. The captidity of the defendant Gamble caused him to sign the note, paying the fabulous price of $15 a bushel for the oats, which he intended to dispose of to his neighbors; that the whole thing was a swindle, and as the note in question had passed through several hands before it came into the possession of the plaintiff, and taking all the circumstances into account, defendant was entitled to no relief. Judgment was accordingly given for the plaintiff with costs. The defendants' remedy over against the Ontario Grain and Seed Company was not decided in the judgment.

In Farlinger v. Village of Morrisburg, Judge Street decided yesterday that the application to set aside a bylaw granting a bonus to a paper factory in that thriving burg must be dismissed with costs.

He Has Had Some Trouble.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—For a year or two past William Greterie, living at Cote St. Antoine, has been carrying on what was known as a black goods store on Notre Dame-street. He, however, departed the other day and Mr. Feodor Boas, of McGill-street, was [illegible] to the concern. Yesterday a good deal of surprise was manifested amongst the members of the trade on learning of Greterie's arrest on a capias at Mr. Boas' instance, charging the former with the [illegible] property to the value of $27,176.08. It may also be stated that while the int[illegible] were in the high sheriff's office subsequent to the arrest, Mr. J. N. Greenshields, advocate, acting for Boas, had a warrant issued from the Police Court bringing a second charge against the accused of receiving the amount above mentioned under false pretenses.

The curator alleged that the accused told him that his father was owing him the sum of $5000, and on this report got cash and goods. Mr. Boas states that on the contrary, Greterie, sr., did not owe his son a cent, and in fact the debt was the other way to the extent of $10,000. The prisoner, being seen, would make no communication until he had seen his lawyers, Messrs. Archibald, Lynch & Foster, and was consequently sent to jail.

Startling Revelations Expected.

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Red with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My little boy, two years of age, was afflicted with Eczema. He lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which, the doctor said, never would heal. He had had treatment never spoke. Some relative of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I can honestly say, with the most grateful heart, that CUTICURA has done my little boy more good than it not a dollar on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the purest, speediest, most economical, and most agreeable cure for all skin and scalp diseases of infants and children, and that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but by the use of CUTICURA he is now entirely well. He has requested me to use his name, which is H. H. CARON, merchant of this place.

Severe Scaly Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife gathered very much from a common disease on the scalp. She received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to that treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

The Yielding Returns from Both to the Province Last Year.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—Among the public bills introduced by the Attorney-General in the Legislature yesterday were measures respecting limited liability of incorporated companies, the Land Titles Act and the Manhood Suffrage Act.

Mr. Gibson's (Huron) motion for a return of copies of all correspondence relating to the Land Improvement Fund between the Government of Ontario and [illegible] which was negotiated by the Premier, the leader of Opposition, Mr. O'Connor (Bruce), Hon. Mr. Ross, Mr. Creighton and Mr. Blyth (Grey). Finally the motion was carried.

Enquiries were answered by the Government yesterday, one on the working of Tavern and Shop Licenses. The Treasurer laid the report of the Inspector of Licenses before the Provincial Secretary. The Provincial Secretary [illegible] the first named report which showed there had been a decrease in the number of licenses issued comparing 1887-8 with the preceding year, of 76 tavern and 47 shop. In 1887-8 there were 152 extensions, 220 transfers, 21 removals, making a total of 484.

Enquiries were answered by the Provincial Secretary. Tavern licenses and fines was for 1886-6, $165,295; for 1886-7, $216,464; for 1887-8, $21,542. The decrease in provincial revenue is accounted for principally by the reduction in the number of tavern licenses. The amount [illegible] for municipal purposes in the year ending 30th June, 1888, was $12,707 as compared with 1886-7.

Fines collected during the past year were $16,909, compared with $15,0833 in 1886-7. This does not include the fines collected in counties in which the Canada Temperance Act is in force.

The number committed for drunkenness during 1888 exceeds the number committed in 1887 by 321.

These counties in which the Canada Temperance Act is in force show a decrease in the number of committals as follows: Dufferin 3, Dundas 1, Glengarry (including Kingston) 1, Grey 2, Muskoka and Parry Sound 2, Norfolk 2, Lennox and Addington 1, Renfrew 2, Wellington 11; total 25.

These counties in which the Canada Temperance Act is in force show an increase in the number of committals: Algoma 42, Essex 1, Grey 6, Halton 1, Hastings (including Belleville) 16, Lambton 9, Peel 10, Prince Edward 10, Simcoe 6, Wentworth and Essex 58.

Those counties in which the Dunkin Act is in force show a decrease in convictions: Perth 3, Welland 31, Brant and Toronto 60.

The report of the Commissioner of Crown Lands for 1887 was submitted to the House by Hon. J. M. Gibson. The area of Crown Lands sold during the year was 86,982 acres aggregating in value $76,453. The total collections of the department on account of all sources of revenue was $1,450,-000.

The total disbursements of the department on account of all service and expenditure was $946,000.

The collections from woods and forests were $1,216,126; timber, $745,926 paid on account of bonuses, leaving the net collections on account of timber dues, ground rent, etc., $367,578.

In the matter of free grants, there are now 113 townships open for settlement. During the year 1887 locations were made on 2,031 claims and 1,704 [illegible] issued [illegible]

THE TILBURY MURDER.S

Benjamin McMahon Arraigned at Chatham Yesterday.

CHATHAM, Feb. 15.—After several postponements the trial of Benjamin McMahon, of Wheatley, before the police magistrate began to-day. The prisoner was attended by Mr. Fraser, M. Douglas, Q.C., for [illegible] the prosecution.

Edwin R. Shaw, of Tilbury East, said that on the 2nd of July last in Wheatley, prisoner endeavored to get him to join him and one Duff in robbing old man Mellon. The prisoner said Mellon had $1000 on him, and "by God I am going to have it." Witness said Mellon might shoot them. Prisoner said no danger, and if it was necessary he could shoot too. Witness told a magistrate's clerk, Kilbury Centre the next day, but he did not think it was any good to make proceedings. When he heard of the murder he related the conversation to the detective. His evidence was full the same as published elsewhere in a long cross-examination.

Geo. Mustard, of Colchester North, deposed to prisoner coming to his place on [illegible] and asking him to join in a conspiracy with [illegible] to get him to join in the plot, but he refused, and said that they would kill the old man and get caught. How prisoner afterwards looked for McDuff, who he believed was going under an alias. In September prisoner came where witness was [illegible] cutting, called him aside, and asked him if there was any reward offered for the murderer of Mellon. Witness said they had "beat" all in the ground. Prisoner said if it was to be done again he would not go when he had done.

This concludes the case for the crown, and the magistrate would have committed the prisoner at once, but his counsel took the objection that the evidence had not been given at sufficient length to warrant the committal in a capital case. The case will be resumed this morning, and will probably be finished till Monday, when the medical and other evidence touching the murder itself will be given.

G., W. AND L. E. RAILWAY.

The First Work Towards Construction Done Yesterday at Waterdown.

WATERDOWN, Feb. 16.—President Gen. H. Wilkes, Treasurer Kaiser Henry, Secretary J. J. Hawkins, H. Bailey Wilson, Q.C., solicitor; Sheriff Sarell, of the county of Brant, all of the board of directors of the G., W. and L. E. Railway; also Mr. A. J. C. Gottelby, manager Bank of Montreal, Brantford, Chief Engineer Whitcroft, Contractor Wright and [illegible] Paterson, Toronto, Mr. [illegible] of Waterdown, Mr. Wilkes, collector Bank of Montreal, Brantford, and many others met here to-day and duly began active operations on the G., W. and L. E. railway. [illegible] down the line and all the route. After the monarch of the forest had been laid low the company adjourned to the Commercial Hotel for dinner, President Wilkes in the chair and Treasurer Henry in the vice-chair.

Speeches were made by the President, Vice-President, Kaiser, Sheriff Sarell, Dr. Dunbar, Manager Gottelby, of the Bank of Montreal; A. J. Wilkes, Searle, Hawkins, Dr. Malcolm, H. McK. Wilson, Wilson, Devlin and Pat. The company then adjourned after present Wilkes, Stevenson with shovels and the two tiny [illegible] railway is to be completed by the [illegible]

"There," said a neighbor, pointing to a village carpenter, "there is a man who has done more good, I really believe, in this community than any other person who ever lived in it. He cannot talk very much in public, and he does not try. He is not worth $5,000, and it is very [illegible] he puts down on subscription papers. But a new family never moves into the village that he does not find it out and give them a neighborly welcome and offer them some service. He is on the lookout to give strangers a seat in his pew at church. He is always ready to watch with a sick neighbor and look after his affairs for him. I believe he and his wife keep house plants in winter mainly that they may be able to send little bouquets to friends and invalids. He finds time for a pleasant word to every child he meets, and you'll always see them climbing into his one horse wagon when he has no other load. He has a genius for helping folks, and it does me good to meet him in the streets."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

About Horses' Feet.

Perhaps the weakest point in our grand breed of cart horses is their feet, particularly if we include their coronets, which are apt to be affected with side bones and ring bones, says The Saturday Review. In paved cities and over stony roads good feet are of the most importance and there are men of no little experience who are of opinion that the fetlock and coronet of a thoroughbred horse will gentlemanly bear more battering upon hard and [illegible] than those of a cart horse. [illegible] may not be generally known that, while Englishmen like to see them well covered with long, wavy hair, the contrary taste prevails in many parts of [illegible] where the sunlight had severe [illegible] and where there is an abundance of [illegible] It may be worth mentioning that the monks at the Hospice of St. Bernard prefer the smooth-coated dogs to the rough for precisely the same reason, although English dog fanciers are fondest of the rough coated St. Bernards.

The Talmud tells us that Adam was created, sinned and was chased from [illegible] on Friday, the 6th hour, to prove his prophetic powers, declared the same.

THE WIGWAM

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockalorums of the Clothing Trade.

"Shamus O'Brien."

The well known millionaire banker, Hon. John Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, Neb., having witnessed Chas. Erin Verner's performance of "Shamus O'Brien," after the play went behind the curtain, and, shaking Mr. Verner heartily by the hand, said : "I am proud of you, sir, and proud of your Irish acting and place. It is a credit to our country, and every good Irishman ought to see it."

English Skylarks.

Mrs. Cole Barret has returned from England and brought Mr. T. O. Rash a dozen beautiful English skylarks, a present from a friend in England. Mr. Rash is to be congratulated upon his handsome and valuable imported aviary. We can appreciate English skylarks, but save us from those murderous miscreants, the multiplying English sparrow.

Entrance Examinations.

A circular issued by the Provincial Educational Department announces that the next examinations for the High School and Collegiate Institutes will be held on July 4th, 5th and 6th. It is also announced that after the December examinations this year there will probably be only one entrance examination per year, namely, at midsummer.

Welcome to Peterborough.

The Manilla correspondent of the Lindsay Post writes :—The departure of Mr. James Ellis and family from this village will be regretted by a large circle of friends. Mr. Ellis has resided here for a great many years. Before his removal to Peterborough he was entertained at a supper by the Oddfellows. Mr. Ellis is engaged in the insurance business, and as his field is a large one, Peterborough will be more centrally situated for him. Our loss is Peterborough's gain.

"A Knife and Fork Tea."

The Annual Tea Meeting of the Baptist Church will be held in the basement of the Church, on Thursday Evening, February 21st. Tea served from 6 to 7.30. "Everything in beautiful in its season." All things reasonable will be served here. Tickets 25 cents for the

"Knife and Fork Tea."

The Senate Should Stay.

A dozen or more members of the Ottawa Canoe club last night debated the question: "Resolved, that the Dominion Senate should be abolished." For the affirmative Messrs. J. J. Douglass and Carmichael were leaders, and for the negative Messrs. J. W. Bennet and R. R. Hall. By decision of the chairman, Mr. S. E. Armstrong, the debate resulted in favor of the negative. Two weeks hence another debate will be held on the subject: "Resolved, that the Dominion Government should be censured for not vetoing the Jesuits' Estate Act." Mr. R. E. Hall will take the affirmative and Dr. Scott the negative.

The Lakefield Assembly.

About 45 persons from Peterborough attended the Reunion ball at Lakefield Friday night. A special train was run out early in the evening and returned about half past four. The assembly was held in the new mill, which furnished ample accommodation for the fifty or sixty couples that were present. The question is often asked, when are the bachelors of Peterborough to give their annual ball. Last will soon be here, and the dancing world is becoming restless.

Sons of England.

Mr. Thomas Gunn, delegate from Lansdowne Lodge S.O.E., to the annual Grand Lodge meeting at Ottawa, returned home this morning, and has only the most cheering reports of the success and harmony of the meeting. In a previous issue the EXAMINER published details of the standing of the Order, showing its progress and thrift. Mr. Gunn attended the grand banquet given at the close of the Grand Lodge, at the Russell House on Thursday evening. It was a splendid success. Among those making speeches were Sir Fred. Middleton, Col. Fred. Denison and Rev. Dr. Wild.

War on a White Sheet.

Mr. Villiers does not assume the tone of the lecturer. His manner is rather that of a good conversationalist, who can tell a good story well, and who can hit epigrammatic and humorous with an ease which gives full flavour to every point attempted. His subject last night was "War on a White Sheet," and although it should prove an interesting one under any circumstances, it was shown by Mr. Villiers how greatly the value of even a good topic may be enhanced by masterly treatment. The close attention of his audience was engaged by a few introductory remarks, and as he proceeded in the description of the bloody battles he had witnessed, and narration of the many thrilling incidents which had come under his observation, the interest of those present was excited to an intense pitch. The lecture was liberally illustrated by lime-light views, being reproductions of sketches made by the artist.—The Mail.

Something to Think About.

Young men, you have arrived at the age of manhood, and must face the responsibilities of life. The old home has sheltered you till the present, and now that you have outgrown your nest, you must strike out for yourself. You have some charming girl in your mind's eye and heart, and at the end of the delightful vista of courtship you see a wedding. And you are thinking of preparing a home for yourself and mate. The first step to take is to secure a house, and the next to furnish it. Then go to Belleghem, the furniture king of the Midland district. He is able to supply your every want. If your means are limited and you want the home neat easily but economically liked, you strike the right shop when you go to Belleghem's. But if your means are large, your purse deep, B lleghem can furnish a house fit for a princess. He carries a magnificent stock of furniture, of every description in the matter of price and finish but every piece of it first class of its kind. The cheapest is as good, in point of workmanship and solid material, as the most expensive. His stock presents an unlimited chance for selection and his prices will be found as low and lower than any other establishment—for the same quality of goods. Every department of his factory is complete. All his wood work material is thoroughly kiln dried, fashioned by the best of modern meaniinery and put together by the most skilled workmen. His upholstering and furnishing departments are in the hands of conscientious and capable artists in their line. When you want first class furniture to buy or made to order go to Belleghem's Furniture Establishment, the furniture shop farthest west on Hunter street.

News Nuggets.

—Lindsay Board of Trade is agitating for the electric light.

—The regular meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held on Monday at 4 p.m.

—A branch of the Imperial Federation League is to be established in Belleville.

—The Foresters of Peterborough hold a concert and ball in their lodge room on the 27th.

—Mr. John Hare, town, has been awarded the contract for the masonry of the new iron bridge at Burleigh.

—Mr. J. E. Belcher is the architect of the new Presbyterian church at Omemee. The church will be built to accommodate about 450 people.

—Invitations are out for a ball in the Port Hope opera house on Wednesday 20th inst. A number of Peterborough people will attend.

—Four young men of Campbellford did a noble deed the other night when they went to a widow's house and cut wood enough for several weeks. Wood that there were more such young men.

—The morning express from the east arrived this morning three hours late. The delay was at Shartbot Lake Junction, where the engine broke down, and another had to be waited for from Havelock.

—Yesterday Thomas Jordan, an employe in the William Hamilton Company's works, was temporarily "knocked out" by a piece of wood, thrown violently from a saw, striking him in the breast. No serious results.

—Miss Kate English to-day received a Christmas card from her brother in Yokohama, Japan. The card is hand painted and quite English in style. It took nine Japanese 2c. stamps to bring it here.

—The License Committee met last night and adopted a uniform tariff of rates for hackmen, 25c. for passengers and 10c. for trunks. The committee will report at the council meeting Monday night.

—A number of Belleville citizens were before the police magistrate the other day for neglecting to clear the snow off their sidewalks. The cases were all dismissed, the magistrate holding that the city should perform the work and charge the same against the property. Correct! Belleville should follow Peterborough example and get corporation snow ploughs to do the work.

The Scott Act Repeal.

The announcement that the date of voting on the repeal of the Scott Act had been changed to April 1st was incorrect. Returning Officer Chas. Stapleton and Town Clerk Macdonald have received official notification that the vote will be held on April 4th, as first decided upon.

A Bank Beer Open.

Last night Mr. Thos. Gordon, night-watchman, found the door of one of the banks open, offering a splendid opportunity for the sneak thief to get in his work. The person who was responsible for this bit of carelessness was notified and the door secured. Mr. Gordon's alertness and strict performance of duty, no doubt, prevent many a mishap in the way of burglary or fire.

THE MERRY MASQUERADE.

The Carnival a Pronounced Success.

List of the Costumes and Prizes Winners —Some Good Characters on the Floor— A Large Crowd in Attendance.

The gay and giddy carnival transpired Friday night at the skating rink. It went off with a bang that finds echo in the eager talk of the young people to-day, who are discussing the affair and commenting on it to their hearts content—and their parents' discomfort, no doubt, at the endless detail that the young mind stores up and is ever ready to pour forth into a listening ear for days afterwards. The attendance of costumers, as will be seen by the subjoined list (though this is not complete, a great number failing to hand in their cards at the door) was large and comprised some good characters. Of course, the negro-Irishman-dude element was largely in the ascendant, but apart from these some of the costumes displayed elegance and taste. The question of impromptu is left to the decision of the judges. One costumer was the six quarters from the George street church, who skated around with clasped hands, pleasure on their backs reading "Remember Jolly Spinsters' Social Friday 22nd."

The attendance of spectators was very large. Probably 1,000 persons thronged the galleries and lower floor. The managers, Messrs. Errett and Hartley, must have realized a nice little sum from their venture.

At intervals during the evening the fire brigade band played musical selections which furnished additional enlivenment to the scene. The large rink was gorgeously decorated with flags and bunting, and altogether the interior presented a gay appearance.

The Messrs. Betton ran a refreshment room that was well patronized, and the managers otherwise provided for the convenience of the public by establishing a cloak room.

The ice was in excellent shape, as a result of the curling work of John Cousins, the presiding genius of the rink, but some of the boys "were mighty rough" by skating on the curling rinks.

Following is a list of the costumers :

PRIZE WINNERS.

The Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Lundy and F. J. Lewis. They occupied an alcove erected at one side of the rink. Their decisions were as follows :—

BEST DRESSED LADY.—Annie Hagerman, "Gipsy Queen."

BEST DRESSED GENTLEMEN.—Wm. Headron, "Indian Chief."

BEST COMIC LADY.—Maud Deacon, "Old Mother Hubbard."

BEST COMIC GENTLEMEN.—Wm. Logan, "Knife Grinder."

BEST DRESSED GIRL.—Eva Strain, "Queen of Hearts."

BEST DRESSED BOY.—David Donattel, "Highland Chief."

THE RACES

were conducted by Mr. E. Brown, and resulted as follows :

BARREL RACE—1st Joseph Dormer.

HALF-MILE RACE—1st R. Tivey.

NOTES.

There was no curling match, and the managers found it impossible to conduct a vote on the Scott Act as was announced.

There were a number of young people in attendance from the surrounding district.

No accident happened to mar the serenity of the occasion.

At 9.30 the public were allowed on the rink and quickly the ice was overcrowded.

After the carnival a number of the young people met in Harvey's hall and spent a few hours in dancing.

There was a noticeable absence of comic costumes of any merit.

The races was well contested. In the half-mile race Stanley Rutledge led until he unfortunately received a couple of falls, allowing his competitor, R. Tivey, to forge ahead.

Prof. Dorenwend's Wigs and Toupees for Gentlemen.

Gentlemen who have lost their hair are beginning to realize the great advantages derived from wearing artificial coverings. They supply protection to the scalp wherein nature has failed and also fill up the deficiency in appearance caused by baldness. Hundreds of gentlemen in all parts of America testify to the benefiting results of using Prof. Dorenwend's wigs and toupees. Each article is carefully made, is light and strong and when worn cannot be detected by the closest observer. Prof. Dorenwend will be at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, and will show a big stock of them. Go and see them whether you buy one or not; he makes no charges for trying them on. dw

The Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company.

The continued popularity of the company is shown from the fact that $205,000.00 of life insurance was received during January, and $80.000 for first week in February. A few good men wanted. WILSON & MORRISON, Hunter street, Peterborough. dw

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & Macdonald's or Mr. A. L. Davis' store. d

Ashburnham Brevities.

The cuttings have their work completed.

The canoeists, Messrs. Dover & Stephenson, are at work. Some radical changes in the accommodate are looked for.

Mr. Stewart Wright has the work in hand of overhauling the Golden Eye. She is moored at the docks for the winter.

Last evening Mr. D. W. Campbell, late of McGill College, Montreal, gave in the Methodist church, Mark street, a lecture on the city of London, England, illustrating his lecture by 160 beautiful dissolving views, which were very fine. They included views of London, views of Buckingham Palace, St. James' Palace, Hampton Court, Windsor Castle, &c. He had a good house and all seemed highly pleased.

Curlana.

The rink of junior curlers that went to Lindsay yesterday swept in a victory against a strong rink of the home lights of Lindsay. The game was a close one to the finish, and the lads are proud of themselves. They consider that they have redeemed their defeat of last winter. It is probable a return match will be played here in a week or so, when two rinks a side will be played. Following is the score of Friday's game :

Lindsay.	Peterborough.
A. Knowlton,	T. Gunnel,
C. Cassell,	D. Davidson,
F. Knowlton,	W. Deudas,
J. McMillan, skip....14	J. Connel, skip 16

Majority for Peterborough—4 shots.

BISON BREWERS.

Mr. W. G. Ferguson played with the Stirlingshire curlers against the Lanarkshire representatives at Toronto Friday. The latter were victorious.

The Winnipeg rink, which was so soundly beaten by Peterborough, won two matches against the Toronto Granites Friday.

Keene beat Campbellford Friday afternoon by 5 shots on a two rink game.

Six rinks of curlers go to Toronto Monday night to play at the Prospect Park rink. They will also try to arrange a match with the Granites.

All seats free in the evening. Strangers and others heartily welcome to the church at all times.

A Norwood Concert.

A very successful complimentary concert to Mrs. Stephens was given last night by her pupils and musical friends. Peterborough talent was represented. Prof. Doucet performed the brilliant vollin solo, "The Harp that once through Tara's Hall" with variation Farmer, and Mr. Geo. Pearce who sang with great success, "Anchored" "When the tide comes in," and other selections. A dramatic production "Bluebeard," was twice presented and Mr. Gilogly of Hastings sang comic songs.

The License By-law.

Apparently there is little public interest manifested in the vote upon the high license by-law, which is to take place next Wednesday. It is an important matter in relation to the town's revenue. The by-law enacts as follows :—For each tavern license, $400 ; for each shop license, $300 ; for each saloon license, (i. e., taverns without accommodation), $600. The polling places are :— No. 1 Ward, Mission school house ; No. 2 Ward, old mission hall ; No. 3 Ward, Metheral's shop, George street ; No. 4 Ward, Wm. Lee's shop.

CLEVELAND'S
SUPERIOR
THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

DINNER

is always a subject for sighs with a housekeeper and she often wishes that the law settled the question of "What shall we have for dinner,' and prescribed certain dishes for certain days. Such a law would certainly save a great deal of worry and questioning to many tired women. But it is not such a difficult problem to solve after all especially in Peterborough, where we have such a good market, besides at China Hall you can secure full Dinner Sets that will grace any table for so little money that anyone can afford the outlay.

OUR
ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY.

We can now show you over 200 Patterns of New Prints, and to say the least about them they are Just Lovely! They consist of Chocolate Grounds, with Cardinal Cream, White and Navy Sprays, Spots and Stripes, Navy Check, and several lines of Small Patterns suitable for children. Also a range of Dutch Prints in Navy and White Navy and Orange and Navy and Green, every piece of which we guarantee to wash well.

We now show all the new Patterns in Cottonades, Tickings, Denims, and Shirtings. Owing to the recent brisk advance in the wholesale market in these goods, customers will do well to lay in a Stock at once before the advance is felt in the retail trade.

Last week we received a Large shipment of Corsets, and have now all the sizes in all the best makes manufactured in Canada. The Yatisi, Coraline and Agave are among most popular makes. We are now introducing a new French Corset, which is very popular. Ask to be shown them.

Several lines of new Lace Curtains arrived last week. It is almost too soon to begin to talk about them but we commence them this season at 50c. a pair.

Our Canadian Tweeds are arriving—several lines are considered special value, especially our 35c. Tweed for Boys, and our 50, 60, and 75c. for Men. Every suit our tailor makes we guarantee a perfect fit or no sale.

Our White and Grey Cottons, Grass Linens and Tablings, are always right. If you have not seen them, come and buy a trial parcel. We are satisfied you will call again.

THE FUTURE LOOKS DARK.

BERLIN TAKES A GLOOMY VIEW OF THE FRENCH CRISIS.

The Rumored Retention of Prince B.'s Post to Have Now Ascribed to a Purely Artificial Origin.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—The semi-official press, after lamenting excitement over the rumored intention of Prince Bismarck to retire, now declares the agitation has a purely artificial origin.

Count Herbert Bismarck daily receives long cipher dispatches from the German embassy at Paris, and goes personally to present them to the Emperor. If the foreign office officials faithfully reflect their chief's opinion, the gloomiest view is taken as to the results of the French crisis. Boulanger is considered to be master of the situation.

It is probable that the arrangements for the autumn manoeuvres in Westphalia will be changed so as to convert the manoeuvres into a warning demonstration along the frontier. The Wurtemberg and Bavarian contingents will share in the demonstration if it is decided upon. The press of all shades of opinion take a pessimistic view of the outlook.

The German Government is increasing in its military preparations. Since the adoption of the small caliber rifle the gun factories have been working night and day, and a million weapons of similar pattern have been ordered from individual contractors at Hamburg. The Rottweil Powder Factory has an exclusive contract to supply an enormous quantity of powder, and a large number of subcontracts have been placed in order to fulfil that firm's obligation as to time.

MR. KLEIN FROM SAMOA.

Arrival at 'Frisco of the United States Newspaper Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—The steamship Mariposa, from Samoa, arrived here to-day, bringing John C. Klein, the American newspaper correspondent charged with leading the natives in the recent battle with the Germans but who claims to have witnessed the fight as a non-combatant. When martial law was declared by the Germans they attempted to seize Klein, but he was rescued by the Americans.

When the Mariposa left, Feb. 1, the islands were still under martial law, and German aggression had become very marked and is claimed to have been directed against Americans as well as natives. None of the American men-of-war ordered there had arrived. The Germans were in complete control and had commenced to search all vessels in Samoan waters. They seized an English tourist named Gillan in the steam packet Richmond from Auckland. Captain Hand of the English warship Royalist, however, ordered the man released and prepared for action. The Germans released Gillan. Goods which arrived on the Richmond for American merchants at Apia the Germans would not permit to be landed unless they were taken to a German storehouse and passed upon by a German official.

The Samoa Times was suppressed for stating that but for German support all the Samoans would join Mataafa, and that unless Bismarck was deceived he would not attempt to enforce his unpopular rule. Prior to this, Cusack, the editor, was fined $100 for reprinting American newspaper comments on the situation.

Captain Fritz, the German naval commander, on January 23, instructed the residents of Apia to turn over all guns or ammunition held by them, and proclaimed the right of searching. Captain Mullan, of the American man-of-war Nipsic, protested, stating the American Government had never recognized Tamasese, and no power would allow them to seize arms unless used against a friendly nation.

German troops, acting as police, attempted to arrest Klein, but on advice of the United States Consul he went on board the Nipsic. On Jan. 28, Fritz made a demand for Mullan to release Klein that he might be tried before a German military tribunal. Mullan replied that he proposed to protect all Americans in Samoa and Klein would not be surrendered for trial. On Feb. 1 Mullan placed Klein on the Mariposa.

Stayed Approves.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Secretary Bayard says the captain of the Nipsic acted sensibly in taking care of Klein. The German officials were in error regarding Klein's action. The Secretary said that late telegraphic advices showed martial law had been abolished so far as it applied to foreigners, and the German officials had been rebuked. The Secretary was hopeful that a speedy, peaceful and satisfactory settlement of Samoa affairs would be reached.

German Optimism.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—It is reported that the Samoan white book will be discussed on the reopening of the Reichstag.

The National Zeitung says that regarding the American consul at Samoa and Commander Leary no censure can be strong enough; but it is hoped that after the recall of Sewall, America will see that words should be followed by corresponding acts.

The Vossische Zeitung criticises the conduct of the German officials in Samoa and hopes the conference will result in permanent peace and order instead of plunging great civilized powers into war for a bagatelle.

And Great Was the Fall of It.

Duty Above Degree.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Rev. Dr. Henry Y. Satterlee has decided not to accept the bishopric of the diocese of Michigan offered him on Feb. 6. He feels that he should not leave his work here.

The O'Connor-Gaudaur Race.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—The most important matter now being discussed among the local cracmen is the coming race between Gaudaur and O'Connor. The opinion which at first prevailed seems to be dying out, and although it is generally spoken of as a one-sided affair, some interest is taken in the event and the race will probably draw a big crowd. O'Connor is, of course, the favorite. There will be little or no betting on the race. As a desire has been expressed by some of the local cracmen to enter in a four-oared race with the professional visitors, O'Connor, Lee, Gaudaur and Hamm wish it announced that they will form a four-oared crew and row any four San Francisco can produce, the race to take place one week after the O'Connor-Gaudaur match. The Gaudaur crew will row for $1000 or more a side, the title of the four-oared professional championship of the world and the whole of the gate receipts. If a match is made the Pacific Slope oarsmen will probably include Peterson, McDonnell, Cochrane and Branch.

QUARRELED OVER CARDS.

A FATAL STABBING AFFRAY AT LACHINE.

Twenty Italians Engage in a Carousal Which Breaks Up in a General Fight—Two Men Knifed.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—A serious stabbing affray occurred at Lachine early this morning. Last night some twenty Italians were carousing in the stone house near the bridge when a dispute arose and a general fight ensued.

During the melee two combatants seeing they were getting the worse of the tussle drew knives and plunged them into the bodies of their opponents, one of them receiving a fearful gash in the abdomen and another in the neck near the jugular vein, his injuries being fatal. The other, though also badly hurt, is not considered in immediate danger of death.

One of the would-be assassins was caught at the railway station this morning by Constable Joly and handcuffed; the other was shortly afterwards found hiding in a house.

The man who is dying is married and leaves a pretty young widow and an infant only a few days old. The other of the victims is single.

The quarrel broke out first yesterday afternoon whilst some of the Italians were playing cards, two partners accusing their opponents of cheating. During the night the two adverse parties unfortunately met again and the trouble was renewed.

SOME DAMAGING STORIES.

What the Public Want to Know About the Parnell Letters.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—This week's Parnell Commission proves even more exciting than last. Major Le Caron's cross-examination on Tuesday was indeed in one sense disappointing. Sir Charles Russell could make nothing of him. If there were flaws in his story, Mr. Parnell's counsel did not find them. Major Le Caron held his own to the last. His coolness and self-possession, his deliberate method and his tantalizing thoughtfulness before almost every important answer, never failed him. Sir Charles gave him up after two hours further trial on Tuesday, and Major Le Caron left court without a scar. Where Sir Charles failed, Mr. Reid and Mr. Lockwood, who tried their feebler hands, were not likely to succeed; nor did they. As the witness stepped down from the box a murmur of admiration saluted him. Even those who wholly dissent from what Major Le Caron called the moral view of his position joined in the tribute to him as a witness.

Mr. Soames, The Times solicitor, who succeeds to Major Le Caron's place in public attention, is not comparable to him as an occupant of the witness-box. Solicitor though he be, Mr. Soames was at first hurried, not to say flurried, in manner. Major Le Caron's short, sharp sentences echoed through the room like so many pistol-shots. Mr. Soames was indistinct, unready, nervous, confused in phraseology. His testimony, however, opened that branch of the case which one section of the public has long been waiting for. Mr. Parnell's friends have from the beginning insisted that the letters were the vital point of the whole business. If the letters are forgeries, the whole case against the Home Rule leader collapses. That was their contention. A good deal has happened since it was first put forward, and it can hardly be urged now with the same confidence; but it is still urged.

Mr. Soames's admission that the letters came from Mr. Pigott, once a Fenian, through Mr. Houston, secretary of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic League, disclosed in open court what had long been an open secret to Mr. Parnell's legal advisers. Indeed, many of Mr. Soames's statements were so many old stories to them, though not to the public. They hold it damaging to The Times that over $20,000 should have been paid on account of these letters. The amount strengthens, in their view, the presumption of forgery. The revelation that Mr. Flanagan, son of an Irish judge, is the actual author of the Parnellism and Crime articles is curious rather than important, except to Mr. Flanagan.

It was the second day of Mr. Soames' examination that brought out the most sensational incidents. Mr. Soames by this time had got used to his novel position as a witness, recovered his self-possession, and met Sir Charles Russell on something like even terms. The most damaging fact which came out in cross-examination was the fact that The Times took these alleged letters without attempting to trace their history. Both Mr. Soames and Mr. Macdonald, The Times manager, admitted that no such attempt was made. They were content with the testimony of a single expert in handwriting, and with their own conviction of the genuineness of the letters. This will not do for the public. The evidence of experts will go for little. What the public wants to know is where the letters came from, and through whose hands they passed. A complete statement must come from somebody, and that somebody can only be Mr. Pigott, who told them to Mr. Houston or to Mr. Maguire.

Mr. Labouchere appears again and again in the business. Mr. Soames says Pigott told him that Labouchere offered him (Pigott) $8000 to swear that he forged the letters. Mr. Soames had Mr. Pigott followed by detectives, and Mr. Pigott, a Times witness, was found to be in communication with the other side. Letters passed between him and Mr. Lewis and Mr. Labouchere. Money was sent to Mr. Pigott by Mr. Labouchere more than once. He was followed to Mr. Labouchere's house, and seems finally to have told The Times what passed between him and Mr. Labouchere. He told other things besides the above named $8000 proposal, and handed over to Mr. Soames the money Mr. Labouchere had sent him. At least two interviews occurred at Mr. Labouchere's house in Grosvenor Gardens, Mr. Pigott, Mr. Parnell, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Labouchere all present at one if not both.

Le Caron Warns The Herald.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—To-day's London edition of The New York Herald prints an interview with Informer Le Caron. Le Caron has written to the editor declaring that the report of the interview constitutes a libel and that any further production of the report will be at the editor's peril.

The Shawardon Evictions.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Evictions at Shawardon! It is all but incredible, but in these days it is mostly the incredible which turns out true. Mr. French may break his beads; he never produced a joke equal to this. The canny are in transports. The Times itself is making jokes. What is happening on Mr. Gladstone's estate is, with due allowance for the difference between England and Ireland, exactly what has long been happening on Irish estates. Tenants are in arrears; they cannot, or will not, pay their rents; and they are evicted, sold up. It is Mr. Gladstone, jr., who does it. His father, says The Times, by converting his interest into an annual charge upon the estate, has made himself directly responsible for one of these arrangements so strongly condemned in the case of Irish landlords, whereby the capacity of the limited owner to act generously is fatally curtailed.

Young Mr. Gladstone addues in defence all these arguments which when put forward by Irish landlords, his father and his father's following have resolved with scorn and derision.

A HOT ONE AT MONTREAL.

OVER $150,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY IN ASHES.

Peck, Benny & Co.'s Rolling Mills Burned—James MacDougall's Grain Elevator Consumed—Negligence Somewhere.

MONTREAL, Feb. 17.—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the extensive rolling mills of Peck, Benny & Co., 63 Mill-street, and extended north to the bank of the Lachine Canal. The entire brigade was called out, but the hydrants in the vicinity of the fire being covered by heaps of snow and some of them frozen, it was almost impossible to get water for a long time, while two of the steam engines are laid up and the largest one in the city had no steam for twenty minutes after it arrived on the ground. Meanwhile the flames rolled on unchecked. When this engine was put to work it was where it was of no practical service and when the men tried to change it the machine and three horses rolled down the bank to the wharf. The flames spread to the Canal Iron, Nail and Spike Works, and by 10 o'clock, when the fire had been gotten under control, the whole of those immense piles of buildings were almost completely destroyed.

Shortly after noon the fire broke out afresh in James MacDougall's big grain elevator adjoining Peck, Benny & Co.'s. It was undoubtedly the result of negligence somewhere in seeing that the first fire was properly extinguished. The fire was soon beyond control of the fire brigade, as there was not sufficient water pressure. Holes for the suction pipes had to be cut through the ice in the Lachine canal, which is alongside the building, and it was fully an hour before the engines got to work from the hydrants. By that time the whole top of the building was a mass of flames and the roof fell in with a tremendous crash, two firemen narrowly escaping death. The fire threatened the Gould building adjoining, in which were 40,000 bushels of Manitoba wheat, but the danger was averted, the gable end of the building being only damaged. MacDougall's building, however, completely collapsed, the heavy elevators bringing the walls with them.

The loss by the fire at Peck, Benny & Co.'s is about $100,000. All the companies doing business at Montreal are heavy losers. In James MacDougall's building were stored about 75,000 bushels of grain, and M. Peck, who owns the building, estimates his loss at $35,000; covered by insurance in the Imperial, Guardian, Hartford and Etna. The total loss by both fires will be about $150,000. Mr. MacDougall is also insured.

During the progress of the fire two faces appeared at one of the upper windows and then disappeared. It is impossible to say who they were or whether they escaped.

A $7000 Blaze at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Feb. 16.—A storehouse in the rear of Armstrong's boot and shoe store was gutted by fire last night. The building was filled with boots and shoes, which were badly damaged. Water and smoke also damaged the stock in the store. The loss is about $7000, fully insured. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

A $200 Loss at Guelph.

GUELPH, Feb. 17.—Fire broke out last night about 10.30 in the upper story of H. Walker & Son's grocery store. It had made considerable headway when discovered, but was soon got under control and put out. The damage to the store and stock by fire and water is about $800; covered by insurance.

In Farmer's Loss.

GUELPH, Feb. 17.—Fire in the root house of Mr. Reddick, on the farm of John Moore, six miles from Guelph on the road to Rockwood, did $200 damage on Friday. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The Worst Record.

PORT HURON, Mich., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Beeler locked her three children, aged 2, 4 and 6, in the house yesterday while she went down town. The children set fire to the house, and when rescued were unconscious. Two of them died last night and the other is not expected to recover.

A Boston Factory Scorched.

BOSTON, Feb. 16.—The steam pump factory of George F. Blake was damaged $50,000 by fire this morning.

Manchester Warehouses Burnt.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Three blocks of buildings in Manchester, composed mostly of warehouses, have been burned. Loss £50,000.

CHAT FROM THE CAPITAL.

The First Liberal Reception—Hon. Sir Pope's Condition Unaltered.

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—Mme. Laurier and Mrs. Mackenzie gave the first weekly reception of the session at the Grand Union last night. There was a large gathering of Liberals, their wives, daughters and sweethearts. Music, dancing and refreshments filled out a pleasant evening.

Prof. Goldwin Smith is in the city, the guest of Dr. Bourinot, Clerk of the House. The professor yesterday applied for a seat in the lower press gallery. The professor says his mission here has nothing to do with politics, but is in connection with his future literary labors. The Sage of the Grange has made himself very friendly with the members of the gallery since his arrival. He attended the Liberal reception last evening.

The condition of Hon. John H. Pope is unaltered. His son Rufus Pope, a prosperous young farmer of Cookshire, Que., and other members of his family are at present visiting him. Sir John Macdonald is temporarily acting as Minister of Railways.

The Cabinet sat for six hours yesterday discussing parliamentary measures and the supplementary estimates.

Miss Macdonald arrived in the city last evening from Oaklands on a visit to her father, Senator John Macdonald.

The Senate meets again on Wednesday.

Miller's Lie Cost Him $100.

CHATHAM, Feb. 16.—A case under the Postoffice Act was tried before Police Magistrate Houston yesterday, upon an information by Postoffice Inspector Barker, "that B. Miller wrongfully and with wilful falsehood did, on the 11th day of December last pretend, and allege that the enclosed and sent in a post letter, deposited in Her Majesty's postoffice in the town of Chatham, addressed to Messrs. Thompson & Smith, Ingersoll, Ont., a sum of money, to wit, $30, which money, in fact, he did not so inclose." Miller pleaded guilty to the charge and forthwith the magistrate fined him $100, with the option of six months in jail.

Mormonism and the Bible.

The last of a Series of Papers which have Appeared from Time to Time. Exposing One of the Most Absurd Parodies of Christianity Ever Attempted to be Palmed Off on the Unlearned and Wrought in Blatant Study.

Again, Mr. Smith says that God inspired Joseph Smith, the prophet and seer, to read the book of Mormon, which Professor Anthon, of New York, failed to read, owing to the book being sealed; and he quotes Isa. xxix., 14: "I will do a marvellous work and a wonder," as referring to an unlearned man like Joseph Smith being able to read what Professor Anthon could not. Here again is a gross misapplication of Scripture, for the "marvellous work and a wonder" was not to be shown in the reading of a book, but in the wisdom departing from the wise and learned, which actually happened, Jer. viii., 8, 9. And instead of the unlearned being able to read the book, Isa. xxix., 12, the meaning of Scripture is, that everyone was to have an excuse for not attending to God's word, both the learned and unlearned. So that Mr. Smith's idea of the unlearned prophet reading the book of Mormon is not got from Isa. xxix., but from his own wish to maintain a theory. I have now arrived at the end of my criticism of Mr. Smith's list of texts in support of his creed, and I leave it, fully satisfied that with prayer and study any thoughtful person will be able to resist successfully one of the most absurdly grotesque parodies on the Christian religion that has appeared, or is ever likely to appear, in this, or any other, age.

I append Mr. Smith's texts with his notes, copied word for word from his original writing, and borrowed from one of his converts. They are in the same order as he wrote them; I have merely numbered them and added the numbers of the paper in which I have criticised them. They have all been examined and commented upon in my paper, with the exception of numbers 5, 6 and 6, which, being plain statements, required no special comment. Any one can see, from the manner in which he has selected his text that he meant them to corroborate one another.

MR. SMITH'S SHEAF AND SWORD.

No. 1, First Paper.—Hosea viii 11, 12. "Written great things of law; to Ephraim." Where is that law? we are told by some that that law thus written was the Mosaic law as originally delivered to the twelve tribes, but when we remember that the Mosaic economy did not contain the great things of God's law, but was merely a schoolmaster to bring them to Christ, the falsity of this theory is apparent. See Rom. viii, 3; Gal. iii. 24-25; Heb. viii, 10-12, 9, 8, 14, 9-1, etc. Now who is Ephraim?

No. 3, Second Paper.—Gen. xlviii, 5. Joseph's sons.

No. 3, Third Paper.—Gen. xlviii., 13, 19. The patriarchal blessing placed on Ephraim and Manasseh.

No. 4, Third Paper.—Gen. xlviii, 16. They were to grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

No. 5, Third Paper.—Gen. xlviii, 19. Ephraim to be the greatest.

No. 6, Third Paper.—Jer. xxxvii, 9, Ephraim, God's first born.

No. 7, Third Paper.—1 Chron. v., 1, 2. Birthright, Joseph's and given to his sons.

No. 8, Third Paper.—Gen. xlviii, 20. Set Ephraim before Manasseh.

No. 9, Third Paper.—Gen. xlviii, 22. Gave Joseph a portion above his brethren.

No. 10, Third Paper.—Gen. xlix, 22. Joseph, a fruitful bough, branches ran over the wall or sea. Joseph represented as a bough, his seed, or children, would be the branches.

No. 11, Third Paper.—Gen. xxii, 26. This blessing extended to the utmost bounds of the everlasting hills, which is none other place than Jerusalem, it being the most distant point, or "utmost bound," from Goshen, where the blessing was given.

No. 12, Third Paper.—Deut. xxxiii, 13, 7. Joseph's land designated by the precious things of earth and fulness thereof. That this is America is proved by the 15th verse, which corresponds with Gen. xlix, 22, 26, referring to the "ancient mountains," and the "lasting hills." America has the longest ranges of mountains in the world, reaching from Patagonia on the south to Alaska on the north.

No. 13, Third Paper.—Deut. xxxiii, 17. Ephraim and Manasseh were to become a multitude of nations in the midst of the earth in Joseph's land. They never became a multitude of nations in Palestine, and were 'the midst of the earth' measuring from Goshen in America and nowhere else. They were to become a multitude of nations in the midst of the earth. In America, at the time of its discovery there was about 50,000,000 of Indians, numbering more than a thousand tribes, or nations, speaking 468 languages and over 2,000 dialects. The seed of Joseph came here.

No. 14, Third Paper.—Isa. xvi, 8. Principal plants gone over the sea.

No. 15, Third Paper.—Jer. xlix, 32. Thy plants gone over the sea.

No. 16, Third Paper.—Gen. xlix, 22 Joseph's fruitful bough, branches ran over wall—or sea.

No. 17, Second Paper.—Jer. xxxiii, 23-26. Two families left Jerusalem. The book of Mormon tells us of the family of Lehi and the family of Ishmael leaving Jerusalem 600 B.C. travelling through the wilderness, and after 8 years wandering they crossed the ocean by command of God and landed on the western shores of South America, and that is was there, on the American continent that God gave them the great things of his law, which was transmitted to their posterity for 1,000 years, and then hid up in the earth to come forth again in the last days.

No. 18, Second Paper.—Hos. viii, 11-12. God wrote to Ephraim great things of his law. Where is that law if book of Mormon is not it?

No. 19, Fourth Paper.—Ezek. xxxvii, 15-19. Stick of Ephraim and Judah to be joined together. The stick or law of Ephraim to be put with that or Judah and not vice versa, 19th verse.

No. 20, Fourth Paper.—Ezek. xxxvii, 20, 23, shows that when the above should be accomplished God would then gather Israel, bring them to their own land, etc. Israel began to gather to Palestine or their own land in 1847. The former and the latter rains are restored to the land.

No. 21, Fourth Paper.—Ps. lxxxv., 11, 12. —Before the two sticks, Ephraim and Judah, could be joined, "truth" should spring out of the earth. If we ask what is truth, Jesus in

No. 22, Fourth Paper.—John xvii., 17, tells us God's word is truth. When truth should spring out of the earth the land of Palestine should then yield its increase; see Ps. lxxxv.; 12, and Israel set in the right way, Ps. lxxxv., 13.

No. 23, First Paper.—A nation to speak out of the ground.

No. 24, Fourth Paper.—Isa. xxix., 8, 13, shows the nations drunken, but not with strong drink, and the vision of all as the words of a book which was sealed, which men deliver to the learned. Joseph Smith and Martin Harris delivered the words of the sealed book (taken out of the ground) to Professor Anthon, of New York. He was the President of Columbia College, and is said to be the best classical scholar that America ever produced. He said: "I cannot read a sealed book." The book being delivered to Joseph, he said, "I am unlearned." God then inspired the unlearned boy to read the book, as He says in Isa. xxix., 14.

"I will do a marvellous work and a wonder," did in

No. 25, Fourth Paper.—Isa. xxix., 17, says in a very little while after this takes place Lebanon or Palestine should turn into a fruitful field, and then the

No. 26, Fourth Paper.—18th verse declared "The deaf shall hear the words of the book, and in 19th verse the meek shall increase their joy, and in 22nd verse Jacob not now be ashamed; 23rd verse but should fear the God of Israel; 24th verse and they that erred in spirit and murmuring came should learn doctrine.

No. 27, First Paper.—Daniel xii, 4, Daniel to seal up a book till time of the end. 9th verse: He did not understand why this was; but was to go; 9th verse, his way as the words were closed up and sealed till the time of the end, and the 10th verse declares that at that time, the time of the end the wise should understand the book.

No. 28, First Paper.—Habakkuk ii, 1 Habakkuk commanded, 2nd verse, to write a vision upon 3rd verse tables which at the end should speak and not lie etc.

[BRAGTUS WIMAN TALKS BACK.]

His Relations with Prime Ministers—Retaliating on the Canadian Men.

New York, Feb. 17.—Mr. Erastus Wiman was yesterday shown a despatch from Ottawa with reference to Col. F. C. Denison's speech introducing his motion regarding Government control of telegraphs, stating Mr. Wiman of using his interest in telegraph lines to send confidential despatches to Canadian newspapers discussing the probability of the purchase of Canada by the United States. Mr. Wiman said: "I have nothing whatever to do with the despatches of the Associated Press which go from the United States to Canadian papers over the telegraph lines of which I am president. I am laboring earnestly to promote closer commercial relations between the United States and Canada, and the progress of the movement is as great in the next two years as it has been in the past two years. The customs line between the two countries will be obliterated before very long. I have used the wires over my own telegraph lines [illegible] and for this I am quite willing to be held responsible. But the attack made upon me in Parliament by the ultra-loyalist party, as represented by Col. Denison, has about as much effect as water on a duck's back, as was shown by the haste with which the Government snubbed the motion of one of the supporters to acquire the telegraphs of the company."

Mr. Wiman alluded to the excitement prevailing throughout Canada owing to the proposals contained in the bill of Congressman Baker, recently introduced. "The effect of this bill," he said, "will be to increase the duty on Canadian products on their admission into the United States to an extent that will almost paralyze the Canadian export trade to this country. In the single article of eggs, which are now free, Canada has become a great exporter, and fourteen million dozens have been sent to the United States within the last year. The proposal is now to put a duty of five cents on each dozen. There is not a farmer's wife throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion but will feel the effect of such a tax, and the sting of retaliation which the bill carried with it is more widespread and effective than anything that has occurred. It is true that Canada has invited this retaliation, but nevertheless it is greatly to be deplored."

For having endeavored to promote an understanding between the two countries which would render such hostile action impossible, ultra-loyalists in Canada, Mr. Wiman said, called him a traitor.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Blessing St. Mary's R. C. Church—Robbed in a Smoking Car.

Toronto, Feb. 16.—The ceremonials connected with the blessing of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church took place yesterday occupying 3½ hours. The Bishops of the province, and all the priests who could be spared from their charge assisted at the service. Bishop Walsh of London preached the sermon, Bishop Dowling of Hamilton blessed the church and Bishop Cleary of Kingston celebrated the mass. The edifice was begun three years ago and has cost $60,000.

Around town there is a rumor that the members of the Hamilton, the Toronto and the Montreal Boards of Trade will be asked to sign a petition to the Government, praying that Adam Brown, M. P., or N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., be appointed minister of a portfolio of commerce to be created.

A merchant named Quinn, from St. Thomas, was robbed on the incoming Canadian Pacific train Friday night of $260 in cash while asleep in the smoking car. The thief also roused Mr. Quinn's overcoat and rubbers. The effects were reported to Government Detective Murray, who on Saturday recovered the coins and contents from a York-street pawnshop. There is no clue to the identity of the thief.

The Master-in-Ordinary resumed his investigation on Saturday into the claims of Hugo Bloch, Dr. Manton and the Bank of Nova Scotia against the assets of the Central Bank, for the deposit receipts issued to Cashier Allen to M. S. Cox. The grounds on which these claims are resisted by the liquidator is that they were improperly issued. A number of letters not previously used as evidence was put in in behalf of the liquidator, showing that heavy pressure was brought to bear on Allen, and that the bank was struggling under a heavy burden long before it closed its doors.

The Police Magistrate on Saturday committed William Cane to prison for 18 months on the charge of stealing a horse and cutter at Addington, in the county of Lincoln.

Sir John Ross of Halifax, Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in Canada; Prince Dhuleep Singh, Capt. Jenkins, A.D.C., and Mr. Lorn MacDougall reached the city last night from Niagara Falls, the beauties of which they have been admiring for the last few days. They will remain here for a day or so.

WINTER

is the season of the year when colder weather increases the expense, and heavier and more nourishing food is necessary to maintain the health. Many people, on account of poverty, cannot, when prices go up, more readily purchase the proper articles of food required, and hence suffer in health during the winter months. We have always taken extra pains to keep the best goods, and always sold low, and the coming winter we have made extra preparations to meet the demand for good goods at low prices. We have purchased our groceries entire and will not be undersold by any house in the trade. Our teas, coffees, confectionery, canned meats, tobaccos, cigars and a variety of articles too numerous to mention, will please you.

THE BLACK BESS.

By HARRIET PRESCOTT SPOFFORD.

(Copyrighted.)

MAN who loves from his boyhood her who becomes his fate, hardly knows the nobility of his love, as does he who, from a lonely condition of which he thought well enough before, finds himself changed into a new creature, and living the life of those already blest. With the first one his love has grown as he has grown, and his weaknesses with him. It may be that love's labour conquers those weaknesses; but with the other love comes a tyrannical tyrant and usurps the place of everything less noble; his heart is clean swept and garnished—a shrine for the object of his worship; he has undergone a purification, a sanctification that is scarcely less than what I, at least, when I first thought of wooing Margaret for my wife, and possession of her goodness, never made it otherwise.

To say that she was beautiful would fail to give even a conception of her grace, form and face. Language would fail for me to set down any categorical description of her loveliness, with her large, fair, pale face; the eyes so gray and dark that they grew as the poem says, like the shades of evening from which the stars look out; of the features, which would have been sculptured had they been less perfect, with rainbow and shining mist of the tresses of finest, darkest hair, sweeping down the temples in ceaseless curves; of the unspeakable sweetness of the smile—that smile which seemed to shine on her head and play with sunshine and warmth. Never was there such another woman made as Margaret. His mind, too, was no [illegible] than her person. It had a wide [illegible] light itself, and gave color and vitality to every object that it rested on. Of humble birth, and with no means of education beyond those afforded by the village school and the church library, she had nevertheless cultivated herself to a point beyond that attained by many women when living a luxury of life and breathing the atmosphere of art.

It had always made me wonder, my relation with her, what she could have seen in me so to bestow herself as she did. I, myself, though still so young was not entirely a boor; indeed, being a poor man, I was thought eccentric, perhaps because I was not a fool; but, though now sitting at my ease, a tolerably well read man of wealth, having climbed easily by others' help, speculated largely and daringly, studied where I could and as I went, yet then I was only the engine driver, engaged by the Grand Trunk Railway Company, running night after night, year after year, on the line between Toronto and Montreal, my body, for ever black with grime and smoke, and all in the midst of a wild relish of danger.

It is a singular fact that the human mind can become habituated to any existence. Though I shall never forget the night when I first drove my engine out of Waterwey, not too familiar with the route, dreading the darkness and the responsibility, fatalistic, indeed, with a thirst for adventure, yet fear, more fierce than as many years since I laid hand on lever or signaled for a station, I could take her down-hill, over marsh and meadow and drawbridge, up the long mountain grade, down the terrible trestlework, round that curving precipice, one side sheer rock up into the stars, the other nothing but black darkness and an empty gulf of dizzy depth, through the thick, reverberating tunnels, down the long inclines, and whistle for the brakes at Babylon, with as much nonchalance as when I took the reins from my groom this morning and gave my brown beauties their head for a breezy bit of business down the park.

She was a rusher, that engine of mine, the Black Bess—they had not begun calling them then for the [illegible] locomotives [illegible] if you asked it; though I've known the time, on a rainy 5 o'clock morning when, with all steam on, her wheels made their revolutions and she stood still; [illegible] side of an up grade, both fireman and myself, jumping off, had to walk by her panting sides and sprinkle the rust rails with sand to get her over. But, although I've owned since then as choice specimens as ever stepped the turf, I never cared for any that reminded of them all as I did for the Black Bess, and I polished her as carefully, and, in early days, handled her as daintily, as though she were the expected winner of a needle.

Feeling [illegible] my iron nerves all the [illegible] changed through which she had passed, since there are few whose affections are not drawn to their companion in peril; and the Black Bess and I had had it out one night, just as, clearing the Waterwey suburbs, we put on all speed for the long run across the marshes. The train was full, the steam was up, the very wind whistled behind us while we cleft it light as a feather, the Black Bess went as if she trod the air.

Suddenly, with a sharp turn of the course from the shelter of a young thicket, we came out on a low cross country road—a kind of a causeway raised upon the meadows and resting [illegible] the hilly [illegible] [illegible] there [illegible] the [illegible] I could see [illegible] over the [illegible] looked A white [illegible] the long and winding sweep; but at this moment an enormous load of hay, tilting heavily down on one side, [illegible] across the track and [illegible] blocked, not only for an instant's [illegible], but was fixed there. I can see it here, if I close my eyes, with such a weird distinctness in every line as might be if a grave light had stamped it on the plate of some supernatural camera.

Four great steaming oxen, in the glow of the [illegible] [illegible] projection from the darkness, with wild eyes and interlocked horns, and trampling and tugging at the arrested wheels, the tilting mountain of meadow hay, the drunken teamster, half hidden in its pillowy softness, asleep, and with his [illegible] [illegible] In vain, my comrade upon the tall load or the rod; in vain the short, sharp whistle of steam [illegible]; while I reached my hand to reverse the engine we should smatter all to flinders. One second the face, the form of this sleeping man, branded in on my brain as if by a searing iron; the next, a wild thought of Margaret, a great blow, and dumb darkness. The oxen and hay load were dashed together, the Black Bess was off the track and above her wheels in meadow mud, and I lay stunned and senseless.

When a person recovers from a concussion of the brain, it would sometimes be better if he had died. I learned this to my cost one day; but I did not think so on first getting myself after my long illness, through which I had kept hold of consciousness of the tender face of Margaret hanging above me, and as part of the delirium of which had been a singular confusion of her face with that of the man asleep in the mountain of meadow hay. The world was in the full, deep flush of summer; life seemed so good, love was so sure; Margaret was constantly beside me, the Black Bess was ready for me, and Christmas day, when it should come wrapped in its soft snows, was to give me my wife forever.

I got up [illegible], too quickly—too quickly by half; a long convalescence would have acted like a buffer to the shock I had received, and deadened its effect on all my system; but every month's salary was precious to me now; it was so much more added to that already laid up for the enriching of the humble little home whose prospect then was heaven; and before October had reddened her parallels, I drove the Black Bess again by night out of Waterwey.

Meantime my head was far from right. I knew that by the dull ache that sate upon it like a leaden cap; by the sharp pains that sometimes stabbed my eyeballs, as if needles were in the entering rays of light. Often, too, when people were speaking with me, their words sounded dully a long way off, and if I roused myself to some manner of enforced attention, I paid for it by a fresh [illegible] of blinding pain. When in this condition, I went through many of my duties by mere mechanical routine, and I think my faithful fireman, George Rowe, did more at such times toward running the train on time than did its engineer—unless the Black Bess were herself gifted with that sort of wizardry and more than human power which I sometimes fancied belonged to her. All this annoyance of mine, however, was but intermittent; had it been otherwise, had it been constant, I should not have remained [illegible] gradually I failed to believe that it was wearing off, never dreaming that it was but assuming a new form.

A Useful Article.

"I can certify to the great usefulness of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. We use it for burns, bruises, cuts, sores, rheumatism, sore throat, croup, etc., and recommend it to all as an excellent remedy." T. W. Appleby, Wingham, Ont. All medicine dealers sell Yellow Oil. 2w8d

Thrilling Torture.

Mrs. Henry M. Kitchen, St. George, Ont., says: "I had a bad cold which settled in my throat, causing a continual tickling, and I just coughed all the time. I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and in 3 days was getting better and in ten days I went to church. Our doctor don't think this to be true." 2w8d

Sad Affliction.

From a letter by Mrs. Sullivan, 194 West Ave., Hamilton, Ont.:—"After trying a number of medicines for liver complaint, from which I suffered for years, I bought two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and found it a complete cure My house is never without it." 2w8d

Poison Ivy Eruption.

For poison ivy eruption and for all burns, sore throats, rheumatism, etc., Mr. C. W. Weed, of Hall's Bridge, Ont., advises the use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which has been in use in his family for years. He regards it as a perfect cure.

They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockolorums of the Clothing Trade.

Sustaining the Search.

The search for the body of Mr. Thos. Coe still continues. All day Sunday a number of men were engaged breaking away the ice along the edge of the river in the expectation of finding the body lodged underneath, but so far no trace has been found.

Legal Intelligence.

In the Toronto law courts on Saturday the following case was heard before Justice Ferguson:—

Canada Company v. Rubidge.—G. F. Shepley and A. C. Macdonell for the plaintiffs. Lount, Q.C., for the defendant. The argument of this case is now heard after hearing of the evidence at the Chancery Sittings at Peterborough in March, 1888. The action is brought to recover possession of land, for mesne profits and damages for waste. Judgment reserved.

A Large Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mr. Jonathan B. Mann took place from his residence, 673 Water street, on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The deceased gentleman was a native of Smith township, having taken up his residence in town only last October. The cause of his death was a pleuritic affection, with which he was afflicted about a year. He leaves behind him a widow (Hannah Taylor, daughter of the late Charles Taylor, Smith,) and four children.

Rennie's Seed Catalogue.

We have received a copy of the handsomely illustrated Catalogue issued by Wm. Rennie, the well-known Seedsman of Toronto, and it is certainly the most complete publication of the kind which has reached us this season. Mr. Rennie offers a general list of Vegetable, Flower and Agricultural Seed, Seed Grain and Potatoes, and in addition to a large collection of standard varieties, has a number of sterling novelties, which are worthy of a trial from our patrons. The Catalogue will be mailed free to all upon application to William Rennie, Toronto.

Ashburnham's Boom.

One argument against annexation advanced by some of Ashburnham's residents is that the village is a proportionately more progressive place than Peterborough, and would have nothing to gain on that score. This would appear to be true when the real estate transactions of Mr. John Carlisle alone are taken into account. In a little over a year he has sold 85 building lots in Ashburnham alone, and last summer in Peterborough and Ashburnham some 96 were sold, many of them having houses in addition. Mr. Carlisle has already 18 new houses in hand for the coming season's building. The village certainly appears to be booming.

A Dry Day.

Saturday night and Sunday was a dry time in Peterborough—an exceedingly dry time, despite the rain and slush. The cause of this excessive aridity was the action of the hotel and saloon keepers in sealing up their bar-room doors at seven o'clock Saturday night. There was much mysterious knocking at back doors, sly nods and button-hole entreaties, but only those "in the ring" were able to secure a taste of the precious mountain dew. The cause of this was a visit from the police, who in accordance with the police magistrate's instructions, are doing there best to prevent Sunday "drunks." The intended is of course done by Saturday night expressing, and this has been prohibited by an emphatic warning to the liquor-sellers.

The Signs of the Times.

An Impending Conflict Between Skepticism and Superstition—The Remedy.

Rev. M. L. Pearson preached Sunday night upon the signs of the times. He chose for his text part of the 32nd verse of the 12th chapter of the 1st Book of Chronicles:

"And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do."

From this passage the reverend gentleman drew the lesson that it was the duty of the men of to-day to have an understanding of the times in which they lived—times which were critical, momentous and bewildering, and led many people to doubt the truth of all that a Christian regarded as sacred and consecrated. This resulted in infidelity, which was permeating the masses. Then there was an opposite tendency noticeable in others, that is, allegiance to old superstitions. While there was one class of men denying everything, another class clings to anything that a corrupt hierarchy is prepared to announce. An acute observer of the times must be prepared for a conflict. In Quebec there is great dissatisfaction with the superstition that has been destroying them, and as a result they are going in the very opposite direction—a recoil towards infidelity has set in that is feared will bring about a state of things in the new France that has marked the old. It was the duty of Christian people to come in between the two sons of skepticism and superstition and supply them with the true doctrine of life and immortality. And the prevalence of crime was a distinct characteristic of the times, and further, though happily not yet laden with an international war, there was a feeling of discontent among the European nations that portended trouble. The conflict between capital and labor was a prominent sign of the times, through which Socialism and Nihilism were ready at any moment to break forth. The condition of France, with its infidelity; Ireland, crushed by an unscrupulous landlordism and a still more unscrupulous hierarchy; in fact all over the world there was an ominous unrest. Then there was the great temperance question, which was never so important as to-day. A few years ago there was a certain class of men who, expelled from the courts of Europe, have found homes and asylums in this western world; and it appears the battle which is to issue in the destruction of the Jesuits, those enemies of our national, political and educational advancement, is to be fought on this continent. The impoverishment of once prosperous Spain, the troubles of Italy, the encyclicals, the stigmatizing of our education as godless, the speaking of the Bible as a sectarian book—all these things call us in this young nationality to beware. On the other hand there were most encouraging signs. There was nothing to fear; with a devoted and consecrated ministry, and a pious, earnest laity the church had nothing to apprehend. But it was well to have an understanding of the times, to know what Israel should do. What kind of men are required to meet the needs of the times? Men of careful discrimination, who will examine and calculate. Societies were right enough and proper, but there was danger of a man giving over his individuality to the mob. A man cannot rightfully rid himself of his personal obligation anymore than he can of his personal identity. Then men of large generosity, of masculine integrity, of uncompromising attachment to the volume of divine revelation. Men were wanted in the church who were not only abreast of the world but ahead of it, practical men of prudence and carefulness—in fact "men of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel should do."

Church Chimes.

The Sunday evening meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms was addressed by Mr. W. J. Herbison, late Secretary.

Rev. S. J. Shorey will preach the annual sermon to the Foresters on Sunday morning next in the Charlotte street Methodist church.

Mr. F. Annesley took the solo part in an anthem at the George street church Sunday night. Mr. Annesley is possessed of a good voice.

On Sunday Rev. P. C. Parker, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, preached the anniversary sermons of the 4th line Smith church. His pulpit in town was occupied by Rev. J. B. Huff, of Smith.

A meeting for the organization of a branch of the Dominion Evangelical Alliance will be held in the Y.M.C.A. hall next Friday afternoon. All church members are invited to attend.

Sunday was Sacrament day in the town Methodist churches. The love feast was held before the morning service and the Sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered after the evening service.

Thursday afternoon at four o'clock a "mothers' meeting" will be held at the George street church, preparatory to the commencement of the revival services. All mothers interested in the salvation of their children are urged to attend.

Rev. Father O'Counsell, of Brighton, said eight o'clock mass in St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday morning, and in the absence of Bishop Dowling and Rev. Father McEvay in Toronto the other services were taken by Rev Father Rudkins.

It was announced in the Methodist churches yesterday, that Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, the evangelists, would not be able to open their engagement in Peterborough till a week from next Sunday, March 3rd.

Sunday morning the organs of the George street and St. Paul's churches were minus water power owing to some defect of the waterworks. The organ in St. Paul's was silent, but the one in the George street church was pumped by hand. By evening the defect was remedied.

At the conclusion of the services in the George street church Sunday night Rev. M. L. Pearson referred in touching terms to the death of Mrs. Manning, of Orillia, the wife of a former pastor, and asked the Recording Steward to send Rev. Mr. Manning a letter expressing the congregation's condolence and sympathy.

The new St. Mary's R.C. church was dedicated at Toronto Sunday, the ceremony of dedication being performed by Bishop Dowling, of Peterborough. Rev. Father O'Connor, Bishop-elect, and Rev. Father McEvay, of Peterborough, were among the clergy who assisted.

Sunday night in St. Peter's Cathedral an encyclical letter from His Holiness Pope Leo XIII, on the occasion of the close of the year of his sacerdotal jubilee, was read to the congregation, urging all Christians to lead a holy life. The letter referred to the degeneracy, the evil teaching, the infidelity and socialism of the age, but added that there were signs of a reviving faith that encouraged the Church.

At the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, Sunday evening, Rev. A. C. Wilson preached to a large congregation upon the subject of Scott Act vs. License. The Act was upheld as a competent measure if properly enforced, but both governments were blamed for not giving the people the machinery of the law for its proper enforcement. The reversed gentleman condemned the license law, no matter how strict or exacting it was, as illegal and a measure that no christian or temperance man could conscientiously support. He urged his hearers to support the Scott Act in the coming repeal contest.

Arrested for Forgery.

Irvine Rorabeck, of Dummer, Re-Arrested and Confined in Gaol.

Sunday afternoon constable Stewart drove down to Norwood, and near the village arrested Irvine Rorabeck at his own house about half past seven in the evening. The prisoner was brought back to town and in the police court this morning was charged with forgery. County Crown Attorney Wood appeared for the prosecution and Mr. A. Stevenson for the prisoner. A remand was granted until Thursday to allow the prisoner to prepare for his trial. Rorabeck is an old grey-haired man and certainly appears more like a hard-working farmer in struggling circumstances than the "sharper" his alleged offence would indicate.

It will be remembered that on November 15th, 1888, one Washington Veeberg presented a forged mortgage upon the farm of Mr. Gardner, of Dummer, for sale at the Midland Loan and Savings Co's office at Port Hope. Investigation led to the discovery that the mortgage was a forgery, and Irvine Rorabeck was arrested as being the man who presented it under the name of Veeberg. He escaped from his Norwood gaoler before being brought to trial, but Chief Russel learning that the prisoner was at his home in the vicinity, sent down P. C. Stewart Sunday to arrest him. Rorabeck states that he has been at his own home ever since he escaped.

The Peterborough Curlers again in the Contest for the Governor-General's Trophy—Millbrook Defeated Saturday Night.

Contrary to all expectations the Peterborough curlers are again in the contest for the Governor-General's cup, and their opponents are their old-time foes, the Lindsay club. Peterborough made a small average this year, only 11, and they scarcely expected to be in the final, but Mr. McGill, on Saturday night, received a telegram announcing that they were to play off with Lindsay. Their score was below that of the Lindsay men, who averaged 12½. The match takes place at Ottawa on a date agreeable to both clubs. The Peterborough curlers will have to work hard if they are to win the trophy this year. Last winter they had a comparatively easy victory over Truro, N.S.

Poetical Appreciation.

Mr. William Telford of Smith, has received from Mr. Thomas Latto, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a letter inclosing the lines printed below. Mr. Latto on reading a copy of Mr. Telford's poems was so deeply impressed by the native poetic talent of Mr. Telford, as displayed in his poems, under the adverse circumstances referred to in the biographical sketch prefacing his poems. Mr. Latto relieved his feelings by at once penning the following—

IMPROMPTU ON READING THE POEMS OF A MOST WORTHY MAN AND TRUE POET.

Thanks, William Telford, for some pleasant hours,
Spent in thy muse's garden where I found
Gowans and blue bells richly scattered round,
Blossoms of beauty, fairies' perennial flowers.
Thy fate like Burns, tho' bleak thine opening day,
The spark divine was there, and Scottish grit
Made thee for choir of tuneful poets fit,
Cheered by imaginations kindling ray.
Thou need'st not fear to lay thy tribute pure
Of simple song on Scotia's altar high;
What best thou lovest and would'st have endure
The world will never willingly let die,
Impartial verdict of the after time
Shall vindicate the justice of my rhyme.

Address and Presentation.

The Choir of St. John's Present Miss Errett, Leading Soprano, With a Complimentary Address and Handsome Dressing-Case.

Miss Adda Errett left town this morning for Toronto, where she enters upon the duties of a responsible teaching position in Miss Dupont's Ladies' Boarding School, 168 John street.

Miss Errett has for about nine years been a member of the choir of St. John's Church, and for about six years the leading soprano. During this time she has been most assiduous in her attendance, her place having been rarely vacant at either morning or evening service. In view of these facts and in view of her departure, the choir met Miss Errett at the residence of Mr. Seward, organist of the church, when the following address was read by Mr. A. V. R. Young:

To Miss Adda Errett, Peterborough, Ontario:

Dear Miss Errett,—We the undersigned members of St. John's church choir learning, with much regret, of your intended departure from Peterborough, desire to express to you the assurance of our sorrow at your departure. We have, most of us, been engaged in singing, as a choir, with you several years and have always found you as leading soprano at your place and performing creditably your difficult and a arduous duties, and we are sure it will be a difficult matter to obtain a person who will fill your now vacant place as acceptably to the congregation, and so creditably to herself as you have done. We, however, understand that our loss will be your gain and, therefore, offer you our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the attainment of a position more congenial to your taste and one which you can so well fill, we are sure, in a highly satisfactory manner. In token of the earnestness of our respect, esteem and appreciation, we beg you to accept the accompanying dressing case, and with it our best wishes for your future, and we pray our Heavenly Father that, though temporarily separated, we may be reunited in the heavenly choir, where perfect service of song and perfect happiness will be eternal.

Signed on behalf the choir,
A. V. R. Young.

Miss Errett was very deeply touched by this expression of good will and appreciation and briefly expressed her thanks. She had always felt a deep interest in its success, and her removal from town would not abate that interest, and she would always be happy to hear of its prosperity. Miss Errett went to Toronto this morning to enter upon her new duties, followed by the good wishes of a large number of friends in musical, social and educational circles.

Personal.

Mr. Thos. W. Spencer, of Palestine, Texas, who left Peterborough about two years ago, has returned for a week or so.

Mr. W. C. C. Logan has resigned his position in Mr. John Nugent's drug store, and is at his home in Fenelon Falls for a few weeks visit, at the conclusion of which he will go to Grand Forks, Dakota, where his brother, Dr. J. R. Logan, is located.

Mr. Alex. Hamilton's many friends will be pleased to know that he is greatly improved and is recovering as rapidly as can be expected under the circumstances. The injuries received by his fall from the car were much more severe than at first anticipated. His numerous friends hope to see him about again shortly, none the worse from the effects of his mishap.

Got to Move Along; therefore the price is no object. Good groceries within the reach of all at M. R. Kidd's.

Licenses to Sell Spirituous Liquors.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

Sir,—This means that thirty or more persons, in consideration of their paying to the corporation of Peterborough a certain amount of money, shall some of them sell from one pint to quarts and gallons, to be taken home by any person who will pay for the same, and some of them may sell liquor to be drunk on the premises. Now, in order that these dealers may make it profitable, they each must have at least ten boys under 21 years of age to practice on and so fill up the places of those who shall drop off by degrees. Well, that will require 300 boys, say 200 from Peterborough and 200 from the country—yes no skirking, for if the country says no license, why no license it must be. Now it is for each Sabbath school to select their boys and see how many they can spare, and also inform the parents of the same. As the George street church has the largest number of scholars they will be expected to furnish the most. Now let none of the Sabbath schools shrink from contributing their complement, because the fathers have decreed that for the present and future good of the town, license must be given and liquor must be sold in order, mark you, that the rich, not the poor, may have their taxes decreased by the license revenue. Now, if the amount of money paid for liquor licenses was divided equally among all the ratepayers independent of the amount they are assessed, that would be something like fair play; and in fact it would be justice, and as it is for the general good let all share equally. Now, sir, suppose we petition the present Legislature for a law compelling the town treasurer to divide all the money secured from liquor licenses equally among the taxpayers, to be paid to the said ratepayers on the last days of June and January in each year. Give us such a law and it will not be long before we have all the prohibition we want. I am sure of it. Here is my reason. The criminal expenses growing out of the liquor traffic will then have to be paid by the rich whose assessments are large and are receiving no revenue to make up the said loss. Yes sir, everyone of them will go for prohibition pure and simple, and that very quickly too.

Respectfully yours.
No Boys.

News Nuggets.

—The town council meets to-night.

—Miss Errett's position as teacher in the West Ward school will be temporarily filled by Mrs. Fowler.

—The Business College is closed to-day on account of the illness of Principal Bean.

—The electric light lamp at St. Peter's Cathedral was blown from the pole by the wind Saturday night.

—The veterans of Belleville gave a concert Friday night. Mr. R. M. Roy, now of Peterborough, was one of the "veterans of 1866."

—The Orillia Times says two Peterborough lumbermen were in Waubashene on Wednesday inspecting the burner there, with a view of erecting a similar one in this town.

—Mr. Geo. Cochrane says the electric lights of Peterborough were plainly discernible in Lakefield last night. Either the lights were unusually bright or the atmosphere was very clear.

—A report was current yesterday and today that a man had committed suicide Saturday night by jumping off the Hunter street iron bridge. This rumor has probably been confounded with the suspected suicide of Mr. Coe.

—Bro. R. Shortley, District Deputy Grand Master, paid an official visit to Spry Lodge A. F. and A. M., Fenelon Falls, on Friday last, 8th Feb., the Gazette says, and expressed himself highly pleased with its flourishing condition. In the evening he was entertained at an oyster supper by the members of the lodge.

—A Lindsay correspondent of the Orillia Times gives publicity to a report that Mr. T. G. Bradburn, of Peterborough, intends erecting a large opera house on the corner of Kent and Lindsay streets, and adds:—"It is badly needed here and would make a good investment." Peterborough needs a new opera house just as badly and it would probably be a better paying investment here.

CLEVELAND'S
SUPERIOR
BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

DINNER

is always a subject for sighs with a housekeeper and she often wishes that the law settled the question of "What shall we have for dinner,' and prescribed certain dishes for certain days. Such a law would certainly save a great deal of worry and questioning to many tired women. But it is not such a difficult problem to solve after all especially in Peterborough, where we have such a good market, besides as China Hall you can secure full Dinner Sets that will grace any table for so little money that anyone can afford the outlay.

ONLY THREE SPEECHES.

ON SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT'S TREATY RESOLUTION.

The Debate Suddenly Terminated With a Division—The Resolution Defeated by 20 Majority.

That it has become a matter of extreme importance to the well-being of the people of this Dominion that the Government and Parliament of Canada should acquire the power of negotiating commercial treaties with foreign states. That an humble address be presented to Her Majesty praying that she will empower her representative, the Governor-General of Canada, acting by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, to enter by an agent or representative of Canada into direct communication with any foreign state for the purpose of negotiating commercial arrangements leading to the advantage of Canada, subject to the prior consent or subsequent approval of the Parliament of Canada signified by Act.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—This is the notice which Sir Richard Cartwright placed on the paper on Feb. 13, and the debate thereon was began in the House at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The debate, which was expected to last for three or four days, came to a sudden end at 10.45 to-night by the House dividing after but three speeches had been made.

The speakers were Sir Richard, Mr. Foster and Mr. Davies. Mr. Davies went through at 10.30 and the Opposition members glanced across the floor to see who was going to reply. It was thought that Mr. Tupper would be put up. No one on the Government side, however, made a move and a painful silence of five minutes followed.

Sir John called out "Question." Then some one said, "Call in the members."

Mr. Laurier asked in a quiet way that the debate be adjourned, but Sir John replied across the floor, "Call in the members." The whips then made for the various rooms about the building and drummed up all they could find.

The galleries were crowded at the afternoon and evening sessions and in them were several distinguished visitors. Lady Stanley was in the Speaker's Gallery for over two hours this afternoon and she listened to Sir Richard and the Minister of Finance with apparent interest. Lady Stanley was accompanied by her new daughter-in-law, Hon. Mrs. Edward Stanley, daughter of the Duke of Manchester, and Miss Lister. The party remained until the Speaker left the chair at 6 o'clock and then drove to Rideau Hall amidst a snowstorm. In the evening Lady Macdonald and a party of friends were present.

The reporters had a distinguished addition to their gallery in the afternoon, being no less a person than Goldwin Smith. The doctor was assigned a place in the Opposition side of the gallery and before the debate began he spoke freely to those around him about the members of the Canadian House and the Imperial House. He thinks that Sir Richard Cartwright is a more forcible and better debater than Mr. Blake.

Sir Richard said that seven years ago Mr. Blake had brought this same matter before Parliament, but during that interval many important events had occurred; many things which were then assumed hypothetical had now become facts. It was now absolutely necessary that Canada should possess this treaty-making power. She should appoint her own agents to keep our Government well advised as to the feelings of other States towards us. It was quite impossible for the British Ambassador at Washington to attend to our wants, because of many quite ignorant of them wants. Canada was absolutely unsafe in trusting her affairs to any English ambassador or minister, no matter how sincere their intentions towards Canada might be.

Sir Richard then referred to the extreme danger that the Dominion stood in in the event of 1887, when a war of non-intercourse was threatened between the United States and Canada, two friendly countries. There was no way of avoiding such a catastrophe except of the roundabout of the British Minister at Washington and then to London. He challenged the Government to deny the existence of the terrible trade danger that the country stood in at that time, and yet we had not the power to do anything ourselves to avoid this. On that occasion Erastus Wiman, a Canadian living in the United States, advised us of those dangers and rendered very valuable service to this country.

"If not," said Sir Richard, "approve of the treatment of the late British Ambassador at Washington, but what position does it place Canada in? By reason of this personal tiff the diplomatic relations of England and the United States had been entirely suspended for several months, and we had no way of treating with the country that so much of our business interests were bound up with. Our greatest question of all—the fisheries—was still unsettled. No diplomat from England, no matter of how high a standing, could possibly understand our wants as well as one of ourselves.

"I have no doubt whatever that if the matter were properly and intelligently placed before the Imperial Government they would view it in a favorable light. If the Imperial Government said it was a power that they could not grant them it would be time to take another view of our position."

The true end of Confederation, the speaker maintained, was to pave the way for fuller rights and powers than we now possess. That was the way in which every man who had a drop of Canadian blood in his veins viewed the matter. We were now responsible for the good government of the whole of the North American continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and to carry out the object in all that is implied was an argument in favor of his contention. Canada must be defended by Canadian arms and Canadian hearts. We could not look elsewhere for these protecting influences. We could not look for precedents in the matter, for they would call us very little. Our position was entirely different from anything else in the world, and if our House of Commons had any function at all it was to build up a nation. That is what they were there for and that is what the people of Canada expected of them. If that were not so they were better without Confederation. This was a sentiment that was not alone confined to the Liberals.

Sir Richard then referred at length to the close relations between Canada and the United States, and he quoted figures showing that our trade with the people to the south of us was nine times as great as with the whole of the world, one including England and her colonies. The United States was our best customer for the products of our mines, for our produce and for manufactured products. Therefore it was quite manifest that we should possess the power to treat with that country. The true policy of England was to invest Canada with the absolute control of North American affairs. It was quite a work of the inner sort of American politicians to offer affronts to England over the shoulders of her colony Canada.

The power of treaty making would be a stepping stone to higher things. It would emancipate us from the lower plane of politics into which we have sunk. Our fisheries stretched for 3000 miles along the lines of one of the greatest powers on earth. We possessed power to do any amount of mischief, but were powerless to do any good. Canadians were best able to deal with Canadian interests. Our policy should be of the most friendly nature with the United States. [Cheers from the Opposition.]

Hon. C. E. Foster replied to Sir Richard in a vigorous speech, which lasted about two hours. He said the Liberal party was possessed of strange freaks of versatility and evolution. No matter what they shoved to the front or what their policy was it always ended in looking towards the United States. That seems to was their Mecca. It was a strange thing that the mover of the resolution asked for power to make a treaty with no country but the United States.

The motion was, said the Minister of Finance, but another way of demanding Unrestricted Reciprocity with that country. [Opposition cheers and cries of, "That's what we want."]

Mr. Foster then entered into an exhaustive statement of the progress that Canada had made under her present constitution, which he said he offered as a set off to the accusations which Mr. Laurier had made throughout Ontario, that the country had not gone ahead since 1861. He spoke of her magnificent public works as an indication of her resources, also of her social and moral advance.

"The resolution," said Mr. Foster, "of Sir Richard was but a sudden growth developed by exigencies of the party in opposition." He asked what good the treaty making powers would be without the prestige of Great Britain, without the moral force of Great Britain and the army and navy of Great Britain. Wherever the commercial interests of Canada had been involved the Mother Country had always invited the assistance and advice of our own representative. Canada had nothing to complain of on this score.

Mr. Davies of Prince Edward Island spoke for about an hour. He said that all our dealings were attended with annoyance and delays that would be easily overcome did we possess this treaty-making power. Whenever the Liberals offered to do anything to build up the trade of the country they were met with the same old arguments by their opponents. They could not fight with original weapons.

A voice: "They still stick to their obstenance."

Mr. Davies contended that the Liberals were the party that wanted to see Canada advanced to a state of greatness but their efforts and objects were always beauty misrepresented by the Government supporters. There had been abundant evidence offered at recent critical periods in our relations with the United States why Canada should be her own physician.

This was the result of the division:

There were only 16 "pairs."

A set of Montreal and Ottawa capitalists have designs upon the Ottawa River, the mighty tributary of the St. Lawrence, and Mr. Girouard has a bill before the House asking for the incorporation of the Montreal and Ottawa Boom Company, which apparently looks for extensive franchises along the great interprovincial streams.

A number of private bills were down on the order paper this afternoon for second readings and Sir Hector Langevin said he was satisfied to let them go before the various committees without discussion in the House. They could be talked about when they came back from the committees.

There were fourteen questions on the order paper this afternoon, many of them being of purely local interest. In answer to Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Mr. Carling said that in estimating the population of the Dominion at 4,945,497 the number assigned to each province was:

Ontario	1,184,738	Manitoba	157,624
Quebec	1,679,088	Brit. Columbia	131,300
Nova Scotia	452,217	P. E. Island	120,176
N. Brunswick	345,297	The Territories	108,000

In answer to Mr. Lepine, the Minister of Inland Revenue said the Government were considering the advisability of making the license fee of cigar factories commensurate with their capacity. Mr. Lepine had put a notice on the paper Friday enquiring if the Government intended to reduce the license from $75 to $6.

Mr. Charlton introduced a bill this afternoon to amend the Maritime law of Ontario.

The Postmaster-General gives notice tonight that he will introduce his bill on Wednesday respecting the postal service.

Mr. Boyle will ask on Wednesday the value of our entire importations from the United States of green fruits, seeds, trees and other articles placed on the free list by the order-in-Council dated April 13, 1888, from such date until Feb. 1, 1889. What would the revenue have been had they not been made free?

The House adjourned at 10.50.

THE LAZARETTO.

Inspector Smith's Annual Report—Leprosy in Canada Disappearing.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—Dr. Smith, inspector of the Lazarette as Tracadie, N.S., in his annual report to the Minister of Agriculture says leprosy in Canada is fast disappearing. There are at present nineteen inmates, eight males and eleven females. Since his last annual report two new cases were admitted, one of which came from Caraquet and the other from an adjoining parish. There were no deaths in the Lazaretto during the year. The general health of the inmates has been good.

A few weeks ago she made a thorough investigation of all cases of suspected leprosy in the adjoining parish of Caraquet, but found only one infected person, and he will soon be admitted to the hospital. The case is an interesting one. The boy, now 14 years of age, was, when 3 years old, attended by a leprous woman during the healing stage of a severe burn. Leprosy afterwards made its appearance and he is now in an advanced stage of the disease. His parents, brothers and sisters are free from it.

With this exception only two known cases, both residents of Tracadie, remain outside the Lazaretto. The whereabouts of the patient who escaped last year to the United States is now known and Dr. Smith is informed that the leper is about to return, being no longer able to earn a living.

CAPITAL GOSSIP.

Their Excellencies to Give a State Ball on March 4—Parliamentary Dinners.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—Lord and Lady Stanley will give a state ball at Government House on March 4 and parliamentary dinners will be given by Their Excellencies on Feb. 26 and 27, March 7 and 14. Their Excellencies will attend the skating carnival in the Rideau Rink on Feb. 27.

Madame Albani-Gye and Mr. Gye arrive at Rideau Hall to-morrow as guests of Lord and Lady Stanley.

Mr. G. Baden-Powell, M.P., will also arrive at the Hall to-morrow.

M. MELINE REGARDS HIS TASK AS HOPELESS.

He Said M. Rouvier Will Be Called Upon To Form a Ministry—A Proposition To Go Outside Parliament Entirely.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—M. Meline, recognizing the impossibility of forming a cabinet on the base of a concentration of the several Republican groups, has abandoned the attempt. It is expected President Carnot will appeal to M. Rouvier to form a ministry.

The Chamber of Deputies sat for a few minutes to-day and adjourned until to-morrow, rejecting a motion to adjourn until Thursday.

M. de Lastre said he would introduce a motion in favor of forming a ministry outside of Parliament.

The Senate by a vote of 207 to 68 passed a bill providing that press offences, especially that of insulting public personages, shall be dealt with by the correctional police tribunals.

SIXTEEN DEAD TAKEN OUT

THE TERRIBLE CALAMITY IN CONNECTICUT'S CAPITAL.

It is Known That 16 Perished, 19 Were Injured and 10 are Still Missing—The Latest Returns.

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 18.—Shortly before 5 o'clock this morning the entire city was shaken by a tremendous explosion, followed by an alarm of fire. The Park Central Hotel, a five-story brick building at the corner of High and Allyn streets, had practically disappeared and in its place was a huge pile of masonry, timbers and debris, from which issued steam and smoke. A portion of the rear of rooms at the rear of the main building remained standing but the partitions had been torn away and the rooms were opened to the air, the floors of many giving way and tumbling occupants and furniture upon the heap below. A few shrieks and groans were heard and then all was silent. The fire department responded promptly and the flames were quickly subdued, although it required several hours' work to thoroughly cool the ruins.

The servants occupied rooms in an annex at the rear. The explosion demolished the main room, but the frightened employes were safely taken out by the aerial ladder, two or three excited ones, however, jumping and receiving slight injuries. Willing hands soon set about removing the immense mass of masonry.

The first person rescued was Gen. Gaines, the colored porter. He was badly injured, and died soon afterwards. At 7 o'clock Superintendent Lawrence of the steam department appeared with a large gang of laborers to aid in the search. Helen Lepert of New Britain and Jennie Decker of Unionville were soon rescued, comparatively uninjured. Jacob B. Turpin, colored barber, was also taken out early. Rachel Cramer jumped from a window, breaking her leg. At 9 o'clock Harris Smith of Philadelphia, traveler for the Barnes Safe and Lock Company, was liberated by raising the timbers holding him down. He was slightly injured. At 10.30 the dead body of Dwight H. Buell, jeweler of this city, was recovered. The body was not mangled, death having been caused by suffocation.

The crowd of spectators became so large as to greatly impede the work of rescue. The police were too few to cope with the crowd. Accordingly at 10 o'clock the fire bell was sounded calling out five companies of the First Regiment Connecticut National Guard. A cordon of guards soon surrounded the vicinity of the ruins, doing excellent service throughout the day and night. That portion of the city reminded one of war times. By noon telegrams of inquiry were pouring in from every part of the country and friends of those supposed to be in the ruins were arriving by every train with an immense crowd of curious people from surrounding towns.

The lower floor of the spacious woolen warehouse of H. C. Judd & Root was made a temporary morgue. Here Coroner Spovey, Medical Examiner Fuller and Assistant Wright, with other physicians, were in attendance, and here the bodies were taken as fast as recovered and an opportunity given for identification. Those not identified were taken in charge by the city and cared for in the old City Hall. The injured were sent to the hospital. The recovery of bodies was slow owing to the accumulation of debris, but at nearly regular intervals one or two bodies were found during the afternoon. When claimed by friends they were delivered to undertakers. The city provided caskets, etc., for the bodies not yet claimed.

As a rule the corpses bore but slight marks of the fire, death resulting either from suffocation or bruising. The extent of the calamity is not yet known. The register of the hotel has not been found, and young Perry, the night clerk, is buried in the ruins. But from the best estimates procured from the landlord and others it is probable there were not far from 50 people in the hotel proper. Of these perhaps five may have escaped uninjured, leaving 45 to be accounted for. Ten are in the hospital and up to 11 p.m. 16 dead bodies had been taken from the ruins, leaving 19 missing, but there may be several more.

Mr. Andrew F. Whiting, actuary of the Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company and wife, Rev. Dr. Lavelette Perrin, agent of the Memorial Hall Association, and wife and Edward Perry, the night clerk, are still in the ruins.

The cause of the disaster was undoubtedly the explosion of the boiler in the basement. This boiler of 16-horse power was built in 1882. It was inspected last August and was then pronounced all right. No engineer was on duty at the time of the explosion, the custom being for the night engineer to bank his fires at midnight and go to bed. He does not sleep in the hotel. This engineer, Alexander Thuer, was arrested this afternoon on an indictment charging manslaughter. It is conjectured that Gaines, the dead colored porter, may have started the pumps throwing cold water into an overheated boiler.

The force of the explosion was terrific. People in all parts of the city were awakened by the shock, huge stones were shattered and iron pipes bent and twisted, windows in adjoining buildings and across the street demolished and panes of glass two blocks away were cracked. At the new railroad depot, a block away, a huge pane of plate glass was cracked and many plates were dislodged from the roof. Night employes in the railroad offices fled to the street in terror.

The list of bodies taken out thus far is as follows:

Dwight H. Buell, jeweler, Hartford.
George Gaines (colored porter) of the hotel.
J. George Engler, drug clerk, Hartford.
John W. Housman, traveler for the Revere Rubber Co., Boston.
J. C. Hill, Buffalo, N.Y., supposed to be a commercial traveler.
Louis M. Bronson, secretary of the Hartford Stove and Plumbing Company.
Wife and child of above.
George Ketchum, brother of the landlord.
Eddie Ketchum, aged 11, son of the landlord.
George W. Root, aged 61, Brockport, N.Y., traveler for Waite, Williams & Co., Boston.
A. H. Tillotson, traveler for the Merrill Chemical Co. of Cincinnati.
Two unknown men.
Maximilian Galody, proprietor of The Hartford Herald, and wife. Galody was formerly clerk in the Bureau of Statistics, Treasury department.
Mrs. Andrew F. Whiting (her body was burned to a crisp)
The body of F. J. Pendleton of Indianapolis, who was soliciting subscriptions for the Hendricks monument, is also known to be in the ruins.

The ten victims at the hospital are doing well, most of the injuries being superficial, although all are suffering from chill and exposure. Following is a complete list:

Helen Lepert, New Britain, scalp wounds and bruises.
Rachel Crammer, Avon, bruised and scratched.
J. B. Turpin (colored), barber.
W. M. Gay, Bayonne, N.J., uninjured except by exposure.
Henry Steffe, Philadelphia, commercial traveler, Wallington Ketchum and wife, badly bruised; Mrs. J. Decker, Unionville, broken leg; Michael Corrigan, bruised, not seriously; Enos James.

The hotel cost $120,000 and was insured for $90,000.

Proposed Reduction in Puddlers' Wages.

READING, Pa., Feb. 18.—Notices of reductions in wages of iron workers, to take effect about March 1, having been made in Reading, Harrisburg, Pottstown, Pottsville, Birdsboro and other places a joint meeting of delegates representing the three or four thousand iron workers affected will be held shortly to decide whether or not to accept. If the reduction is made it will bring puddler wages down to $2 and $2.25 per ton, which is lower than for many years, and all other employes will be refused from 7 to 10 per cent.

The Adulterated Milk Act.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I see by last week's EXAMINER that the Ontario Legislature is going to test the validity of the act passed by that body in 1885, to prevent frauds in supplying milk to cheese or butter manufactories; but before there is an appeal made against the ruling of the Supreme Court I see that the bill is to be brought before the House for some amendments. Now, sir, it appears to me that the manner of disposing of the fine in connection with the fraud, needs amending, for, instead of the one-half of the fine going to the local municipality, it should go to the factory to which the adulterated milk was sent. I hope you will draw the attention of the government to this fact when they submit it to the House for amendment, and have the fine go the factory which has suffered loss by reason of the fraud.

Yours truly,

T. J.

Bridgenorth's Health.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—I notice that Dr. Clark is off the line again with reference to his report to the council. His memory must be short. In my remarks I did not make it excusable to throw slops on the streets, I never saw the like done in this village, neither did he. I said, "crumbs or peelings thrown to dogs or pigeons would not cause typhoid fever, I did not say that typhoid was not a bad fever; I would refer the readers of the EXAMINER to the issue of the 7th Feb., and there they will get a true statement. The doctor is mistaken when he supposes that other influence has been at work urging me to do this. But I may say just here that there were a number of others in the village who intended to take the matter in hand had I not done it. If the doctor does not write square he will hear from them yet. I am glad the doctor had not much room to twist in this matter but used more room than was his. I was glad he gave us credit for a well kept village at last. He did not do so in his report to the council. I say too that the council did their duty in trying to investigate the cause of the fever, and particularly our worthy Reeve. They also did their duty when they were indignant at the $54 00 charge to have it changed as I understand they did. Thanking you for space in your valuable paper I remain as ever yours, etc.

Havelock.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Peterborough for ever, Havelock for a little longer.

Mr. George Liscomb, having purchased a nicely situated lot commanding a fine view of our enterprising village, intends erecting a most comfortable domicile for himself and family. Success Geordie.

On Monday night Feb. the 25th, a social will be held in the Free Manse:—Come one, come all, though Paul and Wyeoman's smoke stack fall.

Efforts are being made to organize in Havelock a Masonic Lodge.

Father, she asked in accents mild,
Is that pot of potatoes nearly biled,
But not a word did her father reply,
For he was watching the pot with an anxious eye.

The annual tea of the Campbellford Presbyterian church congregation was held on Wednesday night, Feb. 13th. The gobbo gobble was not to be despised.

Business good at the well known Havelock dry goods and grocery emporium, owned by Mr. A. B. Fuller. A. B. is a fine specimen of physical manhood.

Fashionable social grathering at the house of Abraham Waller Esq. Old Havelock, joyously passed the hours with such attractions as music charades and pretty maids.

No improvements in the condition of Mr. Peter Buchanan of Belmont; he has been long suffering from consumption

Ere many moons shall have shed their light on the gable end of Wm. Mathieson's old saw mill, Havelock can boast of having a tailor of its own. Then its men need no longer go to Norwood town, through chilling blasts and winter snows, to get their breeches and other clothes.

On last Friday night the home of James Burgess Esq., South Belmont was brilliantly illuminated, the occasion being the assembling there of a large number of guests, all on social recreation bent. The beauty and fashion of Havelock were well represented. The silence of the night was broken by the melodious voices of the returning guests.

Successful revival services are being held by the Rev. Messrs Lascomb and Osterhout, Methodist church ministers.

The Presbyterian Sunday school is in excellent working order under the efficient management of Mr. and Mrs. Madill, assisted by the following staff Mr. Wm. Mathieson, Mr. Thomas Cummins, Miss Aggie Morrow, Mrs. Hubble and Miss Ella Waller, who is also secretary and organist. The number of scholars present last Sunday was 95.

In Havelock there are some kind and generous men, but none take a deeper interest in human soles than Mr. John Glenn. He is the village shoemaker.

The staff of life is furnished by Hill, the baker.

Dr. Campbell, of Port Huron, Mich., long and favorably known in Belmont and Dummer, is visiting among old friends and acquaintances. He bears remarkably well, physically and mentally, his burden of 76 years.

The time has surely arrived when Havelock's theological exponents should speak out relative to the vote soon to be taken for the repeal of the Scott Act. Peterborough has set a good example in this respect. Let us have agitation and lots of it on the question of prohibition v. the liquor traffic. Agitation had but one result in regard to American slavery—that was its abolition. There is something radically wrong with a government and a people—the one to impose and the other to submit to a tax on virtue and sobriety for the support of drunkenness and vice.

Paul & Wyeoman, proprietors of the Havelock steam saw mill are rushing business. During the past few weeks a large supply of logs have been brought to the mill.

We understand that Mr. Garrison, contractor, of Bellaville, has secured the contract for the completion of the new Presbyterian church erecting here. It is to be hoped that ere long the building will stand out in all its beautiful proportions, fully prepared for the worship of the Divine Being. And when such is the case, it will be a credit to the place and to the people.

Divine service at the Stony Lake appointment was conducted last Sunday by Mr. James Madill, at present in charge of the Havelock Presbyterian congregation.

Dummer.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met in Warsaw, Feb. 9th. All the members present. Minutes of last meeting read and signed. On motion the Reeve was instructed to procure a table and half a dozen chairs for council room. On motion the audit, as finally audited by council, was adopted; and clerk instructed to cause abstract to be published, and 200 copies of Detailed Statement printed for distribution. Ordered paid:—To Rev. Fauvel, Esq., Treasurer, testimonial fund, $10.00; Chas. Griffin, extra expense on deed, $2.00; J. R. Stratton, stationery per Wm. Darling, $6; B. Jennen jun., auditors' account audit, $3.00; Edward Mallyons, auditors' accounts 1888, $5.00. By-laws passed. One to appoint Auditors, Assessors, and local Board of Health, one to provide for payment of money, and one to regulate the manner of assessing Statute Labor. Council adjourned to the 30th March next.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

A Quiet Day—To Amend the Game Laws—The Game Exemption.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—At the Legislature yesterday there was a marked decrease of petitions, and the half dozen or so that were presented were of an unimportant character. Two of these were from Kingston and Sussex and related to the game laws. Mr. Leys presented the petition asking for an Assessment Act amendment exempting dwellings to the extent of $200.

Among the bills introduced was one from the Attorney-General dealing with the act respecting appeals on prosecutions to enforce penalties under the Provincial Act. At present there is no appeal to the Appeal Court in these cases, and the new bill allows such an appeal to quash convictions, provided that the Attorney-General of the Province certifies that the decision involves some question on the construction of the British North American Act and that the same is of sufficient importance to justify the appeal.

The Attorney-General also introduced a bill to make further provisions respecting the Parry Sound and Muskoka districts. This measure makes some amendments to the one respecting Muskoka and Parry Sound, regarding the District Court.

Mr. Balfour introduced a bill to amend the act respecting mortgages on real estate. This bill deals with loan companies and the contracts they make with borrowers. Under the present law the mortgagor is liable under all the rules and bylaws that a company may make subsequent to the execution of his particular mortgage. Unless the rules, bylaws and regulations are set forth in the body of the mortgage they should not be liable to any rules made subsequent to its execution. And it is against this that the bill provides.

The bill to amend the Registry Act, on motion of Mr. Wood, was read a second time. This bill is intended to provide an opportunity to register receipts at the registry office upon payment of a fee.

Mr. Hardy introduced a bill to provide representation for the district of Nipissing in the Legislative Assembly. A deputation with this object in view waited on the Cabinet some time ago.

Mr. Clarke (Wellington) moved the second reading of a bill for the better protection of insectivorous and other birds.

Mr. Stewart's bill to amend the Municipal Act also received its second reading.

Mr. Balfour's bill to amend the Ontario Election Act was read a second time. It provides for telephone communication from Price Island to the mainland for election purposes. Mr. Balfour became very eloquent over the hardships endured by those who acted as messengers in former elections. In the winter time communication with the island is difficult and dangerous.

Mr. Mowat suggested that the provisions contained in the bill might be extended to other localities.

Mr. Creighton created some amusement in the preternaturally dull proceedings by objecting that ballot papers could not be sent by telephone, the means of communication suggested in Mr. Balfour's bill. An explanation was furnished the Opposition member.

The Insurance Companies' return was presented to the House yesterday by the Hon. the Provincial Secretary. It deals with those companies engaged in business under Ontario charters, the amount of fire insurance at risk at Dec. 31; policies in force in each year from 1861 to 1887, etc. The amount of fire insurance at risk in purely mutual companies during 1887 was $90,697,185; policies, 66,686; total losses paid, $154,930. Mixed mutual companies, amount of risks during 1887 was $31,654,230; policies, 20,710; losses paid, $138,087. Regarding joint stock companies, the amount of risks for 1887 was $11,190,612; policies issued, 12,966; losses paid, $61,793.

Mayor Biggin, Major Hamilton and Messrs. Alexander Smith, David Graham and James Conmee composed a deputation that waited on the Government yesterday. They wish to utilize the water power of Lake Superior for the Electric Light, Waterworks and Water Power Co., and their object in meeting the Cabinet was to secure the right of way to cut a canal 60 chains long from the Lake to South Ste. Marie. This company entered into an agreement with the corporation of the Soo by which they are granted 5 per cent on the bonds of the company.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A $5000 Damage Suit Against the City—Fall of a Derrick.

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—A writ for $5000 damages for alleged false arrest has been served on the city at the instance of George Crane. The plaintiff was arrested on a charge of larceny, honorably acquitted, and hence the charge.

The Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Ontario for 1888-9, will hold its annual meeting in Toronto, tomorrow and Thursday, in Victoria Hall.

Another chapter in the troubles of Druggist John O. Wood, 181 King-street west, because of his being implicated in the death of Lillie Charlton, consists of the fact that a bailiff has possession of the premises on a claim for rent.

E. Dack & Son, boot and shoe men, who keep a store on King-street, have had a little difficulty with eleven of their men, working on hand-sewed goods. The men claim they are asked to accept a reduction of 50 cents per pair on one class of boots and 95 cents per pair on another class, and on refusing to accept the alleged reduction, they were locked out.

The big 30 foot derrick employed in the western square of the St. Lawrence market to hoist the heavy iron pillars into position came down with a crash yesterday. A sleigh belonging to Chas. Dudley, stall 4, was in the road and was crushed into fragments. Many people had narrow escapes.

MONEY

Probably someone has some man in the house who has made a claim why of newspaper advertising could be found who would say that there is no money in it. If it is beneficial to business to have a large circle of acquaintances, in the same proportion is it beneficial to reach the masses of the people. There are thousands of merchants and dealers who are interested in reaching town and county residents and if they knew that [illegible] could do so at a small cost through a newspaper with a large circulation, circulation. To such THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER come as welcome and sure boon. Its large and reliable [illegible] of the Mid District for merchants to [illegible] and penetrate into every corner of the town and county. Advertising rates are such as will ensure the continuance of business relations with any advertiser after once started. We shall be pleased to give figures for advertising space in THE DAILY AND WEEKLY EXAMINER, and send sample copy on application. All letters of inquiry promptly attended to. Address J. R. [CONTINUED.]

My spirits had been greatly depressed during the period when I felt these results of my disaster the most acutely; they became as much too buoyant when I found that my natural strength and vigor were conquering the recurrence of the attacks. I had fully realised how wrong and how impossible my intended marriage with Margaret would be under such circumstances, and only when I found myself able to look the rising sun in the face, and to drive from twilight to twilight, from the gray of evening to the gray of dawn, without an extra throb in my temples, did I dare to dream fresh dreams of my long deserted home and its delights. The only trace of trouble that appeared to be remaining with e, at least, was a slightly impaired eyesight, so that what once I could distinctly see in detail when at the distance of a mile, now became but a blur, and rendered me, on more or less seldom occasion, subject to some optical delusion. However, this did not interfere with my business, and, as I said, I went on dreaming in such an atmosphere of expectation and assurance, that I might have seemed to any spiritual observer like one transfigured and walking in a nimbus.

Things were in this state with me when one night, as usual, I took the express out of Waterway. It was a somewhat heavier train than my ordinary one, and in the safe of the special car that went through with us was a large amount of coin and valuables. Remembering some daring robberies, in which trains had been thrown from the track by means of obstacles placed there by the villains who subsequently rifled them, I resolved on an even more particular lookout than common; I told the Black Bess, as I mounted, that she must spring to it, for there was work to do, and she answered to my hand like a live creature. I heard them sounding the irons down our long length—then the word was given, and our quivering carrier, starting well in hand, soon warmed to her work, and bounded along as if she meant to be the victor of some demoniacal race.

I have often thought, since those days, that there can be nothing like that man's sense of mastery whose hand it is which gives the first motion to some long train crowded with bustling life and tumult. All those beings, their joys, their fears, their expectations, their very futures and existences, are his, hang on the falling of his eyelid, on the turning of his finger. There is not such a potentate as he the earth over. But when I drove an engine myself, I thought of no such thing; were my wheels oiled, my boiler fed, my valves right, were we well wooded, was I on time, should I earn my pittance a day—my fancies seldom took a higher flight. But this is aside.

It was at the close of a dark and stormy day, soon deepening into a black autumn evening, of which I was about to speak. No stars in heaven, no lights on earth. The air was that fresh, wet coolness so delightful to breathe even when you got it, as I did, between puffs and whiffs of smoke; pools of water everywhere on our way, waked up to flash like moons in our light as we left them; little new made brooks were chasing each other beside us; woody places kept up a perpetual dripping and dropping; and the whole earth was soaked in running rivers of rain. The long perspective of the track, with its rails glittering in moisture, rose by all its length into heaven, and seemed to hang up shiningly before us like a ladder of light, the only fixed thing in all the changing, shimmering, calendered darkness.

As we appeared to wind our path up this splendid highway, suddenly what had been but a blot of blackness upon it a long way ahead, resolved itself to my vision into a less indistinct body, and I fancied some laborer, returning from his day's work, had fallen asleep beside the track, had, perhaps, in his slumber, rolled over upon it. Such stupid recklessness was not uncommon. I sounded the whistle to warn him, and then, as he did not stir, to put down the brakes. We had a full head of steam on, and were pushing forward with hardly abated progress, and, straining my gaze, I discovered that the thing I had taken for a man now, by the size of the dark spot it filled, must be a woman, with her drapery blown loosely abroad by the breeze. I snatched my field glass, and, steadying it for a moment, a face flashed in the disk—A single moment—and then, my horror stricken eyes blinded, my tongue cleaving to the very roof of my mouth, with a mighty shock I reversed the engine, and, the wheels revolving the other way, we slipped slowly up by our impetus and paused within a yard of the actual place.

I leaped off to search the spot. George Rowe, likewise, leaped after, me. There was nothing whatever on the track save the shadow of a clump of bushes breaking the long glitter of its steel. I looked about me with a frantic swiftness—I could not feel convinced that no real object lay there. I heard the car windows rattling up, and turned about to see the passengers' heads thrusting out, and all the brakemen as well bending forward and peering into the darkness for the cause of our standstill and the shock that had thrown them from their seats and those from their feet. Directly afterward, at sound of the conductor's voice, I seized an old log lying beside the ends of the sleepers and lifted, pushed and shoved one extremity of it far if I had just thrown it out of our path. George Rowe stared at me, but said nothing. The conductor seized on the intimated occurrance with avidity, wondered and gaped about him for an explanation of such a disaster being prepared for us, bade me run slowly and returned with something to gossip over in every carriage of them all. But, as for me, far from heeding him the least, I increased the pressure to some such point as that I felt on the beating of my heart and the bursting of my lungs, and the Black Bess ate up the fires of Rail Vean blazing beneath her boilers. It was the face of Margaret that I had seen!

I lost no time on that next day in seeking Margaret. She was away from home, visiting at Brookford, a little town which was a waiting station of all the trains along my own route. A shudder, foolish to the pitch of idiocy, seized me at the intelligence. If that were subsequently dangerous, how both nearly it would be now! Brookford was a [illegible] behind the place where I had brought our train to a pause. I telegraphed to her, and she came down with a companion to meet me in the evening as I returned. I saw her sweet face shining under the lamps as we drew up, but so dreadfully like my vision of the night before that I hardly dared to think it real. In answer to my hurried inquiry she said she had been out in the rain on the previous night, returning with a friend from a house where they had called, had stumbled and fallen across the railway, but had picked herself up and was safe and dry beneath the roof tree long and long before either down train or up train passed that way. She jested me on my clairvoyance, then laughed that she filled up my eyes so completely.

I saw her standing there while we backed down to switch off again on the main track, gazing and smiling after me, standing so prettily with firelight, rustling flame, shiny steel and her young glad youth all in the darkness. Soon we thundered by with our heavier tread, and I lost her! If there had been a score of faces on the track as we drove along I should have seen none of them that night for brooding over and caressing in my happy thought the pure and perfect face that I really saw beneath the flaring station lamps.

I had almost forgotten this incident of my nightfaring—I mean, of course, the vision on the rails—when some months afterward [illegible] occurred.

Labor Notes.

There was a small meeting of the workingmen last night in Labor Hall.

Friday night Mr. H. Lloyd, Vice-President of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Brotherhood of America, will address a meeting in Labor Hall, to which all workingmen are invited.

Does your boy or girl need a School Slate. The cheapest place in town to get one is at the Peterborough Book Store.

An Accident.

Yesterday morning, as Mr. Geo. Brownlee was leaving his residence at the corner of Aylmer and Sherbrooke streets, he slipped and fell, breaking his collar bone. Mr. Brownlee is one of the oldest citizens of Peterborough, and the injury will be a painful one to so aged a person.

The Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company, Wilson & Morrison, agents, have cheap rates and large indemnities. No one should be without an accident policy.

Curlinna.

The match between Lindsay and Peterborough for the Governor General's cup will be played in Ottawa on or about 1st March.

The Caledonians of Toronto beat Lindsay yesterday by 17 shots, and last night at Toronto the Granites performed the same kindness towards another pair of Lindsay rinks to the tune of 6 shots.

Six rinks of Peterborough curlers went to Toronto last night to play a match with the Queen City stone hurlers for the jubilee medal.

The Endeavor Society.

A very interesting meeting of the Endeavor Society was held last evening in the school room of Charlotte street Methodist church. The meeting opened with devotional exercises. A spicy programme was rendered in which Messrs. Wilson, Crane, Ritchie, Tubb and Rowse took part. It was decided to hold an open meeting of the society next Monday evening at which refreshments will be served. A pronouncing match and an interesting programme will be additional attractions.

Who May Vote.

As there appears to be a wide difference of opinion as to whom are entitled to vote on the Liquor License By-law to-morrow, it may be well to state just who are eligible. All freeholders and all tenants or householders, whose leases extend over the period between the date of the vote and the thirtieth day of April, 1890, the period covered by the by-law. The lease under which the property is held need not necessarily be a written one. Tenants or householders must also have resided in the municipality for at least one month previous to the date of the vote.

Important Auction Sale.

Mr. W. M. Fair, having sold his farm in North Monaghan, known as the "Burnham Farm," to Mr. Geo. Webber, will on Wednesday, March 6th, sell by public auction the whole of his farm stock and implements. The stock consists of imported and well-bred horses, and thoroughbred cattle and sheep. Mr. Fair intending to go out of stock farming, the stock will be sold without reserve, and the public have thus an opportunity of securing excellent bargains. Charles Stapleton is the auctioneer.

The Winter Races.

The town is full of horsemen and speedy horses, in readiness for the ice races which begins to-morrow and continues for three days. Everything is prepared and with fair weather there is no doubt the coming winter races will be the biggest sporting event of the season. There are fully twenty or more fliers in town and more are expected. They come from all over the provinces—Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and other places. The track on Little Lake is horse-shoe shaped very wide and in fine condition. The races open to-morrow at one o'clock. The programme of events for the first day includes the 2:30 and three minute class races.

The Charge of the Light Bread Brigade.

The police made another tour for the inspection of bread this morning, visiting fourteen places in all, where bread was found exposed for sale; the bakeshops were not visited. Only one seizure was made, of 22 small loaves belonging to Mr. Geo. Sanderson, corner of Aylmer and McDonel street. He will be called to account in the police court to-morrow.

Brisk Demand for Bricks.

Messrs. Mark Curtis & Sons have disposed of all of their last season's make of brick—a million and a half—in fact, they have not been able to supply the demand. To be prepared the firm intends to burn two millions of brick this season. Of this, St. Joseph's Hospital building will demand some 300,000, to be supplied by Messrs. Curtis & Sons and Mr. Heap. The demand for Messrs. Curtis & Sons' bricks shows that the public know where to go to get a first class article. The tile made by this firm is also meeting with ready sale, the farmers every year appreciating more fully the value of underdraining.

"A Knife and Fork Tea."

The Annual Tea Meeting of the Baptist Church will be held in the basement of the Church, on Thursday Evening, February 21st. Tea served from 6 to 7.30. "Everything is beautiful in its season." All things seasonable will be served here. Tickets 25 cents for the

"Knife and Fork Tea."

Domestic Infelicity.

It would appear that the honeymoon of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lennox, of the Model Grocery, has been considerably abbreviated—in fact it has terminated in a family jar that demanded the interference of the police. Last night there was a break in their domestic relations, and after a lively "scrap" the husband flew from the house in a rage and threatened to commit suicide. When last seen he was heading for the C.P.R. bridge. The police were telephoned for, but by that time everything was quiet. Mrs. Lennox was in fear that her "hubby" was gone from her forever, but it is said he has since returned, deeming no doubt that the water was a little too chilly to commit suicide comfortably.

A Sadly Sudden Death.

The town, or at least that portion of it known as the sporting element, was startled to-day at the news of the sudden death of Robert Smith (better known as "Soapy Bob"). About eleven o'clock this morning, while in the Grand Central hotel, he was taken with a sudden pain in his chest which he said was killing him. He tore open his coat and vest in his agony, and walked down to the City hotel, where some friends put him in a cutter and took him home. A physician was summoned, but the unfortunate man died about one o'clock. Heart disease was evidently the cause of his death. "Bob" was known all over the country and had many warm friends amongst his associates. Poor Bob, let us draw the veil of charity over his past life. Though his business was not of the most legitimate character, he possessed a kind heart and entertaining manner that won him scores of friends. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and small family.

Newspaper Matter.

Correspondents frequently complain if their contributions are abbreviated or condensed, and often ask us to print their paragraphs without curtailment. While thankful for their letters, the latter must take their chances with other matter. Our own reporters' contributions have to be submitted to the cutting down process according to the demand on our columns. Between ourselves, most of matter, in cases where it will admit of it, and holding over, there is no hesitation. A brief news paragraph printed on time is always preferable to a longer report held over till it is stale. The regular staff of a newspaper have to submit to having their matter cut down or cut out altogether, and correspondents should not ask favors that are denied the regular staff. An editor is responsible for the newsiness of his sheet. If he prints one correspondent's letter in full at the expense of the exclusion of several others, he makes a mistake. All newspaper matter must submit to condensation, as circumstances require, or to being held over. If a man presented a neighbor with a load of four foot cordwood and insisted that it should be barrel in a two-foot stove without being cut, he would be regarded as unreasonable. If a correspondent sends a two column letter and insists on its going into a one column space without being cut down he must see that he makes an unreasonable request.

News Nuggets.

A Schedule of Officers and Employees Elections Adopted—The Town's Responsibility for Individual Rights—Other Matters of Public Interest.

At the meeting of the council Monday night there were present Mayor Stevenson and Messrs. Hartley, Kendry, Langford, Retherford, Baptie, Dawson, E. H. D. Hall, Kelly, Wilson and Cahill.

An application from A. H. Stratton, asking to be relieved of his poll tax, was granted.

A communication was received from the county clerk enclosing a copy of a resolution passed at the county council with reference to the Pigeon Creek bridge, and referred to the joint committee of the town and county councils.

A petition from H. Trotter, asking for remission of taxes, was referred to the Charity Committee.

A letter from the Secretary on behalf of the W.C.T.U., calling attention to the saloon on Hunter street and asking the council for the sake of their boys to take steps to have it reopened, was received.

A communication from the Peterborough Water Company regarding the hydrant on McDonel street, about which there was a dispute as to whether the town or private parties should pay the expense, was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Wm. Brocksridge applied for the position of Street and Bridge Inspector. The matter was referred to the Committee on Appointments.

Miss Roger, secretary of the P. P. Home, sent in a request that the town pay the board of an old man named Appleyard who was an inmate of the Home.—Referred to the Charity Committee.

From the Secretary of the School Board, enclosing a resolution passed at the last meeting of the Board of Education asking the town council to raise $10,000 for common school purposes and $28,000 for high school purposes.

After some discussion as to what power the council had in reference to the matter, the communication was referred to the Finance Committee to prepare a by-law and report at the next meeting.

A communication from Col J. Z. Rogers asked the council to appoint a deputation to wait on the government and urge the granting of a sum to assist in building an armory in this town. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

The report was adopted.

FINANCE.

The report of the Finance Committee recommended the payment of the following accounts:—

W. B. Robertson	$14 75
Geo. I. Rossel	2 00
Wm. Hamilton M'f'g Co.	12 00
Stabler & Donel	95
Lewis & Redman	7 00
R. White (2 accounts)	6 00
Pettitt & Mitchell	3 00
P. Connal & Co.	20 00
Fitzgerald & Stenger	1 50
Dickson Co. (2 accounts)	13 50

The committee further drew the attention of the street inspector to the large amount that is paid yearly for sharpening saws, and recommend that no further sums be authorized or paid by this corporation for that purpose.

After a sharp discussion the report was adopted with the recommendation struck out, it being sufficient [illegible] Inspector's attention had been called to it.

STREETS AND BRIDGES.

Mr. Langford read the Street and Bridge Committee's report, recommending that no action be taken with reference to the petition of John Gamble, (with reference to the railway crossing on Smith street), as they did not consider the town in any way liable; that the tenders for supplying the following material be accepted:—

Dickson Co., pine plank at	$2 60 per M.
Geo. Hilliard, hemlock plank at	1 75 "
Geo. Hilliard, square cedar at	2 00 "
A. McDonald, cedar scantling at	2 00 "
C. Wynne, round cedar at	20 per lineal foot

Messrs. Hartley and Kendry considered that if Mr. Gamble's property had been injured by the railway company, it was the council's duty to see that he got his rights. The council could not throw its responsibility over this way.

Mr. Rutherford argued the same way and intimated that perhaps Mr. Langford's former relations to the Grand Trunk Company as their valuator had influenced him in making this report.

Mr. Carnegie took the last speaker smartly to task for what he called his unpatriotically and unfair allusions to Mr. Langford and said the previous speakers were talking simply for the purpose of making votes. If they meant business they would offer some such resolution as one empowering the town solicitor to enter an action against the railway company on behalf of Mr. Gamble.

Mr. Kelly contended that these disputes between private parties and railway companies should be settled before the lines were built and not cause endless trouble afterwards.

That portion of the report referring to Mr. Gamble's complaint was referred to the Finance Committee, and the report, as amended, was then adopted.

LICENSES.

Mr. Rutherford presented the report of the License Commission, recommending that a by-law be prepared adopting the following schedules:—Billiard and pool tables, $40; pigeon hole tables, $50; bowling alley, $30; shooting gallery, $40. For regulating omnibuses—conveying each adult person from any one part of the town to any other part of the town, 25 cents; children from 5 to 12 years 15 cents; children under eight 5 years free; trunk, 10 cents each; each satchels and luggage as may be placed inside the vehicle, free; Hire by the hour—for first hour $1.00, each additional hour 50 cents.

The report was adopted.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall presented a by-law to appoint a Board of Health for 1889, and suggested the following names:—Dr. Fife, Dr. Beapman, W. H. Moore, R. Pearce, Wm. Lamb, Henry Deane, T. R. Bradburne and Wm. English. The Board named included no councillors as last year it was found that these members of the council who were on the Board were the ones who never attended the meetings. There now were more councillors who would have more time and would take more interest.

Mr. Rutherford and Mr. Kendry objected on the ground that the Board would have proper independence of the council, and they might do things that the council would not sanction. They contended there should be at least two councillors on the Board.

It was pointed out that the Mayor was a statutory member of the Board, and the by-law was passed with the above mentioned names included.

A MENDICANT.

Mr. Appleyard, an infirm old man, appeared before the council and asked aid of the council to maintain him in the Protestant Home, where he had been a couple of weeks back. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Rutherford moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the clerk be authorized to advertise for tenders for the purchase of the market tolls. The matter was referred to the market committee.

THAT SHOOK.

Mr. Rutherford brought up the saloon question as mentioned in the W. C. T. U. petition. He said liquor was being sold there against the law, and there appeared to be some log rolling in the matter. He understood the Inspector intended doing his duty, but he was told a government member had interfered and stopped action. He hoped something would be done to prevent the continuance of this thing.

Mr. Cahill argued that this was a matter entirely in the province of the Inspector.

Mr. Dawson enquired if this place was more objectionable than any of the other saloons in town.

Mr. Rutherford said the Statutes enacted that a council shall see that its constables shall do their duty, and if the Inspector does not do his duty the police should be instructed by the council to enforce the law.

Without coming to any conclusion the council adjourned for one week in order to act upon the liquor license by-law.

The T. Menzies Estate.

The Homestead Property to be Sold—A Dividend of 10c. Declared.

An adjourned meeting of the creditors of Mr. T. Menzies was held at the Court House on Monday afternoon. Mr. Wood reported the result of his personal examination of Mr. Menzies, which, he stated, had disclosed the fact that in 1885 Mr. Menzies was overwhelmed with debt, and there was nothing to warrant the hope of any assistance to the assets as at present known to the creditors. A committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. John Burnham, W. A. Stratton, E. E. Wood, T. M. Graves and C. Jones, with power to act, to take into consideration the entire claim of Mrs. Menzies on the estate, and to adjust and settle the affair, on condition that the committee act free of cost to the estate, the committee to report at the next meeting.

On motion of Mr. J. R. Stratton, seconded by Mr. Wood, the creditors acquiesced in Messrs. Moore and Davidsons' mortgages, selling the homestead on George street and the sixty feet adjoining on the north for $10,000.

The assignee declared a dividend of 10 cents on the dollar, including Mrs. Menzies claim, which is subject to the report of a committee, the dividend to be paid at the next meeting which was fixed for Monday, March 4th.

Smith Baptist Anniversary.

Successful Services Throughout.

On Sunday and Monday the anniversary services in connection with the Fourth Line Baptist church, Smith, were held. On Sunday Rev. P. Clifton Parker, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, Peterborough, conducted the services and preached eloquent sermons. On Monday evening the services were continued in the shape of a tea which was served to a very large company, including a good many from town. After refreshments an interesting programme was presented as below, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., occupying the chair. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Parker, and an address by the pastor the programme followed: music by the choir; solo by Dr. Scott; address Rev. Mr. Shorey; music by a quartette; address, Rev. Mr. Coons; Duet, Dr. Scott and Mr. Matthews; address Mr. R. R. Hall; music, solo and chorus, address, Rev. Mr. Bennett; music, the choir; music, quartette; address Rev. T. J. Bennett; music, by choir. The evening's enjoyment was of a most profitable and delightful character.

DOMINION LAWMAKERS STICKING CLOSELY TO BUSINESS.

Mr. Cook Gives Notice of a Home Rule Resolution—Four Government Bills Advanced a Stage.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—Nearly the whole of the eight hours' sitting of the House this afternoon and to-night was spent in committee of supply. Not more than 40 members were in their seats to-night, the "At Home" given by Mrs. C. H. Tupper having the call.

Four Government bills were gone into.

Sir John Thompson, in moving for the second reading of his bill to solidify and codify the act relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes, said he would not press the act beyond that stage at present. He had caused copies of the act to be extensively circulated among bankers, brokers and merchants, and he was daily in receipt of suggestions of a valuable nature. He hoped to receive many more such suggestions. He desired to give the fullest scope to a thorough digestion of such an important measure. The second reading took place and the bill will next be considered in committee of the whole.

The Minister of Justice also moved the second reading of the bill extending the provisions of the Speedy Trials Act to Nova Scotia. This act is now in force in all the other provinces. The minister said the Government of Nova Scotia had very willingly agreed to the act extending to that province. The second reading was agreed to.

The Minister of Inland Revenue's act providing for the branding of the capacity of liquor barrels on the head instead of on the staves as at present was put through its various stages and read a third time.

The Minister of Marine moved the second reading of his bill making important alterations to the certificates of masters and mates of ships engaged in the coasting trade of Canada. Under the new act masters and mates holding coasting certificates can sail to ports in the West Indies and the French islands of St. Pierre-et-Miquelon. The minister said the coasting regulations of Canada were superior to those of any other maritime country in the world. The bill was read a second time.

Several private bills were read a first time among them being:

Mr. McKay introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Hamilton Central Railway, extending the time for beginning work so within three years of the passage of the act. The road must be finished within four years.

Mr. Dunlop introduced a bill changing the name of the Lake Nipissing and James Bay Railway to the Nipissing and James' Bay Railway.

Mr. Holton (Chateauguay) introduced a bill to incorporate the Canada Congregational Foreign Missionary Society, having for its objects the propagation of the gospel in foreign lands. The gentlemen who ask for incorporation are B. W. Robertson, Rev. S. W. Jackson, Rev. [illegible] McFadyen, Kingston; Rev. Joseph [illegible], Toronto; Rev. John Wood, Ottawa; T. [illegible] McAulay, Rev. E. M. Hill, George Hague, T. Moodie, T. Lyman, Montreal.

Mr. Kirkpatrick introduced a bill conferring power on Queen's College to elect additional trustees besides those provided for by the Royal Charter, and granting other powers.

Mr. Macneill introduced a bill to consolidate the borrowing powers of the Ontario Loan and Debenture Company and to authorize the issue of debenture stock.

Mr. Bowman introduced a bill amending the act of incorporation of the Mutual Insurance Company.

Mr. Hickey introduced a bill to incorporate the Ottawa, Morrisburg and New York Railway and Bridge Co.

A return was laid on the table showing the total amount paid for legal and other expenses in connection with the case of the St. Catharines Milling and Lumbering Company v. the Queen. The amount paid up to Jan. 1, 1889, was $14,152, as follows: To the St. Catharines M. and L. Co., Oct. 31, 1885, $1500; July 7, 1886, $2652; Sept. 14, 1887, $4000; Nov. 22, 1888, $3000; to Bompas, Bischoff, Dodgon & Co., Nov. 22, 1888, $5000.

The debate in supply on the various items in the estimates was of the usual free and easy style. The item of $2000 for the salary of Mr. Chipman, private secretary to Hon. C. H. Tupper, and formerly with the High Commissioner in London, was attacked fiercely by the Opposition. They charged that Mr. Chipman was too highly paid an official to act in the capacity of a private secretary.

When the sums required for the Department of Justice were reached Sir John Thompson was kept busy answering the questions of Mr. McMullen, Mr. Somerville and Mr. Casey. Speaking about the employment of convicts in the various penitentiaries, the minister said that in the course of a year this question would become one of importance, but for the present the Government were not in any way uneasy on this score. It is likely that it will be a live topic at the next session of Parliament.

The House still continues to exhibit every sign of sticking closely to business, and between committees, which began to meet to-day, and the sittings of the House in the afternoon and away into the night, there is no indication of idleness in the ranks of the people's representatives. The Senate will make an effort to find something to do to-morrow. The House is making good progress with the estimates, and spent nearly six hours this afternoon and this evening in supply.

When the House adjourned at 11.30 good progress had been made in the estimates.

Mr. H. H. Cook put this notice of a resolution on the paper to-night:

That the Parliament of Canada in 1886 adopted an address to Her Majesty the Queen expressing the hope that a just measure of Home Rule should be granted to the people of Ireland, and that in 1888 by resolution of the House of Commons the sentiment of the same address to Her Majesty was reiterated and the hope again expressed that such a measure of Home Rule would be passed by the Imperial Parliament.

That in 1881 by resolution of the House of Commons, profound regret was expressed at the introduction of a Coercion Bill for Ireland into the Imperial House of Commons, and a hope was expressed that a measure so subversive of the rights and liberties of Her Majesty's subjects in Ireland might not become law, and the further hope was expressed that instead of the Coercion Bill a substantial measure of Home Rule would be granted to Ireland.

That this House has learned with profound regret that no measure of Home Rule has yet been granted to Ireland, but that the rights and liberties of Her Majesty's subjects in Ireland have been subverted by the Coercion Bill against which this House protested in 1887.

That the coercive Irish legislation of the Imperial Parliament and the administration of Irish affairs in accordance therewith have aroused among the Irish and the people of the United States a feeling which prejudicially affects the relations of the Dominion of Canada and the United States.

That this state of feeling in the United States continued to the recent rejection of the fisheries and extradition treaties and militates powerfully against such amicable settlement of all matters in dispute between Canada and the United States as would promote in a high degree the welfare of Her Majesty's subjects in this Dominion.

That the granting of Home Rule to Ireland will not only gratify Her Majesty's loyal subjects in the Dominion but will materially assist to establish on an enduring basis profitable and perfectly friendly relations between this Dominion and the United States, with the effect of relieving Her Majesty's Government from dangerous complications.

That the present resolutions be forwarded to the Marquis of Salisbury, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

AGRICULTURAL AND ARTS ASSOCIATION IN SESSION.

The Queen City's Big Show—Board of Trade's New Building—Experts Recommend Old Ontario's Water.

TORONTO, Feb. 20.—The Agriculture and Arts Association of Ontario opened a two days' session at Agricultural Hall yesterday morning. There were present: Mr. Ira Morgan, Metcalfe, chairman; Messrs. Joshua Legge, Gananoque; P. R. Palmer, Belleville; Robt. Vance, Ida; J. C. Snell, Edmonton; N. Aurey, Waterloo; J. C. Rykert, M.P., St. Catharines; Wm. Dawson, Victoria; James Rowand, Dunblane; L. E. Shipley, Greystead; Albin Rawlings, Forest; Charles Drury, M.P.P., Crown Hill. The secretary, Mr. H. Wade, read his report. It showed that the number of horses registered was 873; cattle, 330; swine, 405. The cash receipts for 1888 amounted to $2117, which is an increase of $554 over that of 1887, and the expenditure $2002, leaving a balance of $114. For the present year the association are offering prizes in groups No. 3, consisting of Huron 2, Bruce 3, Grey 3, Dufferin 1, Wellington 3, and Perth 2. In his report he suggested that where three farms compete in one township, a bronze medal be offered for the best managed; a silver medal for the best managed farm in each electoral district to be chosen from the competing townships and a gold medal for the best managed farm in the group. This year the Association's exhibition is to be held in London. At the afternoon's meeting Hon. Charles Drury, Minister of Agriculture, was in the chair. A deputation representing the stock breeders of the province pleaded for the continuance of the Provincial Exhibition. Their first spokesman was Mr. William McCrae of Guelph, who urged that the exhibition did not receive its share of public money. The Government should increase the annual grant and strengthen the society, which had been productive of much good among stock breeders. Mr. Vallance of Osnabruch and Mr. John Leggie, Kingston, spoke to a similar effect. Hon. Mr. Drury said the continuance of the Provincial Exhibition rested with the Local Legislature. This resolution was adopted: "That this Council petition for the grant for this year, in order to carry out their obligations to the city of Toronto, but they will not ask for a further grant for the purpose of holding the Provincial Exhibition until the council is convinced that a strong demand exists in the province for an exhibition under the control of the Agricultural and Arts Association." Then came the election of officers, with this result: President, J. C. Rykert, M. P. P.; vice-president, A. Rawlings, Forest; secretary, Henry Wade, Toronto; treasurer, George Graham, Brampton.

The annual meeting of the Industrial Exhibition Association of Toronto was held yesterday. The actual profit of the show of 1888 was $13,213. The exhibition of 1889 will be from Sept. 9 to 21. The receipts for the year were $81,875, of which $60,000 was from admission fees. The officers were elected: President, J. J. Withrow; first vice-president, Captain McMaster; second vice-president, W. Rennie.

At the meeting of the council of the Board of Trade yesterday the Building Committee was re-appointed and instructed to proceed with the erection of a building in accordance with the plans already adopted. Before doing so, however, this committee will present a report of the financial aspect of the case, showing the actual amount of money it will cost to erect such a building as has been provided for. Specifications are now being prepared, and advertisements will shortly be published calling for tenders, so that the exact cost can be ascertained.

The long-looked for report on the waterworks and sewage problems in connection with Toronto's public works system by Experts Rudolph Hering and Samuel M. Gray, was placed in the Mayor's hands yesterday morning. It is a very voluminous affair and covers the ground thoroughly. Speaking in the briefest and most general terms, the expert engineers recommended that the city adhere to Lake Ontario as its source of drinking water and discharge its sewage east of Victoria Park. Messrs. Hering and Gray declare themselves against taking the water supply from the Ridge lakes because of the inferior quality of the water and the limited supply; against the Lake Simcoe scheme on the ground of expense, and also the water which, though much better than that in the Ridge lakes, is still inferior in quality to that of Lake Ontario.

Quo warrants proceedings have been issued against the return of Mayor Kars of Woodstock. Bribery and corruption are alleged.

Chas. H. Nelson, convicted at the late assizes for forgery before Mr. Justice Rose, was brought up before Mr. Justice McMahon at Osgoode Hall yesterday. The prisoner was bookkeeper for Pendrith & Co., iron workers, near the Don, and the offence upon which the conviction was based consisted in altering a check. His Lordship, after a careful revision of the facts, decided to give the prisoner another chance and remanded him on his own bail to appear for sentence when called on.

Mr. Eugene O'Keefe of O'Keefe & Co., the well-known brewers, had to summon the aid of the police on Monday night to protect him and his property from an expected attack by several of his ex-employees. It appears that Mr. O'Keefe had been out of town for some three weeks, returning on Saturday last. For some reason which had transpired in his absence he immediately on his return hastened to dismiss ten of his employes, including some of his brewers, drivers and yardmen. The discharged men showed plainly that they did not like the treatment accorded, and acted so ugly that Mr. O'Keefe had a squad of police guarding his property. Nothing occurred, however, to bear out his fears of violence, and he last night notified the police that their services were no longer required.

The Supreme Grand Lodge, Sons of Canada, commenced its fifth annual session in Temperance Hall yesterday.

Men Specially Conducted Excursion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Congressman Butterworth will soon introduce a resolution requesting the President to invite the members of the Parliament of Canada and the Premiers and Cabinets of the several provinces of the Dominion to visit the United States about May 1, and be the guests of the people of the United States. The resolution asks for an appropriation of $150,000 and provides for a committee of seventy-five members of the House and a number of Senators to entertain the guests. The purpose of the resolution is to promote more friendly feeling and encourage closer business relations between the two countries.

Attempted Suicide at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Feb. 19.—A night watchman named Jules Lavoie attempted suicide by shooting last night. He is in a dangerous condition.

Fatal Accident at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, Feb. 19.—A sad accident occurred in the new file factory here to-day. A new grindstone, weighing about two tons, had been placed in position yesterday and Robert Morton, a file grinder, given charge of it. About 11 o'clock to-day this immense stone burst into several pieces, one of which struck Morton on the head, breaking the skull. The unfortunate man died in about an hour. Deceased was 27 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

WHO WERE THE AUTHORS?

THAT IS WHAT PARNELL'S COUNSEL WISH TO KNOW.

The Commission Decides That the Witness Must Tell the Names of the Writers if He Knows Them.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—When the Parnell Commission resumed its sittings to-day Mr. Macdonald, manager of The Times, was cross examined by counsel for the Parnellites. He declined to say whether he regarded the letters of Jan. 9 and May 15 as the only important ones among the first five which Mr. Houston, secretary of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union, handed him.

Justice Hannen sharply rebuked the witness for his refusal.

Mr. Macdonald said the letters had to be taken as a whole and that as a whole they were compromising. He was convinced that the Egan and Parnell letters were genuine before the first article on "Parnellism and Crime" was published. He did not think the body of the letter of Jan. 9 was in the writing of Mr. Campbell, Mr. Parnell's secretary. He had not noticed any similarity between that and the Egan letters. Witness paid Houston £350 for the Parnell letter of June 18, and for Egan's letter to Carey. The total payments made to Houston amounted to £3250. The payments were made by Mr. Walter's check drawn in favor of Mr. Soames, The Times' solicitor.

Houston did not bring the envelopes with the letters. Witness did not ask about them, assuming that they had been destroyed. He particularly avoided asking from what source the letters were obtained, because Houston said he was bound to secrecy, which he asked witness to respect. Witness first knew that Pigott, a former editor of The Irishman, supplied them at about the time the publication of the articles on "Parnellism and Crime" was begun. He did not know that the letters had been shown to the Marquis of Hartington, who, he asserted, had nothing to do, directly or indirectly, with their publication. Houston showed the witness, as tending to confirm the genuineness of the writing, a letter written by Parnell to Pigott, which was not submitted to the experts, because it was private and confidential.

Mr. Macdonald said The Times' statement that knives and fire arms were kept in the League office in London was based upon information supplied to the writer of the article in which the statement was made. He did not know directly who wrote the article, and he was not bound to tell if he did. The editor of The Times was responsible for statements made in the paper, and, therefore, the counsel was not entitled to demand by force the names of contributors.

Mr. Asquith, of counsel for Parnell, urged that he was entitled to demand the name of the author of the articles because he was bound to test the truth of such a grave statement.

Sir Charles Russell supported Asquith and the court sustained him.

Witness said he could not name the writer without making inquiries. The "Parnellism and Crime" articles were not written by one author. Mr. Soames was misinformed when he stated that Mr. Flannigan wrote the series. The article accusing Parnell of supplying Byrne with funds with which to escape was based on a letter which Mr. Russell had admitted was authentic. Witness could not name the writer offhand. No persons were specifically employed to write about "Parnellism and Crime." The articles were written in the ordinary course of business.

Mr. Asquith demanded that witness obtain the names of the writers of the articles.

Mr. Macdonald appealed to the bench for directions whether he was compelled to answer.

Attorney-General Webster objected generally to the question.

Presiding Justice Hannen ruled that counsel was not entitled to ask the witness to make enquiries, but might question him as to anything within his knowledge in connection with specific facts.

Mr. Macdonald finally said Mr. Flanagan wrote the articles that appeared March 7 and March 10, 1887. He had forgotten who wrote the others.

SERIOUS STABBING AFFRAY.

Two Hamiltonians Knifed in a Saloon Row at Midnight.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19.—Joe Brown, who keeps a laundry at 62 James-street north, and Billy McCallum, a fakir who operates a sweat board at the country fairs, were badly stabbed last night. The row occurred in the Arcade saloon, 27 James-street north, shortly before 12 o'clock. Another man named Reid had his hand cut. It is not positively known who did the stabbing, but James Guthrie, the owner of the saloon, and Dennis Kelly, jr., both respectable men, were arrested about 4 o'clock. The prisoners were both in the dock at the police court this morning, but as McCallum and Brown were not able to attend the case was laid over. The magistrate fixed bail at $500 and two sureties of $250 each, which was promptly furnished, and the defendants were released.

The preliminary hearing of the charges against Matthew Burns, Herbert Galvin and John Stoneman for breaking into Alex. Turnbull's house, 24 Erie-avenue, on Feb. 3 and stealing a number of articles took place as the police court this morning. Galvin was committed for trial. There was no evidence connecting Burns and Stoneman with the robbery and they were acquitted. Galvin is held on another charge of larceny.

Charles Keik, a good-looking young man, whose parents are very respectable, stood in the dock at the police court this morning and confessed to no less than four charges of larceny. The police have also evidence for their possession connecting him with numerous other thefts, but as he gave them very valuable information concerning the workings of a gang, of which he was a member, they were not pressed. The magistrate will pass sentence on Thursday.

V. E. and H. H. Fuller made an assignment of their estate to Walter Anderson yesterday afternoon.

The Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario commenced their annual meeting in the Court House this evening. Mayor Doran delivered an address of welcome, to which the President replied. The President's annual address followed and the remainder of the sitting was occupied by the reading of reports.

Charles Gordon, who was to have been hung out West, is respited till March 1. He now turns out that his real name is Charles Swanson of Dunnville, in Haldimand, where he was brought up. His sentence will probably be commuted, as the people are aroused in his favor.

KINGSTON NEWS.

Mysterious Find of a Hotel Porter—A Mr. & S. F. Beams Granted.

KINGSTON, Feb. 19.—A porter at the British American Hotel found in the hotel a number of pieces of dark colored paper. He picked these up and found them to be pieces of bank notes. Each piece was a portion of a separate bill. The fragments were found to represent portions of $256. The fragments were comprised as follows: One $100 bill, one $50, three $20's, nine $10's, eleven $5's and one $1. Nearly all the Canadian banks are represented, while two corners are of United States notes.

The Kingston and Smith's Falls bonus by-law, granting $4000 to that project, was carried in South Ximsley yesterday by a large majority.

Port Hope Twine Works

A Visit of Inspection—One of the Growing Industries of the Province.

Our Springville correspondent writes as follows:—

While on a visit to Port Hope, having some time, I took in the sights that present themselves to a stranger. Among the most pleasing one was the Port Hope branch of the Montreal Linding twine factory, which presents a striking appearance in every detail. At the solicitation of the general manager, Mr. G. W. Molson, I was invited to inspect each apartment. Our first visit to the boiler room, which is large and spacious, being built of solid brick and contains two boilers of two hundred horse power each. Next we were shown into the engine room, which contains a very handsome two hundred and seventy-five horse power engine—a very fine piece of mechanicism built by the Polson Iron Works, Toronto. Then we visited the batching room, where the raw material is opened. This is a very large room, 35x50, with solid brick floor. A number of men are engaged in this room preparing the raw material for the first machine that the manilla has to pass through. The next apartment that we visited was to the main building, containing all the machinery for the manufacture of the twine. This building is 85x50, with a five inch shaft running through the whole length, and is fitted with seventy-five pulleys, about twenty-four inches in diameter. From these all the machinery is driven.

The first machine that the raw material passes through is called a breaker, from which the manilla pours out in a long continuous stream. From the breaker it is passed through a number of combing machines until it is wrought into a very fine state, after which it passes through the finishing machine, which is a beautiful piece of mechanism of the enormous weight of twenty-five tons. From the finishing machine it goes to the spinning Jennies, of which there are seventy in number, which take the silver and spin it into binding twine, winding it at the same time on a large bobbin or spool. Those spools are then conveyed into the balling room, which is a room well adapted for the purpose, size 40x80. The machinery in this room is driven from the main shaft, the belt having to run in a semi circle around a corner. In this department there is a large number of girls and men engaged in finishing and packing the twine. They manufacture only the one brand of twine, the Red Cap, which became so popular with the farmers throughout Canada last season. The workmen, who are from Montreal, are painstaking and appear to understand their business perfectly. The obliging manager, Mr. Molson, informed your correspondent that the proprietors purpose as soon as spring opens out to increase there room by erecting a building 85x50, two stories high, which, when completed, will make a very extensive premises. This factory will employ one hundred hands and in two weeks will run day and night.

When asked if they purposed retailing any to farmers, the manager replied that it was not their intention to sell outside of job lots. This factory is so centrally situated that it will be a boon to dealers throughout western Ontario, they having such excellent shipping advantages. Your writer, having had some experience in the way of using twine, considers this Red Cap brand the evenest and finest quality that he has had the privilege of handling. After having the pleasure of inspecting the commodious and handsome offices, which are attached to the main building, and an invitation from the obliging manager, Mr. Molson, to call again when the factory was running in full blast, I took my departure for further down town.

RESOLUTIONS.

Moved by J. W. Fitzgerald, Esq., seconded by William Ruokins, Esq., and

Resolved—That this branch of the Irish National League, in meeting assembled, records its hearty and unqualified approval of the whole course and policy of Charles Stewart Parnell and Hon. W. E. Gladstone, and pledges itself never to relax its efforts until Home Rule for Ireland is achieved.—Carried.

Moved by J. D. McIlmoyle, Esq., seconded by William Rudkins, Esq., and

Resolved—That this meeting records its sympathy with William O'Brien, M. P., in his present sufferings for the cause of Ireland and humanity; and that we view with alarm the manner in which the liberty of persons and freedom of speech is wrongly restricted by the tyrannous acts of the executive of the present Government in Ireland.—Carried.

ONTARIO ESTIMATES

Considered by the Legislature Yesterday—The Province's Income.

TORONTO, Feb. 20.—The chief business at the House yesterday was the consideration of the estimates. A bill of some interest was introduced by Mr. Field. It proposes to enable the town of Cobourg to issue debentures for railway purposes. The petitions were very few. One was presented by Mr. David Creighton on behalf of Owen Sound asking that all tax exemptions be abolished.

The House went into Committee of Supply to consider the estimates for the financial year of 1889. The total amount to be voted for civil government is $212,145, showing in the Department of Education, as compared with estimates of 1888, a decrease of $1,150; in Crown Lands a decrease of $1,350; in the Provincial Secretary's Department a decrease of $2000. Compared with 1888 there is an increase in the Executive Council and Attorney-General's Department of $720; in Public Works $1,000; Treasury Department $600; Public Institutions $750; Department of Agriculture $21,000. Total increase, $23,795; total decrease, $10,400.

The report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities giving statistics relative to asylums for the insane and idiotic was presented yesterday.

The counties sending the highest number of patients to the asylums were York 129, Wentworth 60, Middlesex 56, Simcoe 35, Wellington 26, Grey 25, Frontenac 20, Carleton 19. There were none from Haliburton, Nipissing District, Parry Sound or Rainy River, the next smallest being 2 each from Muskoka and Thunder Bay District.

The average number of daily patients resident in the provincial asylums in 1887 was 2915, and in 1888 there were 2985; average of five years 2841.

The report contains some comment on the subject of inebriety. It says: "The recent agitation in Toronto for the establishment of an Inebriate Asylum in that city, also the movement last summer in Hamilton with the same object in view, points to the fact that the care of inebriates is a problem which at the present time is again pressing itself on the attention of thoughtful minds. The fanatic and hyper-religious type recognize in the inebriate a clear intellect and say that he has simply fallen from grace, that his drinking propensities are the work of Satan and that the only hope of cure depends on the grace of God. . . . The scientist asserts that inebriety is a physical disease and must be treated on principles in harmony with scientific knowledge of the present day."

THE N. P. & M. CONTRACT.

Attacked in the Manitoba Legislature—Mr. Brydges' Funeral.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 19.—In the Legislature this afternoon Mr. Norquay attacked the bill relating to the amended contract with the Northern Pacific and Manitoba road, and moved an amendment regretting that when an opportunity offered for securing entrance into the province of other railway corporations it had not been seized. The debate was continued this evening.

The vote on Norquay's amendment was taken at midnight. The amendment was defeated, 3 to 29, Norquay, Gillies and Marion voting yea. The bill received a second reading on the same division.

The funeral of C. J. Brydges to-day was one of the largest ever witnessed in Winnipeg, notwithstanding the bitterly cold weather. The members of the Legislature, City Council, Board of Trade and other corporations attended in a body.

The differences between the Local Government and a few of its supporters are reported to have been healed.

The Mirror, a new society paper, is to be issued shortly.

The Manitoba immigration offices are re-opened here for the season.

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, Coming.

We take pleasure in announcing the visit of Prof. Dorenwend, of the Paris Hair Works, Toronto, with his magnificent assortment of styles in Ladies' Bangs, Frontpieces (plain and wavy), Switches, Half Wigs, Full Wigs, Gents' Wigs, Toupees, etc. The Prof. is noted as the manufacturer of the best and most natural looking hair goods in America. Wherever he has visited the press is unanimous in praising the Prof. as an artist and an energetic business man. This together with the fact that he has the largest and most magnificent establishment of the kind on the continent, will recommend him and his goods to the public, and we have no hesitation in saying that our readers and their friends cannot do better than invest in some of the Professor's goods as satisfaction is sure. He will have his show rooms at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd. See his advertisement in another column. dw

NOT A PIMPLE ON HER NOW.

Bad with Eczema. Hair all Gone. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with scurf one, which the doctors said was could head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

Severe Scalp Disease Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a cutaneous disease of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

It was a soft, starry night of the Indian summer this time. There was a cessation of harmless sheet lightning through the sky, the horizon lifting every few moments with the innocent reflection of some deadly storm in the meridian beneath it. We were making about our ordinary running, when, like a quick illumination, directly in our path, the same obscurity, the same receding—there lay the Face!

I knew as well now that it must be an illusion as that I was a breathing being. I did not essay any motion by which it should be suffered to impede our progress, but I stared at it with a fascinated gaze. The beautiful face!—its great gray eyes gleaming so softly up as the belching monster pounded down to dazzle them blind with its fierce and blazing headlight, to crush them from their sockets with its remorseless wheels. I could no more help my hands lifting then than my heart's beating.

In another instant the train was shivering with the shock of its reverse. I was off again, searching the place—on again, aware of my folly; and we spun straightway along the track as if let loose from a meteor. I heard George Rowe muttering at me in amazement, but I made him no reply. At Brookford the conductor harangued me stormily, and bade George Rowe have a charge over me. He thought that I was a drunken man, and well he might, for I felt my face so flushed, and my eyes so pained, that the latter may have glowed like flames in a bed of coals, while my brain burned and boiled, and bubbled, till it seemed like bursting. I was, indeed, well nigh beside myself.

I wrote to Margaret of this second occurrence, and asked her what it meant. Was I really becoming out of my head? Was I even out of my head already? She replied in much the same strain as before, jesting and cheerful; but it was like a transparent mask, and I could clearly detect an anxiety and alarm on her part beneath the whole of her playful petition not to turn her into a grave light and will-o'-the-wisp, nor to connect her personality with such diabolical things as the flames of the St. Elmo's fire that every sailor sees on his topmast, and which I had doubtless a thousand times beheld running before me on the rails.

I determined then that unless my mind were really affected I would take no more notice of any renewal of this apparition than I would of the copper cents and brass pins which adventurous schoolboys were in the habit of placing upon the track for the wheels to flatten out into nothingness. My resolutions, I need not say, were as worthless as the flattened pins, and quickly became pavingstones of that region where asphalt was primevally found in use.

For the face haunted me—haunted me so that I wonder at myself now, and believe that only the grace and goodness of heaven kept me from the endless perdition of hating the original. It never came twice in immediate succession, but at intervals of a few weeks, when it would seem to have accumulated power to expand, and, under circumstances of ingenious devilishness, it made its appearance. In many instances I was fortunate enough to have some ready excuse on hand for our delay, but sometimes the prodigy vanished before I slackened speed, and then no excuse was needed; but when that was not the case, as most frequently it happened, and I was abandoned to my own devices, and the bewilderment and consternation of the train, it began to be believed among the employes that I had become a hard fellow. Shortly following upon that I was summoned by the superintendent and reprimanded for my intemperance—I who had never drunk a drop in my life—doggedly promised him better fashions, for had I explained things what director of them all, I asked myself, would have suffered a crazy man to take out the night express from Waterwey?

Meanwhile, owing solely to these affairs, my marriage had been indefinitely postponed; for, of course, while liable to these hallucinations and visitations, I was no fit subject for the assumption of new bonds and duties. Margaret remained as she had ever been—an angel of mercy; she soothed me, solaced me, and we took counsel together how best to overcome my difficulties; but finally, when all our expedients seemed futile, she imperatively bade me resign my situation, for she felt that we were murderers, a thousand times multiplied, in continuing to hold so many lives in risk with the possibilities to which I might be driven by my mad fantasies.

This command and entreaty of hers was after a time when I had seen the face more vividly than before, more beautiful, more human, more piteous.

We were coming along an inclined plane, with the brakes down; at the foot of it the track ran curving over the mighty trestle work of the Windriver valley. It was impossible to stop the train, for it descended already without steam; and ahead of us lay the long, slow curve of the trestle work, as—a sheer abutment, of 900 feet, filled in with sliding sand—it rose above the low, broad fields that slept, all purple and peaceful, in the silver flood of moonlight at that fearful depth beneath us.

There was but a single alternative; I could throw the Black Bess and her train from the track as we touched the curve, and we should be dust before the valley could feel us or the river cover us; or, with the face before me, I must crash over and through that one dear thing of all my heart.

I knew, in an intimate and under consciousness, that I was deceived; but, do what I would, it came to me as if I were experiencing it myself, all the annihilating terror that must overwhelm the sufferer as that black monster and its red hot eye advanced with the thundering tread and shook her frame bodily and her soul with vast fear. I heard, in my fancy, her shrill shrieks, as she struggled vainly to rise, and escape, and flee, and knew that it was vainly. I felt—almost with positive and physical pain of my own—the breaking and grinding of the bone, and then—I should have done it—I had reached out my hand to do it—when, suddenly, the fair, pale face rose from the way like a dew cloud, the floating garments of the late prostrate form were gathered together, all had disappeared—and we sped gently upon the trestle-work, and wound our way over its spider line, till kindly woods beyond took us into safety and shelter.

I stood, then, powerless, and could not have lifted my hand to my face to wipe off the beads of cold sweat there. It seems, perhaps, in the rehearsal, a little thing to have endured; but I can tell you that it was the tortures of the damned. The men and women who had given their lives into my hand that night, never knew how, for one moment, that hand, loosening its grasp, hesitated, and held them over the precipice and gulf of death, while they gazed out and down, and admired the beauty of the world, and felt their life and enjoyed their breath.

It was then Margaret said I must leave the railroad; I had no right longer to play at fast and loose with the destinies of others; each time I stepped upon my platform was a sin. The wear and tear of travel, and night travel at that, she said, had broken up my nervous system, which, added to my previous shock already sustained, might produce irreparable misfortunes, if I did not leave everything, and come down and rest with her at her mother's.

This last was pleasant enough—rest in that happy house, the low-roofed old farmhouse, standing on its verdant knoll, that always shone like some broad carpet of greenest velvet embroidered with all the golden sunshine of summer, the house where everything was ordered to the music of peace and quietness—but then, by and by, there was a time for that.

Was it a devil driving me on to stay? or was it my natural manliness refusing to yield to a devil and begging for one more trial?—I declined to go; still said nothing, and took my train out of Waterwey. I was so thoroughly myself on every other topic, that I could not believe in a monomania upon this one. I invented an apology to myself for every time that I yielded to my pursuer—the reflection of the moon in some ditch of still water, the lantern of a crossing in the woods, the round, white signboard of a switch, the signal balls upon a drawbridge—I affirmed that in similarly deceptive lights and shadows they would have affected every man in the same way as that in which I was affected.

But, at last, the tormenter grew insupportable; it followed me from station to station, as some great, winged, stinging thing pursues a racer, its play on my emotions being all the more forcible that I could never entertain any sentiment of anger toward it—for there it always lay, lovely, appealing and piteous, only the face of Margaret. It grew plain to me, and, reluctantly, I was forced to acknowledge either that my vision was distorted and ruined, or that some necessary spring in my mechanism had become loosened.

are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockelorums of the Clothing Trade.

The Licensee Bylaw.

Voting on the high license by-law is taking place in town to-day. The general opinion is that the by-law will be defeated. Among the populace very little interest is being taken; probably half the people of the town were unaware that such a measure was to be voted upon to-day.

Died From Cancer.

Samuel McNair died at his residence in Ashburnham Tuesday night at the age of 50 years. Deceased has been suffering from cancer in the throat for over a year, and has not in the last ten months eaten a particle of solid food. He could only take liquids for nutrition. The funeral takes place Friday afternoon.

The Farmers' Picnic.

The committees appointed by the Farmers' Institutes of East and West Peterborough, East and West Northumberland and East Durham, to arrange for a mammoth joint picnic the coming summer, met on Saturday and appointed Mr. D. Kennedy chairman. It was decided to hold the picnic at Jubilee Point on some date between June 10 and 20. Sub-committees were appointed and the Secretary, Mr. Collins, instructed to write Mr. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, asking him to fix a date when he could attend.

Prof. Dorenwend a Wigs and Toupees for Gentlemen.

Gentlemen who have lost their hair are beginning to realise the great advantages derived from wearing artificial coverings. They supply protection to the scalp wherein nature has failed and also fill up the deficiency in appearance caused by baldness. Hundreds of gentlemen in all parts of America testify to the benefiting results of using Prof. Dorenwend's wigs and toupees. Each article is carefully made, is light and strong and when worn cannot be detected by the closest observer. Prof. Dorenwend will be at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, and will show a big stock of them. Go and see them whether you buy one or not; he makes no charges for trying them on. dw

Royal Templars Entertainment.

An entertainment under the auspices of the Royal Templars of temperance was held in the W.C.T.U. hall last night. There was a good attendance and an interesting programme was presented. Rev. M. L. Pearson presided, and made a few introductory remarks. The first part of the programme consisted of a selection by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra; a reading by Mrs. Lindsay; a meritorious song entitled "Castles in the Air," by Mr. Hendry; an instrumental solo by Miss Sperry, and a duet, violin and piano, by Misses Chalaupka and Moyse. Mr. S.B. Armstrong, councillor of the Peterborough Templars, gave a brief address upon the objects and operations of the order. Miss Hill introduced the second part by an instrumental solo, and was followed by a duet from Mr. and Mrs. Turner. Then Rev. Mr. Hesrick delivered a pithy and practical address upon the evils of intemperance which went to the hearts of his audience. A song by Miss Butcher, an instrumental selection by Miss Owens, another number from the orchestra, and a reading by Mr. Jno. Nugent closed the programme. During the evening, Mr. W. H. Dingle acted efficiently as accompanist. After singing God save the Queen the audience dispersed.

White Ribbon women in council. Mrs. Paton in the chair opened the meeting with the usual devotional exercises. It was found after expenses were paid in connection with Mr. Dewey's lecture, that the evening had been a financial success. Reports were received of families who had received clothing and other necessaries; also boots, shoes and cases of clothing, that had been received by this union for distribution. A white ribbon social was then arranged to be held at Mrs. G. J. Early's on Thursday evening Feb 28th, of which further notice will be given in these columns.

P. B. C. Literary Society.

At a special meeting of the Peterborough Business College Literary Society, held Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing month:

PRESIDENT—Miss A. Brown.
VICE-PRESIDENT—Mr. J. S. Tobin.
SECRETARY—Miss F. Sallsbury.
ASS'T-SECRETARY—Mr. Ed. N. Easton.
CRITIC—Mr. Wm. Fife.
TREASURER—Mr. J. Eastland.

The students expressed their heartfelt sympathy for their principal, Mr. G. S. Bean, on account of his severe illness and hope for his speedy recovery.

The High Tea.

To an Englishman the delights of a high tea are too well known to need definition, but to those who were not to the manner born an explanation of the term might be acceptable. It is intended simply to designate a "tea" at which meats are on the table. Therefore it may be understood that the high tea given by the choir of St. Paul's church Tuesday night was a substantial repast that in Methodistic parlance would be known as a tea-meeting. The tables were spread in the lower school room and the refreshments provided were most tempting. About three hundred persons enjoyed the tea, and the choir members were kept busy supplying the wants of their guests. A word of praise must be said for the choir in this connection. It is probably the largest and best trained chorus of singers in the town, and it was proved on Tuesday night that they could entertain in a more material way than by song with equal success. To Mr. J. S. Parker, organist and choir leader, much of the credit of the choir's excellent position is due, and this fact was recognized during the entertainment in the upper schoolroom that followed the tea. In the intermission Mr. G. M. Roger, chairman, announced that he had been requested to present for the approval of the audience a resolution of thanks to Mr. Parker for his indefatigable and well-directed efforts towards bringing the choir to that state of efficiency which has resulted from his labors. The motion was of course carried with hearty unanimity. The first number on the programme was a chorus entitled "Come Where my Love Lies Dreaming." Then Miss Vair sang "Dear Heart," (by Mattei) in charming voice. Miss Gray's reading pleased the audience to such an extent that an encore was demanded and responded to. A solo by Mrs. Jones, "Yes, if You Like," was nicely rendered, and was followed by a piano solo from Prof. Parker, which, after an encore had been given, closed the first part. The second part was opened by another excellent solo, "Of Thee I am Thinking," by Miss Vair, Miss Wrighton following with a brilliantly executed piano solo, entitled "Birds and the Rivulet." Miss Sophie Cameron next sang "Come to my Heart" with much expression and sweetness of tone, and was enthusiastically encored. In response she gave "Robin Adair." A glee by the choir, "Good Night," and the National Anthem, closed the proceedings of what was a most successful entertainment. About $55 was netted from the affair

News Nuggets.

—In the absence of P. M. Dumble to-day no police court was held.

—A bachelors' ball takes place at Port Hope to-night. Peterborough will be well represented.

—Johnny Newhall's trotter, "Gladstone," was put up for auction on the market square at noon to-day, but no bids were made.

—Lansdowne Lodge, Sons of England, have hung a handsome street light at the foot of the stairs leading to the lodge room over Long's confectionary store.

—The Port Hope Times says:—"Twenty nails, a screw, two pieces of lead pipe, a piece of glass, two oyster shells, two clam shells and a handful of bird shot were found in the stomach of a farmer's cow that died suddenly last week near Peterborough." Is the Times' information reliable, or is it a scissors local changed to suit.

—The largest Methodist church at Chicago is trying to secure the services of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, but as their dates are filled for two years ahead they will not stay in the States longer but will come at once to Peterborough, their next station.

Races are called at one o'clock each day.

OUR FINE NEW QUARTERS.

Combined Premises of the "Examiner" and Bookstore.

Brief Sketches of the New Quarters of the "Examiner" and the Bookstore—Elegantly Fitted—Completely Equipped—Commodious and Convenient.

The public are already well aware that recently Mr. J. R. Stratton, of the EXAMINER, purchased the Peterborough Bookstore (late A. L. Davis & Co.), and at the same time secured a lease of the whole of the connected building for new offices for the EXAMINER news, printing and bindery departments. These have been splendidly fitted for the accommodation of both businesses, and, on the eve of occupying them, a brief sketch of them will not be uninteresting to the wide circle of readers of the EXAMINER, and to the public who can appreciate enterprise in the direction of better meeting their wants and keeping abreast of the times.

The public are familiar with the locality of the Peterborough Bookstore (late A. L. Davis & Co.), on George street. The whole of this block, three stories in height, with basement under all, and also the second story of the block next south, are now occupied for the purposes of the joint business of the Book and Stationery business and the Newspaper, Printing and Publishing business of Mr. J. R. Stratton. The whole has been refitted and renewed with the special requirements of the several departments in view, and few more complete and elegant premises for either business are to be found in Ontario.

THE BOOKSTORE PROPER

occupies the front half of the first floor, and is 22 feet in width by sixty feet in depth, lighted by broad and lofty plate glass windows. It is floored with maple in narrow planks, and the shop fittings, in dark Spanish mahogany, are of the latest design, in the Queen Anne style. The shelving is divided into compartments by fluted pilasters and terminates above, within three feet of the ceiling, in a railing with the delicate spindle characteristic of this style of architecture. The line of shelving, on either side, is broken midway by elegantly-made wall cabinets reaching to the ceiling, and provided with glass doors, for the keeping and display of books with expensive bindings, principally Bibles, prayer books, hymn books, etc. The front half of the shelving is, on one side devoted to fancy stationery, and school books, and the opposite side to miscellaneous books with ornate bindings. The rear half of shelving in one side contains a fine stock of blank books of all kinds, a specialty of the establishment. On the right hand side, entering, are the glass show cases, containing a fine array of fancy goods. In the space between the counters is a cabinet, with deep drawers, for bristol boards, tissue papers, drawing papers, and that class of goods. The top of the cabinet is in the form of a tray and is kept filled with the latest novels and literature of that class in paper covers set on edge, admitting of great facility of inspection. In rear of this is the cash desk, and in rear of that a table for the display of juvenile books, etc., Still further in the rear a neat little counting room is railed off with fancy glass screens. The ceilings are beautifully papered, in two elaborate and ornate panels in the Moorish style, with soft yet rich colors, brightened by gilding. The cornice is tinted, and the cove is covered by paper also, while a harmonizing tint of paper covers the walls down to the upper limit of the shelving. This elegant and artistic piece of work is the design and execution of Mr. H. W. Watson, whose abilities in the lines of artistic wall and ceiling decoration and decorative painting, have gained for him a provincial reputation, his services being in frequent demand even in Toronto. And the fact that he found the materials for working out his design in the ordinary stock of the wall paper department of the Peterborough Book store, is no light tribute to the extent and excellence of its resources.

At the extreme rear of the store are placed the stairs leading to and the editorial rooms. These stairs are covered with padded Brussels carpet and are of luxuriously gentle slope, making access easy to the room paper department, the most important and best equipped feature of the establishment. This room is 21x60 feet in area and is lighted by three lofty windows. The ceilings and walls are beautifully papered, the former in panels in the Arabesque style, perfectly harmonizing and giving a beautiful effect. Here, arranged around three sides of the room, is a magnificent stock of wall paper, unexcelled in any rural city in Canada, and the room itself in extent, beauty of decoration, abundance of light and complete facilities for the display of of stock and selection of goods by customers has no superior, if an equal, in the city of Toronto. This department as well as the bookstore department is in charge of Mr. John A. Hart, whose lengthened experience in the business and thorough knowledge of every detail, well qualifies him for the position.

In the rear of the wall paper rooms on the same floor is the picture framing and automatic window shade department, in charge of Mr. J. Best.

THE NEWS, PRINTING AND BINDERY DEPARTMENTS

occupy the remainder of the building. Beginning at the basement, this contains a new boiler for supplying steam to the engine of the press rooms and for heating. This boiler is of steel, 30 horse power, made by the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, and enclosed by substantial brickwork constructed by Mr. T. M. McFadden, who not only carried out his contract faithfully, but even added extra work, so that his reputation as being one of the most efficient bricklayers in the town is in no way impaired by the very satisfactory job he has done in this case. In the basement are heavy party walls built up from the ground, on which rest massive timbers to support the several printing machines on the press room floor above. Here also the elevator, which extends from the basement to the attic story, terminates; alongside of it is the tank, supplied with city water, for washing the printing forms, ready for return to the news or job rooms on the third and second floors respectively.

The press room on the first floor is 20 x 60 feet with high ceilings and good light. The walls are all wainscotted and the ceiling ceiled with wood varnished its natural colour. The press room contains space for the upright engine and five presses, a Miller & Richard's Wharfdale jobber, a Cottrell and Babcock large jobber, a Wharfdale (Miller & Richard) news, and two Gordon jobbers. Besides this floor contains a Miller & Richard power steam paper cutter, with cut of 36 inches, and also a Brown folding machine, which cuts, folds, and pastes the papers as fast as printed, dispensing with several editions of the otherwise indespensible and sometimes soul-trying boy.

Occupying the front of the second floor are the

the book-keeper's office and Mr. Stratton's, private business office. These rooms are elegantly fitted in mahogany, closed in on one side by screens glazed with ground glass. The walls and ceilings are papered, in first class style, and the rooms are well lighted. Chutes for "copy" and proofs and a speaking tube communicate with the composing rooms on the third floor. The remainder of this room, to the depth of sixty feet from the front, is fitted up with shelving with glass doors for the stationery stock for the printing department and the surplus stationery stock of the bookstore. The rear half is the job room, 20x60 feet, and throughly equipped with a splendid supply of every kind of plain and fancy job type of the latest designs and faces. On this floor is also the office of the managing foreman.

The third floor is divided between the composing rooms (that is where the type is set from and the bindery department), the [illegible] is also thoroughly equipped with first class plant, including the latest improved Hallock ruling machine with a "striker" attached — an ingenious device invented and supplied by Mr. Wm. Cowie, admitting of ruling being done with great rapidity; a peerless paper cutter, 30-inch; millboard cutter, card cutters, standing press, 32-inch perforator, paging machine, stabbing machine, Wheeler & Wilson, manufacturing machine for pamphlet work. The bindery is in every respect and in charge of Mr. Wm. Cowie, whose reputation for first class work gives the public every confidence in the capabilities of the EXAMINER Bindery.

THOROUGHLY EQUIPPED,

The heating is done throughout by steam and the artificial light is composed of gas and electric light, three incandescent electric lights illuminating the bookstore. The elevator before referred to is arranged for not only "forms" but for elevating paper and stock to the several departments as required; a chute and speaking tube reaching through the three floors, is placed alongside the elevator.

The foregoing hasty glance at the new premises of the EXAMINER and the renewed premises of the Peterborough Bookstore are an indication of the push and energy of the management of both establishments. Complete as both establishments are, there is no sign of a halt. Whatever improvements and additions either requires to keep pace with the progress of the times will be made the moment their necessity is indicated. The change of premises and the improvements involved make the news, printing and binding department better fitted than ever to maintain the leading place they now occupy in the public esteem, while the Peterborough Bookstore, (late A. L. Davis & Co.) will be conducted in a manner to meet the wants and wishes of the public at every point.

The bookstore premises are now occupied and in full operation. The removal of plant machinery of the printing department is now going on, and the first issue of the daily EXAMINER from the new office is expected to be made on Saturday.

A Satisfactory Record.

The Peterborough Curlers Win the Jubilee Medal—They Lose to the Granites by a Narrow Majority.

Six rinks of the Peterborough Curling Club went to Toronto Monday night to play off a match with the Torontos for the Jubilee medal. The curlers had a special car, and, with the hospitable treatment received in the Queen City, had a good time. Two matches were played, some rinks playing in the forenoon, some in the afternoon and still others in the evening. They easily succeeded in defeating the Torontos by the following score:

CLEVELAND'S
SUPERIOR
BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

OPENING OF THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT YESTERDAY.

Steps to be Taken to Develop the Material Resources of Ireland — More Money Needed for Defence.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Parliament re-assembled to-day. The following is the speech of the Queen on opening the session:

My Lords and Gentlemen:

During the brief period since the close of the last session nothing has happened to affect the cordial relations between myself and other powers. The negotiations recently completed in Egypt a few days before the prorogation of Parliament effected their object, and I do not see any ground for apprehending a renewal of the disturbance in the neighborhood of Suakim.

The negotiations which I directed to be opened with Talbot for the prevention of encroachments upon my territory in Zululand have not been brought to a favorable conclusion, but I hope further military operations will not be necessary.

I have consented to take part in a conference with Germany and America at Berlin upon the Samoan question. This will be a continuation of the conference recently held in Washington on the same subject.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The increasing expenditure upon warlike preparations incurred by other European nations has rendered necessary an increase in the precautions hitherto taken for the safety of our shores and commerce. The estimate by which other powers are guided, and which diagnose of their vast forces, are at present universally friendly to England, but I have no right to assume that this condition is necessarily exempt from the possibility of change.

My Lords and Gentlemen:

Large portions of the bill presented in 1886 for amending the government of Ireland, and for amending the constitution of the various tribunals having special jurisdiction over real property in Ireland, have been passed into law. The remaining portions of the bill for the reinstatement of order and confidence in Ireland have already been attended with salutary results.

Legislation will be necessary for the prevention of the Sugar Convention, and also for the completion of the conversion of the three per cent. annuities.

The state of the gold coinage has for years past been the subject of legitimate complaint, and a measure restoring it to a satisfactory condition will be submitted.

Through the commission appointed to inquire into the civil establishments of the Kingdom has not yet completed its labors, it has made a valuable report, which will facilitate legislation arising therefrom.

Several bills which the increasing burden of your business must call from consideration during the present session will be submitted again. Among these are measures relating to tithes, re-building the universities in Scotland, determining the liabilities of employers in case of accidents to their servants, establishing a department of agriculture, empowering the transfer of land, and regulating the abuse attached to the liability of joint stock companies.

Disturbance in Galway.

DUBLIN, Feb. 21.—Mr. O'Brien was welcomed at Galway, where he was taken to-day to serve his sentence of six months in jail, by a crowd of several thousands. Subsequently a crowd gathered at the jail and sang national songs. The excitement in Galway is intense.

The trial of Mr. Carew resulted in his conviction. He was sentenced to four months' imprisonment.

Canadian Governor's Son Resigns.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Cardinal Newman to-day observed the 88th anniversary of his birth by celebrating pontifical high mass. His health is improved.

Personal Items.

PARIS, Feb. 21.—This evening President Carnot signed a decree appointing this cabinet:

Premier and Minister of Commerce—M. Tirard.

Minister of the Interior—M. Constans.

Minister of Finance—M. Rouvier.

Minister of Justice—M. Thevenet.

Minister of Education—M. Fallieres.

Minister of Agriculture—M. Faye.

Minister of Public Works—M. Guesnyet.

Minister of Foreign Affairs—M. De Conrcel.

The new ministers will take office in the morning. Their declaration will be read Saturday.

THE FRUIT GROWER'S MEETING.

Horticulture to be Taken up as a Study in the Public Schools.

HAMILTON, Feb. 21.—At to-day's meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association the first business was the asking of questions from the drawer. The first question was, "Will some one give his experience in fruit-ing Russian apricots?" No one had any personal experience, but the opinion was expressed that the Russian apricot was a failure and not worth taking any stock in.

The Secretary read the following letter from Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education:

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of certain resolutions adopted by the directors of the Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario requesting the introduction of horticulture in our public schools. In the new text book on agriculture, which is in course of preparation by Prof. Panton, I am glad to say, I am informed that the subject of horticulture will be discussed, and as the book is intended for the public schools of the study of this subject will be systematically taken up throughout the province. By means of Arbor Day, now observed three years ago, we are cultivating native plants and ornamental trees in all the school grounds from which reports are received by my department, we have planted already 78,500 trees.

A paper was then read by Mr. A. M. Smith, of Kingston, on "The Lack of Knowledge of Horticulture Among Farmers." The speaker pointed out that as a rule farmers paid little or no attention to beautifying their homes by the planting of ornamental or fruit trees, or by keeping well cut lawns. Then, few farmers, he said, exercised any judgment in the matter of forestry. They did not seem to appreciate the value of windbreaks—bits of forest for the protection of crops and live stock. If the farmers wanted their boys to stay on the farm they must make their homes more home-like in both winter and summer.

Prof. Panton then gave a lecture on the "Fertilization of Flowers." In the discussion which followed Mr. Dempsey gave his experience of growing pears and apples. He produced fruit, he said, which no one could say was either apple or pear. The seeds of the fruit, however, were no good. He also said that he tried grafting tomatoes upon potato stalks and got a splendid yield of potatoes underground and a very fine crop of tomatoes on the stalks.

Mr. Thos. Mellwraith of this city gave an excellent paper on "Birds Useful and Injurious in Horticulture." He pointed out what good the different birds of this country did in the cause of horticulture, also showing what mischief the feathered tribe did. He considered that all birds did more good than evil, except the English sparrow. He thought that imported birds should be protected for a period of [illegible] years, after which time they would be well established. The paper was received with great satisfaction and the discussion [illegible]

The second annual convention of the Canadian Association of Fair and Exhibition Societies will be held in Toronto, Feb. 26 and 27.

E. W. Johnston, the athlete, who was arrested in the Grand Opera House foyer on Wednesday night on a capias issued at the instance of R. E. Heward & Co., is still in jail. Yesterday Davis & Johnston swore out another warrant, claiming $140 for goods supplied.

A very distressing accident occurred in the Ontario Tin Plating Co.'s establishment, World building, Methods-street, last night. Chas. Payne, aged about 20, employed as a stone grinder, was working on a lithographic press when the machinery caught his right hand, almost severing it at the wrist. The sufferer was taken to the hospital.

The Grand Lodge, A.O.U.W., concluded its deliberations yesterday. These officers were elected: Grand Master, Daniel Spry, Barrie, re-elected by acclamation; Grand Foreman, John Milne, Essex Centre, by acclamation; Grand Overseer, F. G. Inwood, Toronto; Grand Recorder, M. D. Corder St. Thomas, re-elected by acclamation for 11th term; Grand Receiver, James Rankine, Bridgetown, re-elected by acclamation for 11th term; Grand Guide, J. J. Ullen, Montreal, re-elected by acclamation; Grand Watchman, F. W. Unitt, re-elected; Trustee, M. A. James, Brownsville. Representatives to Grand Lodge—D. Spry, Barrie; H. B. Taylor, Whitby; M. D. Lawson, London, and M. D. Corder, St. Thomas, alternate. Toronto was chosen as the place for next year's convention.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Busy Week for the Legislature—A Number of New Bills Introduced.

TORONTO, Feb. 22.—The House was in committee of supply yesterday afternoon hastily engaged in passing the estimates for 1889. A number of bills of considerable importance were introduced and Mr. Drury got the following resolution passed:

That this House ratify an Order-in-Council, approved by his honor the Lieutenant-Governor on Oct. 29, 1888, such order being to the effect: Upon the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture, dated 16th October, 1888, the Committee of Council advise that the agreement dated June 20, 1888, between the corporation of the city of Guelph and Her Majesty, for the supply of water to the Agricultural College and Experimental Farm, be approved of by your Honor, subject to ratification by the Legislative Assembly.

The estimates for the Department of Education for 1889 amounting to $960,672 were passed, as were also those for the maintenance of public institutions aggregating $739,604. There was quite a lengthy discussion touching the purchase of supplies for public institutions, pending which the House adjourned.

Hon. Mr. Hardy introduced a bill yesterday to amend the act respecting the damage to lands by flooding. It provides that any incorporated company having had conferred upon it the powers authorized by the Timber Slide Company's Act, or any incorporated company or mill owner, has caused damage to the land of another person by overflowing it, and damages exceeding $20 but not more than $600 are claimed, such person may apply to the judge of the district or county court, or to the stipendiary or magistrate, to determine the claim under the provisions of the act.

Mr. Lyon moved the introduction of a bill yesterday to confirm a bylaw passed by the corporation of the Town of Sault Ste Marie and an agreement with the municipality and the Ontario and Sault Ste. Marie Water, Light and Power Company, the town guaranteeing interest at five per cent. on the company's bonds to the amount of $160,000 for twenty years. The Americans at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., are utilizing their water power at a cost of $6,000,000, whereas on the Canadian side water power can be developed for about $160,000. This is an excellent water power not surpassed in the Dominion. The supply of water in St. Paul and Minneapolis is getting short and these large millers are anxious to get water power at the Soo, which would of course promote the interests of that place and to some extent of the entire province.

Nova Scotia's Legislature.

HALIFAX, Feb. 21.—The provincial legislature was opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon by Chief Justice MacDonald, administrator. His honor appeared in plain clothes, the official uniform being cast aside for the first time since Confederation. The speech from the throne foreshadows some interesting legislation. One measure will be to encourage the formation of insurance funds in connection with the mines by allowing from the provincial treasury a certain portion of the royalties collected; the electorate franchise will be extended, and among the other bills will be measures to amend the mining and crown land laws, and the administration of justice.

DOMINION ARTILLERYMEN

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATION AT OTTAWA.

Some Lively Discussions. A Vote of Censure on the Executive Defeated on a Re-Telephones at Matches.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Artillery Association was held in the Private Bills Committee room to-day, and despite the fact that the meeting for three hours was very lively and animated. Lord Stanley of Preston and Gen. Middleton were present. His Excellency, who, by-the-way, told the meeting not to forget that he was an old artillery instructor, took the greatest interest in the meeting and made three or four speeches. Col. A. Macdonald, of the Guelph Field Battery, the president, was in the chair. Major Van Wagner and Captain John Handrie of the Hamilton Field Battery, Major F. King of the Welland Field Battery, and J. H. Mead of the Toronto Field Battery were the principal officers in attendance from Western Ontario. Gen. Laurie and Col. Curren of Halifax represented the far East. Toronto members present were Lieut. Hemfray Irving, E. S. Cox, R. Myles, T. W. Jones, W. C. Bennell, A. W. Dodd and J. H. Beaty. Capt. J. E. Donaldson of Ottawa was in his place as secretary.

The meeting would undoubtedly have been much more lively but for the tempering influence of His Excellency's presence. The two principal bones of contention were the protest of the Hamilton Field Battery that the scores of the batteries which fired at Toronto last fall be not allowed on the aggregate marks in the competition for the General Efficiency Prize, and that the Executive Committee had not consulted the Ontario representative thereon, Major McLean of Port Hope, in deciding the matter. This protest is made on the ground that the regulations laid down by the Inspector of Artillery were not complied with, and especially on the ground that the batteries which fired at Toronto made use of range telephones, which were not allowed at the firing on other ranges.

A vote of censure on the Executive Committee for not calling on the services of Captain McLean was offered by Mr. Irving of Toronto and was defeated on a tie, the chairman giving the casting vote against it.

The matter of using telephones at matches was warmly discussed and several resolutions offered. Lord Stanley said that he thought all purposes would be served by the discussion and the Executive Committee could take the matter up during the present year. Col. Irwin, inspector of artillery, said it was absolutely necessary to use telephones at the Woodbine matches in Toronto because the range passed over two highways. He did not, however, think that they were any benefit in marking scores. Lord Stanley's suggestion was adopted and the protest was not pressed any further.

Lord Stanley, in replying to a vote of thanks, made a splendid address in favor of artillery associations, and among other things he said he would do all in his power to further their interests.

Major King raised the question of the Ontario Artillery Association paying $12.50 per battery for affiliation [illegible] the batteries of other provinces paid but $10. As an offset to this Mr. [illegible] of Toronto was given a place on the Executive Committee of 1890.

Col. Macdonald was re-elected president and Col. Curren of Halifax replaces Col. J. Peters of London as one of the vice-presidents. Captain W. B. McMurrich of Toronto, who was absent owing to a previous business appointment, still remains one of the vice-presidents. Captain John Handrie of Hamilton, A. W. Dodd, T. W. Jones and E. S. Cox of Toronto were elected to the Council. Col. Turnbull of Montreal was elected president of the Council at a subsequent meeting.

The report of Secretary Donaldson showed that the affiliations for the year were about equal to 1887. The total number of competitors was 546, representing a force of over 2600 exclusive of officers. The total receipts for the year from all sources amounted to $2451 and the expenditure $2340, of which $1047 was paid out in cash prizes, $400 in purchase of cups, badges and other prizes, exclusive of those presented by the Governor-General for efficiency, and $613 as subsistence allowance to detachments, showing a credit balance of $104.

ANTI-RITUALIST SOCIETY.

A Hamilton Delegation's Missionary Work in St. Catharines.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 21—A large number of prominent Church of England laymen assembled in Victoria Hall, St. Paul-street, on Tuesday afternoon to receive a delegation from the Central Defence Association in Hamilton. The chair was occupied by Mr. Thos. Keyes, County Treasurer, who called upon the delegation from Hamilton, consisting of Judge Muir, Canon Curran, Mr. F. E. Kilvert and Alderman Griffith, to explain the objects of the Defence Association.

Judge Muir, on behalf of the association, laid the whole facts of the case before the meeting in a stirring speech. He said the reasons for the formation of the Church of England Defence Association for the Diocese of Niagara are: First. The rapid increase of ritualistic clergy in the diocese. In 1861 there were not half a dozen clergymen of ritualistic tendencies in the diocese, and anyone looking over the list of clergy in the Journal of Proceedings for 1888 can see the names of at least twenty. Second. The increase of illegal and Romanizing practices and ceremonies. Third. The teaching by some of the clergy of doctrines forbidden by the Prayer Book and Articles.

Mr. F. E. Kilvert said that since the present Bishop had been in the diocese a strong tendency towards ritualism was observable in some of the churches, especially in St. Matthew's Church, and the details of a funeral service, which was conducted there last week, were such as to show that very little difference existed between the Catholic funeral rites and the one in question; for the body was removed to the church at 10 o'clock in the morning and kept there until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, while six lighted candles and candlesticks—borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church—were placed, three at each end of the coffin, which was equivalent to a requiem mass in the Roman Catholic Church.

Rev. Canon Kilvert and Mr. T. R. Merritt spoke briefly, after which resolutions in sympathy with the objects of the defence association were passed and a branch formed with T. R. Merritt as president, S. R. Woodruff, vice-president and J. A. Keyes, secretary.

Blaine — Canada and the U. S.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Times, referring to the debate in the House of Commons, says that there is no occasion for Canadians to calculate the profit and loss of their connection with England. The real cause of their troubles is certainly not indifference to Canadian interests on the part of England. The cause will be found in the well known sentiments of the Presidential election in the United States. The Times says it will not anticipate what the Dominion Cabinet will do, but it may be fairly hoped that the question of immediate interest to Canada will be considered without prejudice and with mutual good will.

PROHIBITION SHELVED.

THREE DIVISIONS ON THE QUESTION IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Wood's Amendment Practically Rejecting the Matter to the Future Carried by a Majority of 60.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22.—The adjourned debate on Mr. Jamieson's prohibition resolution and the amendments thereto was resumed in the House last evening, but less time was taken in discussing the question than was occupied by the three divisions which resulted. It will be remembered that Mr. Jamieson's motion declared squarely for total prohibition, and that Mr. Wood of Brockville proposed an amendment, adding the words, "when the public sentiment of the country is ripe for the reception and enforcement of such a measure of prohibition." Mr. Taylor added still another amendment in favor of the principle of compensation to the men engaged in the liquor traffic if a majority of the voters of the country said they must quit.

Mr. Taylor's amendment to the amendment was lost by a vote of 85 to 56. Sir John Macdonald, Mr. Foster, Mr. Bowell and Sir John Thompson voted for the amendment.

Mr. Mills then offered an amendment, in lieu of Mr. Taylor's omitting the principle of compensation and this was also lost by a vote of 127 to 35.

Mr. Moncrieff also offered an amendment, which was declared out of order by Deputy Speaker Colby. The House then divided on Mr. Wood's amendment, which was carried by a vote of 99 to 59:

In the afternoon Mr. Kirkpatrick moved the second reading of his act to permit foreign vessels to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in Canadian waters. Eleven years ago the United states Congress passed a reciprocal wrecking act which is to go into effect just as soon as the President of the United States issues his proclamation and when the Canadian Parliament passes a similar act.

Mr. Patterson of Essex has a bill adopting several of the principles of Mr. Kirkpatrick's bill but going much further. Sir John Macdonald said the two bills should go to a special committee for assimilation if possible. However, Mr. Kirkpatrick's bill was read a second time and goes to a committee of his own election and Mr. Patterson's bill will probably follow in a day or two. In the meantime debate on it was adjourned.

Mr. Edgar sent up the bill of which he had given notice, dealing with trusts and combines, which was read a first time, after a full explanation by the mover. The Premier said he had no objection to the introduction of the bill, but he told Mr. Edgar as it dealt with commerce it should be commenced by a resolution instead of a bill.

Sir John Thompson asked that Mr. Madill's bill respecting elevators and hoists and Mr. Burdett's bill touching frauds in milk for cheese and butter factories be referred to special committees of his own naming as they came under the criminal law. The House so ordered.

In reply to Mr. Holton, the Minister of the Interior said that license had been granted to the Canadian Pacific Railway on July 15 last for the sale of liquor at their hotel at Banff Springs. The license was granted under the provisions of the North-west Territory Act.

The Minister of Customs gave notice last night of this resolution for Tuesday next in committee of the whole:

That it is expedient to amend the Customs Act and the act amending the same and to provide that the bringing of goods into Canada by land conveyance other than railway cars shall be prohibited during the night and on statutory holidays except under proper supervision. That the board of Customs and Dominion Appraisers shall be authorized to revise the valuations of port appraisers. That in every case the value for duty shall include the charges of transportation and shipment, and shall include any royalty, rent or charge in respect of exclusive rights or territorial limits. That goods intended for warehouse shall be placed there without delay. That information shall be eligible as to goods in transit through Canada for statistical and other purposes. That the manner of ascertaining the time of exportation from any place out of Canada shall be defined. That moneys deposited in lieu of articles smuggled and subject to seizure shall be treated in like manner as if such articles had been seized.

The House will go into supply to-day.

The first Conservative caucus of the session was held yesterday. Sir Adams Archibald was in the chair. The meeting was informed that the voters' lists would be revised this year and again next year and so on until their final revision. No mention was made of the Jesuits' Estates Bill.

The Frauds on Farmers Committee had a meeting yesterday and examined two witnesses, Farmer Donald Brown of Mount Forest, and Mr. Tom Hewitt, the famous pump man of London. Mr. Brown said the pumps were sold on the hayfork plan, but Mr. Hewitt assured the committee that all his dealings with the public were above board.

It is said that Mr. Joseph Tasse, ex-M.P., editor of La Minerve, is to be appointed to the position held by the late Cunningham Swart as comptroller of postal finances.

A deputation of nail and spike, prop and iron and steel manufacturers waited upon the Minister of Finance yesterday and represented that they have over $3,000,000 invested and 2500 operatives employed, and were satisfied with the present duties. Knowing that the previous deputations had already been here, requesting the duty to be raised, the deputation stated that they desired no change to be made.

A wealthy and influential deputation of lumbermen from various parts of the Dominion waited on the ministers yesterday afternoon and presented the memorial which was adopted at the recent meeting of the lumbermen at Toronto, for a removal of the export duty of $2 per 1000, board measure, on logs towed to the United States. The arguments which were brought out at that meeting were clearly and forcibly presented to the ministers, and the latter promised the closest enquiry into the matter.

Several measures were advanced a stage in the Senate yesterday.

CANADA'S RAILWAYS.

Mr. Pope's Annual Report—What the I. C. and the C.P.R. are Doing.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—The annual report of the Minister of Railways and Canals was laid on the table of the House this afternoon by Sir John Macdonald, Acting Minister of Railways. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1888, these lines were operated by the Government:

	Miles.
Intercolonial and its extensions	696
Eastern Extension railway	89
Windsor Branch (maintained only)	32
Prince Edward Island	211
Total mileage	1,027

The General Revenue Account for 1887-88 shows the following financial position of these roads for the past fiscal year. The average length of road operated for the whole fiscal year was 1210 miles, the Pictou town branch not having been opened until Nov. 28, 1887:

	Expenditure.	Earnings.	Profit.	Loss.
I.C.	$2,776,441	$2,815,789		$960,652
Kent. Estern	99,264	78,833		20,432
Windsor Br.	24,940	24,538	$343
P.E.I.	229,680	158,303		71,376
			$343	$456,326
				343
Net loss				$455,983

The total cost of the line on capital account up to June 30, 1888, was $48,827,759, the year's addition amounting to $742,365.

Earnings and Expenses.

The earnings were made up as follows:

Earnings from passenger traffic	$ 845,041
Earnings from freight traffic	1,822,343
Earnings from mails and sundries	137,890
	$2,805,275

The gross earnings, compared with those of the previous year, show an increase of $15,775

The working expenses per mile run by trains were:

	Cents.
1887-88	66 36
1886-87	62 67
Increase	3 69

Working expenses per mile of railway:

1887-88	$ 2,776 24
1886-87	2,782 75
Increase	$ 657 51

The gross tonnage carried was:

	Tons.
1887-88	1,274,998
1886-87	1,131,314
Increase	143,684

The total number of passengers carried was:

1887-88	966,191
1886-87	949,154
Increase	16,037

In comparison with last year's results, there was an increase of $6,000 in the number of passengers, and an increase of 144,661 in the number of tons of freight carried by the road. The earnings also show an increase of $316,774. The expenditure for working shows an increase of $648,826. This expenditure, however, has included much that might very properly be charged to capital account.

The adoption of steam from the locomotive for the purpose of heating passenger cars has been satisfactorily carried out, and the use of electricity as a means of lighting a certain number of cars has also been successfully adopted.

Traffic Statistics.

The following table shows the gross earnings, the tonnage of freight and the number of passengers carried in each year since July 1, 1876, when the railway was opened as a through trunk line:

Years	Average Miles in operation	Earnings.	Tons of Freight Carried.	No. of Passengers Carried.
1876-77	716	$1,756,445	694,197	613,439
1877-78	716	1,773,965	552,719	612,067
1878-79	716	1,752,089	510,881	593,181
1879-80	716	1,911,000	702,000	697,446
1880-81	716	2,276,000	783,577	631,945
1881-82	716	2,540,000	1,233,000	779,981
1882-83	716	2,776,000	1,270,000	778,000
1883-84	716	2,776,000	1,211,000	790,870
1884-85	716	2,776,000	1,097,000	914,780
1885-86	716	2,776,000	1,000,000	1,038,894
1886-87	716	2,776,000	1,131,314	949,154
1887-88	1,210	$3,015,774	1,274,998	966,191

At the Canadian Pacific.

Chief Engineer Shanly, who was asked by the Minister to supervise the general condition of the Canadian Pacific Railway, states that after a careful examination he is pleased to be able to pronounce the road in good running condition. Every precaution is taken on the mountainous sections to guard against damage from earth and rock slides, and the number of casualties from this source last summer was very small. The snow precautions in these regions is also exhaustive and effectual. The officers in charge of operation, who have had several years' experience in the Rocky Mountains, are of opinion that the road is so fully guarded against snow slides that the service is not likely to be interrupted from this cause. The company are also taking precautions against snow blockades, by the introduction of powerful rotary snow shovels, and it is confidently expected that these machines will be effectual against the heaviest drifts which they may encounter.

The Field of Chateauguay.

From this historic ground Mr. Frank Carotte writes that he was greatly afflicted with constipation, together with pain and swelling of his body. "I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and it gave me immediate relief. I can now sleep well, and can eat heartily without any ill effects." 2w8d

A Terrible Fact.

Constipation is the most frequent cause of headache, bad blood, humors, dizziness, vertigo, etc., and because of this should never be allowed to exist. It may be readily cured by using Burdock Blood Bitters, which never fails to cure even the most obstinate and chronic cases. 2w8d

NOT A PIMPLE ON HIM NOW.

Had with Eczema. Hair all Came. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I was not one month in growing to manhood, HAVELOCK, Ky., my boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, when the doctor said was could heal, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

A Fever Sore Eight Years Cured.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever about years ago. He was so bad in the fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well.—sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. Severe Scaly Eczema Cured.

A few weeks ago my wife suffered very much from a severe outbreak of the scalp, and received no relief from the various remedies she used, until she tried CUTICURA. The disease promptly yielded to this treatment, and in a short while she was entirely well. There has been no return of the disease, and CUTICURA ranks No. 1 in our estimation for diseases of the skin.

I determined then, at last, that I would consult a physician, to see if there were anything in it. I felt my feeling. I should like to remember of my foolish criminality—for I reasoned that I could do this the more readily, as I knew that, by the laws of his profession, he would be obliged to keep my application secret and could make no report to my employers. I decided what to have [illegible] Old Dr. Blanchard had no time for mischief, and had, moreover, such a professional curiosity and searching into things, that, if my symptoms had been at all anomalous, he would have suffered me to launch a loaded train of my fellow creatures into eternity, in order that he might study their development.

However, he assured me that it was a very simple and frequent form of disease with which I was afflicted; one taking its variation according to the idiosyncracies of the patient; and, being entirely upon the nerves, there was no medicine to reach it but my own will. This was cheerful after my experience. If my spiritual identity, he said, was weaker than that of my body, it must succumb into hopeless insanity; but could I rouse its flagging courage and whip it into action, all was safe and sure. The one, the only thing, for me to do was, when the next time I saw the face before me, to run over it, boldly and [illegible] remonstrance—remorselessly, if I could, but to run over it—and I should be well.

It was an easy thing to order—but, then, the face was Margaret's.

Dr. Blanchard professed himself interested in the case which I had exhibited to him, and would not take any fee. I went out from his presence, half comforted, somewhat strengthened, and resolved that I would do as he bade.

I began, in the first place, by fortifying myself fully with a simple tonic, in order that my [illegible] debility might cause a failure, and, perhaps, it was on finding me so resolved that the subtle apparition feared a fresh encounter—so many weeks went by without its reappearance—the winter, which I had once looked forward to for its promised home and joy, having drifted into spring—that I was fairly drawing fresh breath and fancying myself free—and, being off my guard one night, there it lay.

It was a starlit midnight, with a thick [illegible] the starbeams and weaving into a kind of fleece over the [illegible] so that what light there was had a strange and supernatural effect, at [illegible] With this, a wild, high wind was [illegible] behind us, like the tramp of a [illegible] legion on high, and blowing [illegible] fault, tough gale from the sea—[illegible] owing to this great wind in our [illegible] which favoring wind has something to do with a railway car—as with a ship, while pressing from [illegible] and destroying atmospheric resistance in face—we had made remarkable time, and were ahead of our table, so that I was on the point of slowing, when a white winged night bird, startled by our approach, rose from its covert beside the track, and flew away toward the woods. In another moment something else rose, too, as if a slumbering wayfarer there had lifted head to gaze after the flying shadow, and then it lay back again—and, looking at it intently, I saw the face once more.

I saw the face once more,

Now was my time. What if I should shut my eyes, and, not seeing it, drive on? But no, that would be cowardly—neither would it effect the object, neither could I do it. Moreover, were I able, in so doing I might fail to observe some real obstacle and so plunge my whole [illegible] into destruction. I leaned forward, took the strength out of [illegible] throttle, with open eyes further, trembling mouth; the half fainting [illegible] upon the cheek. As the storm swoops and snaps a bending tree, I sent a blast shrieking against the whistle's [illegible] brakes, and then, in spite of myself, the throttle valve had done its work, and we were gently slowing, and should have passed the point unscathed from that apparition, when [illegible] pressed [illegible] button.

It was as though some mighty and invisible hand, mightier than the breath of steam or the temper of steel, mocking my pride, had seized on and was drawing us on at its wicked will. My heart refused to beat—stood still with horror; the shiver that ran even through the roots of my hair hardened there; we were close upon the place, grinding with all our hefty iron over it; we had passed it, and we paused.

[illegible] for distance, if you could see, the books of my profession will tell you that it is [illegible] sudden flaw of contrary wind has been known to do so much as to bring to a [illegible] grain under full headway. I [illegible] that sudden lurch of contrary wind had been blowing one cruel day [illegible]

We had passed two places then. Till I [illegible] the beckoning [illegible] could draw a breath, and then could steady my voice. I did not attempt [illegible] But the instant I mastered myself I went through my customary [illegible] [illegible] and run.

[illegible] ning behind and swinging my lantern over the nearest track, finding nothing, ran again, and coming on my traveller before the conductor had reached me. I told him—when that was in my power of time by reason of the signal, and I was waiting on the side track for the down train to pass. Fortunately, either unheld me, or my flushed face and shaking hands would have betrayed the truth, or the falsehood, behind.

I questioned with myself now if the ghost was laid. Yet how could it be? We had run over the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] exactly the same [illegible] I had refused to do so; I had stopped. My will had again been opposed and conquered—not yet had it pricked the bubble of this phantasm and caused it to explode into empty and [illegible] air.

If would be idle to relate the passing of the summer and the passing of the winter, with their [illegible] [illegible] that then, indeed, came more seldom, but every time with increased power. I had stanch [illegible] for a season, and had been up [illegible] with Margaret, at her mother's, for two delicious months—resting, just closing my eyes in peace. I had begged her then, before I came away, to marry me; for I thought if I had the dear real face my daily companion, to come home to, to go out from, the fictitious one would perforce die a natural death. But, even had Margaret herself entirely consented, her mother had too many scruples to suffer her only child to leave her for such precarious protection as mine might be. So I went back to ordinary life again.

My troubles had now become so much a chronic thing that, except when its manifestations or their results were extraordinary, I took no serious note of them; only the possibility of their future coming, and the actuality of their past, hung over me like a black, suffocating cloud, awake or asleep. In fact, though, I had no sleep that deserved the beneficent name. In place of the sweet oblivion and rest of forgetfulness that other men knew, I had for my part a long and living nightmare.

WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE.

What is up now? Why I see R. S. Mitchell is selling the New White Arm No. 8 and 13, Wheeler & Wilson, a sewing Machine that makes a lock-stitch without a shuttle and one that has no equal, for it is the easiest lighted and smoothest running sewing machine in town to-day, as it has rotary motion, when running. Just think of it over $2011 sold inside of the last 18 months. And these machines, and all need less and machine parts can be had of the agent, R. S. MITCHELL, [illegible] Peterborough. dw are the men who have been the Benefactors of the Public for the last six months, and now they have removed their IMMENSE STOCK of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents Furnishings into the Large and Commodious Premises lately occupied by Mr. Henry Sheppard. They are now in a position to offer Goods at prices that will bring you back every time.

SHEPPARD'S OLD STAND, UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK,

Tell the Truth and stick to it. We are the People for the Public. We have the Class of Goods everybody wants. We are bound to do the Business of the county. Saturday last a Grand Success as the Opening Day. 33 Overcoats and 17 Suits went out of our Establishment on that day. The Public delighted and the People rushing to our Showy Daylight Store for the Tremendous Bargains we are offering.

Listen! Hark! Hush! We sell, and no other firm on earth sells, a Full Size Man's All-Wool Tweed Pants for 49c. No Shoddy about it either. We make some firms wriggle and squirm when they see the parcels going out of our House by the Dozens. We are kept busy all the time. We dont have time for our boy to hang around other Stores (especially on Market days) to see what is doing. We are now recognised as

The Only Live Daylight Clothiers on This Continent.

We treat everyone alike, and our mode of doing business has won for us a reputation that other Competitors are longing to secure and are copying our style to get it.

But we know the Enlightened tillers of the Soil appreciate a Firm who give GOOD GOODS for Less than some Firms give Pure Unadulterated Shoddy. We are the High Cockelorums of the Clothing Trade.

The Bishop's Visit.

On Wednesday the Roman Catholic Bishops of Ontario, Mgrs. Walsh, London; Cleary Kingston; Dowling, Hamilton, and O'Connor, Peterborough, paid a visit to St. Michael's College, Toronto, where addresses were presented their Lordships and suitable replies made by each. Bishops Dowling and O'Connor, the Empire says, alluded very touchingly to their connection with St. Michael's College as students.

The Catholic Bishops.

The Globe of Thursday had the following:—Bishop Dowling, of Peterborough, went to Hamilton yesterday on a brief visit to personal friends. His installation into the See of Hamilton will take place a day or two after the 1st of May, when the Rev. Dr. O'Connor will be raised to the hierarchy to succeed him in charge of the diocese of Peterborough. Dr. O'Connor's consecration will take place at Peterborough. It is a curious coincidence that the late Bishop Farrell was parish priest of Peterborough when he was chosen the first bishop of the See which Bishop Dowling is shortly to assume.

Willow and Wicket.

The annual meeting of the Ontario Cricket Association was held at Toronto Wednesday. Peterborough was represented by Messrs. J. Stirling and W. D. Parker. Mr. Stirling was placed on the Executive Committee and gave the following notice of motion:—

That there be two classes of clubs, being known as first and intermediate clubs, and that the secretary of the committee be instructed to correspond with secretaries of existing districts with a view of ascertaining the views and their expression on their classification.

The American War.

St. Peter's Literary Society had a debate and entertainment Wednesday evening. Dr. Beeman presided. A reading from Pitt-Fisk Papers by Mr. O'Meara and songs by Mr. J. Mahillan and Mr. J. P. Dunn, the latter taking the audience by storm, introduced the debate, which was upon the question, "Resolved, that America was justified in proclaiming war against Great Britain in 1812." Mr. J. J. Sheehy spoke for the affirmative and Dr. McGrath for the negative. By votes of the audience the contention of the affirmative was sustained.

At Hymen's Altar.

Mr. T. H. Hamilton, traveller for McColl Bros., Toronto, was united in marriage on Tuesday to Miss Mary Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. D. Brown, Toronto. The happy event took place at the residence of the bride's father, Dover Court Road. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. McLelland of Shelburne. The bride was the recipient of many costly presents. After spending a short honeymoon in Western Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will take up their residence in Peterborough. The EXAMINER extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

High Licenses.

The high license by-law, fixing tavern licenses at $400, saloon licenses at $300, and shop licenses at $200 (exclusive of government fee), was carried by popular vote Wednesday, though it will be seen by the poll not much interest was taken in it:—

War on a White Sheet.

Mr. Frederick Villiers, the famous war correspondent and lecturer, entertained a good sized audience at the opera house last night. His lecture abounded with tales of heroic deeds of the British soldiery on the field of battle and in camp; of silent midnight marches, of fierce charges "into the jaws of death," of bombardments and sorties and of individual exploits which came under his own personal observation during his long career as a war correspondent. The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon views thrown on a white sheet, enlarged reproductions of sketches taken during the progress of the events recorded. The lecturer possesses a good delivery and charming manner that greatly added to the enjoyment of the entertainment. He appeared in his "working clothes," all equipped for a march with the army. The lecture was highly interesting and edifying, and the audience was well pleased.

The Knife and Fork Social.

Knives and forks certainly played a prominent part in the social at the Baptist church Thursday evening, and in the hands of a couple of hundred hungry visitors made sad havoc with the substantial supper spread in the basement. The young ladies and gentlemen who had the affair in hand are to be congratulated upon their success. As to the material wants of the people had been amply satisfied, an entertainment was begun in the church above. Rev. P. C. Parker, pastor, presided over the gathering, and made a short opening address. Following the chairman's remarks, Miss Lily Jackson sang a very pretty song that was encored, and Miss Gorman pleased the audience with a recitation. The performance of Messrs Stratton and Loch upon the piano was admirable indeed, as was also the dialogue in character between Messrs. Hendry and Nugent. Miss Jackson, taking Miss Cameron's place, favored the audience with another solo, and an amusing exhibition of ventriloquism and mimicry by Mr. W. A. Dixon closed the first part. Mrs. Daly was down on the programme for a song, but was not present. Her number was efficiently taken by Mr. Hendry. Miss Wrighton's recitation was received with unmistakable favor by the audience, and Mr. R. J. Kidd also distinguished himself as a reciter. Between these elocutionary numbers, Miss Howden interposed an excellent instrumental solo. Dr. Scott's song, though hur, was not by any means considered least, judging from the favor with which it was received. Mr. Nugent also contributed a well rendered recitation. The singing of the National Anthem closed the evening's entertainment—and a most happy and successful one it was.

Scott vs. Benedict.

The trial of the third action brought by Mr. T. H. A. Scott against the Messrs. Benedict and others, in respect to timber limits in the townships of Anstruther, Cavendish, Asphodel, etc., was commenced at Osgoode Hall, Wednesday, says the Globe, before Mr. Justice Street, in the South Chancery Court Room, which was crowded all day with lawyers, witnesses, and spectators. The case is one that has excited a great deal of interest and still does so. The first action went to the Supreme Court and was decided adversely to Mr. Scott. The present action is for redemption, the plaintiff having got in since the first action the interest of his brother, W. A. Scott, and now suing in a different right and asserting his equity to redeem the defendants, who are the well-known lumber merchants, the Benedicts, of Albany, the Rathbuns, of Deseronto, and the estate of the late Messrs Boyd, of Bobcaygeon. The defendants have acquired their rights over the timber limits by various assignments of a mortgage originally made to the late Mr. J. G. Ross, of Quebec, and in other ways, the plaintiff's contention being that his brother's right to redeem was never barred, he having become a lunatic. The trial of the case is likely to last for several days. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Attorney-General Mowat, Mr. C. Robinson, Q.C., Mr. W. R. Meredith, Q.C., Mr. Bain, Q.C., Mr. Pousette, Q.C., and Mr. George H. Watson; and the several defendants, by Mr. Edward Blake, Q.C., Mr. S. H. Blake, Q.C., Mr. Moss, Q.C., Mr. Walter Barwick and Mr. R. J. Wickham.

At Hymen's Altar.

A brilliant society event occurred at Woodstock on Wednesday afternoon, being the marriage of Mr. Fred G. Cox to Miss Cosey Swan, of that town. The wedding took place in the Methodist church, and the Woodstock papers say the affair caused a great stir in society circles. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of white faille and brocade, with the usual white veil and orange blossoms. She also wore some pretty diamond ornaments, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaids were elegantly dressed and carried beautiful fans, the gift of the groom also. Messrs. A. Mercer and H. W. Kent, of Peterborough, were groomsmen. After the ceremony lunch was served at the O'Neill house to about 75 guests. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cox, Mr. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Phelan and Miss Mercer, Peterborough. Of the contracting parties the Woodstock Sentinel-Review says:—"Miss Swan was one of Woodstock's most popular ladies; but she was more. She was Woodstock's prima donna. Her splendid musical accomplishments were always in demand and were always available. Not only have the churches to thank her for services rendered, but the public generally as well. Mr. Fred Cox, the fortunate man in the case, is a son of Mr. Geo. A. Cox of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, Vice-President of the Bank of Commerce, etc., etc. He is a young man of many excellent qualities, and during the short time he has been associated in Woodstock he has acquired an excellent reputation here." Mr. and Mrs. Cox are enjoying a honeymoon to Boston, New York and Washington, and that the kindly fates may take them into their special protection is the hearty wish of Mr. Cox's many friends, and acquaintances in Peterborough.

The Winter Races.

A Most Successful Meet of Horses—Some Splendid Racing Exhibitions.

The three days' meet of the Peterborough Trotting Association took place on Little Lake Wednesday, Thursday and to-day. They were probably the most successful winter races ever held in Peterborough. Every day there was a crowd of festival hundred in attendance, and keen interest was taken in the events, which were all well contested. The track was in excellent condition, barring a little drift about half way around which made travelling heavy. It was on this account that some of the owners of light horses in the 2.20 trot on the first day thought the first two heats postponed till next day in order that the drift might be removed. This was not allowed, however, and the races went on. The trouble was remedied before the next day. The weather was about as fine as could be expected, though a trifle blustery at times.

The judges' stand was situated near the house in the bay bordered by Crescent street. The track was the full mile, almost kite shaped, bound at the top, and gave a splendid home stretch. Though quite wide enough for ordinary racing, it was found that in some of the events in which there were a large number of entries the horses were pocketed at the start, and this was very much in the way of getting away from where they would otherwise have been. The judges, Messrs. Thos. Greenwood, Port Hope; C. Gillespie, Campbellford and Wm. Croft, Peterborough, performed their duties satisfactorily. Dr. Beatty, President of the Association, acted as timekeeper.

The First Day.

About 2 o'clock the three minute trot was called. For this there were five entries. "Royal Jim" was protested against on the ground that his record excluded him from the race, but as the protest was not in writing no action was taken. Royal Jim had things all his own way, and the fight for second place was between Gladstone and Toboggan, the Toronto horse.

Following is the summary of the heats:

W. Clancy's (Peterborough) Royal Jim	1	1	1
John Newbold's (Peterborough) Gladstone	2	2	2
J. H. Nesbitt's (Toronto) Toboggan	3	3	3
F. C. Crockett's (Orillia) Brown Charlie	5	5	4
D. Lake's (Brighton) Bay Gelding	4	4	5

Time—2.35½, 2.36, 2.33.

The purse was $160, divided. In the first heat Brown Charlie got a bad start but trotted well and came up to second place. In this heat Toboggan scored third, but was set back to fifth for running. His driver claimed that his check broke and he could not manage the horse.

In the second heat Gladstone and Toboggan had a hot race for second place, but Toboggan got there by a few yards only.

The third heat Royal Jim led all around with Gladstone an easy second.

THE TWO-THIRTY.

The 2.30 class (purse $125), was perhaps the most interesting of all. Maud S. won three heats but never by more than a couple of lengths in advance of the second horse. The horses all kept well together, and the race was an exciting one throughout.

In the first heat, after half a dozen false starts, the horses got off with Mayflower, the favorite, in the rear. The Bishop was practically out of the race from the start, but the struggle between Maud S., Little Jim, F.O.P. and Nina C was close. The four horses came in in a bunch, Maud S. leading by a length, Little Jim, Nina C. and F.O.P. following in close order.

In the second heat a fairly good start was made and the finish was grand, Maud S. first, F.O.P. second and Mayflower third. The two first horses were put back for running, the track overseer notifying the judges that both horses did more running than was allowable on the way round. Mayflower was awarded first place, amidst the cheers of the crowd. There was considerable "kicking" over the decision by interested parties.

In the third heat Willie W. astonished everyone by the magnificent burst of speed he put on. Though away behind at the start before the quarter mile was reached he had passed into second place, between the quarter and half, however, he fell away, Mr. Daly claims on account of the heavy snow that had drifted on the track. Maud S. secured first, though Little Jim's driver claimed that he should be awarded the heat on the ground that the Cannington mare had broken to gain.

In the last heat Johnny R. and F.O.P. loomed up better than before. Maud S. won handily, and though Little Jim came in second he was put back for running.

Many were surprised that Sleepy Dan, a winner in former years, did not take a better place in this race. It is explained in this way. Dan's class is 2.35, but there being no race in this class his owner decided to trot him anyway. Sleepy Dan's best record is 2.37. Too company in the 2.30 trot on Wednesday was too fast for him.

The following is a summary of the heats:

J. E. Smith's (Cannington) Maud S	1	2	1	1
Jno. Newbold's (Peterborough) Mayflower	2	1	2	2
A. P. Morgan's (Peterborough) Little Jim	5	3	3	3
D. Lake's (Brighton) Johnnie R	3	4	5	4
J. H. Nesbitt's (Bowmanville) Nina C	4	5	4	5
T. E. Hammond's (Cannington) F.O.P.	6	6	6	6
W. Wade's (Peterborough) Sleepy Dan	7	7	7	7
F. J. Daly's (Peterborough) Willie W	8	8	8	8

Time—2.32, 2.32, 2.30, 2.33.

NOTES.

There was quite a lot of betting done, Mayflower was the favorite, with Maud S., Little Jim and F. O. F. well up in favor.

Of course the usual fakirs were there plying their vocation. A coffee stand was on the ice and did a big business.

Dr. Beatty was President and Mr. F. J. Daly Secretary of the committee who had the races in charge. The others were Messrs. Martin Connors, E. N. Roddy, R. White, T. Cavanagh, W. McGreggor, A. Paterson and Wm. Croft.

It is claimed that Mayflower had to work against three horses—Maud S., F.O.P., and Nina C. The backers of Morgan's little mare say that the race was not a fair one, and that if justice was done a couple of the leading horses would be ruled out.

The Second Day.

As much interest was taken in the races of the second day as those of the first. On the judges' stand Mr. J. Ketchison of Belleville replaced Mr. Gillespie of Campbellford. The attendance was if anything larger than on the previous day, the weather being milder.

The green race was first called. There were five starters, but each heat was a procession. The purse of $60 was divided between Sergeant 1st, Mattie B, 2nd and Calamity Jane 3rd. Following is the summary:—

McLaren's Sergeant	1	1	1
Kelly's Mattie B	2	2	2
W. Lesly's Frankie D	3	5	5
F. Smith's Bay Gelding	4	4	4
R. Rochester's Calamity Jane	5	3	3

Time—2.50, 2.41, 2.37.

The time made was remarkably good. "Sergeant" can now pass as a pretty fair "flier" now.

THE NAMED RACE.

This event caused considerable excitement. "Enos D." and the pacer struggled for first place, but the Lindsay mare had little difficulty in running off with the prize. In the second heat she lost ground by a series of bad breaks, and the pacer scored first, but by a neck only. Jack the Ripper took third money. Following is the summary:

Ormond, Jas. Percy (Cobourg)	4	2	1
Perry (Percy) J. Powell (Lindsay)	1	3	2
Percy J. Daly (Lindsay)	3	1	1
Jack the Ripper, W. F. Madigan (Peterborough)	2	4	3
A. Mallett's Grey Mare	5	5	5

Time—2.47½, 2.46, 2.41, 2.41.

The Last Day.

The races to-day are the 2.50 class, and the free-for-all. In the latter Dwyer's Little Jim is favorite. The knowing ones assert that he can do better work than he did in the 2.30 trot. The field in the free-for-all will be about the same as for the 2.30 class. The entries for the 2.50 class also indicate that there will be a good race.

30 CHESTS of our double extra fine new Japan tea arrived to-day, 5 lbs for $1 at M. R. Kidd's.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, Feb. 21.

A. H. Sutton was fined $60 and costs for a first breach of the Scott Act, committed by selling beer at his refreshment stand in the rink the night of the carnival.

The charge of having exposed for sale light bread, preferred against Mr. Geo. Sanderson, corner Aylmer and McDonel streets, was tried. The 22 loaves seized by the police were produced in court. The charge was dismissed on the ground that the bread when seized was too stale. It should have been weighed within 24 hours after baking, not three days, as bread always grows lighter after baking. Mr. Sanderson told the police to send the bread to the Protestant Home. Mr. W. H. Moore was his counsel in court.

THE FORGERY CASE.

Irvine Rorback, of Dummer, charged with forgery and impersonation, was committed for trial. Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., conducted the prosecution; Messrs. Denniston & Stevenson defended the prisoner. Mr. E. B. Stone gave evidence as to his drawing out the mortgage on Nov. 15th last on the west halves of lots 1, 2 and 4, con. 8, Dummer, upon the prisoner's representation that he was Robert Gardner, owner and occupier of the premises. The mortgage was for the amount of $2,005, in favor of Washington Vosburg. In signing the mortgage the prisoner wrote his name Garner, (without the d) and had his wife signed it also as "Hannah Garner." The signature bore no resemblance to the handwriting of the genuine Robert Gardner.

Mr. Stone said that after the prisoner had been arrested he told him (the witness) that he was drunk when he did it and had been put up to it by others. Mr. Stone's opinion was that the prisoner had been used by a clique.

Mr. Robert Gardner, the genuine, gave evidence repudiating the mortgage entirely.

Mr. C. W. Sawers also gave evidence relative to the registration of the mortgage.

The prisoner was committed for trial and was admitted to $2000 bail.

FRIDAY, Feb. 22.

The Italian colony of the town was well represented at the police court this morning. They were there to sympathize with one of their countrymen, Philip Maisecolo, who was charged with the larceny of $5 and a quantity of clothes, the property of Matteo Mandes. One of the "Italy mans" acted as interpreter. From the evidence it would appear that the plaintiff received a registered letter from Niagara Falls on the 19th inst., containing $5. He owed Maisecolo for 13 weeks' board, and fearing that Mandes intended clearing out without paying him, Maisecolo got the $5 and also seized the plaintiff's clothing as security. The latter brought suit to recover his possessions, but, of course, the case was dismissed in view of his owing the prisoner for back board. It is said that there is the inevitable woman in this case also. Mandes is a warm-hearted native of sunny Italy, and had a tenderness for Mrs. Wm. Ringer, she whose husband has been in jail frequently for wife beating. Mrs. Ringer left her home and went to Niagara, though her husband does not know of her whereabouts. Mrs. Ringer reciprocated the Italian's affections and it is said the $5 came from her for the purpose of affording Mandes the wherewithal to fly to his charmer as fast as a railway train could carry him. Maisecolo, however, intercepted his flight by putting in a forcible claim for the board due him.

It is likely there will be trouble in the Italian settlement over this affair. Maisecolo is known among his fellows as honest and industrious and has their sympathies, while Mandes has brought himself into disfavor by his action. He expressed his fear to the police that they would kill him.

St. Andrew's Society's Advance

A Local Habitation and a Name.

A special meeting of St. Andrew's Society was held last night in Mr. Collector Cumming's office, Mr. Chas. Cameron, President, in the chair. He explained the object of the meeting which was chiefly the consideration of the advantage of procuring a hall for the use of the society, to be known as St. Andrew's Hall. The subject was well discussed, most of the members evincing a decided wish to go on with the procuring of a new hall. The sentiment of the meeting was crystalized into the following unanimously passed resolution:

Moved by Mr. Wm. Menzies, seconded by Mr. Charles Laurie, that a committee composed of President C. Cameron, Vice-President J. Hendry, and Messrs. John Patterson, Geo. Noble, Henry Bowie, Jas. Cummings and the secretary be authorized to procure a suitable hall for the exclusive use of St. Andrew's Society to be known as "St. Andrew's Hall;" the said hall to be open every evening of the week for the use of the members of the Society and as a headquarters for Scotchmen generally; said committee to have full power to act and to report as early as possible at a meeting, to be called by the President.

It was understood that no part of the funds of the Society should be used for the above purpose but that private subscriptions and contributions should be solicited to make a start. The funds of the Society are devoted to charitable purposes only.

Ashburnham Brevities.

There was no meeting of the Young Men's Guild on Thursday night.

Mr. H. Strike, who succeeds Mr. Ramsay as principal of the public school, was in the village yesterday forming acquaintances. He will relieve Mr. Ramsay on Tuesday next.

A rather amusing episode occurred the other day in which a young lady and gentleman of the village were the principal actors. It appears the young lady took upon herself the responsibility of giving a gentleman acquaintance of hers a drive to the country. They had not got far beyond the limits of the town when they came to a place in the bush where the road branched off. Not knowing which to take, they followed the wrong one, which led them into the bush, where men were engaged cutting wood. Not wishing to meet the men, they tried to turn. In this they were successful, but not before they had received two spots in the snow. They returned unharmed, save that their feelings told them that they were not the only witnesses of the unhappy incident.

A correspondent writes to the EXAMINER complaining that eight or ten boys, from 10 to 18 years of age, are in the habit of annoying and disturbing the congregation at prayer meetings. He wants these unruly youths and their parents to the penalty the law imposes upon disturbing of public worship. The names of the offenders are known and the parents are warned to exercise their authority to repress their children, and some of them asked to set a better example. Fair warning is now given so that the stoppage of the practices may not necessitate the taking of harsh measures.

TURNBULL'S

The Flood of the Season's French and English Printed Calicoes is rolling in—white capped and aglow phosphorescent, color play. How the Priscallas of the past would joy to see them? Pretty as you have seen them, they were never so handsome before. Persian designs, leaves, buds, flowers, polka, dots, plain stripes, scrabbles and scrawls, angles and tangles. More than 300 different styles, small figures, large figures, and mourning designs, better printing was never done 'exquisite.' If you don't want to buy, don't pass the window or come in. Prices range from 6 to 15 cents.

The trouble with low grade Marseilles Bed Spreads has been loose threads at the back—face, all right, but you didn't like the fiddle-string arrangement at the back, needn't. Here are $2.50 Marseilles Bed Spreads, full size and handsome patterns, with backs firm and well finished. Look at this honey-comb quilt, which needs no apology for either size or weight.

Flannelettes—what are they? Are they all-wool? No they are mostly cotton, finished to imitate a Flannel,and especially adapted for childrens' dresses and ladies' wrappers. They consist of Cream Grounds, with pink, blue and cardinal Stripes, blue and white, pink and cream, pink and blue, and pink, cream and grey, some 18 patterns in all—the best quality being only 12½ cents a yard.

Opened out this week, a line of Linen Tablings, the maker of which is noted the world over. They are specially suited for every day wear—the warp is well twisted and they wash and iron well.

Before you hear from us again, I will have visited the wholesale markets where I will be on the look-out for Bargains for my Customers.

THE NEWS FROM OTTAWA.

THE HOUSE HAS A LONG SESSION IN SUPPLY.

Sir Richard Cartwright Has an Amendment Down For Tuesday—Statement of Exports and Imports For January.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22.—When the Minister of Finance yesterday afternoon proposed to go into supply Sir Richard Cartwright arose and said that he had intended to move an amendment to the supply motion and he had sent an intimation to the proposal early in the day to Mr. Foster. Sir Richard said he had done this because it was a trade matter that he intended to introduce. Sir John Macdonald said he hoped the gentleman would defer his motion till Tuesday, as it had been arranged on Thursday to go into supply yesterday. Sir Richard did not press his motion any further and the House went into supply.

There has been a great deal of speculation as to the contents of Sir Richard's motion and the general opinion is that it relates to trade between Canada and the United States. Mr. Mills said incidentally in the House that a more important resolution would be introduced after the first was disposed of.

A number of private bills relating to railways were introduced yesterday afternoon. Mr. Kirkpatrick introduced a bill to authorize the Canadian Pacific Railway to issue mortgage bonds on their new steamships to be put into commission in the Pacific trade. Mr. Guillet introduced a bill incorporating the Cobourg, Northumberland and Pacific Railway Company. Mr. Bowman introduced a bill incorporating the Berlin and South Ontario Railway. Mr. Watson introduced a bill to authorize the city of Winnipeg to utilize the water power of the Assiniboine River.

Mr. Somerville of Brant brought up the question of the voters' lists, and said he had seen in a paper that several of these lists had been sent to friends in Hamilton.

Mr. Bowell said if this was so it was done contrary to the instructions of the Queen's printer. Copies had been sent to some of the counties where Scott Act elections had been held. That was all.

Sir John Macdonald said he did not see why a number of copies of the new lists should not be printed and sold to any one who wanted to buy them. He had no objections to members of both parties getting them.

Mr. Mills read a despatch which was sent from Ottawa Thursday to the papers, and he asked if the Government would give any further information about the matter. The despatch is as follows:

The Department of Fisheries has received information that the Canadian vessels seized by the United States in Behring Sea in 1887 will be released in a few days. Some time past, negotiations on the question of disputed right of seizure, have been advertised to be held in March.

These vessels were seized, it will be remembered, while they were on the high seas, many miles from land, peaceably pursuing the sealing business. They were towed to Sitka, Alaska by the United States revenue cutter Corwin. The vessels in question are the Caroline, the Onward and the Hilton.

The Minister of Marine said there had been considerable correspondence on this subject and much of it had already been published. Whether the Government were prepared to print any more of the correspondence was a question. Sir John Macdonald was not in the House when the request was made by Mr. Mills.

Tariff deputations continue to arrive at the Capital. The millers, 50 strong, were here yesterday from various parts of Ontario. These gentlemen represented $15,000,000 of capital invested in the milling business. Besides the deputation the House yesterday was flooded with petitions in furtherance of the millers' prayers. These gentlemen, it will be remembered, were in session at Toronto the other day and they drew up a memorial, resolutions and arguments which were ably presented to the Government last evening.

The millers want the duty on flour increased from 50 cents to $1 per barrel, or a reduction in the duty on wheat of 15 cents per bushel. They met Sir John Macdonald, Mr. Foster, Mr. Carling and Mr. Bowell in the Tower Room at 6.30 p.m. They were accompanied by fifteen members from constituencies principally in Western Ontario. Mr. M. Malaughlin of Toronto and Mr. Geo. Hilliard, ex-M.P., Peterboro, were the principal speakers in favor of the increase of the flour duty asked. There is a general impression that the Government will not concede the point though they may reduce the duty on wheat to 10 cents per bushel.

A deputation of representative fruit dealers from Montreal, Toronto, Niagara and Hamilton, saw the Minister of Customs yesterday afternoon. These gentlemen asked that the duties on small fruits be not re-imposed as is now being sought for by the growers of the Niagara and Hamilton districts. The dealers say that the re-imposition of these duties would practically exclude the early American fruits from our markets. The grower and the city dealer are very far apart about the matter of duties, the dealer wanting free fruit and the grower wanting protection.

Mr. Laurier was able to leave his room

the coincidence were striking. The copies, he said, might have been forged. If they were not the coincidence could be got over because men were in the habit of using the same phrases. If he was asked to forge a document, saving a genuine letter to imitate would assist him. He could not say how he would use the original because he had never tried.

Pigott's admitted that he himself used the word "bentancy" in the witness box yesterday. He believed that the knowledge that the letter of Jan. 9, 1882, similarly misspelled

"PREVARICATOR PIGOTT."

HE CONFESSES THAT HE WROTE EXAGGERATIONS.

Sir Charles Russell Leads the Witness a Lively Dance—Embarrassing Letters Produced—Pigott in Demand.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The court was crowded again to-day when the Parnell Commission reassembled. The cross-examination of Pigott was continued. He admitted writing a letter to Archbishop Walsh, which Sir Charles Russell produced and which contained a statement that the documentary evidence to be produced before the commission could be rendered harmless by an exposure of the means by which it was obtained. Archbishop Walsh's letter to Pigott, part of which was read yesterday, was read in extenso. The Archbishop referred to the fact that there had been systematic lying concerning the Nationalist cause. The witness now admitted receiving this letter. He said that when he wrote to the Archbishop he was in very distressed circumstances owing to having received no money from Houston. Witness' other work had been neglected and lost. He therefore wrote to Archbishop Walsh hoping he would submit the matter to the Parnellite members of Parliament and induce them to provide witness with means to leave the country in return for information witness would give.

Witness was startled when the letters appeared in The Times and considered it a breach of faith. He wrote to Houston strongly protesting against their publication. Sir Charles demanded that the letters be produced. Houston here said he had forgotten receiving it.

On being pressed Pigott exclaimed: "I may say at once that the statements I made to Archbishop Walsh were unfounded." This statement produced a sensation.

Sir Charles: "You deliberately wrote lies?"

Witness: "Well, exaggerations."

Sir Charles: "Did the exaggerations have no truth?"

Witness: "Very little. (Laughter.) I forget what I meant when I wrote to Archbishop Walsh that the charges were a mixture of what I believed to be true and untrue."

Witness said he knew criminal proceedings were projected when he wrote saying he could nullify them by exposing the discreditable means by which it was sought to institute proceedings. He could not say what the proceedings were to be taken for. He imagined they were for complicity in the Phœnix Park murders, but there was no foundation for the statement. Witness again wrote to Archbishop Walsh on May 1, offering to furnish further information. In reply the Archbishop said: "I understand you are anxious to make a statement to assist the victims of fraud and slander by exposing the fraud and slander. I cannot refuse to accept such a statement fully. I accept your assurance that you took no part in the publication." Witness said he forgot writing the statement.

Sir Charles read a letter dated May 5 to Archbishop Walsh in which Pigott offered to make a personal written statement. Witness admitted making the statement to Archbishop Walsh between May 1 and May 7. He had written to Archbishop Walsh recently but denied that he had done so in order to again obtain the written statement. Sir Charles read a letter from Archbishop Walsh to Pigott dated May 7 in which the Archbishop said he assumed Pigott either knew the author of the fraud or knew what measures had been taken to procure fraudulent evidence. The writer said he did not wish to know the name of the gentleman who was at the bottom of the matter.

Sir Charles pressed the witness, who reluctantly admitted he had Houston in mind when he wrote. Witness said he was not sure that he received the letter. Sir Charles quoted from a letter from Pigott to Archbishop Walsh on May 13. Witness said he could not say what the latest proposition mentioned in the letter meant. He only remembered making one proposition, namely, that he had been shown compromising letters. His opinion having been asked as to the genuineness of the letters he had stated that the letters credited to Parnell were rather doubtful. This statement created a sensation in court.

Witness said he should not swear that he had not told Archbishop Walsh that the letters were forgeries. [Laughter.] He doubted the authenticity of the letters because he did not know the handwriting of the bodies of them. He believed he told Archbishop Walsh that he thought the Egan letters were genuine, but would not swear that he did. He was not sure whether Houston ever expressed doubts as to the genuineness of the letters. It was not owing to Houston's doubts that witness offered to reobtain the money.

Sir Charles read from a letter to Archbishop Walsh from Pigott, in which he said: "I trust Your Grace will do me the justice to believe that I am not the fabricator of the letter, as is falsely alleged." Sir Charles asked: "Who was the fabricator?" Witness replied that he did not know.

Sir Charles: "Did you believe there was a fabricator?"

Witness: "No." [Laughter.]

Wemyss Reid produced a letter from Pigott to the late William E. Forster, then Chief Secretary for Ireland, dated June 2, 1881, in which he offered Foster papers which he said would break up the League for £1,500 or £1000. Witness said the issue of The Irishman, the paper printed by Pigott, depended on his receiving this sum, as his creditors were pressing him. Froster on June 5 refused this offer. Witness stated that he had been in straits since 1881 and had anxiously turned to every quarter for money.

Sir Charles produced a batch of letters written by Pigott to Egan, including one written Feb. 23, 1881, in which the writer asked Egan to give him an address at which he could write to Parnell, with whom he wished to communicate on a matter of vital importance. Pigott said he had forgotten the letter, but admitted he must have written it. He had not the slightest idea as to what the important matter referred to was. On being hard pressed, and after fencing, he admitted he must have received an answer, but had forgotten whether or not it directed him to write under cover to Madame Rayer, 99 Avenue De Villiers, Paris.

Sir Charles read from a letter from Pigott to Egan, written Feb. 27, stating that Pigott had received an anonymous letter from two gentlemen who would call upon and submit to Pigott a proposal greatly to his advantage. They came, but declined to give their names. They had an interview lasting two hours, during which they asked him to publish a statement which was an outrageous libel about the spending of the League funds, and which was to be so constructed that the publication would do much harm. He added that he was badly in want of £500, but would be satisfied with £300 in addition to the £200 already sent in consideration of his paper. Pigott concluded the letter by saying: "Bad as I am I can truly say that I have always been true to those who trust in me." [Laughter.]

Witness said Egan did not send the money. [Laughter.] On March 9th Pigott wrote to Egan giving an outline of the statement referred to. He also stated in the letter that Egan would see that if Pigott published the statement he would get £500 and that whatever the consequences might be he would be compelled to accept the offer unless Egan assisted him. On March 11 Egan replied that he regarded the letter as a threat and declined to pay anything, even if he could. Witness said he received a letter from Egan on June 18, 1888, in relation to the sale of The Irishman.

Sir Charles read Egan's draft of a letter written on the fly leaf of Pigott's letter. The phrasing of the first thirty-eight words was identical with The Times' version of Egan's letter of June 18, 1881, but the dates in the text of The Times' version were changed to June 13 and June 18.

The witness admitted that the similarity was remarkable. Sir Charles pressed the witness regarding several similar resemblances in the phrasing of letters Egan had written to Pigott and letters Pigott had supplied Houston. The witness admitted that, assuming Sir Charles' copies to be correct, which he would not dispute, the word had influenced his mind. The letter did not come into his possession until the summer of 1888, so he could not account for the misspelling of "bentancy" in his own letters prior to that. After Parnell had declined to employ him on the staff of The Irishman, he asked a priest named Meagher to intercede with Parnell.

Sir Charles produced the witness' letters to Meagher and pointed out further resemblances to The Times' letters. He then asked witness if he was not ashamed of himself.

Pigott replied hotly: "Under the circumstances, no. It is scandalous that I should be thus questioned. I did not forge the letters. If I did I should not be here."

Mr. Reid produced letters written by Pigott to Mr. Forster in which Pigott asked a loan. After much writing, in which Pigott pleaded poverty, Forster sent him £100 as a private loan. Some time later as a matter of personal sympathy Forster loaned Pigott £50 to enable him to go to America. Pigott did not go, however, but renewed his applications for money until Forster granted him an interview.

Sir Charles produced letter after letter, including Pigott's demand for a loan of £300 to enable him to go to Australia, until the witness became dazed and forgot everything.

The Commission then adjourned.

TORONTO'S DARLING.

Talks to Chicagoans on 'Annexation from a Canadian Standpoint."

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—The Union League Club to-day celebrated the anniversary of Washington's birth. The platform in Central Music Hall was occupied by distinguished men from various parts of the Union and the large auditorium was filled with prominent people of this and other cities. The orator was General Jacob D. Cox of Ohio, whose address on "Washington, the Citizen's Example," was listened to with close attention.

This evening the club and guests sat down to a banquet. The following program of toasts was taken up:

"American Policy for the Americas People"—General Russell A. Alger.

"The Political Relations of the United States and Canada from a Canadian Standpoint"—Henry W. Darling of Toronto.

"Manifest Destiny"—Frank F. Davis of Minnesota.

Mr. Davis spoke strongly in favor of the annexation of Canada.

"The American Commonwealth"—Bishop Charles Edward Cheney.

Mr. Darling said:

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN: I desire to express my sense of the honor you have done me in inviting me to be present at this magnificent demonstration; and in asking me to address so distinguished and representative a gathering upon the subject of the relations between the United States and Canada, present and prospective, commercial and political; and this I am expected to do from a Canadian standpoint. The phraseology used by your President in communicating to me the subject upon which I was expected to speak, implied a reference to what I was understand on this side of the line as Annexation or Political Union; and I ask your indulgence while I touch briefly upon this point, first of all, assured that you will not misapprehend me if I speak with all candor and plainness.

To thoughtful Canadians the word Annexation has an ominous and unattractive ring; conveying to them an impression of a confession of failure in the mission committed to them by their forefathers as to the future destiny of their country—an impression they are adopting voluntarily in despair, the only course open to them, if they are to escape irreparable disaster, or an impression of coercion and force at which their whole nature revolts and which they are bound to resist. I think I correctly describe the prevailing sentiments of Canadians generally, when I say the word Annexation is extremely distasteful to them. You would probably despise them were it otherwise. The tie that binds them to the Motherland is a silver thread that can be broken practically at will; but their affection for the land of their forefathers is a feeling which is and always will be predominant in their breasts. British Canadians cling to the glories and traditions of the race. They hope to be able to preserve all the characteristics of England's prosperous polity. They have neither sympathy with nor encouragement for the enemies of the British Empire.

They may be mistaken as to their ultimate destiny; and they may over-estimate their ability to make the North American Continent the home of a great and independent Anglo-Saxon race; but if their political relations are to be changed, it will come about as the natural sequence of events; and not as the result of an appeal to sordid or material considerations. I can conceive of a policy of injustice to one of the provinces being carried to an extent that might produce a movement in favor of the separation of that Province from the Confederation with a view to union with the United States; but such an agitation, if based upon righteous and equitable grounds, would be almost certain of accomplishing the removal of the injustice, or the defeat of the party in power perpetrating it.

The speaker then entered into an extended review of the trade relations between Canada and the United States, both under the Reciprocity Treaty and since its abrogation. After setting forth the benefits which would accrue to the United States from Commercial Union, Mr. Darling continued:

One proposition is that the custom houses upon the boundary line from the Atlantic to the Pacific should be abolished, or maintained only for the purposes of statistical information; and that there should be the freest interchange of products and commodities between the two countries; that to prevent the smuggling of foreign goods from the country having a higher tariff, an assimilation of the tariffs of the two countries should take place. This should not be difficult of accomplishment for the buoyancy of your revenue seems to point in the direction of a moderate reduction of your tariff; while the policy of protection to manufacturers adopted in Canada, somewhat after the example of the Republic, tends towards an increase of duty; and the difference in the duty between the two, taken all round, is probably not more than ten to fifteen per cent, so that if approached in a spirit of compromise an intermediate figure might be reached with advantage to both countries. The internal revenue duties would have to be dealt with in a similar manner.

As a large portion of Canadian imports reach Canada through your American cities on the seaboard, the loss of revenue to Canada in this way would have to be adjusted by a contribution from the common purse, the details of which would not be difficult to arrive at; and there would be involved in this an arrangement for the permanency of the fiscal policy of the country for a fixed number of years, which would have to be long enough to induce our manufacturers to adapt themselves and their machinery for the supply of the larger market which the changed circumstances would require.

Another proposition is that reciprocally the duties should be abolished by both countries upon all products and commodities the growth, produce, or manufacture of each country, giving freedom to each country to levy what duties they might think proper upon the goods of other countries.

The object, you will notice, is the same, namely: to secure continental free trade, and the methods by which it may receive effect may be very well left to the diplomatists and politicians to arrange, the principles being once affirmed by both parties.

THE WAR OF TONGUES.

This Session of the Imperial Parliament to be the Fiercest on Record.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—It is universally admitted that the session of the House of Commons will be the fiercest on record. The Irish actions of the Government will be vigilantly watched. The programme is approved by Mr. Gladstone. Mr. Gladstone was enthusiastically cheered by the Opposition on entering the House. The Ministerialists cheered Mr. Balfour, while the Opposition hissed him and cheered "Pigott." Mr. Smith was similarly greeted.

In the House of Commons yesterday John Morley stated he would introduce an amendment to the address in reply to the Queen's speech, condemning the administration of the law in Ireland as harsh, unjust and oppressive, and asking that measures be adopted to content the Irish and re-establish a re-union of Great Britain.

Opening the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech Mr. Gladstone said he hoped the Government would enlighten the House regarding affairs in Samoa and Zanzibar at the earliest possible moment. Parliament must be very exacting as regards proof of the necessity of any unusual increase of credits for defence. He said the Government had rendered an elaborate Irish debate inevitable by inserting a sentence in the address implying approval of their Irish policy, which was totally at variance with the views of the Opposition.

Sir James Fergusson, Under Foreign Secretary, said the Government hoped the Samoan conference would be attended with the happiest results. In defending the results of the Chamberlain mission to the United States he denied that it had been a failure, as the temporary arrangement had worked so well that no English or American vessels had been seized. He denied that friendly relations between England and America had been interrupted by the Sackville incident. These ties, he said, were too close and strong to be easily broken.

W. H. Smith, Government leader, said regarding the Samoan question, that papers were being prepared, but that pending the conference the Government was unable to express any decided opinion upon the subject, although Germany had strongly declared that she would not recede from any of her engagements as to the rights of Englishmen and Americans in Samoa. The Government had no intention to impute unworthy or aggressive motives to foreign nations, nor did it doubt their appreciation of friendship, but the country must be in a position to defend her trade and her food supply. The Wool Question.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—I fear it is quite useless attempting to discuss the important question of unrestricted reciprocity with Mr. Hallam. Mr. Hallam says, "Let Mr. Clarke try it again." Well, here goes! The price of Canada wool in Boston is from 33 to 36 cents per pound, and in New York from 32 to 35 cents, according to quality. In Canada the price is 20 cents, and were it not for the duty the price in this country would be 20 cents. "This seems to me, is a plain statement of the case, which there is no gainsaying."

Mr. Hallam runs away from the question, and harps on "unwashed thoroughbred Merino wool." I don't know where he gets his Merino wool or what he does with it. It would be interesting if Mr. Hallam would tell us what secured thoroughbred Merino wool is worth in the United States. I am dealing with the class of wool our farmers grow in this part of the country, and not with unwashed Merino, of which we ship none.

Mr. Hallam says that under unrestricted reciprocity "The United States manufacturers would have the markets of the world open to them, and they would not pay in Canada a fraction more than they could buy the wool for in Great Britain or other countries where wools similar to ours are grown."

This kind of sophistry will not do. When we get unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, they would still retain their protective tariff against all outsiders, except Canada, and exporters of wool from other countries to the United States would have to pay the duty, as we have to pay it at present on Canada wool imported into the United States.

This will do for the present. When I have time, with your permission, I may refer to Mr. Hallam's "Michigan hay, 25 miles from Detroit, poultry, &c., &c."

Yours truly,
W. CLUXTON.

A Prosperous Business.

Domiciled in Elegant Premises—Messrs. Wilson & Morrison in their New Quarters—Commodious, and Convenient.

Messrs. Wilson & Morrison, general insurance—fire, accident and life—are installed in their new and beautiful offices on Hunter street west of the post office. Of the suite of offices the business office is well lighted, with a handsomely finished counter in antique oak, and the desks and other office fittings, are of the same material. Opening from the main business office is a roomy fire-proof vault. The offices are on the second floor, and the public office and the local agent's office open from a common hall, and from either access is gained to Mr. Morrison's private office elegantly and conveniently fitted up, the idea of business despatch having been the first consideration in arranging its fittings. During the past ten years Mr. Geo. A. Morrison manager has made gigantic strides as an insurance, man making his upward way from an agent in the field to the position of manager for Eastern Ontario of the Manufacturers, Life and Accident Insurance Companies, having supervision over forty general agents and one inspector. His agency is certainly one of the most important in Canada One chief factor in Mr. Morrison's success is, doubtless, his abiding and practical belief in the value of printers' ink. He is one of the largest, most systematic and most energetic advertisers between Toronto and Montreal. The firm of Wilson & Morrison also represents the largest and soundest, British, Canadian and American Fire and Plate-glass Insurance Companies. The premium income of this agency, on the business already established, is about $50,000 annually, and the business is rapidly increasing.

With a large business established; with the reputation of prompt payment of claims; with trained accountants; with a reliable staff of agents, and with such a company as the Manufacturers', having at its head some of the most wealthy and commercially influential men in the Dominion, we bespeak for Messrs. Wilson & Morrison that large share of the public patronage they justly deserve.

Comments on Canada.

Harper's Monthly for March

Will contain "Comments on Canada," by Charles Dudley Warner, accompanied by a striking portrait of the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald; will appear in Harper's Magazine for March, 1889, which will be published February 21st. This article describes the topography, climate, system of government of the Dominion and of the provinces, and the political issues; and the author gives his views on the Canadian sentiment towards England, on the French Canadian element, on retaliation and commercial reciprocity, annexation and independence, and the future of the Dominion. Mr. Warner is an accurate and sympathetic observer, and his conclusions will, doubtless, command the attention which they deserve. This number also contains beautifully illustrated articles on the Institute of France; Vienna; Norway and its People; William M. Chase, Painter, etc., etc. Leave your order at the Peterborough Bookstore, J. R. Stratton (late A. L. Davis & Co.)

Judgment Rendered.

The following appears in the report of the proceedings of the Toronto High Court of Justice on Wednesday:—

Canada Company v. Rubidge.—Judgment in action to recover the possession of lot 44 in the 14th con. of the township of Smith, county of Peterborough, and for $5,000 damages for injury to the lands, and $200 mesne profits. The defendant denied that he was in possession or occupation of lot 44 or any part of it or that he had caused the injury to it alleged, but said he was the owner of lot 45 and counter-claimed for $200 damages alleged to have been done to his lands by the plaintiffs. The contention between the parties was as to the boundary between lots 44 and 45. The evidence was heard in Peterborough in March, 1888, and the argument last week in Toronto.

The finding of the learned judge in the facts is that the plaintiffs have failed to satisfy the onus that was upon them of proving that the defendant was in possession of part of lot 44; but that there are grounds for suspecting that the defendant is in possession of some part of lot 44, and the plaintiffs' failure may be on account of the want of sufficiently thorough survey. Judgment dismissing the action with costs; but if the plaintiffs elect not to appeal, dismissal to be without prejudice to another action for the same cause. No damages or costs to defendant under his counter-claim. Shepley and A. C. Macdonell for the plaintiffs. Lount, Q.C., for the defendant.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

A Number of Bills Advanced a Stage—Vital Statistics of the Province.

TORONTO, Feb. 22.—The greater part of yesterday afternoon in the Legislature was occupied with discussing Mr. Whitney's bill respecting the action of ejectment. The Attorney-General thought a new bill should be framed and Mr. Whitney intimated that he would consent to withdraw his measure.

A bill introduced by Mr. Graham yesterday is for the amendment of the Act of Incorporation of the Sarnia and Lambton Southern Railway Company which act would lapse if not revived this session.

Mr. Bronson (Ottawa), introduced a bill to amend the Municipal Act. This bill gives power to cities to open, widen or extend streets and to provide for their cost. The bill contains other provisions.

A considerable portion of the afternoon was occupied in passing public bills through their second reading. Among these were Mr. McMahon's bill to facilitate the purchase of Toll Roads by Municipalities. It provides that the county council of any county or city council may appoint a board of commissioners to select such toll roads within their county or city as they may deem desirable to be purchased by the council they represent, for their management or control or for removing the tolls therefrom.

A lively discussion followed Mr. Garson's motion that his bill respecting the Examination of Engines and Inspection of Boilers should be read a second time. The bill was finally passed through its second reading and referred to a special committee.

When Mr. Ferguson's bill to amend the Municipal Act was reached a good deal of opposition was raised to its second reading. Should this bill become law in all cases where arbitration is directed or permitted, the senior acting judge of a county shall, unless the parties interested otherwise agree, be the arbitrator. The bill was finally passed through its second stage.

Mr. Gibson presented the return of registration of births, deaths and marriages in Ontario. These are the total registrations:

Births	45,894
Marriages	11,462
Deaths	23,414

The above table shows a decrease in births of 554, an increase in marriages of 615, and an increase in deaths of 230, the total registration showing an increase over 1887.

The ratios to population were:

Births	21.7 per thousand.
Marriages	5.5 " "
Deaths	11.6 " "

These are the ratios to population of births in cities, towns and rural districts:

Cities	27.5 per thousand.
Towns	21.3 " "
Rural Districts	20.6 " "

MARRIAGES.

Cities	11.1 per thousand.
Towns	12.7 " "

This is the death rate per 1000 in 11 Ontario cities: Toronto, 21.3; Hamilton, 16.5; Ottawa, 22.8; London, 15.8; Kingston, 17.7; Brantford, 15.3; St. Thomas, 15; Guelph, 17.3; St. Catharines, 17; Belleville, 17.3; Stratford, 11.2.

A Collision at Orillia.

ORILLIA, Feb. 22.—To-day about 12.30 a collision occurred at the Junction of the Midland main line and the switch leading to the station here. A freight was heading east intending to back down the switch, when the noon mail from Blackwater, which was late, met it and a collision ensued. All the train hands but the two engineers jumped. Two of them were injured, but not seriously. No one is to blame for the smash. The semaphore was up to stop the mail train, but the engineer was unable to stop in time for some reason. Both trains were nearly at a standstill when they struck. The mail was delayed about 1½ hours. The freight left about the same time. The damages are slight.

ALLISTON'S PHOENIX.

The Herald Office Burnt to the Ground but the Paper's All Right.

ALLISTON, Feb. 22.—About 3 o'clock this morning The Herald printing and publishing office was burned down. The fire originated from the explosion of a lamp. The loss to The Herald is $2100, insurance $1700; buildings, owned by George Kearns, loss $700, insurance $400. O. McHugh's barber shop adjoining was totally destroyed, loss $300, insurance nil. The energetic proprietor of The Herald, Mr. Newton, has already made arrangements for the issue of next week's paper, having secured new quarters.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 22.—C. W. Crane's publishing house was burned to-day; loss $295,000, insured for $75,000.

Prof. Dorenwend's Wigs and Toupees for Gentlemen.

Gentlemen who have lost their hair are beginning to realise the great advantages derived from wearing artificial coverings. They supply protection to the scalp wherein nature has failed and also fill up the deficiency in appearance caused by baldness. Hundreds of gentlemen in all parts of America testify to the benefitting results of using Prof. Dorenwend's wigs and toupees. Each article is carefully made, is light and strong and when worn cannot be detected by the closest observer. Prof. Dorenwend will be at Phelan's hotel on Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, and will show a big stock of them. Go and see them whether you buy one or not; he makes no charges for trying them on. dw

NOT A PIMPLE ON HER NOW.

Red with Eczema. Hair all Came. Scalp Covered with Eruptions. Thought his Hair would never Grow. Cured by Cuticura Remedies. Hair Splendid and Not a Pimple on Him Now.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

In all this time I had failed to find sufficient strength to obey the physician's order, to cut through the cursed thing that was killing me, with the sharp flange of my wheels, and annihilate it. But Dr. Blanchard had found me out, although in consulting him I had given no name, and one afternoon he accosted me in the street, on my way to the station, not to ascertain what progress I had made—for that was visible enough in my haggard and jaded appearance—but to ask me if I was to be on duty that night. I responded in the affirmative, and, on hearing my reply, he said gently that he should have the pleasure of trusting himself to my guidance for that trip, and, if I had no objection, and could find room for him, he would be my companion upon the Black Bess. Of course I perceived his intention sufficiently well; and perhaps it was an unwise thing for him to propose, for his mere presence was more likely to conjure up the appearance than to help me overcome it.

If, now, I tell the rest of the story as it appeared to me then, and as my troubled brain received it, it is because remembrance is nearly as vivid as the suffering, and I can hardly say today where reason ends and phantasms begin.

We had a snowy night for this excursion of Dr. Blanchard's, so much is certain; not like that great, white, whirling storm in which the face, all wrapped in folds of bridal lace, flitted before me and rested till I stopped, and not all the big plows in the company's use could then have advanced the snowed up train an inch; but a night of gusty flaws, when a light down dropped on the track and was gone, and velvety flakes draped spray and twig of the woodland and shook off showeringly as we passed, and snow squalls dashed blindingly across our path and vanished, and all the sky was a gray and dazzling bewilderment.

I knew that, whatever the weather was, Margaret would not fail me at the station, and then I told the doctor, as we neared Brookford, what sight there was in store for him at that place, and remarked that it was, may be, fortunate for me that night that Margaret had really to cross the track in order to reach the spot where she was to await us, as in looking out that no danger befell herself I should be less likely to encounter that wraith of hers, nor could I see them both together. But Dr. Blanchard shook his head, and bade me mind my own business, and have that degree of confidence in Margaret to believe her capable of taking care of herself.

And looking out into the wavering whiteness lit by the glare of the headlight, while he shouted forth his gruff advice, all at once—"There! There!" I cried. "There it is!"

"Where!" demanded the doctor, springing to gaze over my shoulder, as if his untrained vision could have discerned so much as an outline in that thick air.

"Damn it! Don't be a fool! Drive on!"

"Where!" I answered. "There! right before us. A woman walking. See! she has turned her head; she sees us; she did not hear us in that gust, we have frightened her; she stumbles, she falls, she is lying on the track, she cannot get up—that face, that white face—it is Margaret's!"

"By God! there is no woman there!" he replied, before I had finished. "My eyes are as keen as yours. I tell you there is not a single object before us till we reach the Brookford lights there, a mile away!"

I hardly heard him. I had stretched out my hand to pull up, when I caught a sidelong glimpse of him, brandishing an iron bar above my head. "Touch that handle," he cried, "and I will knock you down!" And then he interposed himself between my hand and it.

"You are mad," I said, calmly, and believing what I said. "Do you suppose I fear your billy? While I am master of the Black Bess she does not run down a woman—least of all that one."

The whole of this was so hurried that not even George Rowe, who stood staring and gaping and hearkening with all his might, could make out a syllable.

"Very well," said the doctor then, reversing his method, and yelling out his words in my ear till he must have been purple. "You are convinced that you see this face, and as both your fireman and I myself can assure you that we see nothing there, you must feel equally convinced that it is your pursuing phantom, as you call it. Now, then, is the time to put an end to it. Destroy it. Exert your will. You have only to fold your hands behind you. Nothing else in the world to do. Give them here to me. The engine will do the rest. Be a man now—remember that, this once done, all your peace begins—Margaret and marriage—home and happiness. There is nothing there! Drive on!"

I heard him now, but as a hollow voice might speak far, far outside of the world in which I was.

I had fixed my will, as much as it was possible to fix so loose and weak and shaking a thing, a bundle of broken links—I was determined to obey him.

But all the time I saw only her, only her sweet face in the snowy light, as I never should see it again—the hood had fallen back from it, the wet rings of the dark hair were blowing out from it, a tint like the flush of the tea rose was lying on its cheek—not that I noted all such items then, I remember them today, they were impressed like the work of a file—the ripe and lovely lips of the tender trembling mouth were parted as if calling to me by some old fond name, the eyes suffused through all their depth with the light we cast before us, the sweet gray eyes, like those of the deserted German girl, shone up at me like two great tears. Ah! how many times before had they gazed into mine with long and lovely looks—and now for the last time—had I returned their gaze with all the protestations of passion surrounding here to bray them into nothingness—oh, all the meetings and partings of the days that could dawn no more—the dear entrance of those arms never to be felt again, the warm, full kisses of the meeting mouth—and I myself blotting all out! To save me the vexing sting of a gadfly I was crushing down on the best beloved thing in the world with all the mighty revolutions of my ponderous red hot iron, with dropping coals and the blasting breath of steam, with all the murderous purpose of this jumping, plunging fiend that I alone commanded, with a shrouding deafening fury that to the waiting victim drowned the universe in its roar.

All these horrors came one by one before my mind, and dropped into my resolve like grains into the weighing scale. I suffered agony. My knees were shaking under me. I doubt if I could have lifted my hand—it hung nerveless by my side; the life was dying out of me. I only stared through my window, along the track, at the woman's face with the fright hardening into it, the blank terror there, death thundering down in the fierce, wild throes of sundering socket and mangling flesh, that in one instant would have their hellish grip on every live nerve and spurting vein. Then my ears were ringing with shrieks; I fancied that even through the hot roar and reverberation of our flight I heard the rest. When would the last car be over, the last wheel turned? Was that swift hiss the severing of a tress upon the rail?

It was passed. We rolled into Brookford station; George Rowe's hand had slipped before me and slowed the Black Bess to her usual point. We stopped. Then the blood bounded back to my heart, to my throat, to my face, the strength of an army to my single hand.

I seized Dr. Blanchard by the shoulder as if he had been made of card board. "Come back with me!" I hoarsely yelled. "If we find nothing I am well once more—but if it is as I am sure it is, then you are dead!"

And, regardless of my train, swinging my lantern to this side and to that, I rushed back with him to the spot where the highway crossed the track, and where I swore some torn, crushed thing must lie. Never, never had I been so sure—and there—yes, yes—sob and strangle, you fool!—oh, God! oh, God!—it was Margaret!

It was Margaret.

TRADES UNION PRINCIPLES

Expounded by Mr. H. Lloyd, of Toronto.

An Earnest and Practical Address on the Subject of Organized Labor—Addresses by Local Men—The Rights of the Workingmen—Nine Hours a Day Labor Demanded.

Friday was George Washington's anniversary, and the day is recognized throughout the United States as a labor holiday.

Mr. H. Lloyd, of Toronto, district organizer of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, delivered an address to the workingmen of the town in Labor Hall Friday evening. There was a good representative attendance. Mr. A. Rutherford presided over the meeting. Mr. Lloyd is an earnest, quiet but emphatic speaker, who throws his whole soul into his address with an eloquence that is irresistible.

The CHAIRMAN, in opening, referred to the labor question as one that was being agitated the world over, and the labor interests if organized would have the greatest power of any organization. Even now he considered the labor party held the balance of power—they had a greater power than perhaps they thought. Mr. Rutherford referred to the patriotic efforts of Hon. Alex. Mackenzie in behalf of the workingmen, and referred to the Irish question, hoping that the Emerald Isle would soon be freed from the fetters that bound her (applause.) This conflict between capital and labor would, he believed, terminate in favor of labor. The labor question was agitating this country especially and in this town the workingmen were beginning to assert their rights. This he thought was largely due to the splendid educational system of the country.

Mr. GEO. BALL spoke of the growth of the labor interests of the province and town. Peterborough had made great strides in this direction of late. He was heartily in favor of labor organizations, but thought more could be accomplished by sending representatives to Parliament than by any other means. He was surprised to learn that some persons had an idea that the labor societies were

SELFISH ORGANIZATIONS.

He had always found that selfishness was outside the labor organizations. Referring to the clergy, he said all ministers should be with the people. It would appear that in Toronto and other cities the capitalists ruled the preachers. He could not say how far this thing had gone here, but it certainly should not exist at all. Canada was he said away behind in the labor movement, and in proof of it he pointed out what the labor organizations were doing in the old country. Next he pointed out that the labor movement met with great opposition from the professions—the lawyers particularly. They were the men, who though only working 4 or 5 hours a day cry out, "What do these workingmen want? If they got nine hours a day they would want six hours next." Yet these same lawyers and doctors had a fixed schedule of rates for working. They had the cheek to say that the workingmen, they who raise up monuments in the country such as houses, locomotives, bridges, etc., had not brains enough to know what they wanted. He advised the labor agitators to march forward steadily and quietly and their ends would be better accomplished. This nine hour movement was not a conflict between capital and labor, but a Christian movement in which the workingmen looked at it in the light that the extra hour they were working was keeping a less fortunate one out of work. That was the only motive they had for agitating this thing.

Mr. R. MCGREGOR pointed out that there was no conflict between the employers and employees. They did not intend to fight their employers, as a proof of which he drew attention to the quiet means the workingmen of Peterborough were taking to secure their ends. The statement that it was robbery for a workingman to demand ten hours pay for nine hours labor he denied. There was no robbery in it; they did it in order to give work to the unemployed. The workingmen at present really worked over ten hours a day. Professional men say that they worked with their brains, and that was harder than manual labor. If so, workingmen did more, for they labored with both their brains and hands. (Applause). It was said that building would be stopped if the nine hour movement was adopted. He did not see how that could be possible. Like Henry George he thought there was no conflict between capital and labor—labor was capital and capital was labor; their interests were identical.

Mr. Wm. Hickey made a few remarks also.

The CHAIRMAN, in introducing Mr. Lloyd, endorsed Mr. McGregor's remarks anent workingmen laboring with for himself he thought there were few men who had more business on their minds than himself. He complimented Mr. McGregor on an example of what brain work was necessary to a man being a good workman. As to the nine-hour movement, he considered a man could do as much work in nine hours as in ten if he chose to, and he believed if men knew they had only to work nine hours they would work better. Mr. Rutherford said a good many people were surprised at the stand he had taken on this question, but he had told them it had to come to this sooner or later and he had chosen it to be sooner. (Applause). He urged the workingmen to quick shoulder to shoulder and they could not be resisted.

Mr. LLOYD said he intended to speak on the subject of "United Labor," not limited labor, as erroneously announced. He was pleased to meet the wage-earners of Peterborough. As district organizer he could say that nowhere had he seen greater strides towards organization and education in labor interests being made, and in all his travels he had never met more intelligent and educated men than he had in Peterborough. In his address he intended to hew to the line, let the chips fall where they might. By united labor he included the Knights of Labor. He would not discuss the whys and wherefores of trades unionism; its very existence was a proof of its necessity. He was here rather to defend broader principles than the narrow lines laid down by any single labor organization. He spoke to all classes of workingmen and advocated fair play and equal rights to all men. Those outside labor organizations argued that they could not enter and become serfs, the tools of ambitious men, or take part in strikes. But he would say that strikes were the last remedy, only used when every other means had failed. A workingman's labor was his capital, and he had a right to demand a fair recompense for it, and no man has a right to say that he shall work for less than will support his family in decency. Then, One of the elementary principles of trades unionism was "do unto others as you would have them do unto you." It might be argued that if this was practiced there would be no necessity for trades unions. But he was sorry to say there was not enough fair minded men in the world to be able to get along without this principle. He wanted to see the employer and employe work harmoniously together. Many people ran away with the idea that trades unionism demanded

A DIVISION OF PROFITS.

That was false; they wanted a fair share, nothing more nor nothing less. This was the trouble; people made statements without knowing of what they spoke, and without understanding the labor organization. The system of fair exchange of labor was a grand one. He was pleased to see that Henry George was coming to Peterborough; he was a firm believer in him. The workingmen had another system that they all held dear, that of the apprenticeships. It was decided at the last convention that the apprenticeship system was as necessary to the mechanism of the country as the wages question and hours of labor. An iniquitous system had, however, crept into the carpenters' ranks—the botch plug-and-hammer-saw men who palmed themselves off as skilled mechanics and out-competed legitimate labor. A thorough apprenticeship system would do away with them. What shall be done with these botch carpenters? Send them into the ditches and drains where they belong. Here ferred to the lock-out in a Toronto shoe factory, brought about by the introduction of the gang system, where it took nine men to do one man's work. They did not want this system. Then boys and girls were encroaching upon the workingman; he did not object to that, but if they were able to do a man's work, he wanted them to get the same pay for it. In dealing with labor organization, he said it was to the benefit of every man to organize. One of their planks was to look after those who can't look after themselves, and he was proud of seeing such men as Henry George, J. V. Powderly and President P. J. McGuire in the labor ranks—men who worked for a mere subsistence and had no better financial standing than any mechanic while working harder and having a great deal more responsibility. Some people said, "oh, you workingmen can get along very nicely on what you get. Your children don't need the education ours do, and you can't admire fine pictures and the luxuries of life as your tastes are very simple." Yes, their tastes were very simple—of necessity. God had given the mechanic as fine an eye for beauty and as fine a taste as any man, but he was not able to gratify them. Mr. Lloyd said he did not wish to create rancour against the employers at all by these remarks. An objection to trades unions is that they are not a necessity. But the men who make this statement are the ones who calmly acquiesce in the doctors' and lawyers' trades unions. Men were sent to parliament who made brilliant speeches and at the same time voted away the workingmen's rights. But if he is a jolly good fellow, a drink and pat on the back will too often make it all right with the mechanic. The speaker urged workingmen to

to be practical in their politics. Workingmen were arrested for calling others outside their ranks "rats" or "scabs"—men who, after taking their obligations, flung everything to the winds and became worse than rats and scabs. But who ever heard of a doctor or lawyer being arrested for calling another outside their "trades union" a "shyster" or "quack"? A few stripling students in Osgoode Hall, a close and protected organization, will debate the subject of trades organizations and decide that they are a detriment to the country in a couple of hours; while such men as Powderly and Henry George have devoted their lives to the solution of the problem, unsuccessfully, as yet. The Toronto Board of Trade was pointed out as an example of the trades union. This was an age of combination; the world had to face this fact. The talk about selling labor in the market was bosh. What chance has the poor man in making a bargain with an association of men backed by unlimited credit? Was it unfair for workingmen to bind themselves together? No; on the contrary, it was unfair for any workingman to stay outside the labor organizations to reap the benefit of the others' combination (applause). He understood the carpenters of Peterborough intend asking for nine hours a day labor. In doing this they asked nothing that they were not justly entitled to. In Toronto they had the nine hour movement for 2 years, and their bosses were so well pleased that they did not wish to go back on it. Their bosses had consideration for their employes and gave them an opportunity to get acquainted with their families. Too often a workingman does not get home at sight till his children are in bed and he usually has to leave for work before they are up, the result is he becomes a stranger to his family. The world owed no man a living; it only gave every man an opportunity to earn a living. Mr. Lloyd said he believed in machinery; it was put here to do the heavy work that men might be benefitted by it. The machinery did their work and they should have more time to enjoy life. He believed that was God's purpose, and on Christian principle he advocated nine or even eight hours. A man has no business to work while his neighbor is idle—they should all work and exchange products. Times were never good when men were out of employment. Another argument against the nine hour movement was that if it was adopted the building of houses would have to be stopped. That was a foolish argument. For instance, on a $1500 house there would be an increase of just $16. Fancy a man stopping building for $16. He would like to have the photograph of such a man. (Applause).

THE GRANDEST PRINCIPLE

of united labor was that it should see that all men were fairly treated. United labor also taught the workingmen the proper use of the ballot; it looked after pernicious systems and among other things is bringing about the abolition of the contract convict labor system. He did not believe in supporting the convicts without labor, but wanted the profits of their labor put to the benefit of their poor wives and children who have to work hard for a living. He denounced unscrupulous emigration, and protested against the country being taxed to bring paupers and criminals out here and having to support them afterwards. These emigrants were brought into this country to compete with the workingmen, and they were flooded into this country—and the government will say "you workingmen can't understand the beauties of protection."

Speaking of the Carpenters' Union, he pointed out that from 1881, when there were 2,000 members, to 1888, it had grown to 571 local unions and 53,000 members. Their organization was a Christian one and looked after the sick and needy. They had sick benefits, widows' benefits and disability benefits. The general benefits of the organization last year amounted to $25,000; the last five years, $83,000. The local unions controlled their sick benefits, and last year the local unions paid out $20,000 for sick benefits alone. Their organization protected their members. Last year in 273 cities they raised members' wages four million and a half dollars. In 116 towns and cities nine hours of labor had been secured, and in 29 cities 8 hours a day. In 158 cities their members do not work after three o'clock on Saturdays. By these reductions they have taken 4,000 men off the streets that used to go about out of work. They had done their duty, and next year they intended taking 10,000 more men off the streets. The local unions throughout the country had $800,000 at their backs.

In conclusion he spoke of the forthcoming visits of the organizer of the Carpenters' Brotherhood, of President T. V. Powderly and Samuel P. Gompers, leaders in the labor ranks, to Peterborough. The speaker closed with an eloquent peroration upon the the rights and ultimate triumph of the claims of labor, the advantages of organization upon the individual. He urged the workingmen to talk and preach the matter over and take a decided stand upon this great question.

MR. RUTHERFORD said that, as an employer of labor, he fully endorsed Mr. Lloyd's remarks. There was no reason why the workingmen should not enjoy the comforts of life as well as others. Organization, he believed, headed to make a man honest and sober. He was pleased to observe that the workingmen of Peterborough were awaking to their interests and becoming more intelligent and progressive.

A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Lloyd, after which the meeting adjourned after three cheers had been given for the Queen.

The Last Day's Racing.

Conclusion of the Ice Races—"Little Jim" Wins the Free-for-All and "Sergeant" the 2.50 Trot.

The attendance at Friday's races was just as large as on the other days. In the 2.50 class Beatty's "Sergeant" was an easy winner. "Sergeant" made a record for himself at these races, and though only a plow-horse, as he is called, showed that he was a trotter. He was purchased on the ice Friday afternoon by a buyer who will send him to the old country.

The judges on Friday were Messrs. Ketcheson, Gillespie and Greenwood.

In the first heat of the 2.50 nearly all the horses did considerable running, and Gladstone was put back from second place to fourth. Newhall, dissatisfied with the judging, withdrew his horse.

The second heat witnessed a fine race between Johnny B and Royal Jim for first place, with Sergeant a dangerous third. Johnny B. scored a nose ahead of Jim, but the latter was put back to third place for running.

In the third, Johnny B. took the lead, but Beatty's horse, though getting a bad start as he did in the previous heats, contested a fine race and soon forged ahead. Johnny B. and Royal Jim came in so close together for second place that it was almost a dead heat, but Johnny B. was awarded the position.

In the fourth Sergeant took the lead and kept it, winning easily. The other horses were bunched most of the way round and scored in close order, Toboggan being but a nose behind Jim for third place.

The last heat was a procession for Sergeant, but again Johnny B. and Jim had a hot fight for second place, the former winning by a neck only.

Following is a summary:—

Beatty's (Cobourg) Sergeant	5 2 1 1
D. Lake's (Brighton) Johnny B	3 1 2 2
Clancy's (Peterborough) Royal Jim	1 3 3 3
Nesbitt's (Toronto) Toboggan	2 4 4 4
Newhall's (Peterborough) Gladstone	4 dr

Time, 2.32½, 2.33, 2.31, 2.33, 2.32.

THE OPEN TROT.

This race excited a keen interest, Little Jim was the favorite, though beaten on Tuesday by Maud S. and Mayflower.

In the first heat Maud S. got a bad start, breaking down the first quarter, but after getting settled trotted a good race and nearly collared Little Jim, who had secured a good lead. Considerable running was done in this heat. F.O.P. and Mayflower tugged for third place.

In the second the horses got a good start, Willie W. as before shooting to the front only to be passed by Little Jim before the quarter was reached and left behind by the others. Maud S. again broke badly and lost too much ground to catch up to more than second place. F.O.P. scored only a neck ahead of Mayflower for third position.

The third heat was a pretty race between Maud S. and Jim. The latter led at the start, but the Cannington mare crept up slowly but surely and on the home stretch passed Jim, winning by about a length, with F.O.P. a good distance ahead of Mayflower.

In the last heat Willie W. got a poor start—in fact none at all. He was trotting leisurely by when the other horses rushed past the stand and the word "go" was given. Mr. Daly entered a protest against the heat. Jim led again but on the home stretch was overhauled by Maud S. The mare ran nearly all the way down the home stretch and won by half a length, but was set back to fourth place.

The following is the summary:—

Dwyer's (Peterborough) Little Jim	1 1 2 1
Smith's (Cannington) Maud S.	2 2 1 4
Harwood's (Cannington) F.O.P.	4 3 3 2
Morgan's (Peterborough) Mayflower	3 4 4 3
Daly's (Peterborough) Willie W.	5 5 5 5

CLEVELAND BROTHERS, ALBANY, N. Y.

Crossley and Hunter.

Rev. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, the evangelists, will arrive in Peterborough the end of next week. Services on Sunday, March 3rd, as follows:—Rev. Mr. Crossley will preach in St. Paul's Sunday morning, and Rev. Mr. Hunter at the George street Methodist church, and together at the George street church in the evening.

MR. CROSSLEY was born in Canada, and is of parents of Irish and English descent. At 17 years of age he was converted at a camp meeting and joined the Methodist church. He subsequently attended the Normal School, and at 19 received a first class certificate. After teaching for four years he entered the ministry and was stationed at Weston, Ont. While attending College at Cobourg, intending to graduate, he was called to act as the President's assistant in St. Catherines. He was stationed in Fingal, Waterford and Ingersoll. He afterwards spent three years in Hamilton and one in Brantford.

MR. HUNTER'S parents were Irish but he was born near Bowmanville, Ont. At fifteen he was converted and at nineteen entered the ministry. On his circuits hundreds were converted. His health failed and he went to Manitoba, and labored in evangelistic work there and in Dakota. Since 1884 they have been laboring together.

The Spirituelle Spinsters' Spirited Social.

The Bachelor's Smoked Under—Pettigrew Government Vindicated—The Spinsters' Social a "Perfectly Splendid" Success.

There was a happy throng at the George street church parlours, on the invitation of the spinsters of the congregation. The parlours were dressed for the occasion en fete—with easels, pictures, plaques, decorated dust-shovels, lace, curtains and other spinsterial bric-a-brac, while little tables scattered throughout the room formed conversational centres in conformity with the true social spirit, and if personal contiguity produces to sociability, that element must have prevailed in the crowded room last night.

The sweet spinsters themselves were arrayed, so to speak, in their best bib and tucker, each wearing a white kerchief, folded in Quakerish mode over the bosom, and white aprons. The Amazonian auspices under which the entertainment originated, were consistently maintained throughout. Miss Josie Elsworth was chairwoman, and very efficiently she performed its duties, while the excellent programme was entirely contributed by female talent. The programme opened with the suggestively, hopeful hymn, "Blest be the Tie that Binds," followed by a brief address by the chairwoman. A solo and chorus, the solo well taken by Miss Owens was entitled "Have Courage, my girl, to say No." Miss Ford, of Milwaukee, recited in excellent manner, "The Execution of Montrose." Miss Clarke contributed a pleasing pianoforte solo. Four young ladies, Misses Ella Owens, Theresa Frise, Dollie Kernaghan and Edith Shortly gave a dialogue. Miss Batcher was much applauded in her singing of an humorous medley song. A prettily played violin solo, by Miss Jennie Moles brought the first part of the programme to a close. The interval, was, as well as the audience, delightfully filled in with excellent refreshments, dainty and toothsome viands, the culinary counterparts of their fair concoctors. The programme was resumed by Miss Gorman reciting "The Liars," a selection depicting the perfidy of married lords of creation. Five girls and a hidden chorus exemplified in song the parable of the "Wise Virgins." Miss Flossie Hall played an instrumental solo very brightly and Miss Pearson gave a selection from the "Mikado." Miss Hill gave a pianoforte solo with great verve and brilliancy. An animated debate on the subject "Is it allowable for a lady to make matrimonial proposals," was conducted by Misses Pearson and Ellsworth for the affirmative and Misses Gorman and Wrighton for the negative. The speeches were well prepared, but as might be expected, more sentimental than argumentative, and the speakers showed that they were capable of being depraved as the men in the case of puns. Fancy one speaker saying "there is more in the subject than a pearson the surface," and another apologizing on the score of "reducing her ideas to wrighton." The decision was in favor of the negative. The Misses Wrighton contributed a capital pianoforte duet and Miss L. Maguire a florid vocal solo, which brought the programme to a close. Rev. Mr. Pearson moved, Dr. Goldsmith seconded, and Mr. Maxwell Hall, of Orillia, supported a resolution of thanks to the young ladies which was very heartily carried. Rev. Mr. Pearson announced that the married men of the congregation would give a social at an early date, but it is hardly probable they will have the courage to carry out this intention in the face of the magnificent success scored by the spinsters last night—the best the besoochin could do would be a flat failure in comparison.

TURNBULL'S

The Flood of the Season's French and English Printed Calicoes is rolling in—white capped and aglow phosphorescent, color play. How the Priscellas of the past would joy to see them? Pretty as you have seen them, they were never so handsome before. Persian designs, leaves, buds, flowers, polka, dots, plain stripes, scrabbles and scrawls, angles and tangles. More than 300 different styles, small figures, large figures, and mourning designs, better printing was never done 'exquisite.' If you don't want to buy, don't pass the window or come in. Prices range from 6 to 15 cents.

The trouble with low grade Marseilles Bed Spreads has been loose threads at the back—lace, all right, but you didn't like the fiddle-string arrangement at the back, needn't. Here are $2.50 Marseilles Bed Spreads, full size and handsome patterns, with backs firm and well finished. Look at this honey-comb quilt for $1, which needs no apology for either size or weight.

Flannelettes—what are they? Are they all-wool? No they are mostly cotton, finished to imitate a Flannel, and especially adapted for childrens' dresses and ladies' wrappers. They consist of Cream Grounds, with pink, blue and cardinal Stripes, blue and white, pink and cream, pink and blue, and pink, cream and grey, some 18 patterns in all—the best quality being only 12½ cents a yard.

Opened out this week, a line of Linen Tablings, the maker of which is noted the world over. They are specially suited for every day wear—the warp is well twisted and they wash and iron well.

Before you hear from us again, I will have visited the wholesale markets where I will be on the look-out for Bargains for my Customers.

THE WORLD OF LONDON.

PIGOTT'S PAST EXPOSED BY SIR CHARLES RUSSELL.

The Public Said to be Convinced That Pigott Himself Forged the Parnell-Egan Letters.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—If anybody were doubted that Sir Charles Russell is a great artist let him consider the effect of his six hours' cross-examination of Pigott. Sir Charles has as yet hardly approached the vital point, which I take to be, legally speaking, Pigott's account of his alleged purchase of the Parnell-Egan letters in Paris. He has touched upon the question of forgery, but only touched. All the long story of the witness' dealings with Mr. Houston has been left unmentioned. Nearly all the most essential parts are to come. Yet has Sir Charles so handled this witness upon side issues, upon incidental matters, upon historical and biographical matters, that I apprehend no human being who has sat through it in court retains one shred of belief in the genuineness of the letters. Possibly an exception may be made in favor of Mr. Macdonald. I should be sorry to attempt to gauge the depths of Mr. Macdonald's credulity. Convict on that the letters are forgeries has spread everywhere. Belief that Pigott is the forger is not less universal. It is simply the genius of Sir Charles Russell which has wrought this conversion. When Pigott's direct examination had ended there were not a few in court who still maintained his story credible. Outside the court there were many, perhaps almost as many as ever. To-day not one is to be met. So far as the letters are concerned, and so far as public opinion about the letters is decisive, the case is over.

The cross-examination of Pigott, however, is very far from being over. What Sir Charles Russell has done thus far is to exhibit Pigott as a witness whom no man can believe, as a creature entitled to nothing but contempt. Sir Charles has forced him to own that he lied to Archbishop Walsh, lied to Mr. Forster, lied to Mr. Egan, lied to Mr. Parnell, lied to the court, lied to everybody with whom he came in contact. He has forced him to own that both toward Mr. Egan and Mr. Forster he stood first in the relation of a beggar, then of a blackmailer. Mr. Forster's long-suffering kindness to this impudent impostor might touch even Mr. Forster's would-be assassins.

The exposure of Pigott's affairs, had it been wanton, would have seemed cruel, so pitilessly was it pursued. But it bore strictly on the case. Its aim was to present Pigott, by the time he entered upon the Parnell letter business, as prepared by distress and by long practice in disgraceful arts for any safe crime. The suggestion that he forged the letters rests, so far, upon resemblances between Pigott's handwriting and the body of the forged letters, upon identical misspellings in Pigott's letters and in the forged letters, upon the recurrence in the forged letters of phrases, dates and sentences closely corresponding with phrases, dates and sentences in genuine letters from Messrs. Parnell and Egan to Pigott. All this, and much else, has been brought out with ingenuity, with dramatic effect, often with startling suddenness, sometimes sternly, sometimes with derision. There have been moments when the court was solemn as death, and moments when the judges themselves were convulsed with laughter.

Pigott announced himself as 54 years old when he entered the witness-box. By the time he left it on Friday he was certainly 64. He has two days more of this torture before him. It is an open question whether Sir Charles Russell will not in the end extract from him a public confession that he forged the letters. Confession is indeed Pigott's only visible chance of escape from prosecution. If he confesses he may get a certificate of indemnity from the court. Escape he cannot. His every step is watched by detectives. Confession or suicide is the alternative that awaits him; and, as Webster said, suicide is confession.

Far more important is the question what course The Times will now take. As yet that paper is not called on to move. Proofs are still wanting; the case is incomplete. What is clear on present evidence is that the case of The Times against Mr. Parnell, so far as supported by the letters, rests upon Pigott and Pigott only. The conductors of that journal either share the general conviction that Pigott is the forger, or do not. If they do not, their incredulity is as remarkable as their credulity. If they do, or when they do, immediate acknowledgement is the first though least act of expiation due from them to Mr. Parnell and to the public. G. W. S.

Pigott Not an Apostle Paul.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Pigott has not proved to be an Apostle Paul. The dismay in Downing-street must be only a degree less than that which prevails in The Times office. There is not a Tory to-day who is not feeling heartsick at the evidence of the witness on whose veracity and unimpeachable reputation The Times' case absolutely depends." The Gazette points out that even the Unionist papers, The Telegraph and The Chronicle, admit that The Times' case has collapsed, The Chronicle even stating that everyone expected that Sir Charles Russell would apply to the court for Pigott's committal or detention. Continuing The Gazette says:

"If the conviction has now slowly filtered into the minds of Mr. Webster and his staff that they have been cruelly hoaxed by an ingenious and resourceful blackmailer, the only course open to them is to publicly own that they have been deceived and withdraw their allegations, offer the handsomest apology and pay the costs they have forced upon those whom they traduced on Pigott's authority."

The Star (Mr. T. P. O'Connor's paper), commenting on Pigott's evidence before the Parnell Commission, says: "The connection between The Times and the Government is two-fold. The Government created first the commission and second The Times' case. If Attorney-General Webster had not been enabled to play the parts of prosecutor judge and framer of the indictment, there could have been no tribunal at all. If he had not assured Lord Salisbury that the letters would be proved to be genuine, the commission would not have been created and the Unionists would never have suffered such a blow as by their own pitiscus admissions awaits them. The Government chose the game, loaded the dice, selected its partners and arranged the rules of the game, and it must pay up now. The price is the dissolution of Parliament. We want to know what the country think of Pigott's."

The Globe and The St. James Gazette make no allusions to the subject.

A Priest Arrested After Mass.

MURDER AT OTTAWA.

AN OLD WOMAN HACKED TO DEATH WITH A HATCHET.

The Deadly Weapon Found Stained with Blood—A House of Bad Reputation the Scene of the Crime.

An Old Woman Hacked to Death With a Hatchet—A Number of Arrests.

OTTAWA, Feb. 23.—A horrible murder was committed, it is supposed early this morning. At 10.15 a.m. the police were notified that the body of Mrs. Kelly, a charwoman, aged 65, had been discovered on the floor in the front room of Mrs. Cooper's at 208 Clarence-street, Lower Town. The police hastened to the scene. Life had evidently been extinct for many hours. A deep wound was discovered in the back of her head, and was evidently inflicted with a dull instrument. The wound is about four inches long and presents a very jagged appearance.

Then the detectives made a further examination and in the next room found some stove wood covered with blood. In the kitchen was found a tomahawk, which, although washed, bore traces of blood. Red stains were also found on the stairway, but they had been partially scraped off. The house had a bad reputation.

Mrs. Cooper, the keeper, and Mr. Rothwell, an old man employed in the patent office, and also a man named Hendricks and his wife, who live opposite Cooper's, were taken into custody. All the prisoners deny any knowledge of the affair, but they are believed to have been carousing with the deceased all night.

Rothwell says he is innocent, and that he left the house at 1 a.m., when Mrs. Kelly was alive.

A CANADIAN BANK WRECKED.

The Jessie Troop Goes Ashore on Chicamicomico—Eleven Lives Lost.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 24.—The British bark Jessie Troop, which was wrecked at Chicamicomico, sailed from London on Jan. 2 for Philadelphia. The bark was caught in the fierce northeasterly gale which prevailed Friday afternoon and night off the Atlantic coast. She soon lost her headway and became unmanageable. After drifting about for some time she was pushed on the rocks on the coast of Chicamicomico. The vessel was so badly damaged that she went to pieces in a short time. She was loaded with chalk for Philadelphia where she intended to load for Japan.

The Quick and the Dead.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 24.—The wreck of the bark Josie Troop was caused by miscalculations owing to thick weather which made it impossible to get accurate lights and bearings. The crew of Life Saving Station No. 19 could see no signs of the vessel until the eleven men had been lost and were just in time to save the six survivors. Thus far only one body has come ashore, that of Charles Medeac. Following is a list of the saved and lost:

Saved—Robert Hunter, chief mate; Edward Harris, steward; Albert Williams, A. Brown, Walter Cauley, C. Anderson, seamen.

Lost—Captain W. G. Cook, master; C. S. Scindbald, carpenter; H. R. Christiseon, J. B. Ruthderson, Thomas McCoy, George Williams, Harmond Anderson, John Coffe, Charles Medeac, John Rogers, J. Johanasen, seamen.

Albert Williams was badly injured about the neck and is being attended by the physician at the station.

Smallpox at Fingal, Ont.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 23.—There now seems no reason to doubt that the epidemic which has been prevalent in the vicinity of Fingal for some time past is the smallpox. The Fingal board of health has ordered the schools, churches and all places of entertainment closed. A compulsory vaccination has been decided upon. The city board of health met this evening to take measures to prevent the spread of the disease to this city.

The Glassblowers' War Ended.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—The long continued and bitterly waged warfare in the ranks of the green glass blowers of the section of the country east of the Alleghenies, including all of Canada and some of the Southern States, was ended to-day. The league transfers all of its effects to the district assembly, included in which there are some $3000 in cash, and gives the district a membership of about 1600, divided among twenty-eight local assemblies.

A Dishonest Clerk.

HAMILTON, Feb. 23.—Herbert Ward, a lad of 20 years, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of having stolen money from his employer, Mr. Mark Munday, druggist, was arraigned at the Police Court this morning on a charge of having stolen $1.35 on Feb. 15. He was found guilty. On a second charge, of having stolen 85 cents on Feb. 22, he pleaded guilty. The Magistrate sent him to jail for 40 days.

Whitby Central Fair Officers.

WHITBY, Feb. 24.—The Whitby Central Fair officers elected yesterday afternoon are: Hon. president, John Miller; president, J. D. Howden; first vice-president, Jas. R. Matthewson; second vice-president, R. R. Mowbray; third vice-president, R. J. Mackie; treasurer, J. H. Long; secretary, W. R. Howse. Auditors, D. Ormiston, Lyman T. Barclay.

Secretary Hannan is in Toronto.

BUFFALO, Feb. 24.—Hugh J. Hannan, secretary of Buffalo Lodge No. 7, Empire Order of Mutual Aid, is in Toronto. President Miller of the lodge has over-hauled the books of the secretary and he says they show a shortage of $325, most of which was due the Grand Lodge. Hannan left without any explanation.

Was He Killed by a Woman?

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—The police are now working on the theory that Mr. Clarke, the druggist, formerly of Sarnia, who was murdered Thursday night, was shot by a woman. It was said that letters were found in Clarke's possession from a woman who claimed to have been wronged by him. The police are seeking the writer.

Wilson's Boom.

BUFFALO, Feb. 24.—The proposed railroad between Lockport and Olcott or Wilson, on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad, will undoubtedly be built to the latter place, inasmuch as the Wilson boom has the more healthy appearance, and the work of the members of the Toronto syndicate has been to this end.

The Judge Absorbs the Leslie Weeklies.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Frank Leslie has sold to W. J. Arkell her proprietary interest in her weekly illustrated papers, English and German. The transfers will be made May 1. Mrs. Leslie will retain and personally direct her other publications.

Funeral of Lyman English.

OSHAWA, Feb. 24.—The funeral of the late Lyman English took place yesterday and was largely attended.

Michael Davitt to Patrick Egan.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 23.—As showing the feeling among Irish Nationalists in Ireland the following cablegram from Michael Davitt to Hon. Patrick Egan, of this city, received to-day, is given:

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.

To Hon. Pat Egan, Lincoln:

Victory now near at hand. Pigott too clever by half.

THEIR WORK IS CUT OUT

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTERS ISSUE THEIR MANIFESTO.

Adoption of the Budget and the Success of the Exhibition Their Great Tasks—General Cable News.

PARIS, Feb. 23.—The ministerial declaration was read in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies to-day. It says: In responding to the President's appeal we have not hid from ourselves the difficulties of the hour and we are sustained by the thought that you will not refuse to co-operate with men presenting themselves to you determined to accomplish the duty required by the situation. Our great tasks will be to secure the adoption of the Budget of 1890 and to assume by a broad, tolerant and wise policy the success of the exhibition which will show industrious and pacific France all people's industry and work.

We hope you will satisfactorily conclude important measures such as the military laws, the discussion of which has commenced. We consider that the Government's principal duty is to prepare for all Republicans and all Frenchmen loving order and liberty a ground for common, energetic and decisive action with the view to defend and strengthen the rule of peace, justice and progress which France in founding the republic desired to give itself.

The success of our policy depends upon our firmness and vigilance, on which you may rely. While deciding to cover with our responsibility officials devoted to their duties we shall severely judge faults and shortcomings. We consider it our imperative duty to resolutely take all the means necessary to maintain order and respect for the Republic by counteracting, or if necessary repressing, factious enterprises.

The declaration was received with cheers by the Centre.

M. Rouvier announced in the Chamber of Deputies to-day that the ministry accepted its predecessor's budget. The ministerial statement was more warmly greeted in the Senate than in the Chamber of Deputies.

The Workmen Denied Audience.

PARIS, Feb. 23.—M. Constans, Minister of the Interior, has informed the Prefect of Police that he will not be able to receive the deputation of workmen to-morrow, requesting the prefect to inform the workmen that public assemblies are forbidden and that the police will not tolerate any manifestations by them.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

Great Britain to be "Assimilably Eradicated" From Her Canadian Possessions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Representative McCreary of Kentucky, in behalf of the majority of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, has prepared a report recommending the adoption of the Edmunds Panama Canal resolution. The report says:

The resolution reaffirms a public policy that is of both national and international importance, that has been so intimately interwoven with the treaties and teachings, doctrines and necessities of the American people that it seems to have originated in the very earliest days of our republic.

Its first official expression was made by President Monroe in the message sent to Congress in 1823 embodying the Monroe doctrine. The resolution, the report says, "is in accordance with the declarations made by Mr. Monroe applied to existing conditions and the development of events."

The announcement of the Monroe doctrine has enshrined President Monroe's memory in the hearts of liberty-loving people everywhere. Its results have been grand and far reaching. It secured and has preserved the independence of the Central and South American republics. It was successfully evoked when Cuba was in peril. It enabled the United States to thwart the attempt of Great Britain to exercise dominion in Nicaragua under pretence of benefiting the Mosquito Indians, it prevented the establishment of a European dynasty in America with Maximilian as Emperor, and it has enabled our Government to gradually eliminate from the western hemisphere the "dominion of France and Spain and Russia, whose possessions at the time almost surrounded our republic; and with the power of destiny and the genius and energy and pluck of the American people Great Britain may soon be amicably eradicated from her Canadian possessions and the three American become a constellation of republics filled with happy, prosperous, free and independent people.

The report says that the Monroe doctrine contains no limitations and was not confined to conditions existing at the time it was announced.

SUICIDE AT BRANTFORD.

J. R. Russell Spends a Bullet Through His Brain—His Farewell Letter.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 23.—J. R. Russell committed suicide at an early hour this morning by shooting himself in the right temple. A doctor was immediately summoned but nothing could be done to save him and he passed away about noon.

Deceased was a teacher by profession and in comfortable circumstances. His mother died a year ago, leaving him about $25,000. A short time ago he purchased A. Fair & Co.'s bankrupt stock of groceries and started in business. No cause can be assigned for the rash act unless that the business was not meeting his expectations. After breakfast he entered his bedroom and wrote this note on a piece of tea paper:

"DEAR WIFE AND CHILDREN: Good-bye, meet me in the world where trouble is never known and where Jesus Christ our Saviour, God our Father, and the Holy Spirit our Comforter, together with the pure through the blood of Christ will be our companions. Good-bye again, dear Annie. You have been a good, noble wife and it is better that I should be a burden no longer."

J. R. RUSSELL."

He leaves a wife and three children.

FIRES OF ASDAY.

A Durham Postoffice Burnt—Big Blazes in the States.

PORT HOPE, Feb. 24.—The postoffice at Dale was totally destroyed by fire at noon yesterday. The Postmaster, Thomas Hessman, the owner of the house, with his family, was seated in the kitchen about to partake of dinner. The day being cold an unusually large fire had been made in the cooking stove, from the chimney of which the fire originated. The contents of the office were consumed; insurances, if any, not known.

Sermon to Foresters.

Delivered in Charlotte Street Methodist Church by Rev. S. J. Shorey.

On Sunday morning the members of Court Peterborough Canadian Order of Foresters No. 127, and several members of Court Little John, who on invitation joined the former, signalized their 10th Anniversary by assembling in their court room and marching in procession to the Charlotte street Methodist church, where Rev. S. J. Shorey preached the annual sermon. In the church some dozen seats in the middle of were reserved for the brethren, who, to the number of about one hundred, occupied them.

After the usual devotional exercises, consisting of singing the 773rd hymn—"Blest be the Tie that Binds,"—prayer by the pastor and the reading of the Scripture lessons, Psalm 27th and the 12th chapter of St. Paul to the Romans, the preacher selected for his text the 4th and 5th verses of the second lesson, especially the last clause of the 5th verse—"and everyone members one of another." It was an obvious fact that the highest good to the individual led, the speaker pointed out, to the general welfare. It was a great triumph of the principle of reciprocal assistance when men could be brought to recognize the fact that they were members one of another. St. Paul sought to impress the lesson, that in spite of diversities, in thought, aim, impulse and intention which might however be nevertheless complementary, the welfare of the community involved the co-operation of the individual constituents thereof. The nations of the earth in their present attitude, — their immense armaments and hostile jealousy of each other, showed a practical disregard of the fact that the conditions which tended to promote the welfare of one nation, affected that of another.

THE SELFISHNESS OF MAN

was shown in economical matters—deputations and individuals were continually seeking our rulers to have restrictive legislation in their favor that would tend to promote their commercial prosperity without regard to the effect their selfish success would have upon others, and governments were hampered by the clamour of these claimants. The speaker disclaimed any intention to advocate free trade, but the fact could not be disregarded that what advanced the welfare of the individual citizen as a part of the whole community, was what should be sought after. Any organization, which brought men in closer relationship and sympathy, which tended to develop their mutual helpfulness, was worthy of encouragement. The foundation stone of the principle of Forestry was that the strong and helpful should succour and aid the weak and struggling, including not only brethren but widows and orphans. It broadened man's charity and help them to rejoice with those that rejoiced and weep with those that wept.

The principle of interdependence pervaded every avenue and department of human condition. The teaching of universal experience was that from the highest to the lowest sphere this principle obtained—in the domain of art—science and education. Referring to the last it was pointed out that no education was gained except by the vicarious toil of parents or friends. All scholarship was purchased through some other one's toil. He who injured any individual, did a wrong to the whole, and he who aided or relieved any single person added to the aggregate of human good. No man could do all that he needed for himself. Hence a division of labor was necessary to the completion of the best human conditions.

THE WELFARE OF SOCIETY

demanded that each individual member should do his part.

The speaker referred to the pleasure it gave him to address the Foresters on that occasion, yet, after eulogizing its aims and work, he felt it his duty to state that, as good as the Society was, it was only an agency in God's hands for elevating the human race generally. He did not sympathise with the position assumed by Christian society towards the criminal classes. The Bible enjoined especially that the sympathy of men should extend especially to their enemies. The danger of organization was the tendency of those composing it to confine their sympathy and help to those connected with that particular organization, while God's aim was that our sympathy should extend to the whole human race. The speaker warmly deprecated the idea that because a man was base or wicked he was unworthy of sympathy—that was not Christ's way, for he associated with "publicans and sinners." It would be a dangerous and unpleasant theory to a man rightly constituted to in a line condition of society in which there were no human object to appeal to his sympathy. Our sympathy never came up to the divine standard till it could embrace in its circle the basest and most degraded. That we were many members in one body, applied particularly to the constitution of the great church. That there was great diversity of religious opinion was so of necessity for, as the speaker asserted, there was no man living who could contain the whole truth. One man or set of men according to their temperament, gave prominence to one truth, and another to another truth, both equally sincere and important. Thus in the diversity of church organizations, beliefs and practices,

THE CYCLE OF TRUTH WAS COMPLETED.

There was only one church in which there was unity of belief and opinion, and the speaker held that there could be no live church without diversity of opinion. Few men would be willing to subscribe implicitly to the entire views of any one church. If there were to be life in a church there must be individuality and independence — "Many members in one body." One man saw nothing in the Bible but the rigid letter of the law and its penalties: another saw nothing but the love of God.

The law of association was natural and beneficial, yet man could not afford to have his energies and sympathies confined to his own interests or calling. No man, who wished to be a broad, comprehensive man, could afford to confine his energies and sympathies to one particular order. He that gained by selfishness at the expense of the good will of his fellow men, gained at the cost of ultimate loss. All beneficiary organizations depended for their efficiency upon the individual exertions of their members, in respect to their brethren. But sympathy should not be thus restricted. The Good Samaritan was influenced in his action by the fact of a fellow being being in distress. The Foresters were enjoined not to confine their benevolence to their brethren only; they should let it begin there but should not allow it by any means to end there. Membership of the Order should not be regarded as an end. God was, by his mercy, seeking to draw them into the more comprehensive circle of his own people, and to prepare them for a glorious future in the life to come.

Mount Pleasant.

(From a Correspondent.)

We have had three deaths in our little village within the past three weeks, and on the morning of the 20th inst. Mr. Robert Thexton died, after an illness of about a week. Mr. Thexton was one of the oldest settlers in this vicinity and for a number of years has been living retired in the village. And on the evening of the 21st, Mr. George Jamison died, after an illness of about three weeks. Both deceased gentlemen were widely known and highly respected in this neighborhood.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Judgment in the Cardwell Election Case Postponed for Two Weeks.

Toronto, Feb. 23.—At a meeting of the County Orange Lodge on Saturday night it was decided to call a public meeting for March 5 to discuss the grant to the Jesuits in Quebec, the grants to Catholic schools in this province, the teaching of French in such schools, etc.

Judgment in the Cardwell election case, which was to have been delivered by Mr. Justice Street at Osgoode Hall on Saturday, was again postponed for two weeks in order to give petitioner Stubbs an opportunity to make a formal application for the withdrawal of the petition.

The Imperial Federation League held a meeting in Association Hall on Saturday night, at which addresses were delivered by Mayor Clarke, J. H. Long, M.A., president of the Peterboro branch; George R. Parkin, M.A., of New Brunswick, and Gen. J. W. Laurie, M.P. for Shelburne.

Mr. E. W. Johnston, the athlete, has been released from custody, having paid the claims on which he was held. Mr. Johnston says that he sold his place of business in Lindsay two weeks ago and wrote to his Toronto creditors stating that he was going to settle with them. He came the day as promised and was, as he alleges, wrongfully arrested. He considers he has been harshly treated and will see if he cannot get legal redress.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has made these appointments.

John R. McColl of Cobourg, to be a Notary Public; George Washington Greene of Ateens, to be a Notary Public; Edmond Byron LeRoy of Cobocook, to be a Notary Public; Lewis Ransom Adams of Marlborough, to be Clerk of the Seventh and Twelfth Division Court of the County of Wellington, in the room and stead of Lucius Rufus Adams, resigned; Archibald MacDonald of Strong, to be Bailiff of the Seventh Division Court of the District of Parry Sound, in the room and stead of Daniel Grummet, resigned.

The Jeffery trial concluded on Saturday. The Investigators will report to the President the result. This will probably be done in a day or two. Meanwhile it is an open secret that Mr. Jeffery has come off with flying colors so far as the main charges are concerned.

While walking along Linden-street, Mrs. O'Brien, 88 Huntley-street, was robbed of a satchel containing $4 and some stamps on Saturday night.

William Austin, Brampton, is a prisoner at Headquarters, charged with obtaining two horses from William Morteon and W. H. Turner by fraud.

Robert Rankin is a man of about 40 years of age who boards at 8 Queen-street east and is deeply attached to a young lady of the Model Lodging House. Yesterday he had a roll of bills, about $365, and made a bold display of it. He was found at the corner of Windsor and Front-streets with his cranium badly damaged and his $365 gone. His story is that he was attacked by two footpads who knocked him down and robbed him. An oak cudgel was left behind by the pads and Detective Caddy is working up the case.

Immigration From Quebec Expected in the Spring—A Mordan Elopement.

Winnipeg, Feb. 24.—Mr. Chambers of Argenteuil, who was sent out prospecting by his neighbors, returned east to-night and is delighted with the country, so much so that about sixty families will come out in the spring from Quebec on his report.

The case against Col. Hershmer regarding beer taken into the Territories without permit has fallen through.

Radical changes will probably be made in the Real Property Act by which that measure will not be so sweeping. Only three registration divisions will be organized at first and the old system of registration will be temporarily continued.

WINTER

is the season of the year when colder weather sharpens the appetite, and heartier and more invigorating food is necessary to maintain the heat of the body and to repair the waste of the tissues, which goes on more rapidly during the cold weather and under increased activity. We leave the cooler salads and fruits that refreshed us during the summer months and take in their place steaks and chops, smoking hot, and the steaming oatmeal and graham cakes and coffee.

At this time of the year sausages, pork, ham, mackerel and other salt fish, form desirable breakfast dishes; and porridge, omelettes, oatmeal, wheaten cakes and a variety of cereals help make the repast a most delicious one.

Four whitewashed walls, and a clank of chains, and a fair devil going and coming about me, and night and day and night speeding by in whirling flame.

And still the phantom face, fixed on the wall, on the trencher, on the floor; it climb to my grated window a seal and blotch on all the wide bine heaven! And when it grows into reality, and hides itself in flesh; it lays a cool hand on my burning brow; it puts water to my parched lips; it sings me songs which, somewhere, I fancy, that once long ago I have heard; and it smiles till it almost seems that I have seen and felt the same smile with thrills of deep, delightful joy in a life ere this. And then it sighs, a fear gathers; I grow enraged at all the lovely counterfeit; I spring upon it, and would beat it down bodily, when the dead gray eyes arrest my arm—eyes like two tears—and after that I hear whenever I move the clanking of the chain.

One day a thundergust has swept across the sky. I have watched its purple masses fold and lap and let their fire down to earth, and, as if I were myself metallic, have felt the electric current coursing down the countless rods that protect my prisonhouse. A curious sensation has come over me, as if the blood had turned about and were running the right way in my veins, I am conscious of its fresh free tingling, as if I were just made.

I look at the lovely fiend sitting there beside me, so unmoved by the wild commotion of the elements; I mind the spray of tea roses in her hair, falling over one ear, and lending their tint to all the delicate skin below. "Let me see you, fair devil, if you are shadow or substance!" I exclaim. "You pursuing phantom, if you are not all an evil spirit, let me see if there is any blood in your veins!"

The tint upon her skin grows paler, but she smiles on me, and lifts the sleeve from the bare ivory of her rounded arm. She takes from some hidden place a tiny ivory knife, and gives it to me.

Then she looks at me again with her beautiful, fearless eyes. I do not hesitate for all they say. I scan the fair faint velnery—I choose—and the red, red blood is trickling down, and all the tint upon her cheeks is gone, and she falls forward upon my breast. "Margaret!" I cry.

"He speaks my name," she murmurs, as one enters. "Oh! all is well!"

And all is well, indeed. From that hour I am myself. The old trouble arising from the concussion that I so long ago experienced is entirely done away with; the ghost that so long stalked through the chambers of my brain is laid to rest, and never have I seen a trace of it; but Margaret, long since recovered from her injury—Margaret herself, in the beautiful body of her flesh and blood—is seldom out of my sight.

When I came from my whitewashed prison room Dr. Blanchard himself took me in hand, had me at his own house till strong enough again to fight my way, and then established me in a different occupation from that in which he originally found me. I ventured out from that in time into deeper water. I have prospered, as you know—improved myself, as you may imagine; my house, my retinue, my equipage are worthy of my wife, for the mother of many children is more beautiful in her maturity than in her maidenhood, and if any material comfort, pride and pleasure can atone to her for all the trouble of her youth the earth shall be ransacked but it shall be hers!

ROGUES AT THE GALLERY.

SCENES IN THE POLICE PHOTOGRAPHER'S STUDIO.

Desperate Men Who Refuse to Give the Artist a Quiet Sitting—The Methods Adopted to Prevent a Good Likeness from Being Secured.

Next to being sent to prison, the professional criminal dreads being photographed for the rogues' gallery. He will resist sitting before the camera with every means in his power, and nothing short of a terrific beating will bring him to terms. Even this fails when the criminal has made up his mind not to be "mugged," as it is quaintly termed in the argot of this country.

Instances have been known where five, and even more, officers have endeavored to hold a refractory thief so that the photographer could secure a successful likeness, and their efforts have failed through the constant struggling of the determined criminal. To meet this difficulty and surmount it some departments have arranged concealed cameras, so that a photograph can be obtained of any one desired without the knowledge of the latter. In this city this development has not been attained, and the old process of taking the criminal through the streets to a public gallery and photographing him in the ordinary way is in every day use.

TWISTING HIS MUSTACHE.

Three clever thieves successfully resisted all attempts to secure photographs of themselves by distorting their features when placed in the posing chair at Krug's gallery.

The first was Norris, the jewelry and dry goods thief who was captured in Miller Bros', store in the act of stealing a number of silk mufflers. He wore a cunningly designed coat with huge pockets concealed in the skirts, in which he stored his plunder. After being arrested it was discovered that he was the same man who robbed Henry Teems, a Covington jeweler, of a lot of diamonds. During [illegible] was sent to the gallery [illegible] head. Seating himself [illegible] waited until the operator [illegible] the camera.

Then a sudden metamorphosis took place in his features. With a rapid motion he drew his mustache inside of his mouth, and, closing his eyes, screwed up his face.

The detectives tried every possible means to make him assume a natural expression, but he doggedly resisted all efforts in that direction. His mustache was forcibly pulled from between his lips, and a few vigorous slaps administered upon his cheeks. These had no [illegible]

Two days later the safe blowers, James Scribner and Frank Boyd, who were captured at Gerdes' hotel with a fine outfit of tools, were taken out of their cells at police headquarters, placed in a patrol wagon and driven to the gallery. They had no intimation of where they were being taken, nor did they ask. The private entrance to the operating room lies through a labyrinth of back yards and hallways known only to the police.

REMOVED BY FORCE.

This was traversed, and the two criminals were suddenly ushered into the glass roofed room. Like lightning a look of disgust crept over their faces, and the tallest, Boyd, broke out profanely: "What in h—l does this mean?" "Can't you see what it means?" answered the detective, as he pointed to the camera. Drawing himself up the safe worker rejoined: "Well, if you think you are going to get my face and send it all over the country you're d—d badly mistaken. I won't stand it."

"You sit down there," came the stern order as he was forced backward into the chair.

"I'll sit down, but you don't get my picture. I'll stand a beating and you can start when you please," he muttered between his teeth.

"You'll get it if you don't sit still," replied the detective.

"Blaze away!" was the response, as the subject closed his eyes and steadily refused to open them.

During this episode the other subject sat in a corner of the room under guard of a policeman, quitly smiling at the efforts of the officers to make his partner tractable. Once in a while a low chuckle indicated that he rather enjoyed the scene. After Scribner was done with he was marched away and Boyd placed in his recently vacated seat. He made no remarks, but quietly awaited the preparing of the camera, even submitting to the fixing of the focus upon his face. But at the moment that the plate holder clicked into his place his wrinkled, yellow face changed like magic.

"Smack!" came the detective's hand on his cheek, with the order, "Open your eyes!"

Without a moving of a muscle the fellow hissed back a request to go to eternal perdition. The photographer waited silently with his finger on the camera cap, expecting the thief to become tired and then to catch him off his guard. But it was of no use, and the developed plate showed a hideous picture.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Make a Note of This.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nerviline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nerviline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent sample bottle. Large bottles 25 cents, at all druggists 6w8d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Portable Fact.

Constipation is the most frequent cause of headaches, bad blood, humors, dizziness, vertigo, etc., and because of this should never be allowed to exist. It may be readily cured by using Burdock Blood Bitters, which never fails to cure even the most obstinate and chronic cases. 2w8d

A Useful Article.

"I can certify to the great usefulness of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. We use it for burns, bruises, cuts, sores, rheumatism, sore throat, croup, etc., and recommend it to all as an excellent remedy." T. W. Appleby, Wingham, Ont. All medicine dealers sell Yellow Oil. 2w8d

Tickling Torture.

Mrs. Henry M. Kitchen, St. George, Ont., says: "I had a bad cold which settled in my throat, causing a continual tickling, and I just coughed all the time. I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and in 3 days was getting better and in ten days I went to church. Our neighbors know this to be true." 2w8d

An Apt Quotation

From a letter by Mrs. Sullivan, 124 West Ave., Hamilton, Ont.:—"After trying a number of medicines for liver complaint, from which I suffered for years, I bought two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitter and found it a complete cure My house is never without it." 2w8d

Poison Ivy Eruption.

For poison ivy eruption and for all burns, sore throats, rheumatism, etc., Mr. C. W. Wood, of Hall's Bridge, Ont., advises the use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which has been in use in his family for years. He regards it as a perfect cure. 2w8d
